ber daily arrive here. We learn that in this city, and also at Middletown and Columbia, there is an active demand at fair prices. DISORDERLIES .- The first arrest made by the new Third ward constable was a man named Stouffer for disorderly conduct on the street. Officer Deeters pulled another man for the same offence. #!derman Kline committed both of them to prison.

MASON JONES .- This gentleman is announced to leliver his lecture on Garibaldi in the city of Pittsburg next Friday evening. As he intends coming East it is probable the Young Men's Christian Association of this city will engage him to lecture here.

CAGED AGAIN.-Two old offenders, Anna Locker and Mary Toy, were arrested yesterday by officer Campbell for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. One of them was in a condition of beastly intoxication. Alderman Kline returned them to their old familiar quarters in the county prison.

FATAL RAILROAD ACCIDENT .-- A young man gamed Thomas Dunlap, from Blair county, was Eilied at Denny's curve on the Pennsylvania railroad last Saturday. His head and face were terribly crushed, and other parts of his body much bruised. From his appearance death must have been almost instantaneous. It is supposed that he either jumped or fell off the train.

BRUTAL.-A fellow named James Donnelly was prosecuted before Alderman Kline yesterday for assaulting and severely beating Mrs. Rebecca Siders, residing about one mile below this city .--The probability is that Donnelly was intoxicated, for certainly no man worthy of the name, in his sober senses, would be guilty of such a disreputaele and heartless act.

wards in this city, with the exception of Mose Fleck, appeared in court yesterday morning, presented their bonds which were approved, and took the customary oath. The new constables are Robert Fry and David Deeters, the former in the Third and the latter in the Fifth ward, both of | noon session the members of the grand jury were whom will make good officers, and prove an effec- | called and duly sworn. In the delivery of his tive support to the chief of police.

Another Victim.-On Sunday night an intoxicated Yankee, on his return from Columbia, spread himself upon the steps of the Soldiers' Retreat near the depot, to sleep off the effects of the liquer he had imbibed. In the course of two hours he awoke from his drunken slumber and made the discovery that his pocket book, containing fifteen or twenty dollars, was missing. The victim came from Clearfield county.

TRUNK STOLEN.—A trunk belonging to Samuel J. Jones, of the United States navy, was stolen at Mount Union station on the Northern Central railroad on Sunday night. It contained all the owner's valuables, amounting to a considerable sum of money. As the trunk and contents weighed about three hundred pounds, more than one person must have been engaged in its removal. Mr. Jones is a relative of A. J. Jones, Esq, of this city. He has not yet recovered his property.

COMING HOME.—The term of service of the nine months volunteers has nearly expired, and in the course of a week or two our streets will be crowded with returning heroes. If it be true, as reported, that a number of regiments are to be paid off and mustered out of service in this city, the military authorities should make timely arrangements for the proper accommodation of the men while they remain here, and not entail the burden of their support upon our citizens, as was the case on a former occasion.

NARROW ESCAPE. On Sunday Mr. Samuel D. Young, superintendent of the middle division of the Pennsylvania railroad, accompanied by three er four gentleman of this city, indulged in a short excursion up the road on an engine. When some distance above the city a partial explosion of the engine took place, and the fireman became so much alarmed that he jumped off the engine, (which was making tolerably fast time,) at the risk of being killed or crippled. The perilous leap, however, was made in safety. The other gentlemen remained on the engine, escaping unicured. Fortunately for them there was but a small head of steam on at the time of the accident, otherwise they might have been very seriously, if not fatally, injured. The engine was slightly damaged by the explosion.

THE JUVENILE HOUSE BREAKERS.—The four boys arrested on Sunday for breaking into the house of Mrs. Varnich and stealing ten dollars, are all quite young, none of them exceeding fourteen years. One of the colored lads, Barney D'Brien, has been arraigned on several occasions for petty larceny and other offences. We know nothing personally about the antecedents of his confederates in crime, but learned from some persons present at the hearing before Alderman Kline that they have the reputation of being reckless and vicious boys. The case was yesterday returned for trial and will be disposed of at the present term. It is sad to think that there are chil-Fren in our city of the tender age of fourteen Fears, who indulge in such dishonest practices. A fearful responsibility rests upon the parents of incre lads, who have evidently failed to "train them up in the way they should go." If not speeand effectively checked in the criminal career . Fen which they have thus early entered, they will bring disgrace and ruin upon themselves and forecw to the hearts of their relatives.

RAILWAY INCIDENT-Exciting Scene in a Pasranger Car.—An incident recently occurred on a passenger train of the Philadelphia and Erie railroad, the particulars of which were related to us yesterday: Soon after the train left Sunbury, two gentlemen, one from Philadelphia and the other from New York State, entered into a spirited political discussion. The latter, a venerable gentleman, was arguing in favor of the position assumed by several distinguished Democratic statesmen as being the true one for the Democracy of the country. After the talk had become quite exciting three or four shoulder strapped gentlemen claimed to have a share of the conversation or argument, threatening to put the old man out of the car, saying that they had heard enough of that kind of talk; that they would not permit any man to indulge in such remarks and insult them. The old man, rising up, told them they were not only impertinent for interrupting the conversation, but that they were a set of cowards, or they would be with their regiments instead of being there attempting to prevent him from expressing his opinion in regard to political affairs and the conduct of the administration in the management of the war. At this point the shoulder straps made a hostile demonstration, when a lady rose up in a seat immediately back of the old man, and remarked that what he had said was true, and that she would not sit still and see free speech prevented without raising her voice against it, at the same time telling the old man to sit down and she would take care of him. The shoulder straps wilted before the just indignation and welldeserved rebuke of this heroic and spirited woman, and went into another car, threatening to punish the offender at Williamsport. Before arriving there, however, some friends of the military gentlemen put a flea in their ears about mob law, and they concluded to let the matter drop. Women always have been in favor of free speech, and

[Communicated.] MESSES. EDITORS:-In a small sized blackguard paper of the 24th inst., commonly known as the Evening Telegraph, we found an article headed, "the Jews and the Yankees," which, at the time, roused our indignation, as being an insult to the Jewish business men of this city, for an act which might perhaps have been done by one individual. After careful inquiry we found such did not happen at all, and therefore we did not know what to make of it at the time; but in the issue of the following evening (Saturday last) we discovered it to be a puff for Deacon Bergner's own dirty little sheet, in which he stated that those advertising in his paper had too much principle to commit such a mean act. The proverb that "self praise is a poor recommendation," is here verified. The very idea of having any connection whatever with the proprietor of that sheet is a disgrace. We do not advertise in his sheet, nor did we take gold at par for goods sold at extreme high prices, nor were we compelled to carry money back to the State treasury, nor did we find any soldiers' letters containing money addressed to poor widows; and yet we belong to the "Jews." Ten times better to be a Jew, than a Hessian who persecutes them until they advertise in his sheet and then they become whitewashed. Messrs. Editors, why does he not mention the name of the party that done such an act, if he knows it to be so, or say one of our merchants, instead of a Jew? But little minds are always prejudiced, especially those who inherit foreign despotism and hate against superiors, and we consider ourselves such in every respect. But let him write as much as he pleases, a man like him cannot insult the above incident shows that they will fight for it!

COURT PROCEEDINGS .- The April term of court SWORN IN .- The constables elect of the various | commenced at ten o'clock yesterday. Nothing of pecial interest transpired during the morning session, the time having been principally taken up in MRS. JULIA EDWARDS, receiving the usual returns of constables from the various districts, and swearing in the new constables recently elected. At the opening of the aftercharge on this occasion Judge Pearson traveled | The best Original Comedian of the day, and out of the usual course, and entertained the jury with an elaborate discussion of the duties that all citizens owe to the government under existing circumstances. The charge, in its general features, was similar to that recently delivered to the grand jury of Lebanon county, a notice of which appeared in one of our recent issues. The judge concluded by defining the nature of the various offences which would be submitted to the grand jury for their action. The trial of cases in the criminal calendar was then proceeded with, and two or three unimportant ores disposed of. Several true bills were found by the grand jury, among the number one against Parmenter and Watson for riotous and disorderly conduct in the barber shop of Mr. Sauders under Herr's hotel, an account of which we published at the time. The case will probably be called up this morning.

> ROBBERIES IN THE RUBAL DISTRICTS .- The burglars and thieves continue to annoy and plunder our rural neighbors. Within a few weeks a number of them have been robbed of large quantities of meat and other articles, and in every instance the thieves have escaped detection. On Saturday night a raid was made upon the smoke house of a Susquehanna township farmer by some unknown persons, who carried off hams, shoulders, &c., to the value of ffteen or twenty dollars. Suspicion attaches to certain negroes in this city who were seen in the neighborhood, no doubt on a reconnoitering expedition, on Saturday afternoon. We are of opinion that most of these robberies in the adjacent rural districts are committed by idle and worthless negroes who are never known to work, and yet manage to subsist comfortably. It is to be regretted that the nocturnal plunderers cannot be detected and brought to justice.

> CHILD BURNED TO DEATH .- On Saturday a little daughter of Mr. John Albright, residing in Filbert street, was so badly burned as to cause her death. In the absence of the housekeeper the child's frock took fire from a stove in the room, and when discovered her clothing was almost entirely consumed and her body terribly burned in many places. The little sufferer lingered until Sunday evening in great agony. She was about eight years old.

> SEAT TO CAMP.—Two members of the City Zouaves, William Redifer and John Wheeler, who have been here on the sick list since the departure of the company for the seat of war, were yesterday taken in charge by a squad of the provost guard and escorted to Camp Cartin. The first named individual was recently married to Miss Fielding, proprietress of the opera troupe now performing at Sanford's establishment.

> NEW SCHOOL LAW. -- We print in another column a law passed by the last Legislature relative to school directors, accompanied with explanatory remarks by the State Superintendent, to which the attention of those interested is invited.

> THE POST OFFICE.—By reference to the corrected table at the head of our local columns it will be seen that some changes have been made in the time of closing the various mails that leave here by railroad and stage conveyance.

Facts About Brandreth's Pills. NEW CASTLE, WESTCHESTER Co., N. Y., Oct. 23, 1852. Ma. G. TEN ETCH SHELDON, Editor Sing Sing Republican:

Dear Sir-I would state that I was induced to use RRANDRETH'S PILLS through the recommendation of John R. Swift, of Croton, Westchester County, who was entirely restored to health by their use. He was sick for some two years, very costive and dyspeptic, and he tried everything, but was not relieved. Finally, he took one Brandreth's Pill every day for a week, and a dose of six Pills every day for three days, and then took one Pill every day, with occasional doses of six. In one month he was able to go to work, and in three months was well, gaining 40 pounds in weight.

Yours truly, EBWARD PURDY. WESTCHESTER COUNTY, SS.

Edward Purdy, being duly sworn, says that he resides in the tewn of New Castle; that some years ago he was very sick with a sore on his leg, which had been run ning for over five years; that he was also much distressed by a pain in his chest, an i, besides, was very costive and dyspeptic; that after rying various remedies and many physicians, he commenced using Brandreth's Pills, six to eight three times a week, and at the end of one month the sore in his leg healed, and at the end of two months he was entirely cured of costiveness, dyspepsia and pain, and has remained well ever since.
