By the Arago we have some interesting items from Hilton Head. The contemplated second negro expedition into Florida-the expense which the Government is saddling the people with in the single item of educating contrabands-and especially the letter of General Hunter to Jefferson Davis will attract atten-

NEGRO EXPEDITION TO FLORIDA. Notwithstanding the kindness of General Hunter to the contrabands, they evince no desire to enlist. The draft which the General ordered has been in part unsuccessful. Officers were sent to hunt up the negroes throughout every portion of the State under the protection of the national flag, but the blacks, in large numbers, hid themselves, and thus escaped the conscription. It is believed that many of them escaped to a point near the confederate lines, where lack of food may make their capture

The efforts of Gen. Hunter to raise a black brigade have been unsuccessful. There are three skeleton negro regiments at Hilton Head. The corps commanded by Cel. Montgomery, consisting of conscripts and volunteers, numbers only three hundred and fifty men. In order to raise it up to a maximum number, Gen. Hunter has made arrangements to forward an expedition to the coast of Florida, with instructions to proceed to the interior, to seize the negroes and impress them into the service of the United States. It will be remembered that a similar expedition was a failure. The steamers Nelly Baker and John Adams are to convey black troops to a point in Florida for

LADIES TEACHING THE CONTRABANDS.

Gen. Hunter gives nearly all his time to make the negroes available for United States service, and his attention and kindness to the blacks have evoked a feeling against him by the white soldiers.

The white soldiers, however, knowing that a ball and chain or the Rip Raps would be the penalty of calling Gen. Hunter's negro policy into question, refrain from doing so. There are at present about five hundred ladies teaching the children of the contrabands on the several islands, and it is stated that the pupils have made great progress. The ladies are paid by the United States.

SKEDADDLE TO ESCAPE THE DRAFT.

About 200 male passengers arrived in the Arago. Their return here is attributed to the order of Gen. Hunter, providing that all found in South Carolina, not employed by the Government after twenty days from its date, should be drafted. The order has created great excitement among the sutlers. GENERAL HUNTER'S LETTER TO JEFF. DAVIS.

The following letter from General Hunter to Jeff. Davis is printed in the Free South, dated May 30:

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF THE SOUTH, Hilton Head, Port Royal, April 23d, 1863.

Jefferson Davis, Richmond, Va.:

The United States flag must protect all its defenders-white black, or yellow. Several negroes in the employ of the Government, in the Western Department, have been cruelly murdered by your authorities, and others sold into slavery. Every outrage of this kind against the laws of humanity which may take place in this Department, shall be followed by the immediate execution of the rebel of highest rank in my possession. Man for man, these executions will certainly take place, for every one murdered or sold into a slavery worse than death. On your authorities will rest the responsibilities of this barbarous policy, and you will be held responsible in this world and the world to come for all the blood thus shed.

In the month of August last you declared all those engaged in arming the negroes to fight for their country to be felons, and directed the immediate execution of all such as should be captured. I have given you long enough to reflect on your folly. I now give you notice that, unless this order is immediately revoked, I will at once cause the execution of every rebel officer and every rebel slaveholder in my possession. The poor negro is fighting for liberty in its truest sense; and Mr. Jefferson has beautifully said: "In such a war there is no attribute of the Almighty which will induce Him to fight on the side of the opporessor." You say you are fighting for liberty. Yes, you are fighting for liberty-liberty to keep four milliens of your fellow beings in ignorance and degradation-liberty to separate parents and children, husband and wife, brother and sister-liberty to steal the products of their labor, exacted with many a cruel lash and bitter tear-liberty to seduce their wives and daughters, and to sell your own children into bondage-liberty to kill these children with impunity, when the murder cannot be proven by one of pure white blood. This is the kind of liberty-the liberty to do wrong, which Satan, chief of the fallen Angels, was contending for when he was cast into hell. I have the honor to be, very respectfully, your most sbedient servant,

> D. HUNTER, Major General Commanding. RECRUITING NEGRO REGIMENTS.

Here is an item which has its interest also. The contrabands, we fear, will find their Yankee taskmasters, the Abolition philanthrophists, and Generals acting under the orders of the administration, much harder on them than even the worst of Southern masters .-They will find that to them liberty brings with it no blessings-that in fact they are worse hondmen than they were before the foot of the fanatic pressed the soil of the South, and federal bayonets established a new order of things. By practical Abolition the Yankee will thrive, but the negro will perish. The New York News says:

A gentleman who has just returned from Port Royal, and who is an extensive owner of real estate in the vicinity, informs us that he found it impossible to hire a single negro to work on his property, because they are hunted down like wild beasts, and compelled to don the federal uniform wherever they are to be found. He relates that throughout the whole department under the command of Gen. Hunter, and with the alleged sanction of Gen. Saxton, the whereabouts of no colored men can be discovered, who are not instantly pursued and forcibly impressed into the United States' service. He adds that the man Small, who brought away the steamer Planter from Charleston, is exclusively employed in scouring the country around Port Royal, as other black decoys are the environs of Beaufort, and that, having, in the night, found out the hiding places of contrabands, they are seized in the daytime and terrorized late enlisting in our army. He says that the negroes dread the sight of a Northern white man worse than death itself, and that they run away whenever they see one. These facts speak for themselves, and are but the confirmation of statements which have recently appeared in several Northern papers. "The tender mercies" of Abolitionists have aiways been "cruel" towards those whom they affect to protect, and we incline to the belief that the eyes of the colored race must speedily awaken to the fact that their past bondage has been light compared with the new slavery in which their pretended friends would enchain them. Indeed, the organs of the administration speak of the whole adult male population of blacks, in subjugated districts, as "available for military purposes," without any reference to the will of those whose services they claim as a right.
