ORDNANCE.-We saw two more heavy siege pieces, 10-iuch columbiads, at the depot yesterday, in transit to the New York harbor fortifications .-They were cast and finished at the Fort Pitt works, and weighed 13,828 and 14,930 pounds respectively. They were large and "finely developed," and will leave their mark if they should ever "go in" on a rumpus. Who's New York going a-gunning

U. S. INTERNAL REVENUE .- By the provisions of the revenue law, all persons are required to make returns of their revenue or annual profits within a specified time. Fifty per cent. will be added to the "Revenue" returns of all persons who have neglected, or may hereafter neglect, to make their returns to the proper officer within ten days after receiving the necessary blank. All monthly returns of manufacturers, butchers and others, not in by to-day, will subject the persons so neglecting to the penalties of the law.

Correct.-The report which we published yesterday with regard to wooden fortifications being erected by the Pennsylvania railroad company at the Rockville bridge, and which we were somewhat inclined to discredit at the time, proves to be correct. Both the Pennsylvania and the Northern Central, we understand, are nutting up defensive works to command their bridges at Rockville, Perrysville and other points. Future events may vindicate the good sense and forethought of the companies in this matter. All things are possible and that those who enlisted might come back safe, in these latter days.

NOT THE MAN,-In our police report yesterday, we noticed a complaint made by John M'Dermot against Robert Fleming, for a violent assault committed at Hachulen's grove that afternoon, the said John having lost sundry teeth in the fraces. We have since learned that there are two John M'Dermots in this city. The one we alluded to is a Hibernian, boarding in State street. The other, a painter by trade, living in the Fifth ward, wasn't mixed up in this affair. His friends will please mark the distinction, and quit boring him. If they don't believe he is innocent let them examine his

THE FIRST GRAND RALLY OF THE CAMPAIGN !-A grand demonstration of the Friends of the Constitution, the Union, and its able and devoted defenders—those who are opposed to Usurpations Corruption, Tyranny and Treason, and, as a consequence, National Damnation, which, taken altogether, is and must be the inevitable fruits of Lincoln's Administration, are requested to meet this (Wednesday) evening, June 9th, at the House of Michael Hair. Canal street, below State, at 71 o'elock. All good citizens, who have at heart the welfare of their country, and who are opposed to the arbitrary arrest of its Great Champion, Hou C. L. Vallandigham, will be heartily welcomed.

H. F. M'REYNOLDS,
President of the 4th ward Democratic Club.

CARRIAGES AT FUNERALS.—The Rev. Mr. Pur. cell, of Cincinnati, has announced his intention to enforce hereafter the rule of the Roman Catholic Church, limiting the number of carriages in faneral processions. This will correct a foolish extravagance which, in many instances, is dictated by personal vanity only, while it will save money to those who are apt to make an expensive funeral display, just because they would not be thought either too poor or too mean to afferd it. At this season of the year, too, a walk to our beautiful Cemetery is not only pleasant, but conducive to health. If it rains, or the sun is too hot, all you have to do is to call at M. H. Lee's, 69 Market st., and procure an umbrells, where parasols, canes and a variety of fancy articles can always be proenred at a low figure.

POLICE APPAIRS .- Before Alderman Kline .-Brown H. Dawson, a soldier who had just got out of jail for drunkenness; was arrested by officer Brooks on Monday night, charged with assault upon the guard who were taking him to camp.-Committed until to-day, when he will be called for by the guard.

A negro boy named John Humphreys, was brought up by officer Brooks the same evening, and fined one dollar for fast driving.

Mary A. Johnson, a negro wench, was arrested on Monday night by efficer Brooks, and sent up thirty days for vagrancy. James Reemshart was before the magistrate the same night for fast driving, and fined one dollar and costs. Joseph Hutchinson was arrested at the City Hotel by officer Campbell, and committed twentyfour hours for drunkenness.

David _____, employed at the car factory, was found drunk on Mr. Boyd Hamilton's steps, and tiful. carried up by officers Brooks, Fry and Callender. Committed for twenty-four hours.

A sprightly lady was arrested by officer Deeters in the Capitol Grounds last evening, on suspicion of being an escaped inmate of the asylum. While a certain reporter, whose name we suppress for modest reasons, was taking notes at her examina-*tion, she suddenly embraced him, exclaiming, "I will kiss thee, young man." The woman is un-listing volunteers to join the Fifty-fifth Massachusetts regiment, (colored,) now in process of organization at Boston.

The class interested in the call had turned out in their strength. From barber shops and hotels, from Tanner's alley and South street, from "Bull and subterranean "dives" and rookeries, their beauty and their chivalry had flocked toward the place of rendezvous and filled the hall to overflowing. The gay and festive young man was there; and the aged patriarch, whose head was destitute of the same article for which old "Uncle Ned" poured forth his musical lament, kept not aloof. The front seats were reserved for ladies, of whom a strong delegation was in attendance, dispensing smiles and meaning glances upon those who were soon to wave a farewell to their sweethearts and "penetrate into the heart of the rebellion."

Mr. Samuel M. Bennatt was called upon to preside, and performed his duties with tact and case. After making a few preliminary remarks, he intrcduced to the audience Mr. Thomas M. Chester, who proceeded to speak at length. The speech of Mr. C. was sensible and patriotic, and was interspersed with passages of genuine eloquence. He was followed by Mr. John H. Dickerson, who iudalged in a desultory discourse, going to prove the high qualifications of the negro in a military point of view, and exalting his bravery and ingenuity. He claimed that it was the negro who first invented cotton breast-works, calling up Gen. Jackson for proof of the validity of the claim.

The last speaker was Rev. David Sevens, a well-favored old gentleman of sixty, who looked as if he had an abiding faith in the dietetic virtues of ham and hoe-cake. He was the funny man of the concern. He commenced by announcing himself an out-and-out, full-blooded, African-descepted negro, and did not wish to be misunderstood on that point or to claim kindred with "cream-faced loons" of lighter tint. At every turn he heard the execration, "Damn the niggers." He said, "Damn the niggers that won't do their duty in a time like no saddle, round or sharp. The white warriors had failed in all their attempts to take Richmond: he began to think that, if that city was ever taken, it would be by niggers. Mr. Linkum was a good man, but had been slow in maneigation matters. Pennsylvania was afraid to allow the niggers to help her; and so they were forced up into Massachusetts to help fill Gov. Andrew's quota under the draft. Governor Curtin would like to call upon the colored element about now, but dussent-he couldn't see his way clear to the Pennsylvania votes if he chucked the nigger between him and the prejudices of the white element; politics had pulled the wool over the gubernational eyes .--Maryland would open a recruiting station for negroes before Pennsylvania. He appealed to his beasers to enlist. They wasn't going to a pic-nic, but to fight. They musn't expect to drink whisky. Keep seber, take aim and fire low; don't shut your eyes till after you shoot, and the game will come down. Let your watchword be "liberty or death." He prayed that those who stayed at home to drink whisky and riot in sin might be drafted, crowned with the laurels of freedom.

The "John Brown" song was then given by the entire audience, the chorus fairly lifting the roof. The President then proposed three cheers for the Fifty-fifth Massachusetts, which were rendered with deafening effect. Again President Bennett's voice rung out for "three cheers and a tiger for Barney Campbell," and the response that burst forth was like the sound of many menageries .-Three hearty cheers were also given for Sheriff Bons, three for the Third Louisiana (colored) regiment, three for Colonel Danielis, three for the boys who had enlisted, three for the ladies present, and three "at large."

Forty-seven recruits, most of whom were recruited at this meeting, left at three o'clock next morning for Boston, in charge of Thomas Chester, making a total of eleven hundred and fifty-five sent from this State to join regiments organized elsewhere.

No disturbance of any kind took place, and not even a case of fainting occurred, although the room was illy ventilated and the air therefore necessarily on the mephitic order.

[Communicated.] THE CEMETERY QUESTION .- Mr. Editor :- Having read with great interest the various communications you have kindly published in regard to the management of the Harrisburg cemetery, I cannot but entertain the hope that, no matter what the past may have been, the future will exhibit a system of improvement and an administration of affairs commensurate with the requirements of the times. Its is highly gratifying to find "Progress" stirring up the dry bones of that quiet corporation, and reminding them of the improved condition of affairs which the public demands. "A more beautiful and delightful spot is not to be found on the face of the earth," truly; but what has this fossiliferous corporation done towards artificial adornment, except to fence it in and lay out the walks? Have they ever seen or heard of Mt. Auburn, Greenwood or Laurel Hill? It has been many years since the charming "Fairy Valley" of our youthful days was converted into a solemn city of the dead, but how little has been done in all that time. It is no gratification to the noble hearts of this generation to be informed that the company has saved $5,000, and has it in government and municipal securities. We who now live and move in the days which have contributed this amount, wish to see it returned to us in the shape of natural and architectural beauty. We do not think with Mr. "Lotholder" that a day of necessity might come, when this money will be needed for more substantial purposes than mere adorument; but we say, let the future take care of itself! We presume there are very few who prefer to see the pitiable interest of $5,000 deposited annually to the company's credit, rather than have the pleasure of beholding constantly the improvements which half of that sum would place in the cemetery. We do not suppose the company's aim to be to make money, neither do lotholders expect it; but while we have the money, we do want to see such use made of it as will indicate that the sacred spot which is destined to receive our mortal remains head, is has been rendered more sacred because more beau-

Not half the appropriateness of the cemetery ground is manifest by the present arrangement. We would like to ask why a pedestrian is obliged to travel the same road as an omnibus, no matter how far? Why is not that gate leading up the shady valley opened for foot people, as formerly? Why has the beautiful and tree-covered carriage way along the front of the hill been closed? Why has the natural undulation of the bluff been dedoubtedly insune. Sent to prison for safe keeping stroyed in order to make a few more available lets? Why is it that the knell between the old

Open the former entrances and repair the foot paths on the hill sides. Span the valley with a light foot bridge between the knoll and the present road. Open up some of the many beautiful springs, and supply each with a drinking cup. Indeed, no competent superintendent will be at a loss to find opportunity for ability and taste in any re-arrangement of the grounds which the managers may think proper to allow; and we have no hesitation in promising the public's approval of any improvements dictated by judgment and good Another Lotholder.

STATE SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION. - The second annual convention of the Sunday Schools of Pennsylvania met in the First Presbyterian Church, Pittsburg, on the 2d instant. About four hundred delegates were present, from various parts of the State, representing over four hundred and fifty thousand scholars. Two delegates were also present from the New York Convention, representing over half a million Sunday School children, thus making a total of fully one million represented in this grand assembly. The time of the Convention was very usefully employed in transacting business which would further the interest of the Sunday Schools, and increase the number of regularly attending scholars. Over three hundred thousand of the children of this State were reported as not attending Sunday schools.

The next convention will meet in Harrisburg some time next year. The time of the meeting is not yet known, but will be noticed in season by the central committee, appointed by the late convention for that purpose. The delegates may be assured that they will be welcomed by the State Capital in a cordial and hospitable manner.

REBEL PRISONERS.—Two extra trains came in from the west yesterday morning, both filled with They will, for the present, be lodged in Fort Delaware. One of the trains contained 1,466 prisoners, in charge of Captain Culbertson, 27th Ohio regiment. The second train had 733 rebs. on board, under guard of Captain Jenkins and a detachment of the 39th Ohio. All these prisoners were taken in the battles near Vickeburg. The men looked a little rough and seedy, but appeared in good health, and seemed sullen and defiant. Yet we doubt not the whole twenty-nine hundred and ninety-nine of them are tired of the war, and will return to service in the rebel army with heaviners of heart.

AYER'S COMPOUND EXTRACT SARSA-RILLA.—No one remedy is more needed in this country than a reliable Alterative, but the sick have been so outrageously cheated by the worthless preparations of Sarsaparills abroad that they are disgusted even with the name. Yet the daug cannot be blamed for the impositions from which they have suffered. Most of the so-called Sarsaparillas in the market contain little of the virtues of Sarsaparilla or anything else. They are mere slops—inert and worthless, while a concentrated extract of the active variety of Sarsaparilla compounted with virtues of parasparatus or anything one and parasparatus or anything one and one slops—inert and worthless, while a concentrated extract of the active variety of Sarsaparilla compounded with Dock, Stillingia, Iodina, etc., is, as it ever will be, a powerful alterative and an effectual remedy. Such is Ayer's Extract of Sarsaparilla, as its truly wonderful cures of the great variety of complaints which require an alterative medicine have abundantly shown. Do not, therefore, discard this isvaluable medicine, because you have been imposed upon by something pretending to be therefore, discard this invaluable medicine, because you have been imposed upon by something pretending to be Sarsaparilia, while it was not. in the nope that we may had south tow to the scale of others.

I do this more readily in regard to "Hoofand's German Bitters," prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mirture. I am indebted to my friend, Robert Shoemaker, Eaq., for the removal of this projudice by proper test, and for encouragement to try them when suffering from great and long continued deblity. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bedily and mental vigor which I had not fo't for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for E-recting me to the use of them

AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS.

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Bitters" will care nine-tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the libts, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the liok, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debt ity. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofand's German Bitters. We have no heat at on in stating that if these Bitters we e freely used among our rol iters, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise would be lost.

The proprietors are daily receiving thankful letters from suff rers in the army and hospitals, who have been restored to health by the use of these Bitters, seen to them by their friends.
