Concerns.-The frog family are now entertaining residents of the suburban districts with nightly concerts in Nature's large opera house.

DELEGATE APPOINTED .- The Presbytery of Carlisle, in session at Middletown last week, appointed Rev. Mr. Cattell, of the Third street Presbyterian church of this city, a delegate to the General Assembly which is to convene at Peoria, Illinois, next month.

MEETING OF THE CITY EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE .-In compliance with a motion passed at their last meeting, the City Democratic Executive Committee will meet at the public house of L. Bernhard, corner of Walnut and Fourth streets, this evening, at 7½ o'clock. By order of the Committee. George F. Weaver, Sec'y.

GERMAN DEMOCRATIC CLUB .- A meeting of the German Democratic club will be held at the house of George Beister, in Walnut street, this evening at the usual hour. Addresses will be delivered by several able and eloquent speakers. Our German friends generally throughout the city are invited to attend the meeting.

FEMALE BUMMER .-- A degraded specimen of female humanity, named Emma Utz, was found "bumming" around the depot at a late hour of the night, in company with two white men and a "buck nigger." The men escaped, but officer Decters captured Emma, who was partially intoxicated. Alderman Kline sent her to the Walnut street reformatory institution.

STOLEN PROPERTY RESTORED .- A warrant was recently issued by Alderman Kline for the arrest of a young woman named Elizabeth Miller, charged with stealing a cloth coat from Miss Annie E. Hughes. Before officer Campbell had an opportunity of serving the warrant, the stolen property was restored, the thief baving deposited it in the yard attached to the residence of Miss Hughes' mother some time during Saturday night.

DRUKKS AND VAGS .- Several drunks and vags, most of them negroes, were arraigned befor Alderman Kline on Saturday and sent to prison. Among the party were two old offenders, Susan Demus and Mary Johnson, one copper-colored and the other black as tar, who spent the greater portion of the past year in the lock-up. They were picked up while perambulating the streets at a late hour of the night "on the lay" for victims. -

THE ALLEGED MURDERER.—The name of the alleged murderer of Mr. German's daughter is John W. Dobbins, and he is represented as quite a young man, not exceeding twenty-one years. The requisition upon the Ohio authorities for his body, in case of his acquittal there, was issued by Gov. Curtin upon complaint of Mrs. Susan Weitzel. of this city, made on oath before Alderman Kline, to the effect that, to the best of her knowledge and belief, Dobbins is the man who abducted and murdered Mary Elizabeth German. The district attorney promptly forwarded the requisition.

SANITARY.—Warm weather is now about to set in, and it behooves those having foul or dirty cellars to clean them at once. Whole families are sometimes made sick by the (ffluvia from a foul cellar. Every spring and summer more or less suffer from this cause. If there is no outside door to the cellar, decaying matter is almost sure to generate disease in the house. Early in the Spring you should sort out your potatoes, cabbage, turnips, and whatever you keep for a time, and carefully clean up and carry away all animal and vegetable matters that are likely to decay. After this is done it would be well to sprinkle over the cellar quick lime. If families would take pains to remove all such causes of disease from their premses, and obey all the laws of health, there would be but little sickness in our city compared with what there is now.

INFAMOUS OUTRAGE.-A most infamous outrage was committed upon a little white girl named Margaret Lyons, on Saturday night at the corner of Fourth and Walnut streets, by three juvenile negro rowdies answering to the names of Frank Bennet. Alfred Davis and David Maglauchlin. On her way home from a store she was stopped by these dusky young scoundre's, and most grossly insulted and maltreated. The screams of the terrified little girl brought several persons to the scene of cutrage, when the black villains, foiled in their design, beat a hasty retreat. At a late hour of the night chief of police Campbell proceeded to the residences of the above named boys, took them from their beds, and marched them to the office of Alderman Kline who committed them to prison for trial. One of the party, Frank Bennet, was arrested only a few days previous for whipping a little white boy. All of them are young in years tat old in sin and iniquity.

More Deserved Pronotions -In our last issue we announced the premotion of Capt. Charles C. Davis, of the Seventh cavalry, to the position of Major of the First Battalion of the regiment, in place of Major James Given resigned. We have since learned that Second Lieutenant Frederick H. Geety is about to be commissioned as Captain of company I, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the Promotion of Captain Davis. This is a well-merited compliment to as gallant and brave a young facer as ever drow a sword in his country's cause. Sergeant George W. Starry, who distinguished himself at Murfreesboro', and in several subsequent encounters with the rebels, fighting side by side with his gatlant Captain, is to be commissioned as Second Lieutenant of the company. Our Harristurg boys are making their mark in Tennessee, winning laurels for themselves and reflecting credit apon their native gity.

RIOT IN A BARBER SHOP .- Somebody Hurt .- A disgraceful row occurred in Saunders' barber shop under Herr's hotel, on Saturday morning, which resulted somewhat disastrously to one of the participants, and very nearly culminated in serious injury to innocent parties. Three strangers, H. W. Watson, G. C. Parmenter, and another whose name we did not learn, entered the shop in a very ungentlemanly and boisterous manner, indulged in profane and abusive language insulting to the proprietor and his customers, took possession of the house hose and flooded the shop with water, and were guilty of other disorderly and riotous acts which stamped them as rowdies and blackguards. They were repeatedly ordered to leave the shop, but refused to go, and finally the most boisterous of the party, Watson, who was excessively intoxicated, threw a glass bottle at Saunders, which passed close to his head, and striking the wall directly behind him was shattered into a thousand fragments. Alarmed by this hostile demonstration Saunders fied from the shop in search of a policeman, when a journeyman in his employ procured an iron hammer with which he struck Watson a forcible blow on the head, inflicting a severe wound and knocking him down. He continued to chastise the prostrate rioter until the latter begged for quarters. During the progress of the row a second bottle was thrown by some person, and a pistol discharged, but Watson was the only person injured, and he probably got no more than his conduct deserved. When Watson was knocked down, his equally guilty companions skedaddled, leaving him at the mercy of the justly indignant journeyman barber. He came out of the conflict with his head and face battered and his clothing saturated with blood. In the midst of the tumult a certain belligerent gentleman of this city who takes advantage of all such occasions to "splurge" and display his prowess, but seldom hurts anybody, drew a four-shooter which he flourished furiously for a few minutes, accompanied with grimances, more amusing than alarming, and then quietly returned the weapon to his pocket and subsided. A more high-handed and disgraceful outrage has seldom occurred in our city. The rioters having been driven from the field, Mr. Saunders went before Alderman Kiine and made complaint against Watson and Parmenter for drunkenness, riotous and disorderly conduct, damsging his property, threatening to take his life, kc. They were arrested by officer Campbell and entered bail (which they had considerable difficulty in procuring) for their appearance at the next court. The conduct and language of Watson in the Alderman's office was not such as a gentleman would indulge in, and the spectators present were of opinion that the severe chastisement he received was richly merited. He hails from Oswego, New York. What brought him and his companions here we did not learn, but it is not likely they will soon forget their "spree" in this city and its results. Whatever may be the custom in the Yankce village of Oswego, in this city men are not allowed to amuse themselves by committing outrages upon our citizens and violating the laws with impunity.

DELEGATE ELECTIONS .- The Democratic delegate elections took place in this city on Saturday evening. In the Third and Fourth wards there was a very large turn out and quite a spirited contest. The following gentlemen were elected to represent the various wards of the city in the county convention which assembles here to-morrow: First ward, Wm. Kleckner and Richard Hogeland; Second ward, Dr. C. Seiler and Daniel Wilt; Third ward, T. G. Pomeroy and James Fitzgerald; Fourth ward, John W. Hall and William M'Fadden; Fifth ward, Joseph Bowman and Chas. Moore; Sixth ward, Dr. William H. Egle and Wm. Morris. It is understood that all these gentlemen will favor the election of delegates to the State Convention who are known to be friends of Hon. Hiester Clymer as the Democratic candidate for Governor in the next campaign.

CHILD DROWNED .- On Saturday evening a little son of Mr. Thomas Record, watchman at the Cumberland Valley railroad bridge, while playing with some other boys on a raft below the bridge fell into the river and was drowned. Owing to the immense volume of water in the river and the rapidity of the current, all efforts to find the body of the unfortunate youth resulted unsuccessfully. He was about eight years of age. Every day we see rafts along the river shore covered with small boys, and the wonder is that so few cases of drowning occur. THE RAFTING BUSINESS .-- A gentleman direct from Lock Haven on Saturday informed us that the boom at that place was filled with logs, and the river literally covered with rafts waiting for the water to subside, which was then too high for rafting purposes. In the course of a few days we may look for the arrival of immense flotillas from both the Susquehanna branches. Fears were entertained for the safety of the booms on the West Branch, but thus far they have successfully withstood the immense pressure upon them.

DISORDERLY HOUSE .- On Saturday Michael Durkee, proprietor of a lager beer shop and dance house on Ridge avenue, was before Alderman Kline, charged by Melinda Hawk with keeping a disorderly institution. From statements made to the Alderman it appeared that the prosecution grew out of a disturbance that occurred at Durkee's on Friday night, during the progress of a dance, originated by a man named M'Cliester, who was intoxicated at the time. Durkee entered bail for his appearance at the next court.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY .- On Saturday a warrant was issued for James M'Cliester, charged with having committed an assault and battery upon Michael Durkee and his wife. The affair occurred at Durkee's lager beer shop where a dance was in progress, and led to a riotous demonstration which resulted in Durkec's arrest for keeping a disorderly house, as noticed elsewhere in our columns .-M'Cliester has not vet been arrested.

FEROCIOUS DOG .- A ferocious dog owned by Mr. John Tomlinson recently bit a lad named Ford, inflicting a severe and painful wound. The father of the injured lad prosecuted Mr. Tomlinson before Alderman Kline on Saturday, and a hearing of the case will take place this morning.

THE "COPPERHEAD."—An unknown friend sends us the following poetical effusion, clipped from a "down-east" newspaper, with a request to give it a place in our columns. We do not know who is the author, but it is the finest tribute to "copperheadism" we have yet seen :

And think—as Daniel Webster thought-The Constitution and the Laws With Union's life inwrought? Does then your soul, indignant, swell, With scorn for the foul fiend, who said "Your Magna Charta is from Hell?"

Do you uphold the Nation's cause,

You are a "Copperhead!" Do you revere our chartered rights? And thus prove traitor—as they say Those Ethiopian Zoophytes Who now hold away-

Do you despise the vulture horde, Upon the country's vitals fed, Who serve corruption as their Lord? You are a "Copperhead!" Do you revert to former days,

The days of glory and renown, When patriots won the statesman's bays; And wore the mural crown? When not the place could make the man, But aye, the man the place instead: Where honor proudly led the van?

You are a "Copperhead!" Do you e'er pray that strife may cease, That war may stay his crimson hand, And that the broad white wings of peace May brood the Land? If such your prayer, for one, I say, God's blessings rest upon your head! Come, share with me the "soubriquet"

Of traitor! "Copperhead!" When through these clouds the Union star Shall struggle from its sad eclipse, And the red meteor of the war 'Neath the horizon dips, No higher eulogy be mine,

No cpitaph—if haply dead— Than this short, cabalistic line: "Walter, the 'Copperhead.' Facts About Brandreth's Pills. NEW CASTLE, WESTCHESTER Co., N. Y., Oct. 23, 1852. Ma. G. TEN EYOR SHELDON, Editor Sing Sing Republi-

Dear Sir-I would state that I was induced to use BRANDRETH'S PILLS through the recommendation of John R. Swift, of Croton, Westchester County, who was entirely restored to health by their use. He was sick for some two years, very costive and dyspeptic, and he tried everything, but was not relieved. Finally, he took one Brandreth's Pill every day for a week, and a dose of six Pills every day for three days, and then took one Pill every day, with occasional doses of six. In one month he was able to go to work, and in three months was well, gaining 40 pounds in weight. Yours truly, EDWARD PURDY.

WESTCHESTER COUNTY, 88. Edward Purdy, being duly sworn, says that he resides in the tewn of New Castle; that some years ago he was very sick with a sore on his leg, which had been run ning for over five years; that he was also much distressed by a pain in his chest, as i, besides, was very costive and dyspeptic; that after 17ing various remedies and many physicians, he commenced using Brandreth's Pllls, six to eight three times a week, and at the end of one month the sore in his leg healed, and at the end of two months he was entirely cured of costiveness, dyspepsia and pain, and has remained well ever since.

EDWARD PURDY, Sworn to before me, this 18th day of October, 1862. S. MALCOLM SMITH, Justice of the Peace.
