REMOVED .- The office of Surgeon J. P. Wilson has been removed from Second street to the Camp Cartin hespital.

FUNERAL. The funeral of the late John Mitchell will take place from his residence on Second steet at three o'clock this afternoon. The friends of the deceased are respectfully invited at attend.

MORE GUNS FOR NEW YORK HARBOR .- Two more guns from the Fort Pitt works, directed to "Robert A. Wainwright, U. S. A., New York Arsenal," were transported through the city yesterday. They are snug looking columbiads, of modderate size, with a bore of about eight inches—the one weighing 8,475 pounds, the other 8,425 pounds. They will be put in position upon the defences of New York barbor.

POLICE AFFAIRS .- Before Alderman Kline .-Helena Johnson, keeping a beer saloon on State street, was arrested yesterday by officer Kline, and held to answer for selling lager beer to minors.-She entered bail in $200 for her appearance at court.

John Kelly, committed on Wednesdey for assault and disorderly conduct, on oath of John Messner, entered bail in the sum of $300 yesterday, and was released from custody.

Officer Brooks yesterday arrested an Irishman named William Murphy, for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, at Herr's Hotel. Committed for twenty-four hours.

A MEAN THEFT.-Some despicable "Arab" made a raid into the premises of Mr. Wesley Reese. Fifth street, above Market, and tried to enter his house through the cellar, using a hatchet to force open the door. Failing in this, the thief or thieves laid predatory hands on a canary cage hanging on the outside of the house, and spirited away the innocent little warbler. The future path of that man ought to swarm with buzzerds and screechowls, and "the ravens of the valley and the young eagles" should retaliate upon his eyes, until he brings the bird back to her bower. Mr. Reese has twice before been disturbed by parties belonging to the "Knights of the centre-bit." Let them remember that the rod of justice don't always lie in pickle, but is once in a while taken out for use.

MUST BE "GOOD FOR ALL THEY ADVERTISE."-Commissioner Lewis has decided that medicine manufacturers must be held by their advertisements-that is, that those who claim that their medicines have peculiar properties, for the purpose of making them sell well, cannot excuse themselves from taxes on the ground that they are only ordinary drugs of the pharmacopia, as some quacks seek to do. This is right. The sale of patent panaceas in this country is immense, and must yield a fabulous percentage to many of their proprietors. In all our large cities may be found brown stone-fronted palaces built out of sarsaparilla, and private pleasure grounds purchased with the profits of sugar-coated pills and "prickly porous plasters." Let the tax commissioners soutch the wheels of this Juggernaut of humbuggery which is rolling over the land, crushing the wallets of over-confiding people as flat as flounders, and mocking their hopes of health.

THE ENROLLMENT.—Active preparations are being made by the proper officers to enroll the militia of this district. In a few days the machine will be fairly in motion. The matter of registering names is merely preliminary, and no one need trouble himself about his claim to exemption until he receives a printed notice that he has been drafted. He then has the privilege of appearing before the Board of Enrollment during ten days after the reception of the notice, and presenting the grounds upon which he claims exemption .-This will relieve the minds of many who may be considering the validity of their right to exemption. All citizens drafted will be heard, and their cases carefully considered, as the law provides that none but able-bodied citizens of a certain age, legally as well as physically qualified, can be taken. After the person has been drafted and found qualified, the citizens who prefer peace to war may be exempted from service in the field by paying $300 to the government in lieu of service, which money will go towards constituting a bounty fund for these who voluntarily join the army.

THE WEATHER.-We have kept mum on this mighty theme until longer silence begins to be intolerable. There is so little said in reference to it that we really begin to have a suspicion that all information upon the subject is deemed contraband by the powers that be. We would venture to remark, however, that we are, as a general thing, in the enjoyment of weather. Also, that the air of yesterday and the day before was what might be called fresh and pleasant, if one were to speak plainly and the censorship of the press were non-extant. Also, and finally-and this we say boldly, even if it be at the risk of a foot-race with the long-legged "Government" from Springfield-that the drenching rain which fell at the first of the week was distributed in a very partial manner over this section, some localities but a few miles from town not getting "ary drop," And while in this connection we would give a new theory in regard to the cause of the sudden cool snaps which characterize this climate. A rebel paper, ignoring our perspicuous iceberg theory, attributes these late changes to the "coolness of the Yankee cavalry in presuming to invade so deeply into the soil of Dixie." We are now disposed to account for the recent coolish temperature in this "neck of woods" on the hypothesis of heavy rains up in the mountains, produced by the Telegraph's late terrible fire at Johnstown.

STRAWBERRIES.-The strawberry carnival has fairly begun. They were to be seen on sale at the huckster stands in plentiful quantities yesterday, at the humming price of a dollar a quart Most of them were brought from Baltimore. We took out our bundle of postage stamps and made a fine calculation, but couldn't bring the berries within range of our pecuniary influences, and so we stood "fornenst" the tempting fruit with watery mouth and moist eye, and looked long and fondly at it, and gazed-

"How long we gaze, despite of pair, And know, but dare not own, we gaze in vain." At length we slowly retired from the scene, feeling that our strawberry time was not yet come. The first run of these, like the first run of shad and other delicacies, is pretty much for the use and behoof of contractors and others laboring under a plethora of money. They are contractor berries. They will cheapen and sweeten as the days grow longer, and by and bye will make their way even through narrow alleys into one-story houses. The strawberry is defined by botanists as "a plant of the genus fragaria, and"-not hard to take. We forget the conclusion of the definition, but are willing to stake our reputation as to the truthfulness of that which we have supplied. It abounds in market gardens, and also grows wild in spots, generally in somebody else's ground than vour own. We found, when very small, that rolling over a wild strawberry patch in tow clothes had a tendency to impart a piebald and strawberrypatched appearance to the outer man. It is a sure way, however, of taking an impression of the patch and finding out where all the berries are hid .--Cream and strawberries are inseperable, and it is a wise arrangement that cow cattle and strawberries go, in a manner, hand in hand, the one being found where the other exists. Most people are foud of strawberries—that is, as Crockett would say, "there's a less number is that isn't than isn't that is."

A Bold Burglary.—Early on Wednesday evening the house of Rev. Mr. Cattell, on Front st. was forcibly entered by one or more persons, and articles taken therefrom, the number and value of which has not been ascertained. Mr. Cattell is abs sent at Peoria, Ill., attending the meeting of the General Assembly of the Old School Presbyterian Church, and the house was unoccupied at the time the depredations were committed. A man who was getting swill in the back yard of the house discovered in the barrel a fine suit of broadcloth clothes, with which he started for the house, but, finding the doors locked and the cellar door open, his suspicions were aroused. He notified the neighbors, and a subsequent examination of the premises by them, with one of whom the key had been left, established the fact of the robbery. The door opening from the cellar to the inside had a hole knocked through the wood-work, through which the thief had thrust his hand and drawn the bolt. Vigilant efforts were made by the police to secure the offenders, but up to this time no arrest has been made. Had the affair been in their hands from the time the discovery was first made, the result would probably have been different. No bolder or more impudent offense of this kind has been known here for same time. For a successful operation of this nature, there is nothing better than sublime impudence and reckless audacity.

A Horse Turns a Back Somersault .- Mr. Charles Buehler, dealer in bottled ale and porter, had occasion to take a full one-horse load of it to Middletown yesterday. Just as he had got across the Chestnut street canal bridge, a locomotive came thundering along the track of the Lebanon Valley road, immediately in front, at sight of which the horse began to "advance backward" with fright. The embankment, which nearly spans the space between the bridge and the track, is quite narrow, and in a moment the wagon was backed over it, acquiring such a momentum in its downfall as to sling his horseship sheer over the entire concern and land him in the "tempestuous canawl." from whence he was afterwards extricated. considerably hurt and about half drowned. The hind end of the wagon brought up against a snutbing post at the foot of the embankment, breaking the bottles and scattering showers of ale and porter all over that section of country. The driver was not injured. This feat of "Zampilaerhosstation" heats all the horse-tumbling we have heard of. We'll bet a peck of oats with that horse that he can't do it again.

NORTHERN CENTRAL RAILWAY .- This road, since it has come under the control principally of Pennsylvania interests, is rapidly inproving in efficiency and usefulness. The amount of transportation over it at this time is immense, and constantly increasing. It is now the great central thoroughfare from Washington and. Baltimore to the North and great Northwest, and its connections are constantly extending and penetrating farther and farther .-By a recent arrangement, control has been precured of the whole line to Elmira, N. Y., thus placing both Philadelphia and Baltimore in direct communication with that point, and there will be no detention of frieght or passengers direct through to Buffalo, the Suspension Bridge, the Falls of Ni. agara, &c. In less than a year from this time the Sunbury and Eric road will be completed, connecting with the Northern Central at Williamsport. and making a much shorter connection with Chicago and the whole West, by way of Erie.

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whisky or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the teste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed. This class of Bitters has caused, and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Acoho is Stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendent upon Testifying of their own personal knowledge, to the ben clai affects and m-dical virtues of these Bitters.

From Rev. J Newton Brown. D. D., Editor of Encyclopedia of Beligious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus centribute to the benefit of others.

of others.

I do this more readily in regard to "Hoofland's German Bitters," prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic minture. I am indebted to my friend, Robert Shoemake, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper test, and for encouragement to try them when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bedily and mental vigor which I had not fet for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them

In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the ick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debi ity. Every case of that kind can be readily curved by Hoofland's German Bitters. We have be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters.
