I do this more readily in regard to "Hoofland's German Bitters," prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this eity because I was prejudiced against them for years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mix ture. I am indebted to my friend, Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests and for encouragement to try them when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was fellowed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bedily and mental vigor which I had not feil for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. Dr. JAORSON-Dear Siv: I have been frequently re-quested to connect my name with commendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practize as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofand's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system, and especially for Live: Complaint, it is a safe and valuabe proparation. In some cases it may fail, but usually I doubt not it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes. Yours very respectfully, J. H. KENNARD.
