INPORTANT LAW.-The Legislature of this State. at its last session, passed a law empowering notaries public to take acknowledgments of deeds and instruments in writing. It may prove a convenience to many people to know this fact.

CITY TAX .--- It will be seen by an advertisement in another column, that the levy and assessment of taxes for 1862 have been completed, and that all persons who pay their tixes on or before the 20th instant are entitled to an abatement of five per cent.

Masonic .- The Grand Commandery of the Knights Templar, and the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of Pennsylvania, will assemble in Greensburg, Westmoreland county, to-day. Sir E. H. Tarner will preside over the former, and Ill. Comp. Alfred Creigh over the latter. Excursion tickets were issued by the various railroads.

KILLED ON THE RAILBOAD .- A man named Geo. Myers, employed as brakesman on the Pennsylvania railroad, was run over on Saturday near the mouth of the tunnel, about twenty-three miles this side of Pittsburg. The wheels passed directly over him, severing his head from his body, and otherwise matilating him in a shocking manner, Deceased resided in Pittsburg.

THE NINE MONTHS' MEN .- The number of nine months' regiments mustered out of the service at Camp Curtin during the last month number fifteen | rally be found a sub-stratum of the useful and in all. Calculating a thousand men to a regiment, this would give a total of fifteen thousand men; but, owing to disease and death, the average number in each regiment fell considerably below one thousand. Ten thousand effective men in the entire number of regiments discharged is pretty near the correct figures.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS .- The attention of the reader is directed to the advertisement of the White

THE MOREV DIGGERS .- It is sometimes demorstrated, even in the civilization and enlightenment of the present superior age, that the march of improvement, in its grand progress towards millenial perfection and "manifest destiny," has not altogether wiped out the foolish delusions of the period of sorcery or destroyed the medizeval belief in witchcraft and supernatural apparitions. The human mind seems to have a peculiar craving for the superstitious and unreal. One of the most curious chapters of New England history is that which chronicles the search for the hidden treasures of Captain Kidd, the bold and bloody buccanee; who was fabled to have sunk his accursed spoils in the sandy beach of Long Island Sound. A popular superstition places over these treasures a guardian spirit, who, whether tiring of his charge, or for some other reason not clearly ascertained, suffers them periodically to crop out above ground, where their appearance is something similar to a heap of live coals; and the one so fortunate as to cast over the burning heap some article of clothing free from metal secures the glittering heard !

A treasure guarded in this way has long been popularly supposed to exist on the farm of Mr. Jacob Boyer, in Swatara township, about four miles east of this city, and numerous have been the attempts to lay mortal clutches upon it. A noted searcher after hidden treasure, from this city, after digging vasty holes in Boyer's gravel hill, came so close upon it as to hear the ravishing music of the clinking coins-but the evil spirit was too powerful, and he was compelled to abandon the attempt, the coveted wealth being withdrawn from his sight, and his energetic burrowing laughed to scorf by the spiteful demon of that department. About two weeks ago a Frenchman commenced operations on the same spot, assisted by some credulous neighbors who were willing to try "double-teaming" it on the guardian genii, thus taking that part of the job off his hands; but so far the faithful spirits have baffled all their endeavors, and resisted alike their plots and their persuasions. The Frenchman is sanguine of success, however, and attributes his discomfiture thus far to his having failed to open communications with the spirit, he having twice appeared to him. He intends opening negotiations with him at his next appearance, and an understanding will be effected whereby we hope soon to be able to chronicle the unearthing of an immense treasure, amply sufficient to compensate "Dog Town" for digging around Boyer's gravel hill. We hope so, but we know the perverse domons oft baffle our best hopes; and it may be that after all has been done, and the bowels of Boyersberg shall have been persistently ground-hogged from base to summit, nothing will be found thereon but rusty picks, broken hopes and the ground tore up.

It would perhaps be interesting to the philosophical to know that treasures of the above description are discovered by the aid of a remarkable magic mirror, called in Gorman ertz-spiegel, which reflects on its wonderful surface everything above or under the earth-if the possessor is fortunate enough to see it.

These leanings toward the wierd and supernatural are more common to the Germans than to other nations, and it is a significant fact that, underlying their superstitions and traditions, can genepractical. Thrift and physical enjoyment are the ground-work of their character, and these characteristics are blended with their beliefs and superstitions. There is money to be made out of their popular ghosis, and we venture to say that there is not a man of sound Teutonic digestion who would not tackle the one that keeps watch and ward over Boyer's hill, and "worm" the specie out of him if possible. Such mythical beliefs are sensible and practical, and may be traced away back

LOOK OUT FOR PAINT .- The engine house of the Citizen fire company was entered on Sunday night, and about three dollars' worth of paints stolen therefrom. The paint had been left there by the workmen who had been giving the building; a coat the day before. Certain parties are suspected of the grees trick, and circumstances seem to give color to the suspicions. Is there anything that men won't steal? We once knew a man to be sent to prison for stealing a bell off a ferry boat, another to be convicted of stealing a saw blade out of a saw-mill, and have heard that there were men who would attempt to carry off a red-hot stove .---The fellow that stole this paint is of the same class of impractical thieves. Don't buy paint at retail from any fellow that isn't in the regular line of business.

> THE GRAIN TRADE .- The amount of grain tradeported eastward over the central railroad lines of this State is steadily increasing. A large grain elevator is to be erected at Pittsburg this summer. The grain business of Pittsburg in 1862 was 10,156,783 bushels. The present cost of receiving grain from the western roads, storing, and delivering to eastern roads, or to the consumer, is about $50 per thousand bushels in bulk, or five cents per bushel. By a grain elevator the cost would be but $20, or two cents per bushel. Chicago has twenty of these elevators, and Cleveland nine. TAKEN BACK .- The cage and canary, which we mentioned last week as having been stolen from Mr. Wesley Reese, was taken back by the thief on Saturday night, and thrown into the back yard .----The little bird was dead. It was better prepared to die than the unmusical and unmerciful creature who took its life. If justice is done him, he will soon find his way into a stone cage that can't be picked up and carried off by every prowler that comes along. AT "LOCHIEL."-The venerable Francis P. Blair and wife, of Maryland, are at present the guests of

Gen. Cameron, at his country seat, near this place Mr. Blair has long been connected with the politics of the country, having been one of the editors of the Washington Globe for many years. He is the father of the present Postmaster General, and also of F. P. Blair, jr,, long a member of Congress from Missouri, and now a Brigadier General.

THE STAMP TAX LAW .- On the 1st of June, the Excise Tax law, as regards stamps, went into full force. All papers and instruments of writing raquiring stamps are declared to be null and void after this date, if not stamped. This stringent provision, with the penalties enforced in addition for violations of the law, will cause an almost universal demand and use for stamps.

STATE CAPITAL BAND .- A meeting of the members of the State] Capital Band will be held this evening, at the residence of the Leader, in Walnut street, between Second and Front, at 8 o'clock. Punctual attendance is requested, as business of importance will be brought before the meeting. W. A. BALL, Leader.

SHORKY'S BENEFIT .- A complimentary benefit to J. G. H. Shorey, the popular Ethiopian commedian, will be given by the eltizens of Harrisburg, at Brant's Hall, on Thursday evening next. A flattering demonstration is anticipated.

JUST RECEIVED .- The handsomest assortment of ladies' silk sacks and circles, at prices which defy competition ; also, a cheap lot of corsets and dress goods of every description. Still a few of those cheap parasols left yet.

DENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD! SUMMER TIME TABLES

Sulphur and Chalybeate Springs in another column. This delightful summer resort is situated at Doubling Gap, Cumberland county, about thirty miles west of this place, and is now under the management of Mr. James D. Hendley, for many years the experienced and popular proprietor of the Kingwood House, Washington. The seeker after pleasure or recreation can surrender himself into Mr. Hendley's charge with the fullest assurance that he will be well cared for and satisfied.

DEMOCRACY .- The Union must be preserved, and the Constitution maintained inviolate. Attention, Democrats of the Third ward !

Agreeably to the recommendation of the "City Democratic Executive Committee," you will meet this evening at half past seven o'clock, at the public house of David Turbet, in Walnut street between Second and Third streets. This is the first of a series of meetings to be held in the several wards. Come one come all, and let us have a full and effective organization.

GEO. J. SHOEMAKER, President of Third Ward Club.

BATTLE OF CHANCELLORSVILLE .- The following is a list of the killed and wounded of company F, 119th regiment P. V., in the battle of Chancellorsville :

Killed-Joseph N. Moreau. Wounded-Adam Andrew, Lewis J. Dunlap, Thomas S. Keyser, Samuel Falmer, Jacob E. Schiedt. Newbold Stevenson, John Templeton, James Wilson, Charles Walton, Charles G. Rowan. Prisoners-Geo. W. Rickards, Wm. B. M'Cloy, Adam Weller, Wood Lloyd, Joseph Miller, Thos. O'Neil, Le Grand Donaldson, Daniel M. Dungan. Still Missing-Edward H. Getz, Cornelius Rich-mond, Alfred Barnet.

POLICE AFFAIRS .- Before Alderman Kline .-Thomas White and Samuel Shreeves, colored muchly, were arrested by officer Campbell on Friday evening, charged with the larceny of a hat from Mr. Hilger, corner of Walnut street and Tanner's alley. After a hearing they were dismissed. White enlisted in a colored company being raised for the Massachusetts regiment, and will soon be penetrating to the "heart of the rebellion."

Mrs. Susan Weltmer, living on Liberty street, on Friday night made oath against Clarence Updegraff for assault and battery. He was arrested by officer Cline, and entered bail for his appearance at court.

Joseph Myers was found drunk on the pavement near the depot on Saturday morning. He was brought up by officers Fry and Cline, and sent to pot three days for drunkenness and vagrancy.

On Saturday afternoon Samuel Bondon was brought up by officer Loib, charged with drunkenness and very indecent exposure at the corner of Court House and Strawberry alleys. Committed for twenty-four hours.

George and Elizabeth Carney, colored, were both seized by officers Cline and Campbell on Saturday night, and sent up thirty days for vagrancy and drunkenness. Both had just got out of confinement in the lock-up that morning for an offence of the same kind committed three days before.

Christian Houser, arrested by officer Campbell near Herr's Hetel on Sunday morning, was committed twenty-four hours for drunkenness. Wm. Bartle, arrested on Sunday afternoon by officer Brooks, was sent twenty-four hours for some offence.

Robert Fleming was arraigned yesterday afternoon, charged with assault and battery on John M'Dermot, while attending the pic-nic at Hachnlen's woods, " Complainant had several teeth knocked out in the fraces. Defendant committed for further hearing. Arrested by officer Fry.

Frank Duffy, very drunk, was nabbed by officer prison twenty-four hours.

to their origin in Scandinavian mythology, which | Amorg these goods are represented the old boss god Woden as a mighty muscular and money-making fellow, and which described the departed heroes of earth as lying drunk for a thousand years in the streets of the heavenly city of Asgard.

ON THE DEFENSIVE .- A strange rumor, a little on the warlike order, was in circulation yesterday. A gentleman of reliability informed us that the Pennsylvania railroad company have for some time been buying beavy timber rafes, with which they were engaged in building substantial wooden fortific:tions and bulwarks at the farther end of the railroad bridge which spans the Susquehanna at Rockville. These works are so placed as to command the bridge, and could be made a decided obstacle to westward travel over that route. These gusty rumors may be mere hearsay and badinage; but why is it not probable that this far-sighted corporation, foreseeing cavalry raids and other threater ing events not patent to the unpeeled optics of the average run of men, have determined to make preparations for a "vigorous prosecution of the war" on their "own hook ?" Bully ! The gods help those who help themselves.

IS IT TRUE ?- The Erie Gazette says :- " Immediately after his arrival in this city, on Tuesday afternoon, Gov. Curtin received a dispatch from the Secretary of War directing him to form, by volunteer enlistments, fifteen regiments-ten infantry and five cavalry. It is understood the order was given with direct reference to guarding Attorney at Law, office, Third street, Harrisburg, the State borders against an apprehended rebel raid." If this be true, it becomes a question whether the Governor will risk a call for volunteers in the face of the conscription. or refer the matter back to those under whose directions the eprollment is now being made in this State., Those who speak semi-officially say that the Governor has long desired to organize such a force for the defence of our borders, and now that he is authorized, he will make every effort to secure its early completion.

STREET CLEANING .--- We noticed a squad of men at work in Paxton street yesterday, heaping up the dirt and rubbish from the gutters and the road. It is a pleasant thing for the eyes to beheld a sight of this kind once more. We may be mistaken, but it seems to us that our streets generally are more untidy and filthy than they formerly were. If dirt was "trumps," Harrisburg would hold a prefty fair hand. We hope affairs are taking a turn for the better, however, and that our streets are to undergo a thorough purgation. Had the dirt and rubbish been permitted to accumulate for a time in the same ratio that has marked its increment in the past, we might ere long have rivalled the famous many-scented city of Cologne, where the poet Coleridge is said to have counted

"Eighty-seven different stinks, And several stenches, well defined."

"DISLOYAL" WEATHER -It has become customry for a certain class to stigmatize everything that don't suit them as "treasonable" and "disloyal," and this custom is so contagious that we us con. sciously found ourselves denouncing yesterday's weather as treasonable and disloyal. The night before was cool and chilly, and there must have been some attempts at frost-biting in hilly regions to the north and westward. Yesterday morning opened sunless, with dull gray clouds soudding across the sky in heaps, which now and then threw cold water on the sombre scene below. Such weather is very much out of season and place. It ain't fair for lovely June to coax out the fragrant flowers and dazzling spring bonnets, and then Leib in the "Bull Run" settlement, and sent to | "go back" on them in such an unceremonious and unprovoked style. In fact, it's disloyal.

ONE OF MANY CASES.

I Original Letter at 294 Canal street, New York : J. I. C. COOK, publisher of the State Banner, Bennington, Vt., says he was attacked with DYSPEPSIA, and suffered so severely from it, that not a particle of food could be swallowed without occasioning the most uncomfortable sensation in his stomach. For five years he suffered from this dreadful complaint, when he used BRANDRETH'S PILLS. The first box did not seem to benefit him much, but the second produced a change and by the time he had taken six boxes, a COM PLETE CURE was effected. He says : "My dyspepsia was gone, and my expectations of an early death vanished."

From Rev. J Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.
Although not dispose a to favor or recommend Patent Medicanes in general, through distrast of their ingredients and effects, 1 yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes binnels for hor presented for any simple prenergiant. himself to have received from any simple proparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

In the nope that he may this contribute to the belief of others. I do this more readily in regard to "Hoofand's German Bitters," prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this oity, because I was prejudiced against them for years, unde' the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mir-tirre. I am indebied to my fittind, Robert Shoemakes, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper test, and for encouragement to try them when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of thre bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of badily and wental vigor which I had net fet for six months before, and had almost despaired of re-gaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for di-recting me to the use of them
