COURT SENTENCES.—Yesterday afternoon the following sentences were pronounced by Judge Pearson:

Patrick Herhine, for the larceny of a ham, was fined one dollar and the cost of prosecution and sent to prison for two months.

William Biting, for the larceny of a coat from R. H. Muench, Esq., was fined one dollar and the cost of prosecution and sent to prison for two months.

Charles Peffer, a soldier, convicted of the larceny of a coat from a stove store in Market street, was ordered to pay a fine of one dollar, the costs of prosecution and two months' imprisonment.

Richard Carter, Charles Gardner and Lucy Lee, colored, were convicted of stealing coal. They were each fined a dollar, the costs of prosecution and one month's imprisonment.

Benjamin Moore, colored, for the larceny of a hat, was fined a dollar, the cost of prosecution and three months' imprisonment.

Thomas W. Brown, a soldier, for passing worthless money and obtaining goods under false pretense, was ordered to pay a fine of one dollar, the costs of prosecution and four months' imprisonment.

James Duncan, a black boy about fifteen years of age, was sent to the Philadelphia House of Refuge, for stealing money from his employer.

IMPROVEMENTS.—People not in the habit of visiting the outskirts of the city are not posted in regard to the amount of buildings already erected, or in progress of erection this season.

"Westward the star of empire takes its way," and the same may be said of the improvements of this city, as nearly every building now going up is located west of Market street.

A great majority of the buildings in course of construction are frames, not very desirable, owing to their combustible nature, as well as lack of ornament.

Still they are comfortable human habitations, and will accommodate to a great extent the vast influx of population.

Already upwards of an hundred of these frame houses have been built, and hundreds more have been contracted for.

In every direction west of North street the cry of "mort," and the sound of the hammer and saw are heard all day long.

It gives us pleasure to say, however, that notwithstanding this universal sawing, planing and hammering of boards, quite a number of fine brick buildings are going up.

Walters & Bro. are erecting a fine row in Third street above North, and Dehaven & Collier have commenced a row in North street below Third.

Both will be ornamental, and add materially to that part of the city.

ICE.—The luxury of ice is just now being appreciated. The past winter did not furnish a full crop, and the consumers of this city could not therefore lay in their usual supply.

We fear the want of ice will be severely felt the coming summer, as we are informed the supply will not reach half the demand.

East and north of us the ice crop was unusually large, and if proper steps are taken we may be able to supply ourselves with a sufficient quantity.

What ice is on hand with our dealers here is being sold at exorbitant prices, and none but old customers will be supplied with the article.

We would suggest the organization of a company to transport ice from the north, which we are assured could be done at a cost lower than what it is furnished by our own dealers.

A few years ago the luxury of ice was considered of little account, but now it has become one of the necessities of life.

We must have it if it is to be had, and we know of no other way to furnish it in abundance, and at fair prices, than the organization of a company to transport it from the north.

ATTENTION, MR. VERNON.—The active, honorable and contributing members of the Mt.
