PROVOST : MARSHAL -Gen. John K. Clements, of Northumberland county, has been appointed provest marshal for this congressional district, and will establish his headquarters at Harrisburg.

BURNED TO DEATH .- Recently a Mrs. Jones, residing in the neighboring county of Lancaster, while engaged in preparing dinner, accidentally set fire to her clothing, and was so badly burned that death ensued in the course of a few hours.

Dull.-The weather was misty and gloomy yesterday, and the local news market unusually dull. We made several reportorial tours around the city through rain and mud, and met with very few incidents worthy of special mention.

DISTINGUISHED VISITORS .- A number of distinguished lagal gentlemen from different sections of the State are now in this city attending the Supreme Court, which met on Monday last and will continue in session for several weeks.

MUSTERED OUT .- Last evening the City Zourves delivered up the't knapsacks, canteens and haversacks to the United States military authorities. Their muskets are to be given up this morning, at which time they expect to be mustered out of service and receive payment in full.

ANOTHER NEGRO REGIMENT: - The colored men of Pittsburg have received the requisite anthority from the War Department to raise a regiment of black soldiers. We learn that a recruiting office is to be opened in this city, and sincerely hope that our entire negro population will enlist.

MEETING OF THE CITY EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE . The City Democratic Executive Committee will hold its regular monthly meeting at 7½ o'clock on Wednesday evening, May 6th, at Bernhard's hotel, corner of Walnut and Fourth streets. Punctual attendance is requested. By order of the Presi-GEO. F. WEAVER, Sec'y.

HIS NAME.—Rev. John F. Baird is the name of the ex-chaplain whose recent mysterious disappearance from York, and the finding of whose body in Codorus creek on Wednesday evening last, was announced in a recent issue of this paper. It is supposed that he wandered away from home under the effect of temporary insacity.

STILL THEY COME.—Another lot of Confederate prisoners passed south over the Pennsylvania and Northern Central railroads yesterday. They came from the west and were en route for Fortress Monroe to be exchanged. A large proportion of them were rebel officers, captured by our troops in various portions of the southwest.

FEROCIOUS Dog.-Samuel Taylor was arraigned before Alderman Kine charged with keeping a ferocious dog and allowing the animal to run loose about his premises. The complaint was made by Peter Guerin, who alleged having been bitten by the dog. The owner was obliged to enter bail for his appearance at court to answer the charge.

Max Killed.—The other morning a freight train on the Pennsylvania road ran over a man some distance this side of Altoona, mashing his head badly, nearly cutting his body in two, and killing him instantly. Being a stranger the railroad company took charge of his remains for interment. The accident was the result of his own

PHOTOGRAPHS AND AMBROTYPES .- We invite attention to the card of Mesers. Burkhard & Robbins, who have fitted up a new and improved skylight gallery in Third street opposite this office. We have examined some of their photographs, ambrotypes and cartes de visite, and can commend them as superior to those of any similar establishment in our city.

CIRCUS COMING.-The great national circus, the first institution of the kind that has visited this region of country for several years, will exhibit in our city on Thursday of next week, and all admirers of the "horse spera" look forward with pleasing anticipation to the promised entertainment. The "show" is said to be one of the best extent, and will no doubt be largely patronized by Harrisburg play-goers.

Dog Thier.—A few weeks ago a lumberman named Spencer Whipple, from Curwensville, Clearfield county, stole from Mr. Frank Murray, of this city, a dog which he prized very highly. A warrant, issued by Alderman Kline, was served upon Whipple after his return home, when he proposed to pay expenses and restore the stolen animal. He plead penitones and poverty, and the presecutor, satisfied with having recovered his property, acacceded to Whiffle's proposition.

ORDINANCE VIOLATION .- A nogro lad named William Scott was yesterday arrested by the chief of police for riding at a rapid rate on the street. The rider of the fast mag was obliged to dismount and go before Alderman Kline, where his employer appeared and entered bail for the negroe's appearanne at court. The ordinance imposes a ponsity of ten dollars for this offence. The chief of police thould make no unfair discrimination in the enforcement of this law, but treat all offenders alike. Let him do this, and he will soon effectually abate | yard. the nuisance for some time past so generally com-

A Young Girl Rescued .- On Saturday last a young German girl named Kalbach, between sixfrom Reading, and placed in a disreputable house kept by one Ida Hart, who was the principal in her abduction. It seems that this woman, at the instigation of some unprincipled ecoundrel, visited Reading, had an interview with the girl, and prevailed upon her to come to this city. After hearing of her whereabouts the mother of the girl, Mrs. Susan Kalbach, an unsophisticated but apparently respectable German lady, came here on Monday in search of the fugitive. Having secured the services of the chief of police the two proeeeded to the den of Ida Hart and demanded possession of the girl. For a time Ida resisted the demand, but the threats of the officer finally brought her to terms, and the girl was restored to her mother. She is a mere child in years and appearance, of uncultivated manners, quite illiterate, and did not seem to have a proper realization of the enormity of her offence, or the moral ruin to which she had exposed herself. Upon the strength of the information made by her before Alderman Kline a warrant was issued for Ida Hart on a charge of keeping a common bawdy house, and she entered bail for her appearance at court. The mother of the girl was bound over to prosecute the case. Mrs. Kalbach and her erring daughter left for home yesterday morning. It is to be hoped that the infamous wretch who employed Ida Hart as an instrument for this young girl's abduction will also be detected and receive the severe punishment his conduct deserves.

THE PROPLE JUBILANT .- The people of this city were exceedingly jubilant yesterday over the telegraphic announcement of splendid achievements by the army of the Potomac, full details of which will be found in another portion of this paper .-When the news flashed over the wires that Hooker's army, by a succession of brilliant exploits, had check-mated and routed the rebels at various points, there was universal rejoicing: In many quarters the "stars and stripes" were flung to the breez, people thronged the streets and congratulated each other upon the not unexpected triumph of our arms, and the bulletin boards in front of the Pa-TRIOT AND Union office were surrounded by anxious crowds eager to hear the cheering intelligence. In a few minutes after the reception of the news it was given to the public in extras issued from this office, thousands of copies of which were circulated in the course of a few hours. So great was the demand for news that our press, although kept in constant motion, was unable to supply it. The tenor of the dispatches received up to the time of penning this item indicate the achievement of a complete success by the Army of the Potomac, and we sincerely hope that the reports which caused so much gratification will be fully confirmed.

RETURN OF THE VOLUNTEERS .- Agreeably to public notice a meeting of the citizens of Harrisburg was held at the county Court House l.s. evening, to make arrangements for the reception of the volunteers of Pennsylvania, whose term of service has expired, on their return through Harrisbug. Hugh F. M'Reynolds presided and Wm H. Brown officiated as secretary. On motion a committee of seven was appointed to make arrangements for a meeting of all citizens favorable to the demonstration, to be held at the Court House this (Wednesday) evening, at 7½ o'clock. The following committee were appointed: "His Honor A. L. Roumfort, A. J. Jones, Esq., Lazarus L. Bernhard, George H. Morgan, Dr. Jacob M. Weis'ling, Patrick Ryan, Mejor John Brady. The committee will meet at Brant's Hall this afternoon at one o'clock. On motion, adjourned until this evening.

A YARKEE ROBBED. -The presence of a considole number of lumbermen in our city has the effect of attracting professional bancks from abroad, who, during the rafting season, make this the'r "base of operations," and do quite an extensive business. Almost daily some of our up river friends are relieved of their pocket books at the depot or in some of the saloons in that locality. The latest victim was a man named Thompson, from Clearfield county. Under the influence of liquor he injudiciously exhibited his money, and in the course of an hour afterwards found it missing. At last accounts he had not recovered it, and probably never will. The wallet, extracted from his coat pocket, contained about thirty-five dollars in money, and some papers and documents valueble only to their cwner.

DISORDERLY FEMALES .- Two young nymphs of the pave named Mary Hays and Catharine Ann Fisher, were before Alderman Kline charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct on the street. When arrested by officer Deeters they were behaving in a very boisterous and indecorous manner, singing obscene songs, indulging in profane language, and insulting everybody with whom they came in contact. The alderman sent them to prison, quarters which they have occupied on former occasions. These young females are among the most degraded of their sex, and punishment does not seem to benefit them. A city work house would be the best institution for this numerous class of offenders.

THE CITY ZOUAVES .- We learn from Captain Awl that the Zouaves, most of them young men belonging to this city, will maintain their company organization after being mustered out of the United States service. The boys are devoted to their commanding officer, whom they have just reason to esteem, and should be determine to re-enter the service the almost unanimous sentiment of the company will be, "our voice is still for war." The Zouaves made a street parade yesterday, presenting a fine appearance, and marching and drilling in a style that would have done credit to veterans of the regular army. We heard the company highly complimented by a number of experienced military officers, and other soldiers now here.

Drowned.-A man named Simon Holmes, a timern keeper in York county, was recently drowned in the Susquehanna river a short distance below M'Cull's Ferry. He had gone out in a boat to take up drift lumber, and not returning as usual. his family became alarmed for his safety. Search was commenced, but no evidence of his fate could be discovered until his boat was found, bottom upwards, a distance of six or eight miles down the river. The body of the unfortunate man was not recovered from its watery grave.

Dr. Sweet's Infallible Liniment for Horses is unrivaled by any, and in all cases of Lameness, arising from Sprains, Bruises or Wrenching, its effect is magical and certain. Harness or Saddle Galls, Scratch es, Mange, &c., it will also cure speedily. Spavin and Ringbone may be easily prevented and cured in their indiplent stages, but confirmed cases are beyond the possibility of a radical cure. No case of the kind, however, is so desperate or hopeless but it may be alleviated by this Liniment, and its faithful application will always remove the Lameness, and enable the horse to travel with comparative ease.

Every horse owner should have this remedy at hand, for its timely use at the first appearance of Lameness will effectually prevent those formidable diseases mentioned, to which all horses are liable, and which render so many otherwise valuable horses nearly worthless.

CLEANSE THE BLOOD. - WITH CLEANSE THE BLOOD. — WITH corrupt, disordered or vitiated Blood, you must be sick all over.
