Medical.

TO CLERGYMEN, NERVOUS SUBJECTS, FEMALES, DELICATE LADIES, &c. PREPARED BY DR. C. M. JACKSON, No. 61 ARCH STREET, PHILADELPHIA.

Let the very best Tonic and Nervine extant, and will give relief where all other remedies fail, and it is not a mere assertion, but has been proved over and over again in a great number of persons who were so afflicted, as the certificate hereunto appended will show.

The undersigned, Dr. C. M. Jackson, of Philadelphia, is a leading physician of Philadelphia, &c. &c. I feel it a duty to state, and I feel it a duty to state, that the most delicate female, or any man of delicate constitution, feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, will find in these Bitters an elixir that will restore, in a measure, the energy and vigor of more youthful days, and build up their aching frames, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.

West and delicate children are made strong by using the Bitters. In fact, it is a family medicine, and may be probably administered to a child of three months, or more, and it will do more than to give it health and vigor.

Price 75 cents per bottle. For sale by druggists and storekeepers generally throughout the country.

From Rev. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge, &c., &c. I have been frequently requested to connect my name with commendations of the most valued of medicines, but regarding the practice of recommending to give my name to a medicine which I have not used, I have declined.

Dr. C. M. JACKSON—Dear Sir: I have frequently requested to connect my name with commendations of the most valued of medicines, but regarding the practice of recommending to give my name to a medicine which I have not used, I have declined.

LIVED FOUR YEARS ON RICE. PHILADELPHIA, May 19, 1860. Dr. C. M. JACKSON—Dear Sir: I have frequently requested to connect my name with commendations of the most valued of medicines, but regarding the practice of recommending to give my name to a medicine which I have not used, I have declined.
