SPEECH OF SENATOR TRUMBULL.

F The following speech, growing out of Burnside's order for the suppression of the Chicago Times, was delivered at an Abolition meeting in that city on Thursday evening, the 4th inst. Senator Trumbull has long stood at the head | and take him before the courts. Where would ablest men now in the Senate-but it appears that he is too conservative and truthful for the times, and is no longer appreciated by his brother woolly heads. The ignorance and animus of the administration party may be inferred from the manner in which Senator Trumbull's remarks were received by the audimice to whom they were addressed :

Mr. Trumbull said :- It was rather embarrassing to attempt to speak to an audience which insisted on hearing some one else; but solemn convictions of duty compelled him to speak, when, under ordinary circumstances, he would have remained silent.

He did not come to inflame their passions, already too much aroused. Their country was in anger, and they must look the peril in the face. No adjectives he could pile up, no vile names he could apply to those who do not agree with kim, caling them copperheads and traitors, would assist in arresting the rebellion. or in asserting . he supremacy of the Constitution and the laws

I have lived long enough to know that I am not infallible, perhaps you are; I have some 1 espect for the opinion of others. One of our mistakes is that we have allowed our opponents to make false is sues. But this is not the worst. The great charge, the charge that has damaged the administration above all others, is that we are in favor of the exercise of arbitrary power, that: we are opposed to the freedom of speech and opinion, to the fileedom of the press, in favor of curtailing personal liberty, and in favor of a despotism. Now we should not allow these things.

He did not desire to inspire them with hurrahs, b ut he wished to talk to their judgments, and in spire them through a presis to their reasons.

The times, he said, are grave ! A majority the pe ople of our State are taking ground against the administration—and why? In the name of huaven, why is this? I will tell you why ; I will point out to you some of our mistakes that they may be corrected in the future. The reason is we have not soliered to Lavid Crockett's motto, "Be sure you're BIGHT, and then go ahead !" [A voice-"We are always right!"] We have been the advocates of free speech for the last forty years, and should not allow the party which during the whole time has advocated the gag to usurp our place. We are fighting for the restoration of the Union and the preservation of the Constitution, and all no moerties it guarantees to every citizen .--And it makes me feel bad wher I hear some honest friend, brimming full with patriotism, say he does not care for the Contaitution, and does not want to have it forced into his way or thrust in his face until the war is over. The rebels cannot thrust it in his face, for they have no rights under it save the right to be tried and hung for treason. [Continued applause. 1

In certain districts the military law is supreme. Gen Grant is in command of an army in the State of Mississippi, which is in revolt. W'il any one deny his right to make arrests, his right to suppress newspapers, and to level 4.5 right to suppress newspapers, and to aver trees like those around you to-night, in order to get a range for his guns? No. And yet these are all arbitrary powers. But those exercises of it are not the troublesome cases .--The great difficulty is in those districts, where rightful civil government is in operation, where the judicial tribunals are open and the law respected-the laws which afford a remedy for every wrong.

As a rule we must remember that the civil law is superior to the military law, and the 1 office of cases are rare, very rare, where the rule can to have enforced the order!"] Then you all deserve to be taken in hand by the military power and sent beyond the lines. You will te much stronger with the law on your side .-Show that Mr. Storey has counseled resistance to the draft, or encouraged desertion; these are penitentiary offences. Then arrest him of that party in Illinois, and ranks among the you get your mob to rescue him? Why there would not be a corporal's guard in the city that would go into it. Try him in the courts. [A voice. "No, this would take too much time; it would take two years."] Too much time! Cannot you wait for the execution of the law? It will not take two months. Do you know what the laws are ? I will read some of them. He then read from a law of the late Congress forbidding correspondence with the rebels and affording them aid and comfort. [A single voice on the stand, "That's just what Wilber F. Storey does every day."] Then go, he said, you are a citizen, and make complaint to the grand jury yourself. It is your duty. For Sale & To Rent. VALUABLE IRON PROPERTY for SALE-MATILDA FURNACE3 and OBE BANKS. be reversed. It then resolves itself into the plain naked question of whether the President and his generals, by the simple clicking of a telegraph instrument, can cause the imprison-ment at A, B, or C. If one general can do it, another can do it, and where is the end? who will fix the limit? [Great sensation and murmurs

Do you propose to interfere with the ballotbox ? [Cries of "No ! No !" "Never ! Never !" from all parts of the meeting.] I am glad to hear you say that, and glad you are so unanimons. Did it ever occur to you that the next election may put an entirely different face | upon affairs? The next election may bring great and deplorable changes, when Vallandigham and men of his class may determine who are to be arrested. [Cries of "No! that can never be." "Never, never," from all parts of the crowd.]

Well, gentlemen, there is no use in closing your eyes to the facts which exist around you on every side. I told you I came here to address myself to your reason, and not to your passions, and in view of that light I ask you who are being elected Governors of loyal States, who compose a majority of the Legis-lature of the loyal State of Illinois, and who was recently elected Mayor of her principal and most loyal city, and in view of these facts what may the future not have in store? [Cries of "Jennison." "Music." "We don't want to hear you." "You sent a telegram to the President."]

I know I am distasteful, but am I not truthful? I would claim your reason divested of passion. The same chalics you hold to the lips of your adversarles to day, to-morrow may be returned to your lips. Would you like to drink of it ? Close our eyes as we may, there is no safety for us, no safety for you and I and every American citizen, now and in the future, but in an unvarying adherence to the constitutional landmarks of our fathers. [Further cries of "Jennison," "Music," and much dissatisfaction.]

You are wrong-it is your greatest and gravest mistake in allowing your adversa-ries to place you in the position of being opposed to the Constitution. [Cries for "Jenni-son," and "Give us somebody else."] I see that I am distasteful, but I cannot help it, and will not detain you long. Who is there among you who does not believe in adhering strictly to the Constitution in these times, and extending to every citizen of the loyal States its guaranties? Who among you is prepared to scknowledge our government is a failure ?

Who among you is prepared to say the Constitution is a fine thing for peace-good enough -but when war comes it must be rolled up and laid away? Or in other words-for it means the same-who among you is ready to substitute the will and opinion of one man: who may be another Vallandigham, in place of the Constitution as the supreme law of the land? [Cries of "We don't want any more of that." "What's that band for ?"] Well, hear me through, for I will not be long, and the questions before you are of so much importance and gravity that you should listen patiently, and not only that, decide dispassion-Ately. The Constitution is broad. It grants all powers necessary, even for t is suppression of treason in the North. [Applause.]

Yes, gentlemen, it is just as legal and binding upon the general in the field, and the civil officers of the nation, as it is upon the humblest citizen in the land. Has it come to this. that you will deny to the free city of Chicago the right of a citizen to discuss the acts of the President ? [Cries of "We won't allow it," and "none bat copperheads do that, and we will stop them "] Is there a man in this audience who has not expressed to day his dissatisfaction with some not of the President? [Cries of "Yes, Yes," "We have none of us ex pressed any dissatisfaction."] Ab, do all of you, then, think the President's revocation of Gen. Burnside's order, suppressing the Chicago Times was right? [Cries of "No!" "No!" "It was wrong!" "He ought by
