PATIENTS IN HOSPITAL AT CAMP CURTIN .--- We learn that the patients in hospital at this camp now number about sixty-five. Most of these are under treatment for wounds received in the late engagements on the Rappahannock. Bowel complaints are more prevalent among the sick than any other form of disease.

POCKET PICKED .--- A soldier belonging to the 76th Pennsylvania regiment, stationed st Hilton Head, arrived in this city Saturday evening. On coming out of the Lebanon Valley depot he found that his pocket book, containing seventy-five dollars, had been spirited away by some of the prestidigitating fraternity. The thief has not been detected, and it looks as if the investment was permanent.

MAD DOG KILLED .--- A dog belonging to Theo. Fenn, Esq., residing on Walnut street, was seized with paroxysms of madness yesterday, and shot forthwith. Hydrophobia seems to prevail in various parts of the country. The dog law ought to be enforced. The life of a single man is worth all the dog-scalps in the country.

LARGE RHUBABB AND ASPARAGUS .-- The finest bunches of pie-plant and asparagus for size and quality which we have seen this season, were given to us on Saturday morning by Mr. H. A. Mish, nursery-man and gardener. Any amount of the same kind can be had by those desiring it, at his stall in the lower market house, any market morning.

THE NEWS TRADE ON THE CARS .- The newspaper business on the railroad trains has got to be quite an extensive one. On the Pennsylvania road this enterprise is separated into three divisions. A Philadelphia agent has secured the right to sell papers on that part of the line between that city and Harrisburg ; Mr. Jack, of this city, has that portion between here and Altoona; and a Pittsburg firm has the remainder. On some roads large sums are paid by the agents for the privilege of selling. The business must prove remunerative upon a road enjoying a travel so large as that of the Pennsylvania.

this time all efforts to secure him have failed .--Gallagher was very seriously injured, but his wounds are not supposed to be mortal. No cause Cristadoro's Hair Dye and Preservative is known for the murderous deed. Patrick Brogan, living back of the reservoir, was brought before the magistrate by officer Campbell on Saturday night, charged with ill-treatment of a child. Sent to prison for twenty-four hours. A wretched woman named Sarah Miller was arrested on Saturday afternoon by officer Fry, who found her on the canal bridge at the foot of Chestnut street. She was strongly under the influence of liquor. The last spark of decency seemed to have fled. Sent ten days for drunkenness and indecent exposure.

INPORTANT TO BUTCHERS .- In the amended excise law are the following provisions in relation to the tax to be paid by butchers : Butchers shall pay ten dollars for each license. Every person whose business it is to sell butcher's meat at retail shall be regarded as a butcher under this act; and no butcher having taken out a license and paid ten dollars therefor, shall be required to take out a license as retail dealer on account of selling other articles at the same store, stall or premises. Butchers who retail butcher's meat exclusively from a cart or wagon, by themselves or agents, shall be required to pay five dollars only, any existing law to the contrary notwithstanding; and having taken out a license therefor, shall not be required to take out a license as a pedlar for retailing butcher's meat, as aforesaid. No license shall be required of a butcher whose annual sales do not exceed a thousand dollars.

LIGHT UP THE BRIDGE .- Why is the Harrisburg bridge not lighted? This is a question which ought to be solved. The convenience and safety of the traveling public demand it. Those who have been in town, and who may be detained to a late hour, are obliged to grope their way through the bridge in utter darkness, liable to stumble over drunken sleepers and to run foul of others coming from the opposite side. The heavy tribute which the traveling public pay for the use of the bridge, swelling the dividends of its profitable stock, should be an all-sufficient reason to compel its managers to make an improvement so much needed and so loudly called for. There is danger in a long, dark, covered bridge-danger to life, limb and property -and many a lurking robber has done his work of darkness in such a place. Let not the traveler be compelled to run the gauntlet of such dangers through that which spans the Susquehanna, dodging imaginary timbers and spectre cudgels as he goes, but give him light and let him go his way in peace and quietude of mind.

POLICE AFFAIRS-Before Alderman Kline.-A "dark complected" daughter of Ham, who had taken overmuch of the "vitriol madness," and was indulging in window-smashing and other innocent amusements near the depot, was arrested in her mad career about 1 o'clock on Saturday morning by officers Campbell and Brooks. She gave in her name as Nancy Jane Green-svidently a misnomer, as black can't be called either green or white with any show of plausibility. She was sent to the "donjon keep" of the tower on Walnut street for ten days. Miss G.'s glass-breaking propensities are another vindication of the hypothesis once advanced by a certaia "cullud pusson" who, in answering a question put to him before a jury in the trial of a similar offence, told lawyer Detweiler. that those smash-ups were "the legitimate result of the iconoclastic disposition of the Ethiopian race."

On Saturday forenosn information was made by Jas. Mitchell, before Alderman Kline, that at 3 o'clock that morning John Maxwell stabbed Peter Gallagher at his own house. Both parties live on the Poor House road, beyond Paxton bridge .--Gallagher keeps a boarding-house, and Maxwell was seen to enter it about 3 o'clock. Others in the house saw him go into Gallagher's room, where he the side. He immediately decamped, and up to Brooklyn, N.

rive from Harrisburg. Christian Holtzman fell dead at his residence in York, on the 14th, from a stroke of apoplexy.

LUZERNE COUNTY .- Several buildings in Plymouth were destroyed by fire on Saturday eve ning at 6 o'clock.

Mr. Stephen N. Bradford has received the appointment of provost marshal of the district. M. B. Helme, of Montrose, has been appointed com-missioner, and Dr. H. P. Moody, of Franklin township, surgeon.

The Union says that the Wyoming coal field on both sides of the river will be open to the seaboard ere many months elapse, by a continuous line down the Lehigh.

ADAMS COUNTY .- Two children of Mr. Peter Neiderer, of Brushtown, were scalded, in the tem-porary absence of Mrs. Niederer on Sunday morning, by upsetting a cook stove, and one of them so injured as to cause its death in a few hours. WARREN COUNTY .--- Wm. F. Dalrymple has been re-elected County Superintendent.

ALLEGHENY COUNTY .- The Chronicle says that there are now ten new steamers at the Monongahela wharf, and two at the Allegheny wharf. Th latter are rapidly approaching completion, and will probably be ready for service next week. A serious accident occurred at the Niles railroad depot on Wednesday morning. Mr. J. Dancan Ward, of Niles, while attempting to get on the coal train, while it was under motion, slipped and fell between the cars and the platform, and had both his legs so badly crushed below the knees, that death soon sfterwards ensued.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

MOTHERS! MOTHERS!! MO-THERS !! !-- Don't fail to procure Mrs. WINSLOW'S Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and has been used for thirty years with never failing sifety and success by millions of mothers and children, from the feeble infant of one week old to the adult.

It not only relieves the child from pain, tut invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system.
