MONSTER MASS MEETING IN INDEPENDENCE SQUARE. THIRTY THOUSAND FREEMEN ON THE GROUND. A great mass meeting of the Democracy of Philadelphia, to protest against the arbitrary arrest, trial and ostracism of Hon. C. L. Vallandigham, and vindicate the right of free speech.

THE PATRIOT & UNION. WEDNESDAY MORNING, JUNE 3, 1863. MONSTER MASS MEETING IN INDEPENDENCE SQUARE. THIRTY THOUSAND FREEMEN ON THE GROUND.

of exile, it is the sense of this meeting that it is the right of Mr. Vallandigham, and it will be the like right of any other citizen upon whom there should be attempted to be inflicted by like tyranny a like unlawful and infamous punishment, to return forthwith, notwithstanding his mock sentence, to the State of which he is a citizen, and there resume his place among those who are laboring for the regeneration of the Constitution and the reconstruction of the Union.

of exile, it is the sense of this meeting that it is the right of Mr. Vallandigham, and it will be the like right of any other citizen upon whom there should be attempted to be inflicted by like tyranny a like unlawful and infamous punishment, to return forthwith, notwithstanding his mock sentence, to the State of which he is a citizen, and there resume his place among those who are laboring for the regeneration of the Constitution and the reconstruction of the Union.

5. That in the letter of the Hon. Horatio Seymour, of New York, to the late public meeting of the Democratic citizens of Albany, condemning the proceedings of the administration against Mr. Vallandigham, we recognize the tone and language of a statesman, and the spirit of a man worthy to be, at a great crisis, the Chief Magistrate of a great State.

6. That as it is only to the ballot-box we can look for permanent relief, and as we deem it to be altogether incredible and impossible that when called to cast their votes, the citizens of Pennsylvania, of whatever party, should not find themselves, by such monstrous events as have been passing before their eyes, moved in patriotic and just indignation to drive from power all Pennsylvania politicians who stand in the way of our asserting the freedom of our persons and the rights of our State, we will, therefore, wait with confidence the October election to give to the Democratic party—the party of conservatism as well as freedom—a Governor and both houses of the Legislature; and we expect to bring in such overwhelming majorities as may be reasonably reckoned on, when the question comes fairly up between Liberty and the Constitution on the one side, and on the other the most ignominious oppression.

NEW YORK POLITICS. From the Albany Argus. THE ISSUE MADE BETWEEN POLITICAL PARTIES. The resolutions of the Democratic State Committee defining with calmness and clearness the position of the party on the momentous questions of war and peace. They accept with alacrity and meet with boldness the challenge cast down by the Loyal Leaguers at Utica, and accept the defence of the great doctrines of civil liberty against the assaults of its enemies.

Resolved, That we accept the issue thus tendered us by a party which proclaims its contempt of the Constitution and the laws; and that we will go before the people of this State and of the country, with full confidence that they will not throw away those principles of civil and religious liberty, taught to them by the great and good men of the country, and incorporated in the foundations and framework of our government.

Resolved, That not only the disorganizing principles avowed by the retainers of the administration, but the arbitrary acts of its subordinates, are calculated to inspire the friends of constitutional government throughout the world with alarm; the dispersal of conventions of the people by armed force, the suppression of public journals, the arrest of citizens and ejection from opinions uttered in the forum and the pulpit, and their cruel and unseasonable punishment, the coercion and falsification of the votes of soldiers, the public removal, with opprobrious stigma, of an officer of a New Hampshire regiment, for the offence of voting the Democratic ticket—are acts which run through the whole code of despotic systems and turn the guarantees of constitutional liberty into a mockery and a snare.

Resolved, That while we do not object to the rightful exercise of military law, within the lines of insurrectionary strife, we maintain that beyond those limits, the civil law is supreme, and that those who seek to prevent its enforcement by arms are traitors to the country and the Constitution.

Resolved, That we recognize in the statesman-like letter of Governor Seymour to the late Albany meeting, a noble defence of the principles of civil liberty, to which we pledge our firm and unanimous support.

THE STATE CONVENTION. The near approach of the time for holding the Democratic State Convention, is naturally drawing the public mind, with increasing interest, toward the probable action of that important body. Those who feel how weighty the considerations are which hang upon its deliberations; and who are anxious to see the results of its action as an expression of their intense anxiety for the result. The question is asked, with an earnestness never before felt, will this Convention, as a representative of the great National party that, for so many years, successfully administered the government in strict accordance with the letter and spirit of the Convention, and, abjuring all sectionalism, held the Union together in the bonds of mutual fraternity and interest—will it rise to the full measure of the importance of the work before it, and, regarding only the present and future welfare of the people who confide in it, and the perilous condition of our now distracted country, act as the spirit of pure patriotism, and a sense of the dangers that assail not only the Union, but the very fabric of freedom itself, shall dictate? Or will it be a mere repetition of what such bodies have too often been in former and ordinary times—a squabble of rival factions and petty local or personal interests, each intent on gaining its own selfish, and perhaps, unworthy ends? The people expect much at the hands of this Convention, and should they be deemed to disappoint, the responsibility will rest upon the heads of those to whom that disappointment shall have to be charged.

At a meeting of the Democratic State Committee, held at the Delaware House at Albany, on Thursday, May 28th, 1863, the following resolutions were, after full consideration, unanimously adopted: This Committee deem the expression of their views upon the following subjects, at this time, as appropriate and demanded by the circumstances of the country:

FIRST—SUPPORT OF THE GOVERNMENT. Resolved, That this Committee fully approve the following resolution, adopted by the last Democratic State Convention: "That they will continue to render the government their sincere and united support in the use of all legitimate means to suppress the rebellion and restore the Union as it was, and maintain the Constitution as it is—believing that that sacred instrument, founded in wisdom by our fathers, clothes the constituted authorities with full power to accomplish such purpose."

SECOND—MOVEMENTS FOR PEACE. Resolved, 1. That we earnestly desire the restoration of peace to our beloved country, now so long desolated by the scourge of this unnatural and fratricidal war. 2. That the terms of peace, as well as the necessarily determined the future character of our government, and the destiny of our country. 3. That we have not faith in the views, the purposes, or the capacity of the dominant party, to determine questions of vital importance to the liberties, the rights and the happiness of the American people. 4. That we hold that it is incapable of making an honorable, beneficial peace, as experience has shown it to be of waging successful war. 5. That—as the inauguration of affirmative peace movements at this time by those who have no power to give effect to their views, might afford the dominant party a pretext, in conspiracy with the Southern Confederacy, to make a peace by a separation of the States: And whereas, the Democratic and conservative masses of our people, who are opposed to any terms of peace which fail to restore the Union and save the Constitution, hesitate to trust that measure to the hands of those who are hostile to both—we deem this a fit occasion to protest against the negotiation of a peace by the administration, except upon the basis of a preservation of the Union and of the government established by the Constitution.

THIRD—USURPATION OF POWER AND INVASION OF PERSONAL RIGHTS. WHEREAS, The Republican party, through their journals, and through their accustomed speakers, at an organized meeting recently held in the city of Utica, have openly declared that this government ought to place the Military above the Civil and Judicial authority; that it ought not to be held in check by the Constitution of the United States, or of the States; and that it may rightfully disregard the contract of the land, by suppressing freedom of speech, violating the homes of our citizens, and depriving them of their liberties, without due process of law, or trial by jury; And whereas, The great end of all free governments is to secure to the people the rights of persons, of property, of the freedom of speech, and public discussion and of religious and political opinion; therefore, in behalf of the Union-loving and law-abiding citizens of this State, we repel and denounce the slavish, cowardly and despotic principles thus put forth by political assemblies, which appropriate to themselves the right of the contract of the land, by suppressing freedom of speech, violating the homes of our citizens, and depriving them of their liberties, without due process of law, or trial by jury; And whereas, The great end of all free governments is to secure to the people the rights of persons, of property, of the freedom of speech, and public discussion and of religious and political opinion; therefore, in behalf of the Union-loving and law-abiding citizens of this State, we repel and denounce the slavish, cowardly and despotic principles thus put forth by political assemblies, which appropriate to themselves the right of the contract of the land, by suppressing freedom of speech, violating the homes of our citizens, and depriving them of their liberties, without due process of law, or trial by jury;
