[Communicated.] THE 12th REGIMENT P. V.—We see it reported in the Philadelphia Inquirer, and republished in the Telegraph, that the above regiment, hailing principally from Berks county, have refused to be received by what these papers term "copperheads."

We have taken pains to inquire into the matter, and have learned this—that the reception tendered to the 12th regiment is of a purely municipal character—that it is open to the participation of every citizen—that the regiment is to be received by the Select and Common Councils of Reading, and the Mayor, who is to make the only address to be delivered on the occasion.

We also have the most undoubted authority for saying, that a reception of any other character would be utterly contrary to the wishes of the officers and soldiers composing the regiment. Indeed we know that the regiment would refuse, and have refused, to be received by any other parties than the city corporation or the citizens generally.

We have taken over on the 1st of April the balance of goods bought of Mr. Roger, for our own store, where we will continue to sell the balance left at very low prices, until the whole are sold.

Among these goods are: 1,000 yards remnants delaine and calico, 16, 18 and 20 cents.

500 yards remnants lawns and other dress goods, 16, 18 and 20 cents.

200 yards of barge and lustre, 20 and 25 cents. 100 yards of linen crash, 16, 18 and 20 cents.

100 yards of brown and grey cloth for summer coats. 1,000 yards of linen, cotton and wool pants stuff, cheap.

300 dozen of the very best pool cotton, white and corded. 1,000 papers of the very best of Smith's needles, 5 cents a paper; also stockings, gloves, pocket handkerchiefs, hoop skirts, all kinds of combs, patent threads, tapes, socks, &c., by the dozen or piece.

We have also on hand yet about 10 pieces of CARPET, which we will sell at 75 cents per yard. 20 pieces of straw matting, cheap. 20 pieces of splendid figured window curtains.

GREAT BARGAINS.—Twenty per cent. Saved.—In order to reduce stock, owing to the tearing down of the old store and building up new, I offer my stock, consisting of a large stock of three-ply Ingrain, Venetian and Rag Carpets; also, furniture of all descriptions, at twenty per cent less than city prices, until the 15th or 20th next.

TO CONSUMPTIVES.—The Advertiser, having been restored to health in a few weeks by a very simple remedy, after suffering severely with a severe lung affection, and the great distress of Consumption, is anxious to make known to his fellow sufferers the means of cure.

To all who desire it, he will send a copy of the prescription used, (free of charge,) with the directions for preparing and using the same, which will find a sure cure of Consumption, or Bronchitis, &c. The only object of the advertiser in sending up the Prescription is to benefit the afflicted, and spread information which he conceives to be invaluable, and he hopes every sufferer will try the remedy, as it will cost them nothing, and may prove a blessing.
