ARRESTED ON A SERIOUS CHARGE -It has been known to the military authorities for some time past that a party of young men in this city have been endeavoring to organize a company with the avowed object of going South and joining the rebel army. Col. Fish's detectives have been on the alert, and succeeded in ferreting out the parties, and yesterday considerable stir was created by the arrest of the following named parties, some of them sons of our most prominet citizens: Horace A. Brooks, Nathan Brooks, Wm. S. Dorsey, Nye Purkhust, Henry Raphel, Joseph Raphel, Frederick Norwood, Key Buchanan, Wm. S. Stewart, Vinton W. Duvall, P. Stanley Peterson and Eugene Williamson. Williamson has been hefore the Provost Marshal previously on the gharge of disloyalty, and was on his parole at the time of his recent arrest. They have all been committed to the military prison to await the further orders of the authorities. The office of the Assistant Provost Marshal, Captain French, was besieged yesterday by the friends of the parties, asking the privilege of an interview, which the Captain courteously allowed where sufficent reason was apparent.-Baltimore Republican, 6th June.

THE NEGRO REGIMENT .- But two companies of the negro regiment now being formed here have been mustered into the service. It was thought at the commencement of the work that a brigade would be formed by this time, but for some unknown reason the negroes do not seem to take much interest in the matter. Meetings are held nightly, but enlistments are few. There is probably a colored population here of six or seven thousand able bodied men, who seem perfectly willing that the "white folks" may do every thing for them, but who, outside of a few isolated instances, seem to do nothing for themselves. One cause of the apathy in this matter may be traced to the illfounded jealousy existing between the resident free colored people and the contrabands. Among the former the desire is very great for negro officers for the regiment. The matter is under the special patronage of the President and Secretary of War, and may be eventually attended with great success; for it is yet an experiment in its infancy .- Washington Inteli-

Abolition Ideas Illogical.—It has been aften said, that the Abolition mind is illogical. There is that in its construction which recuses to yield to the simplest rules of logic, and hence it is at fault, whenever feeling (or in a lower view) interest is involved. If this needed confirmation, we have it in the way the editors of minor Republican journals treat the Vallandigham matter. They are unable to separate the individual from the fundamental principles violated in his case; they urging ante-judicial impressions of his guilt, as suffi-cient spology for the manner of "his taking off." On the other and Democratic papers do not "defend" Vallandigham,—they would leave that to him and his counsel before the courts. But they protest against martial law being exercised where martial law has not been proclaimed, and where civil law is still supreme. This is the distinction between Democratic and Abolition views of the matter. One is logical, the other is not -Albany Ar-

RESISTANCE TO THE DRAFT.—It is said that the government has decided that the 25th section of the conscription act, relative to the arrest of persons resisting the draft, shall be strictly adhered to. It provides that if any person shall resist the draft, or counsel any one to do it, or shall obstruct any officer in the performance of his duty under it, he shall be subject to summary arrest by the Provost Marshal, and be forthwith delivered to the civil authorities; where, upon conviction, he shall suffer fine and imprisonment.—National Intelli-

THE CONSCRIPTION LAW .- The Conscription Law is receiving a clearer interpretation than at first. The $300 can be paid or a substitute procured, and, if accepted, (the acceptance depending altogether upon physical ability,) it exempts the person drafted from again being called upon during the period for which he is drafted; but if the $300 is paid instead, then the person is liable, to be again taken upon any subsequent draft, and the President can order a draft as frequently as he may deem necessary - Express.
