SENTENCE OF PRISONERS -A number of prisoners, convicted of various crimes at the late term, will be called up for sentence on Tuesday next.

RELEASED .- Nicholas Ehringer, the Altoona botel keeper, arrested several weeks ago on a charge of murder, was recently released on giving $10,000 bail for his appearance at the July court.

NEW ORDINANCE.-We publish in another column a new ordinance recently enacted and appreved, fixing the grade of a certain portion of Front street in the Third ward.

MUSTERED OUT .- The City Zouaves were mustered out of the United States service yesterday afternoon, and will be paid off to-day. The government is over two months in arrears to the members of this company.

HARRISBURG TYPOGRAPHICAL UNION, No. 14 .-- A stated meeting of this Union will be held this evening, at 61 o'clock precisely, per resolution passed at the last stated meeting. Punctual attendance is requested. HARRY SLEP, Sec'y.

NEW LEAD MINE .- A man connected with one of the railroad shops in Altoona has discovered near that place a rich lead mine. He has exhibited some specimens of the ore, but positively refuses to give any information in regard to its locality.

MAJOR DAVIS, of the Seventh Pennsylvania cavalry, is now at Louisville, Kentucky, having been detailed for special duty in that city by the commandant of the regiment. He has been in a debilitated condition for ten days past, prostrated by continuous and arduous duties in the field.

PASSED THROUGH.-A large number of rebel prisoners, captured at Fredericksburg, reached

THE FRESHET .- The Susquehanna river is now several feet above low water mark and still rising. Drift wook in considerable quantities floated down vesterday. Paxton creek also continues on the rampage, and some injury has been done to property along the banks of this turbulent little stream.

Row AT A FUNERAL.—Three men named John O. Adams, David Stevens and John Brown, the first a white man and the other two negroes, were before Alderman Kline charged with assaulting and beating one Owen Hart. The affair occurred at a funeral, but we did not learn the origin of it. The three defendants entered bail for their appearance at court.

NEW LUTHERAN CHURCH.-Workmen are now engaged in laying the foundation walls of a new English Lutheran church edifice in Reservoir square near Ridge avenue. The building is to be a large stone one, and when completed will be an ornament to that locality. The corner stone will be laid, with appropriate and imposing ceremonies, in the course of a week or two.

NORTHERN CENTRAL RAILWAY.-The merchants of Buffalo are taking advantage of the new and expeditious route that has just been opened to them by the energy of the Northern Central railway company, now one of the first class roads of the country, and are shipping largely the products of the Northwest by that road through this city to Baltimore. One house aloné recently shipped five hundred and sixty car loads of produce, and others have large lots for shipment. There is but one change of cars between Buffalo and Baltimore, (at Elmira,) caused by the broad guage of the Effe road, and property of all kinds is coming through in good condition and very satisfactory to ship-

SERIOUS CHARGES .- A genteel looking and intelligent young woman named Anna Mary Good, appeared before Alderman Kline yesterday and made complaint against John Sayder, of Middle. town, for a very serious offence. A warrant was issued for his arrest. For some time past this young woman has been an inmate of our poor house, and if the statements made by her before the alderman, in presence of several spectators, relative to her brutal treatment in that institution be true, the case is one demanding investigation. Miss Good's story of the inhumanity of the steward and his assistant fully corroborates the statements of other female paupers. The whipping of women, chaining them by the feet to heavy iron weights, placing kandcuffs upon their wrists, and consigning them for successive days to the "black hole," is cruel and barbarous punishment that ought not to be tolerated in any institution, and the exposition of which will be certain to arouse a storm of popular indignation. Anna Good told the story of her wrongs and sufferings with an air of artless simplicity, sincerity and candor that carried conviction to the minds of those who heard it. She deciared her determination to enter complaint against the steward of the poor house and his assisistant for ill usage and assault and battery, in which event we shall have the case fully ventilated, and some important facts developed with regard to the conduct of that institution and the treatment of paupers generally. In view of this anticipated legal investigation we forbear making special reference to the various rumors that have reached us from time to time in regard to the outrages perpetrated upon female inmates of the poor house, and the tyranny and bretaily which characterizes its entire management.

MOOTHART THE HORSE THIEF .- A few weeks ago we published a brief account of the horse stealing operations of this notorious thief in Lycoming county, his arrest in Philadelphia city, commitment to the Williamsport prison, and subsequent escape from that institution. It will be remembered that this fellow was convicted in the court of Dauphin county for stealing a horse from Mr. John Raysor and sentenced to six years imprisonment. Last fall after serving out about one-half his term, he was pardoned by Governor Curtin, on condition that he would go into the United States army. This he consented to do, enlisted in Capt. Jacob M. Eyster's company, of the Eighteenth infantry, and on his way to Camp Chase, at Columbus, jumped out of the cars and escaped. The next heard of, Moothart was in Northumberland, where gentleman of this city, an extensive dealer in horses, recognized him while passing through the town on a fine animal, no doubt a stolen one. The recognition was mutual, and Moothart, putting spurs to his steed, took one of the by-roads leading to the mountains and "made time" that soon carried him beyond the reach of his pursuers. Nothing more was heard of him until about the middle of January last, when he and an accomplice named William Raynolds stole two horses from widow Ross, on Plunkett's creek, Lycoming county. The horses were subsequently recovered. We re-print from the Lyeoming Gazette the following detailed and interesting account of Moothart's robbery and flight, his perilous trip to Philadelphia, detection and arrest in that city, voluntary | J. G. H. SHOREY,.....Stage Manager. confession, and subsequent escape from the Williamsport prison: Recovery of Stolen Horses.—The horses stolen on the 15th of January last, from the farm of the widow Ross, situate on Plunkett's creek, in this county, were brought home last week, having been found at a small village called Harleysville, in Montgomery county, some twenty miles north of Philadelphia. It seems that the thieves, William Reynolds and William Moothart, after taking the horses, which they did about eleven o'clock, rode them direct to Turbuttsville, Northumberland county, where they secreted them near that place during Friday the 16th. On that evening they left Turbuttsville with a saddle, and proceeding in the direction of Danville, stole another bridle on the way, from a farmer by the name of Muffley, and arrived at Mooresburg before daylight, on Saturday morning, the 17th. Here they remained until Sunday morning, when, taking advantage of the habit of the Danville bridge company to allow meeting going folks to pass their bridge without paying toll, they crossed the Susquehanna and made direct towards Philadelphia. Traveling at night, and remaining quiet during the day, they effectually eluded pursuit. When arriving at the place above named they were offered a bid for and concluded to sell their plunder. Moothart was arrested in Philadelphia about the first of April last on a description of his person and offence sent to the chief of the detective police, and brought to the jail of this county by constable Sloan soon after. Whilst in prison here he voluntarily confessed, and gave information which led to the recovery of the horses. Soon after this he succeeded in effecting his escape by burning loose the clasp of the inner door of his cell-unlocking with a false key the outer door, and digging a hole through the wall of the yard. Where he is now no one, perhaps, in this section, knows; but to judge from his former conduct, he will hardly continue long without stealing other horses. It may be well to add that he is described as above ordinary height, red face, sandy hair, and about 30 years old. The Sheriff of this county offers a reward of seventy-five dollars for his arrest and recovery. William Reynolds, who is described as a large, red faced man. much addicted to liquor, is still at large.

THE DAUPHIN COUNTY REGIMENT .- We have rumars to the effect that some forty men of this regiment were wounded in the late fights near Fredericksburg, but we cannot trace the report to any reliable source. The only dispatch received. in this city relative to the 127th regiment was that announcing the wounding of young Hummel, who, according to the latest information, was still here on Thursday night from Baltimore, in which | living, although his wound is of such a nature | In his celebrated Banjo Solos and side-splitting city they took the oath of allegiance. Most of that no hope is entertained of his recovery. There them passed on the west, a few remaining in is reason to fear that the regiment suffered to a CHARLES RIVERS, considerable extent, but we are without reliable In his Bone Solos, Excelsior Jig and Clog intelligence on the subject.

> FATAL RAILROAD ACCIDENT .-- An accident occurred to a freight train on the Pennsylvania railroad on Thursday, near Black Log station, in Juniata county, which resulted in the death of one of the train hands and another person who was riding upon a coal car. The engineer of the train, Mr. William M'Kinley, of this city, received severe internal injuries, and last evening was not expected to recover. The accident was the result of a collision of two freight trains following too closely upon each other. We could not learn the names of the two persons killed.

PRESENTATION .- Mr. Daniel Hoke, engineer on the Pennsylvania railroad between this city and Altoona, was recently presented with a handsome clock for his engine by a few friends who are intimately connected with him in the discharge of his duties, as a mark of their esteem for him as a gentleman, and for the faithful manner in which he performs the duties of his position. Mr. Hoke is regarded as a careful and reliable engineer, and the compliment tendered him by appreciative friends was richly deserved.

COMMON NUISANCES .- In accordance with the recommendation of the late grand jury, the district attorney has instituted legal proceedings against the Gaiety and Fielding troupes as "common nuisances." Yesterday afternoon a capies was issued in each case and placed in the hands of the sheriff, made returnable on Tuesday next, at which time the parties will be ruled into court. We have our information from an official source.

THE Town MEETING .- Our citizens should not forget the town meeting this evening to make arrangements for a fitting public reception of the Dauphin county regiment. The occasion is one that should induce a general turn out, and we hope to see the spacious court room crowded to its utmost capacity. The committee of arrangement will make their report, and no doubt several eloquent and patriotic addresses will be delivered.

GREAT BARGAINS .- Twenty per cent. Saved .- In order to reduce stock, owing to the tearing down of the old store and building up new, I offer my stock, consisting of a large stock of three-ply Ingrain, Venetian and Rag Carpets; also, furniture of all descriptions, at twenty per cent less than city prices, until the 15th of June NEXT.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

To Horse Owners.

Dr. Sweet's Infallible Liniment for Horses is unrivaled by any, and in all cases of Lameness, arising from Sprains, Bruises or Wrenching, its effect is maxical and certain. Harness or Suddle Galls Stratch magical and certain. Harness or Saddle Galls, Scratch es, Mange, &c., it will also cure speedily. Spavin and Bingbone may be easily prevented and cured in their incipient stages, but confirmed cases are beyond the possibility of a radical cure. No case of the kind, however, is so desperate or hopeless but it may be alleviated by this Liniment, and its faithful application will all ways remove the Lameness, and enable the horse to travel with comparative ease.

Every horse owner should have this remedy at hand, for its timely use at the first appearance of Lameness will effectually prevent those formidable diseases mentioned, to which all horses are liable, and which render so many otherwise valuable horses nearly worthless. See advertisement.

CLEANSE THE BLOOD. -- WITH corrupt, disordered or vitiated Blood, you must be sick all over. It may burst out in Pimples, or Sores, or in some active disease, or it may merely keep you listless, depressed and good for nothing. But you cannot have good health while your blood is impure. Aper's Sarsaparilla purges out these impurities and stimulates the organs of life into vigorous action, restoring the health and expelling disease. Hence it rapidly cures a variety of complaints which are caused by impurity of the blood, such as Scrofula or King's Evil, Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Cancer or Canverous Tumors, Sore Eyes, female Diseases, such as Retention, Irregularity, Suppression, Whites, Sterib'y, Syphilis or Veneral Diseases, Liver Complaints and Heart Diseases. Try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and see for yourself the sur-prising activity with which it cleaness the blood and cures the disorders.

AYER'S CHERRY PROTORAL is so universally known to surpass every other remedy for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease, and it is useless here to recount the evidence of its virtues.—

The world knows them.
