PROCLAMATION.

The imperative necessity which required the closing of drinking houses in this city, at 6 o'clock p. m., having ceased, the parties concerned in this bran ch of traffic are hereby otified that they can now, with propriety, resume he legitimate pursuit of their business. The Mayor tenders his sincere thanks to all the parties concerned in the liquor business and to the citizens generally, for the promptness and a lacrity with which they responded to the appeal he was obliged to make to their love of civic peace and good order in the late emergency. A. L. ROUMFORT, Mayor.

MAYOR'S OFFICE, HARRISBURG, June 1, 1863.

MAJOR WILLIAM A. WEST, Sixteenth Pennsylvania cavalry, arrived in town yesterday morning from his command at Warrenton, Va., and is stopping at the Brady House: As an officer, Major West has won a reputation for bravery and efficiency, and as a man he is popular with a large circle of acquaintances.

HONORABLY DISCHARGED .--- Capt. H. W. Croizer, commanding company D, 150th regiment P. V., has been compelled to resign his commission by reason of impaired health, and has returned to his residence in Lewisburg, Union county, having received an honorable discharge on the 19th inst. Captain C. was in service nine months, and is said to have proved himself a brave and efficient officer.

MADE RESTITUTION .- A man named Lawrence Monegan, a soldier belonging to company K, 137th regiment P. V., who had been arrested on Thursday at Bostgen's tavern, on Ridge road, by policeman Lieb, for picking the pocket of a comrade in camp, was released from custody on Saturday morning. He made full restitution of the amount stolen-some forty-two dollars-whereupon he was allowed the liberty which by his act he had forfeited.

THE PIC-NIC TO-DAY .--- The "Eintracht" pic-nic, postponed from last Monday on account of unfavorable weather, takes place at Hachnlen's grove to-day. The association have made preparations to render their guests comfortable and happy, and will doubtless sustain their former reputation for eleverness in matters of this kind.

Carriages will run to the ground during the afternoon from the residence of L. Koenig, Chestnut street. An admittance fee of twenty-five cents will be charged. The invitation is to all persons of respectability.

POLICE AFFAIRS .- Before Alderman Kline .-Yesterday morning officer Fry arrested John Boals for assault and battery, on complaint of Philip M'Cann. The same officer also arrested M'Cann, on a cross action brought by Boals for the same offense. Both parties live near the Round house, and both entered bail in $100 to appear at court.

On Saturday evening a man named Jas. Wilcon was arrested on Walnut street by officer Cline, for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, and committed to prison for three days:

James Brown, a mulatto living in Cherry alley, was arrested by officer Brooks yesterday forenoon, charged by his mother-in-law, Phillis Potts, with assault and battery and brutal treatment of herself and daughter. Her story was a pitiful one .--Brown was committed for trial.

On HIS TRAVELS .--- William Williams, arrested and committed to prison in this place on Thursday for house-breaking and larceny in Fairview on Wednesday night, left for Carliele on Saturday in charge of officer Cline, where he will answer for his felony to the Quarter Sessions of Cumberland county. The gay William left well laden with jewelry for the hands and legs, a stock of which Capt. Simmons keeps constantly on hand. From various facts elicited, it would appear that William | A large number of clergymen were upon the plathas from time to time very freely indulged his propensity for acquiring "portable property." Besides the articles which he stole at Fairview, officer Campbell also found that he had in his possession the regalia which was taken from the hall of the colored Free Masons during the riot in this place on Monday night, and also other articles of various descriptions. From this it may be inferred that William is a mean man, and ought to be most effectually "cabined, cribbed and confined." He seems to be in a fair way for that sort of thing just now.

THE SUPPER OF THE CITIZEN FIRE COMPANY .----On Saturday evening the members of the Citizen fire company gave a welcoming supper on Independence Island to those of their comrades-some twenty-five in number-who recently returned from the wars with the 127th regiment. Through the courtesy of its managers we were present at the festival, and can testify, from personal expe rience and observation, to the pleasant and enjoyable character of the proceedings had upon the occasion. The weather appeared unfavorable during the early part of the evening; a very large and disagreeable cloud had formed in the sky across the river, which seemed to be well stocked with thunderbolts, and which slowly came up and stood over the Island, threatening to play upon it and deluge the prospects and provender of the whole concern. It was, however, deemed prudent by the managers to pay no attention to the meteorological demonstrations overhead, as it might only make matters worse. The fates, thus ignored, grew propitious and smiled upon such pluck out of a clear sky. Whereupon the rest of the fellows

"smiled." At half past seven we were bidden to the feast under the trees, which was furnished forth by the enterprising proprietors, Messrs. Becker and Folk, and was creditable to them and worthy of those in whose honor it had been ordered. The caterers evidently understood the magnitude of the crisis. They had killed the fatted calf, and made heavy drafts upon fish, flesh and fowl, wherewith to heap up an offering deserving of the boys who had for nine months been running with the government "masheen" and playing vigorously upon the fires of rebellion. It was a "feast of reason and a flow of soul." The latter was kept in kegs.

R. J. Haldeman presided at the board as President, assisted by Vice Presidents Samuel Knox and William Rauch, and Secretaries Joseph Montgomery and E. W. Shell. After the cloth had been removed, loud cries were made for Col. Haldeman, which finally brought him to his feet, and he responded in a brief but eloquent speech, paying a warm tribute to the valor of Pennsylvania, and concluding with the toast, "The Keystone State and her defenders." The sentiment was responded to with three cheers and a "tiger," in the most improved fireman style. C. M. Shell, Esq., was next called out, and indulged in divers happy hits and friendly sentiments.

All parties now betook themselves to enjoyment, and the hours wore away with song and dance. The "Star Spangled Banner" was beautifully rendered by Krause's band of vocalists. A cotillion was formed on the raised platform, upon which a graceful stag party "glode" to the moving melody of Signor Eplerdi's violincello. Ease was in all their movements, but we cannot forbear particular mention of the polished grace of R. S. B., the genteel genufications of "Mickey" C., the elephantine elegance of "Cooney" E., and the harlequin irregularities of "Dutch Dan"-the latter of whom belonged to a party of "outside barbarians" who had sent over a flag of truce from the opposite shore and had been admitted within the lines, and whose terpsichorean abilities are not at all proportionate to his fondness for music.

Finally, after the moon had elimbed a good way up the sky, the party adjourned for home, each one satisfied that he had had a comfortable and "happifying" time,

SECOND EVANGELICAL LUTHEBAN CHURCH .--- We had prepared a detailed account of the ceremonies attending the laying of the corner-stone of this church, which was lost or mislaid. At the hour appointed, (4 p. m. of Friday,) a goodly number were in attendance, attracted thither both by the ties of Christian fellowship and by the unusual character of the occasion.

The ceremonies were interesting and impressive. form, of whom the following named took part in the formalities : Rev. E. S. Johnston, pastor of the church : Rev. Mr. Parsons, of Munoy : Rev. Mr. Fry, of Carlisle; Rev. Mr. Conrad, of Lancaster: Rev. Charles A. Hay, of this city ; Rev. Dr. Lochman, of York, and Rev. Ephraim Miller, of Illinois.

HARRISBURG CENETERY .- MR. EDITOR :- I no. tice a communication in the PATRIOT AND UNION of Saturday morning, in which the writer thinks that the surplus money of the association had better be used in beautifying and improving the ground than investing it at interest.

The present board have spent all that they have felt to be necessary in improving the grounds, reserving some part yearly to be invested at interest, in order to maintain the cemetery when the revenue shall cease from the sale of lots, which have been rapidly taken during the last two years. The necessity will also arise to increase the amount of ground to supply the wants of a growing city, and thus a fund would be provided to meet such emergency.

Unless some such investment was made, there would, in either case, be a necessity to assess an amount on the lot holders to meet such expenses. or money would have to be borrowed for the purchase of additional ground. A LOT HOLDER. HAVING no time to spare from my business to give attention to cemetery matters, and being placed on a ticket without my knowledge, I most respectfully decline the nomination.

THE CONCERT OF THE "HARMONIC."-The concert

given by the Harmonic Society, for the benefit of the Christian Commission, on Friday evening, was a complete success. The large court room was crowded with the elite of our town, and all seemed delighted with the performance. The society performed on the occasion the beautiful cantata of the "Haymakers," by Root, and the manner in which it was rendered reflects infinite credit on the musical talent of our city. The Young Men's Christian Association are certainly under obligations to Mr. Ward, the present conductor of the society, for the energy and perseverance displayed by him in getting up the concert.

In this connection, we would like to point out parts that seemed particularly beautiful, but our space will not permit. Suffice it to say that the different characters were well sustained by the various performers to whom they were assigned. Miss Barnitz, as "Mary," made a decided hit, exhibiting powers of a high order. The parts of "Anns," "Dairy Maid," "Farmer," "William" and "John" were artistically sustained respectively by Miss Roberts, Miss Robinson, and Messrs. Ayres, Saxton and Tarbutton.

TREMENDOUS FIRE AT JOHNSTOWN !- The Telegraph of Friday evening, on the authority of a private dispatch, announced the most terrible kind of a fire at Johnstown on that day, which had consumed three squares and cost thirty lives. The Johnstonians were also represented to be very much distressed and demoralized. As nothing more was said about the fire in Saturday's paper, we infer that it is raging yet, but that the whole affair, like a certain dreadful earthquake that once occurred, has been "most shamefully hushed up."

The president of the telegraph line at this place affirms that no such dispatch reached his office last week. It is pretty certain, however, that the operator on the hill did receive some such private dispatch, and that, yielding in a fatal moment to the seductive influences and winning ways of the Descon, he "up and told him"-and the Telegroph laid Johnstown in ashes in less than two hours afterwards. The revelation of private dispatches by an operator is a violation of confidence and trust, which his obligations should prevent him from committing, and which the company ought not to permit or tolerate. The man who, in such a position, yields to the spinster-like weakness of undue communicativeness, deserves to be hoaxed in the wholesale manner in which it was done in this instance.

When copying the alarming intelligence into our columns, we instinctively accompanied it with a warning clause, which the event proves to have been well put in.

We think the Telegraph owes an apology to the people of Johnstown, whom it so summarily wiped out of existence, and also to its readers, whom it. has once more crammed with the east wind. But ho apology, no correction, will appear. That paper's "roorbacks," like the laws of the Medes and Persians, change not. The articles deposited in the corner stone consisted of a Bible. Lutheran Catechism, the Augsburg Confession, a history of the Church, an autograph letter of George Washington, a small national flag, a number of religious papers, &c.

The music, which was under the leadership of

Mr. Silas Ward, was of an excellent order. The grand, immutable tune of "Old Hundred," which Luther sang many a time with all the force and fervor of his nature, concluded the coremonies, which had been conducted under the most favoring auspices of Him for whose sole honer and glory all earthly sanctuaries should be set apart.

THE CEMETERY .--- It may have been "penny wise and pound foolish" in the managers of the Harrisburg Cemetery, to cut off the perquisites of the meagre salary of the keeper ; but your correspondent "Progress" has furnished us with an original ides, in his objection to the "accumulation of a fund" to meet future expenses. In this age of shameful extravagance, it is refreshing that it is made the ground of exception to the re-election of the managers of any public association, that they are economical to a fault. The spirit of gain and rage for improvement predominates in our age, and in selecting a place to bury our dead out of sight, the great object is to select a sacred spotthat will not be disturbed by the innovator, and hit on a plan for keeping "the city of the dead" in good repair for all future time.

The period will arrive when we will have no more lots to sell-when our sources of revenue will be dried up-and when those "who sleep the sleep that knows no waking" will have no mourning relatives here to dress and adorn their last resting place. Have not the Board acted wiselv. in setting apart a fund, the proceeds of which, it is expected, will for all time to come keep our FORRTHOUGHT. cemetery in good repair?

[Communicated.]

MR EDITOR: It seems to the writer that quite an error of judgment was committed by those having charge of the election of cemetery officers today, in regard to the hours appointed for holding the election. They must have overlooked the fact that during these hours-from 2 to 6 p. m .- it will be a difficult matter for laboring men who are lot owners to attend the polls. It is too late now to remedy the mistake, but it would be well to suggest to all that class that it will be necessary for them to quit work before the regular hour, provided they would have a voice in the selection of officers. Of course, no such inconvenience was meditated by those having charge of the matter. It was probably the result of an oversight on their part. X.

IMPROVEMENT .- Mr. John Donner, the well known saloon keeper of this place, has commenced the erection of a building on Walnut street, between Third and Fourth. The structure will be of brick, thirty feet by forty, and three stories high. It is his intention to make it a first-class beer saloon. The entire lot on which it stands is to be beautified and fitted up as a beer garden, thus meeting a want which has long been felt by the

Although not dispose d to favor or recommend Pat-ent Medicines in general, through distrat of their ingre-dients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple proparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others. in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others. I do this more readily in regard to "Hoofland's German Bitters," prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this eity. because I was prejudiced against them for years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic min-ture. I am indebted to my friend, Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper test, and for encouragement to try them when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bedily and mental vigor which I had net fe't for six months before, and had almost despaired of re-gaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for d'-recting me to the use of them. Phi'adelphis, June 23, 1861.
