LOCAL NEWS.

Ten Daily Patriot and Union may be had at Jack's Book Store, corner of Third and Market streets. ALSO, at he News Agency of George L. Walter, Market street, near Fifth.

WOUNDED.—Theodore Burchfield, a printer, formerly working in this city, and a member of Capt. Wharton's company of the 126th P. V., was wounded in the leg at the late battle of Chancellorsville.

THE GRAND HOP AND PIC NIC .- On Tuesday next is the day fixed for the grand hop and pic nic, congratulatory to the 127th regiment upon their return from the war. Haehnlen's woods have been selected for the entertainment. Daneing and other amusements will be offered, and refreshments of all kinds will be served. A general invitation is extended, and as the managers intend to make the party worthy of the occasion. and one at which the most pleasant enjoyment can be had, they will permit no improper characters, either male or female, to enter the grove. Omnibusses will run during the day from the Washington House, corner of Sixth and Walnut, and from the International House, corner of Fifth and Market streets, during the day.

ARRIVAL OF ANOTHER REGIMENT.-The 128th regiment P. V. arrived in this city yesterday morning, and proceeded immediately to Camp Curtin. The regiment is principally from Bucks and Lehigh counties, and is at present under command of Major Dyer, of Doylestown, Bucks county. This regiment participated in all the battles of the Army of the Potomac from Pope's retreat to the battle of Chancellorsville. In the latter battle it was very unfortunate. We learn from Dr. A. W. Mathews, the surgeon of the regiment, that their loss at the battle of Chancellorsville amounted to at least two hundred killed, wounded and missing. Colonel J. A. Mathews, of Lewistown, Mifflin county, and Lieutenant Colonel L. Huber Smith, of Reading, Berks county, were taken prisoners. and are now in Richmond. In the battle the regiment occupied the extreme right of Hooker's army, and by a sudden dash of the enemy lost most of the number mentioned by being taken prisoners, Col. Mathews was formerly Major of Gen. Knipe's 46th regiment, and was severely wounded in the arm at the battle of Cedar Mountain-

RECEPTION OF DAUPHIN COUNTY REGIMENT .-The Committee of Arrangements have information that the 127th Regt. P. V. have arrived at Washington, and may be expected here this afternoon or to-morrow morning.

Upon the departure of the regiment from York a signal gun will be fired and the bells of the city will be rung for five miunces. The several bodies and companies will meet at their respective rendezvous, and within one hour thereafter take their places in line as follows, viz:

The military to participate in the procession will form in Second street, with their right upon Market street, under the direction of Assistant Marshal Captain Eby Byers.

The carriages will form a line along Market street, with their right resting upon Second st., under the superintendence of Assistant Marshal Wm. Metzgar.

The several civic societies and the militia of 1862, will report to Assistant Marshal Strominger, who will form them along the north-west side of Market, with right resting upon Third street. The Fire Department will form upon Market street, with their right upon Fourth, under the direction of Deputy Marshal Samuel Search.

As the regiment crosses the river, a national salute-34 guns-will be fired from Capitol Hill. When they shall have been disembarked from the cars, they will take their place in line, and the procession will move over the route prescribed and published. During the progress of the procession guns will be fired every two and a half minutes. Assistant Marshals Dr. Geo. Bailey and Wr. M'Fadden will act as aids to

HENRY M'COBMICK, Chief Marshal.

DECLINES A RECEPTION .- One of the most gallant regiments now lying in Camp Curtin, awaiting to be mustered out, the 122d, Colonel Emlin Franklin, of Lancaster county, refuses a public recention when they return home, from the people of Lancaster county. Since it has been in the service the 122d has won for itself a name for gallant and daring deeds of which it may be proud, and now, when it comes home with ils "brows bound with victorious wreaths," to be snubbed off without a public reception, to be stood out in the cold and be allowed to enter its home without thanks or a welcome, is a disgrace to the county that claims for itself all the patriotism and all the loyalty within it. But is the spirit of party rancor in Lancaster county. The Abolitionists would not agree to the arrangements made by the city councils of Lancaster city, (who, by the way, we believe, are Democrats,) and the consequence was that the regiment, hearing that there was a probability of collision in the proposed ovation, very justly determined not to accept any public reception. We admire the regiment for the noble stand they have taken. Their conduct on the battlefield proved their bravery, and their resistance to the importunities of politicians at home to make their reception subserve political ends proves that they have the moral courage to withstand the wiles of the Abolition tempter. All honor to the gallant 122d.

The following is Col. Franklin's letter to the Committee of Arrangements:

HEADQUARTERS 122D REGT. P. V. HARRISBURG, May 12th, 1863. S. S. Rathvun, Esq., Chairman Committee of Arrangements of City Councils:

DEAR SIE :- At a meeting of the officers of this regiment, representing the views of the men com-posing the command, held for the purpose of considering the invitation of your committee, and those of other parties also, I was directed to return you their sincere thanks for the bonor you propose to conferupon the regiment. Under the peculiar circumetances of the case, however, considering the great difference of opinion existing among the citizens of Lancaster, and the representations made to the members of the regiment, upon the subject, the officers are of the opinion that the only way to preserve to the end that thorough good feeling and unanimity of sentiment and action which has always hitherto characterized this command, is to respectfully request that no public reception be offered to them from any quarter upon their arrival at Lancaster. It is with great regret that they feel compelled to forego the high gratification which the reception of your invitation would have afforded them.

With sentiments of the highest respect for yourself and the body of which you are the representative. I remain Very respectfully your obedient servant,

ENLIN FRANKLIN, Colonel Commanding. Upon the receipt of the above letter, the committee appointed by the Councils held a meeting, and adopted the following, among other resolutions:

Resolved. That whatever the motives may have been, and whatever the influence brought to bear upon their minds in coming to a determination to decline the proper honors by the city government, we, in behalf of those whom we represent, none the less honor and cordially welcome again to our midst, the brave officers and men who have so recently distinguished themselves upon the battlefield of our common country, in defence of our cherished and dear bought liberties, and the restoration of the Union. Resolved, That they have served their country with that patriotism and fidelity which entitles them to the esteem to their fellow citizens and covers their names with an imperishable renown.

PERSONAL.-Sergeant Major William H. Shorb, the 55th regiment P. V., was in this city yesterday. on a furlough to visit his home. Sergeant Major Shorb was formerly first sergeant in Capt. Waterberry's company from this city. He left the company at Beaufort, S. C., a week ago, and reports all of Capt. W.'s men in excellent health and fine

CLEANSE THE BLOOD. — WITH corrupt, disordered or vitiated Blood, you must be sick all over. It may burst out in Pimples, or Sores, or in some active disease, or it may merely keep you listless, depressed and good for nothing. But you cannot have good health while your blood is impure. Ayer's Sarsaparilla purges out these impurities and stimulates the organs of life into vigorous action, restoring the health and expelling disease. Hence it rapidly cures a variety of complaints which are caused by impurity of tae blood, such as Scrojula or King's Evil, Tumors, Ucers, Sores Kruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erystpelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Kingworm, Cancer or Canverous Tumors, Sore Eyes, Female Diseases, such as Retention, Irregularity, Suppression, Whites, Sterility, Syphilis or Veneral Diseases, Liver Complaints and Heart Diseases. Try Ayer's Sarsaparatlla, and see for yourself the supprising activity with which it cleanses the blood and ecures the disorders.
