LOCAL NEWS.

RESIGNED.—We understand that Rev. Benjamin Leacock, rector of the Episcopal church in this city, has resigned his charge and gone to New York city.

THE GREY RESERVES.—The Grey Reserves, eleven hundred strong, arrived here yesterday from Philadelphia, and are now in camp. They are a first-class body of men.

LOST OR STOLEN.—A black morocco wallet, containing about $100 in paper money and numerous valuable papers. Any person leaving the same at this office shall receive fifty dollars reward—for the pocket book and papers without the money, five dollars will be paid. 1*

FIRST WARD.—Woodward, Lowrie and the Constitution.—The Democratic club of the First ward will meet this (Saturday) evening, June 20, at the Black Horse hotel, for the purpose of ratifying the nominations of the State Convention. The Democracy of the whole city are invited to attend. By order of the club.

GEO. F. WEAVER, JR., Sec'y.

LOST.—Mr. John Clune, a discharged soldier, lost his naturalization and discharge papers somewhere between the Poor House and Mulberry street, on Friday afternoon. Mr. Clune belonged to company B, 87th Pennsylvania regiment, and was discharged for disability. The finder will confer a great favor by leaving the papers either at this office, or with the loser at the Poor House.

POLICE REGULATIONS.—We understand that, through the exertions of Mayor Roumfort, the police company from Philadelphia has been placed at his command. The citizens may therefore feel assured that, notwithstanding the large number of strangers in town, perfect order will be observed. The city police, and this Philadelphia company, under the efficient direction and organization of the Mayor, will be amply sufficient to preserve the public peace and protect the lives and property of all from any lawlessness that may occur.

CAVALRY FOR SHIPPENSBURG.—Upwards of two hundred cavalry, belonging to three different Pennsylvania cavalry regiments which have been mustered out of the service, went to Shippensburg by rail yesterday morning, taking with them their horses and accoutrements. They would at once enter upon scouting duty down the valley. The horses were in fine order, and the men, having performed cavalry service before, will prove a valuable assistance to the State.

GONE TO CARLISLE.—The train belonging to Quartermaster Fitch, which has been encamped in the vicinity of this place since Tuesday, received orders to repair to Carlisle yesterday, and accordingly got in motion for that point about 11 o'clock in the forenoon. The wagons, numbering about five hundred in all, are filled with the army stores brought away on their retreat from Martinsburg, and also with the baggage belonging to the 126th Ohio and other regiments. We were unable to learn definitely the object of the order which sends them back to Carlisle.

WHILST the hands employed in the Telegraph office were working in the entrenchments erected for the defence of this city, and the proprietor suspending all his business engagements for the purpose of defending the State capital, &c.—Telegraph.

"Lord! Lord! How this world is given to lying!" Why did not the Hessian poltroon tell the truth, and say that he was engaged in transporting his ill-gotten gains out of the reach of danger? He might, by this course, improve his reputation for veracity, although at the expense of his courage. As it is, both suffer.

CARNCROSS AND DIXEY'S MINSTRELS.—This renowned troupe of Ethiopian minstrels will give six grand soirees at Brant's Hall next week, commencing Monday evening In their peculiar line they stand unrivled in this country. All their laughable burlesques, plantation scenes, fancy dances and songs, will be produced in the same style as performed at their opera house in Philadelphia. Those who have once heard Carncross sing need no inducement to pay him a visit. In every style of song, whether playful or pathetic, he is equally popular and perfect. His triumph here is a foregone conclusion.

SILVER GRAYS.—A meeting of citizens too old to be enrolled in the militia, but anxious to do something in defence of our homes and families, met at the time and place mentioned in the call of the 19th instant. The following resolutions were unanimously passed:

Resolved, That, in order to carry out our intentions, we proceed to elect officers.

Major John Maglauchlin was elected Captain, James Porter 1st Lieutenant, and G. Krichbaum 2d Lieutenant.

Resolved, That we hold ourselves in readiness to march at the call of the Captain, at a moment's warning. E. M. POLLOCK, Chairman.

DEMOCRATIC CLUB MEETINGS.—The Democratic Clubs of the respective wards in this city will meet weekly as follows, viz:

First Ward—On Saturday evening of each week.
Second Ward—On Monday evening of each week.
Third Ward—On Tuesday evening of each week.
Fourth Ward—On Wednesday evening of each week.
Fifth Ward—On Thursday evening of each week.
Sixth Ward—On Friday evening of each week.

The hour and place is left discretionary with the Clubs or their officers. By order of the City Executive Committee. GEO. W. WEAVER, Sec'y.

GOT WHAT THEY WANTED.—Three swaggering, rowdyish men yesterday entered a beer saloon in Strawberry alley, near Third st., and called for beer. Becoming uproarious and insulting, they were remonstrated with by the wife of the saloon keeper, whereupon they began to berate her, and even offered to strike her. They then declared that they could whip everything in the room. Two members of the volunteer police company from Philadelphia, who were present, did not seem to see it in that light, and accordingly invited the braggarts out, and "floored" them in a jiffy. The rowdies picked themselves up and walked off, apparently satisfied with the "polishing" process they had undergone. They got what they wanted. We hope that all such men may never have to go begging very long for a fight, without having their wants fully supplied.

AN UNGRATEFUL FLING.—The Tetegraph of last evening talks about "such demagogues as Seymour, who is permitted to flaunt defiance in the faces of loyal men." There is something extremely mean and ungrateful in such talk just at this time. The writer has stooped to a vice that can find a lodgment only in little minds. "O shame, where is thy blush!" When regiments of brave New Yorkers, sent hither by Gov. Seymour to help us in the hour of peril, are now here to protect Mr. Bergner's property, (except the portable part of it, which is on a journey up the country,) from the hand of the spoiler, the thankless ingrate turns and rends him! What a pitiful sight it is! Governor Seymour's loyalty and honesty called in question by the gravel-scratching fugitive of Tuesday last, and the hero of Joe Rex's postoffice investigation! In behalf of Gov. Seymour, who has befriended us in time of need, we pray that he may never do anything to merit the praise of such a monstrosity as this, which stings the hand stretched out to help him, and turns his back upon those feelings which are seldom strangers even to the outlaw and the brute.

NOT THE MAN.—Thursday morning's Telegraph notices the re-examination that day of a supposed rebel spy, arrested near Chambersburg a few days before. The reporter gives his name as J. W. Fetter, and describes him as a "most woe-begone specimen of humanity," with clothes tattered and held together by pieces of rusty nails, and further represents him as being busily engaged during his examination in picking "gray-backs" off his person. In giving his account, the reporter has evidently been misinformed as to the name, and has confounded this person with another brought in as a prisoner a day or two ago. Mr. J. W. Fetter, who was imprisoned in this city on Tuesday on suspicion of being in sympathy with the rebels, called on us yesterday. He is a well dressed, gentlemanly young man, and, judging from his neatness and cleanliness of person, would not be very likely to fall a victim to the pedicular distemper.

From Mr. F. we learn the following facts: He is a resident of Carlisle. Some years ago he became acquainted with one William Parsons, of Romney, Va., who was attending Dickinson College. Parsons married a lady in Carlisle, now lives in Romney, and is considered a loyal man. About the time the late raid was made, Fetter, who was out scouting somewhere in the valley, chanced to meet his old friend Parsons, and at once engaged in a conversation with him. After parting with his friend, he returned to Carlisle.—Here he was requested by some one in the employ of the government to come to Harrisburg, in order to testify in regard to Parsons' character for loyalty. On arriving in this city, he was at once placed in confinement, on suspicion of disloyalty, the grounds for which he thinks must have been his conversation with Parsons. He was kept in confinement until Thursday, when, through the efforts of his father, Mr. Jacob Fetter, and of Gen. Miller, of this place, he was released on parole.—He stated to us that, although he was a paroled prisoner, no specific charge had been made against him, and that no thought of disloyalty had ever entered his head.

We need not comment on this case. It is a repetition of the same old story. The action of such latter-day loyalists as those who, on a bogus pretext, took away and imprisoned this young man, is too small and petty to challenge contempt.

SERENADE TO GEN. MILROY.—Major General Milroy, the hero of Western Virginia, was serenaded at the Jones House, at about twelve o'clock on Thursday night, by the regimental band of the 23rd New Jersey. In response to repeated calls, the General appeared, making a few remarks, in which he said that he was not accustomed to public speaking, but was gratified to witness the enthusiasm of New Jersey and other States in behalf of the welfare and safety of Pennsylvania. After some other remarks, he went on to say that he understood a political convention had been held recently in this city, and that he considered men who held conventions at such a time as this to be little better than traitors, and belonged to the Jeff. Davis stripe. [We suppose Gen. Milroy has reference to the Republican Convention held in Ohio on Wednesday, while at the time of its session a proclamation was out calling upon that State for ten thousand militia to repel invasion.] He further said that he had always been a Democrat—such a Democrat as Gen. Butler, Gen. Dix, and Gen. Jackson, (not Stonewall)—and concluded by paying a tribute to the people of Pennsylvania for their patriotism and sterling qualities. The General closed amid hearty cheers.

After being loudly called for, Gen. Couch came out, and, after pledging his best efforts for the protection of the State capital, excused himself from further speaking, as he was tired and needed rest. He was loudly cheered.

A soldier then proposed three cheers for General McClellan, which were given from full lungs.

Loud cheers and a "tiger" were also given for Gov. Seymour, of New York, and Gov. Parker, of New Jersey, after which the crowd dispersed.

POLICE AFFAIRS.—Before Alderman Kline.—We give below a partial report of the proceedings of yesterday and the day before.

Wm. Howard, arrested on Thursday morning by officer Deeters, for picking the pocket of Dr. Thos. M. Leight, of Mifflin county, at the depot. Levi Wolfinger entered bail in $500 for his appearance at court.

The following persons were committed on Thursday and Friday for drunkenness and disorderly conduct:

George Schofield; arrested by officer Campbell; Jacob Sanders, by Cline and Essig; John Hetrick, by Essig and Carberry; Charles Fagan, by Campbell, Newman and Redifer; Richard Baron, by Newman and Essig; Andrew Shull, by Cline and Essig.

Michael Fleary, who was arrested by officer Cline for the larceny of a guard chain and rings, was discharged, no evidence being found against him.

Edward Hennessy, a New York soldier, was arrested by officers Deeters, Cline and Leib, for assault and battery, on oath of A. J. Warfield, and committed in default of bail.

James Lehr, a minister of the gospel, was held to bail for insulting and making indecent proposals to the daughter of John Wallower, sr.

Jere. St. Clair, drunk and disorderly, was arrested by officers Newman and Callender, on complaint of Wm. Dock, jr., and sent to prison for twenty-four hours.

John Fisher, a vagrant, arrested by officer Newman, and committed for twenty-four hours.

POCKETS PICKED.—The pickpockets have been doing a rushing business for the past week, and many of them are now provided with greenbacks enough to last them for some time, "or during the emergency."

On Wednesday officer Campbell arrested Charles Davis, a Philadelphia "knuck," in the rotunda of the Capitol, for having his digits in another man's pocket. At the magistrate's office Davis was identified by an old gentleman as having robbed him of $550 the day before in West Philadelphia. The gay Charles was committed for trial at the next term of court.

Philip Dailey was nabbed by officer Campbell, on the same day, for the same offence, and also committed for trial.

Yesterday afternoon we had the melancholy pleasure of an interview with a gentleman who had been victimized to the tune of about $400, besides valuable papers, due bills, &c. He did not want us to "blow" his name, as he was notorious for losing pocket books, having had three stolen before. He has our sympathies and our best wishes for better luck in future. Can't some one abolish pickpockets by proclamation?

TO PERSONS EXPOSED.—The agent of Dr. Barcelton, of St. Louis, is now here with a few dozen of his celebrated Amulets, or preventives of Camp, Typhoid, or Scarlet fevers, now worn by thousands of our soldiers in the Army of the South-west.—Put up very neatly, worn around the neck or in the pocket. Never fails if the directions are obeyed. Try it in these times, when persons are so much exposed.

References can be given of its powers by officers now in town. Call at the City Hotel Friday and Saturday, June 19 and 20. 2t

AT LOGGERHEADS.—By reference to the articles in last evening's "Telegraph" upon the arrest of Rev. Mr. Leacock, which appear in juxtaposition below, it will be seen that there is an incompatibility of sentiment between the views of the chief and local editors upon the subject of that outrage. The former justifies it without qualification, while the latter administers a mild rebuke to those who had a hand in the petty business. The local article is just, calm and sensible.

(From the Telegraph of yesterday.)

When Butler was superseded by Banks, Leacock, trusting to the more lenient system of government then inaugurated, ventured back to New Orleans. He soon managed to attract attention, however, was arrested by order of Gen. Banks, and, on refusing to take the oath of allegiance, was again banished. He returned to the vicinity of Harrisburg, and has no doubt been since employed in furnishing such information to his Southern masters as he could collect, having been arrested last week by order of Gen. Schenck. Yet the arrest of this sanctimonious traitor and spy is made the pretext for an outrageously distorted statement in the Patriot and Union, under the caption, "Crucify Him! Crucify Him!"—intimating that the Government is dealing with Leacock as the Jews of old with the Redeemer. For such base wretches as the authors of this sentiment, hanging is too good.

(From the Telegraph of yesterday.)

RELEASED.—Rev. Dr. Leacock, who was so unceremoniously carried off from this city last week, by an order of Gen. Schenck, has been released. On reaching Baltimore, inquiry was made concerning his case, and it was found that there was not a particle of ground for his arrest. It would have been much better if some inquiry had been made before the arrest, and some cause given for the steps taken, before the guard left Baltimore on this errand. From all we can learn the old gentleman, who was stopping with his nephew at the time, lived among us in the most complete retirement, receiving but few visitors, making no disturbance of any kind, and never conversing on political topics. He was far more harmless than many who are to be found in this city, and, as the Philadelphia Bulletin remarks, not half as dangerous as thousands of secessionists that are under Gen. Schenck's immediate notice in Baltimore.

AYER'S COMPOUND EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA.—No one remedy is more needed in this country than a reliable Alterative, but the sick have been so outrageously cheated by the worthless preparations of Sarsaparilla abroad that they are disgusted even with the name. Yet the drug cannot be blamed for the impositions from which they have suffered. Most of the so-called Sarsaparillas in the market contain little of the virtues of Sarsaparilla or anything else. They are mere slops—inert and worthless, while a concentrated extract of the active variety of Sarsaparilla compounded with Dock, Stillingia, Iodine, etc., is, as it ever will be, a powerful alterative and an effectual remedy. Such is Ayer's Extract of Sarsaparilla, as its truly wonderful cures of the great variety of complaints which require an alterative medicine have abundantly shown. Do not, therefore, discard this invaluable medicine, because you have been imposed upon by something pretending to be Sarsaparilla, while it was not. When you have used AYER'S—then and not till then, will you know the virtues of Sarsaparilla. For minute particulars of the diseases it cures, we refer you to Ayer's American Almanac, which the agents below named will furnish gratis to all who call for it.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS—for the cure of Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Heartburn arising from disordered stomach, Pain or Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, and for a Dinner Pill.

They are sugar-coated, so that the most sensitive can take them pleasantly, and they are the best Aperient in the world for all the purposes of a family physic. Price 25 cents per box. Five boxes for $1.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with other preparations which they make more profit on. Demand AYER'S and take no others. The sick want the best aid there is for them, and they should have it.
