GOVERNOR CURTIN is again absent from the State Capital, having left here yesterday afternoon in the southern train. We learned that his destination was Washington eity.

LARGE LETTUCE.—We are indebted to Mr. Wm. E. Hargest, who has a fine vegetable garden upon Allison's Hill, for two heads of lettuce; one weighing one pound five ounces, and the other one pound. Both are tender and excellent; better we never saw at this early season.

More New Counterfeits .- New counterfeit two dollar notes on the Citizen's Bank of Delaware and Columbia Bank of Pennsylvania are now in circulation. As we have considerable Columbia money in this locality our business men should be on the look-out for these new counterfeits.

RAILROAD EARNINGS .- The receipts of the Pennsylvania Central railroad for the past year were $10,143,738. The cost of operating, repairing and improving the road was $3,763,375-leaving a profit of upward of $6,000,000. The receipts of the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago railroad for the same time were $3,613,841; all expenses, $1,806,818. Profitable business.

SUDDEN DEATH.-The other morning a raftsman named William Campbell was found dead on a raft at Columbia, on which he had taken lodgings the night previous. Being a stranger and without money, the deputy coroner and members of the jury of inquest contributed funds to have his remains decently interred in the Celumbia cemetery. Their humanity is to be commended.

CITY MORTALITY .- A number of deaths have occarred in our city thus far the present month .-Two funerals took place yesterday and three the day previous. The season has been a hard one to a considerable extent among children.

NEGRO SOLDIERS .-- More recruits from the west for the Massachusetts negro regiment have passed through this city during the present week. Another squad is now on the road, having left Cincinnati yesterday. We learn that Tom Chester, having taken an active part in the recruiting of the Massachusetts regiment, is promised an important position. Tom is about as well qualified for the command of a regiment of dusky warriors as some of his white-skinned brethren.

DEMAND FOR Houses .- The demand for small houses to rent continues. Why don't some of our capitalists build a number of small and convenient tenements suitable for mechanics who cannot afford to pay the exorbitant rents now demanded. It seems to us they could not make a more profitable investment of their funds. Many mechanics are kept away from the city, and others compelled to leave, owing to a failure in obtaining dwelling houses. This evil should be remedied.

INFORMATION WANTED .- Several days ago Thos. Ferguson, better known as Thomas Divit, a boy of twelve years, about four feet four inches high, black eyes and black hair, speaking both English and German, dressed in light knit jacket, brown trousers and blue shirt, left his home in Newton, Lancaster county, and has not since been heard from. Any one knowing of his whereabouts is requested to communicate with John Divit, Newton, Raphe township, Lancaster county.

A HARRISBURGER WOUNDED .- Mr. Charles Hummel, of this city, a member of company D, 127th regiment, was dangerously wounded in the head in a fight at Fredericksburg, the other day, in which the regiment participated. He is now in one of the Washington hospitals, and his mother, having been telegraphed for, intends leaving for that city this morning.

Among other rumors aftoat last evening was one to the effect that Colonel William Jennings had been killed and Lieut. Colonel Alleman wounded. We failed to trace the rumor to a reliable source, and believe it to be entirely unfounded:

DESERTER ARRESTED .- A soldier named Gray, a deserter from Colonel Welsh's regiment of Pennsylvania volunteers, was arrested in Lancaster county, brought to this city yesterday, sent to Camp Curtin and heavily ironed to prevent his escape. After deserting from Colonel Welsh he made his way to Dixie's land, served three months in the rebel army, and then skedaddled back to the North, was captured and placed in confinement at Washington. Last week he managed to get away from there, and went to his home in Lancas. ter county, whither he was tracked and again setured. He will be returned to Washington in a isw days, and no doubt end his career on the gala fate which the fellow richly deserves.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY .- Sam Smith, an "Am' than citizen of African descent," was arraigned fore Alderman Kline yesterday for assaulting the of the sable brotherhood named Jake Jones. who has himself frequently been up for the same Sence. We did not learn the origin of the difficulty, but Sam having been worsted in the contest determined that his dusky antagonist should be "Put through" according to law. Accordingly Jake had to enter bail for his appearance at court. At least two-thirds of the criminals returned to United States pension, bounty, arrears of pay and isry, petty largeny, riotous and disorderly conduct, belong to our worthless negro population.

Incle Abraham's pet lambs prove an expensive included by EUGENE SNYDER,

Attorney at Law, office, Third street, Harrisburg, oct28-1y

Secesh Female Spies .- Three young and good looking secesh female prisoners, recently captured in Western Virginia, named Jenny Dehart, Margaret Ann Green and Mary Murphy, passed through here yesterday en route for Washington city, under guard of two officers. These women participated in the late rebel raid which caused so great a sensation and scare in the western part of our State, acting in the capacity of scouts and spies on that occasion. One of them, Miss Jenny Dehart, a fine specimen of female chivalry, filled the position of orderly sergeant in a rebel cavalry company for nine months, and was noted for her heroism and valor. The fair prisoners were all intelligent and communicative, and conversed fluently and unreservedly with a number of our citizens while the train remained here, avowing an abiding faith in the justice of the Southern cause, and with great apparent confidence predicting a speedy tritriumph of the confederate army over the "yankee abolitionists," as they derisively styled the Federal troops. When speaking of the Washington administration, and the probable fate that awaited them on their arrival at the Federal capital, their manner became bold and defiant and their language sarcastic and denunciatory. One of them remarked that if she were armed, and an opportunity offered to shoot "old Abe," she would do it, and feel that she had performed a justifiable act in ridding the country of "an Abolition monster and infamous tyrant." All of them gloried in the services they had rendered the Southern cause, and avowed a determination, if exchanged, to resame their late occupation and aid in fighting the "yankee abolitionists" to the bitter end, or die in defence of the cause they loved and the flag they revered. A regiment of such female warriors, in a just cause, would be invincible. .

RECEPTION OF RETURNING VOLUNTEERS -A preliminary meeting of our citizens was held at the Court House last evening to make arrangements for a fitting reception of the volunteers composing the 127th regiment on their return home. His Honor Mayor Roumfort was called to the chair. and a number of vice presidents and secretaries appointed. The object of the meeting having been briefly stated by the president, a motion was made and adopted that a committee, consisting of two gentlemen from each ward, with Mayor Roumfort as chairman, be appointed to prepare a programme for the reception demonstration, and that they report at an adjourned town meeting to be held at the Court House on Saturday evening. The following persons constitute the committee:

First Ward-R. Hogan, jr., Alex. Koser. Second Ward-A. Watson, C. L. Bailey. Third Ward-D. D. Boas, J. M. Wiestling. Fourth Ward-A. K. Black, John Brady. Fifth Ward-W. F. Osler, Jehu Dehaven. Sixth Ward-Dr. W. H. Egle, D. Mumma.

The above committee, composed of gentlemen of both political parties, will meet at the Brady House this (Thursday) evening at 72 o'clock, to perform the duty assigned them. A full and punctual attendance is desired.

PASSING COUNTERFEIT MONEY .- Two strangers, supposed to be lumbermen from one of the northern counties, passed counterfeit bills at several shops on Tuesday night. When the victims ascertained that they had been sold, the fact was communicated to the chief of police and a description of the fellows furnished him. The indefatigable Barney put himself "on the lay" for the "shovers" of bogus money, but thus far they have managed to escape detection. No doubt they determined to seek "a new base of operations," and left the city by some of the early trains yesterday morning. It is said that many of the lumbermen are regular dealers in counterfeit bank bills, and bring with upon persons afflicted with pulmonary complaints, them large supplies, much of which they manage and unusual fatality attends diptheria and scarlet to "shove" upon merchants and saloon keepers fever, which diseases have for some time prevailed here and at other points along the river. Some of them are not raftsmen at all, but associate with that class and assume the disguise of simple and unsophisticated mountaineers to avoid suspicion and enable them to operate more extensively and successfully than they otherwise could do. Our business men cannot exercise too much caution in dealing with this class of customers.

A Fugitive FROM Justice.-William Coleman, recently charged before Alderman Kline with abusing and brutally beating his wife, disposed of his property in this city and ran away to escape arrest, leaving his family in a destitute condition. Mrs. Coleman still bears upon her person the marks of violence inflicted by her inhuman husband, the injuries she received having entirely disabled her for several days. We learn that Coleman's place of retreat is now known, and he will probably be arrested and brought back within a day or two. The man who lays his hands in violence upon a woman-and that woman the wife he has sworn to cherish and protect—subjects himself to the scorn and contempt of his fellows. and deserves the severest punishment the law can inflict. Coleman's late offence was not the first of the kind, for on several former occasions the brutality with which he treated his family aroused the indignation of neighors, who interfered for their protection.

DRUNKS AND VAGS .- A venerable worshipper at the shrine of Bacchus, named Harry Wood, was found lying around loose on the streets exposed to the peltings of the pitiless storm. Officer Fry, prompted by humane and philanthropic motives, acted the part of good Samaritan, picked up the friendless inebriate who had fallen by the wayside and escorted him to the Walnut street hospital.— A way-worn traveler, giving the name of Gotlieb Esterholt, "by friends and fortune quite disowned," was provided with quarters in the same institution by officer Callender. Gotleib has evidently seen hard times, and, if his story be true, has been an extensive traveler, endured many trials, had numerous adventures by land and sea, and has repeatedly gone through the fiery furnace of domestic affliction. After journeying on foot from Pike's Peak to this city his weary limbs refused to do him further duty, and Gotleib was obliged to seek refuge in the "bummer's retreat" for a few days.

MARKET was not very largely attended by our country cousins yesterday morning, owing to the terrific rain storm of the day and night previous, which rendered the roads almost impassible. The result was a scarcity of butter, eggs and poultry, and a proportionate increase of prices. Butter was in active demand at thirty-five to forty cents per pound, and many persons failed to obtain supplies even at these exorbitant figures. At six o'clock not a pound of butter could be had in the entire market, the whole supply having been "gobbled up" by those who were lucky enough to reach there before that hour. "It's an ill wind that blows nobody any good," and our rural friends who ventured to town with their produce got the full benefit of Tuesday's storm, which proved a golden shower to them. We auxiously await the good time coming for poor people when pasture will be luxuriant and plenty, and delicious grass butter abundant and cheap.

In Town Again.-One of the pickpockets who, last fall, was taken out of our county prison by some legerdemain, sold into the army as a substitute, subsequently attempted to desert, and was taken away in irons, is again in town, as we are officially informed. Whether the fellow deserted or was dischargde, we do not know. But in view of his presence here we deem it proper to caution our citizens who make a practice of carrying large sums of money about them, to be en their guard. As the fellow has no ostensible occupation it would be well for the chief of police to put him through under the new law providing for the detection of professional thieves, pickpockets, etc. All such chaps should be "bogged" as soon as they make their appearance in our city.

GREAT BARGAINS .- Twenty per cent. Saved .- In order to reduce stock, owing to the tearing down of the old store and building up new. I offer my stock, consisting of a large stock of three-ply Ingrain, Venetian and Rag Carpets; also, furniture of all descriptions, at twenty per cent less than city prices, until the 15th of June next.

It may burst out in Pimples, or Sores, or in some active disease, or it may merely keep you listless, depressed and good for nothing. But you cannot have good health while your blood is impure. Hence it rapidly cures a variety of complaints which are caused by impurity of the blood, such as Scrafula or King's Evil, Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Cancer or Craverous Tumors, Sore Eyes, Female Diseases, such as Retention, Irregularity, Suppression, Whites, Sterility, Syphilis or Venereal Diseases, Liver Complaints and Heart Diseases.
