POLICE AFFAIRS.—In yesterday's paper the following items were overlooked:

On Friday a soldier from York county was arrested by officer Brooks, for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, taken before Alderman Kline, and sent to prison for twenty-four hours.

The same officer also found a man on the corner of Fourth and Market on Saturday afternoon, drunk and inciting to riot. He brought the party before the magistrate, who put a quietus to his uproarious conduct by a commitment to the jail for twenty-four hours.

On Friday William Kyme was before Alderman Kline, having been arrested at Reading by officer Brooks, on a warrant issued some time since. He is charged with false pretences, on oath of Wm. S. Shaffer, of this city. The warrant sets forth that Kyme had fraudulently obtained Shaffer's endorsement of a promissory note for $110, drawn by the said Kyme and payable in thirty days—which, having failed to pay, the complainant was obliged to take it up and pay it himself. He was admitted to bail to appear and answer the charge at the next term of quarter sessions.

One Martin Myer was brought before Alderman Kline last evening by special policeman Lieb, on a charge of vagrancy. The former Martin was sent to prison for five days, with orders to leave town at the expiration of that time.

Two table sons of Africa were nabbed by officer Campbell and brought before Alderman Kline yesterday afternoon, charged by James Jackson with a violent assault upon him at the corner of South street and Tanner's alley. Sent to prison in default of bail, to answer at quarter sessions. They answer to the names of William Carney and George Williams.

APPOINTMENT OF DISTRICT SURGEON.—The Government has conferred the appointment of surgeon for this district, under the Enrollment act, upon Dr. S. T. Charlton, of this city, in place of Dr. Lutz, who declined. The powers that be have shown excellent judgment and discrimination in this act. No better selection could have been made, and certainly none more gratifying to the entire public. Dr. C. is a skillful surgeon, a man of probity and intelligence, and an affable and agreeable gentleman.

ROW IN A SALOON.—A party of returned volunteers entered the saloon of Theo. George, on the corner of Market street and Raspberry alley, about 6 o'clock last evening, and asked for beer, which was refused because of the law preventing its sale after that hour. They thereupon began an assault upon the saloon and its proprietor, breaking glass and doing considerable damage. Officers were promptly on the ground and quelled the disturbance.

THE SPRINKLER.—There are many anxious inquirers about this institution. The demand for it steadily increases, and thus far greatly exceeds the supply. The air is murky with dust, which the wind vigorously chases through streets and alleys, whirling it in eddies around the corners, and peeping into the eyes of the pedestrian. At times, when the dust reaches its climax, everybody you meet has his face in his hands, and a goodly stratum of pulverised earth on his garments. This thing cries out from the ground for a remedy. Who will take the machine and "down with the dust?" Is there no able-bodied man or woman to be found who is equal to the crisis?

THE PIANO-TUNING.—The first piano-tuning of the season will be given to-day at Hasbrouck's grove, and it promises to be a very delightful affair. The youth and beauty of this city will be there to participate in the enjoyment of the dance and the other sports offered in the woods. Conveyances will carry persons to the grove, during the day. They can be had at the Washington House, corner of Fifth and Walnut streets, and at Frick's, corner of Fifth and Market.

AN ENTRANCE FEE OF twenty-five cents will be charged at the grove, to defray necessary incidental expenses.

HOLD YOUR HORSES.—The practice of fast riding and driving within the city limits, which we see so frequently indulged in of late, is a violation of law, and is very unnecessary and reprehensible. Almost any hour of the day some "John Q. Public" may be seen flying along the street, with reins loose and horse in full career, bearing down upon unsuspecting footmen with dangerous speed. If such conduct were necessitated by an urgent necessity, either military or civil, no objection could be urged against it; but, as a general thing, we know that the foaming steed is only bearing his rider to some favorite drinking house, on no more urgent business than the refreshment of the inner man. In behalf of the aged men and innocent children, as well as the noble animal thus put to such dangerous and galling use, we appeal to these modern "sons of Nimrod" to tighten their reins. If they continue their precipitate equestrianism, they are likely to impinge against a very solid obstacle in the shape of municipal law, backed and enforced by His Honor the Mayor.

ALL'S WELL THAT ENDS WELL.—A day or two since a discharged soldier named Hugh Peyton, belonging to Reading, from which place he enlisted in the nine months' service, applied to officer Campbell for assistance in obtaining his lost and stolen property, which consisted of an English patent lever hunting-cased watch, some $65 worth of clothing, a Colt's revolver, &c. His mind was disturbed and dejected, for his thieving enemies had taken almost his "only stock and store," leaving him to tell his story with empty hand and heavy heart to strangers, and to seek redress at their hands. Officer Campbell at once set to work, and finally succeeded in getting hold of his clothing and baggage near the depot, and also found his watch in possession of another soldier. Upon receiving them, the grateful owner tendered Barney ten dollars for his valuable services in the case, which was refused. "No, by the Hill o' Howth, he wasn't after taking a soldier laddie's money!" The volunteer then went on his way rejoicing, feeling that among our police force he could always find a friend, and having doubtless profited by the experience of the day.

SERGEANT HUMPHREY'S FUNERAL.—The funeral of Sergeant Charles Hummel took place yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. It was attended by the 12th regiment, to which he belonged, in a body, and by a very large concourse of citizens. As the procession passed through the streets toward the cemetery, moving slowly "with dirges due, in sad array," it touched a sympathetic chord in the hearts of all beholders. But it was by his own company, which followed immediately behind the hearse, as well as by the whole regimental procession, that the loss was most keenly felt. To them he was known, and they loved him for his bravery and goodness of heart. They reversed arms and solemn bearing were the exponents of a true and unfeigned sorrow; and as the Sergeant and his men lowered his body, wrapped in the ever-glorious flag of our country, to its last resting place, and fired the final volley over his grave, they surely felt they had paid the last and noblest tribute to a beloved comrade, a genial companion, and a brave and gallant man.

Ab, soldiers, to his honored rest
Your gallant comrade bearing!
The bravest are the tenderest,
The loving are the darest!
Charles Hummel was "the only son of his mother, and the only a widow." He was all the world to her—her hope and comfort for coming years. Around her cluster the sympathies of the entire community.
