THE NATIONAL PLATFORM. PURPOSES OF THE WAR.

Congress, by a vote nearly unanimous, passed the following resolution, which expresses the voice of the Nation and is the true standard of Lovalty:

"That the present deplorable civil war has been forced upon the country by the dismininists of the fouthern States, now in arms squinst the Constitutional Government, and in arms around the Capital; that in this National emergency, Congress, banishing-all feeling of mere passion or resentment, will recollect only its duty to the whole country; that this war is not waged on their part in any spirit of oppression, or fir any purpose of conquest or subjugation, or purpose of corethrowing or interfering with the rights or established institutions of those States, but to defend and maintain the supremacy of the Constitution, and to preserve the Union, with all the dignity, equality and rights of the several States unimpaired; and that as soon as these objects are accomplished the war ought to cease."

The war News.

To-day as yesterday we are without details -in fact without anything reliable. A gentleman from Papertewn, Cumberland county, informed us about noon yesterday that when he left home the road was full of wagons filled with people fleeing with their household goods, from foes who were supposed to be near their homes. They were nearly all from Adams county, and reported the enemy in the vicinities of Gettysburg and Cashtewn. Mr. M., from whom we derived the information, stated to us that he had the information as to the whereabouts of the enemy from a reliable gentleman who had it from another reliable gentleman-but neither of them had seen a rebel.

represented that the first marauding band were attacked and driven out by some of our troops under Major Cole. Some say that a battle is imminent at Chambersburg any day unless the rebels disperse into small squads and keep out any given time is not known. Gen. Jenkins, with a force of mounted infantry 1100 strong, is said to be moving towards Gettysburg, and doing much mischief. He is said to have designs on the Northern Central railroad.

Where Gen. Hooker and his army are nobody seems to know.

Milroy's defeat by Gen. Ewell at Winchester was complete, terminating, says the N. Y. Herald, in a disastrous retreat to Martinsburg and Harper's Ferry, with only 2,000 men out of 7,000, and having lost all the artillery, stores, baggage and everything except what the man carried on their persons. Three entire batteries of field artillery and one battery of siege guns, about 280 wagons, over 1200 horses and mules, all the commissary and quartermaster's stores and ammunition of all kinds, over 6,000 muskets and small arms without stint, the private baggage of the officers and men, all fell into the hands of the enemy.

* There was a rumor last evening that Gettysburg was eccupied by the rebels and that the people of Adams county were flying in all directions. Just before going to press we recieved a dispatch from the operator at Gettysburg, who says that there were no rebels there, nor could they hear of any in that vicintiy, so that the report was a more scare, and had no foundation in fact.

From dispatches received here last evening, sent by reliable parties, it is ascertained that the rebels are moving in force on Chambersburg.

For farther news see telegraphic dispatches,

in another column.

And Still They Come. It is much to the credit of our youth and middle-aged citizens that in this emergency they come forward in vast numbers at the call of 'the Governor to drive back the rebel invaders of our soil. We do not yet believe that Harrisburg is in any immediate or even remote danger-but some of the border counties have been invaded by small parties of rebels who ought to be driven back, or, if possible, captured. Heavier bodies may be behind them, and the intention of Lee may be ultimately to pay us a damaging visit, and even carry the war to the Delaware. In this view we are glad to see the ready response of our own gallant militia, as well as those from our sister States. Fresh bodies of troops are arriving every day.

Politics in France-The Elections Controked by the Emperor.

With what justice the following address of the Count de Montalembert to the electors of a French district, in reply to certain Government prodamations, may be applied to the administration and administration party in this country, we refer to the judgment of all impartial and intelligent citizens. His "programme"-comprised in three words, "peace, economy and liberty"—is precisely the programme of all truly patriotic Americans today. What he says in reference to the requiresities, and are authorized to take Advertisements and ments of the Emperor and his party, to wit, that they want "deputies docile and resolved to do everything the Emperer tells them," is precisely what is now required by the party la power at Washington-"unquestioning sup-

Those who are not blind, or resolved to maintain the imbecile and despotic administration of Lincoln at all sacrifices of constitutional freedom, cannot fail to be struck, upon reading the following address, of the similarity of the condition of the people of the United States living, nominally, under a written Constitution, with that of the people of France under imperial sway. Montalembert says:

ELECTORS: Official and other documents charge the Catholic and Liberal candidate with wishing to "paralyze the energies of France, to imperil her security at home as well as her legitimate influence abroad, to give up the country to hazard to pave the way for fresh revolutions, to disturb and endanger the empire." In a word, he who, during ten years represented you is, according to these documents, a man of disorder and revolution. My whole life is one long contradiction to the calumny. I never attempted to overthrow any government; I never had a hand in any conspiracy, never figured in any adventure, never applauded any revolt, and never profited by any revolution. I am driven to declare that among the servants and the panegyrists of the empire there are not many who can say as much. The whole of what they tell you amounts to this: You must name deputies docile and resolved to do everything the Emperor tells them. If this be so, the shortest way is to suppress the Legislative Corps altogether; for if it be composed only of salaried approvers it is but a costly and useless piece of machinery; its suppression will simplify matters and reduce the amount of the budget. The Emperor will be very well able to go on alone. He has no need of a crowd of advisers all paid to be always of his opinion. But the Emperor himself one day said that "his government needed control and publicity," and the country has taken him at his word. The whole of France is at this moment shaking off its sleep. In all directions she is calling back to public life men of whom I feel pride and honor to be the friend—Thiers, Dufaure, Berryer, Odillon Barrot. These are men who have given proofs of independence and patriotism in the most stormy times, and therefore the more competent to exercise salutary control in times of calm. They have all responded to the call and come forward as candidates. Not one of them has put forth pretensions incompatible with the maintenance f the empire, though all have demanded the rights which France long possessed, and which sooner or later she will obtain from those who have the honor to govern her. Like them, and with them, I demand less of taxation and more of liberty, fewer conscripts and greater control less of arbitrary rule and more of responsibility, less police and more discussion. My programme is comprised in three words. want three things as necessary to the country as they are advantageous to the government, viz: peace, economy and liberty. CH. DE MONTALEMBERT.

They are said to have lition journal the benefit of our columns for driven of some 2,000 cattle and as many horses | disseminating its remarks, which we commend from Franklin county. They keep continually i to the consideration of the ultras of the State on the move, so that their exact position at who have been unsparing of their denunciations of Governors Seymour and Parker. The Advertiser 88 VS :

"We should be guilty of a great injustice were we not to give due credit to the Governors of this State and New Jersey for their zeal and promptitude in this crisis. When danger was impending, neither of them had conditions to propose or terms to exact. The only question was who could first and most effectually discharge his duty as the ruler of a free and loyal commonwealth. They make use of no 'if,' 'and' or 'but.' In the case of New Jersey, indeed, Governor Parker calls upon the people to come to the rescue 'with unprecedented 2081. The conduct of these officials will be more cordially appreciated, inasmuch as they do not belong to the political party to which the national reins of authority have been committed. It is very possible that by referring to the past we might find that such men as Governors Seymour and Parker have taken positions not to our liking; but as the deeds of to-day are of more importance than the sayings of yesterday, we prefer to make conduct rather than professions the test in judging the merits or demerits of our public servants.

Our Nominees.

The popular heart is so deeply stirred gainst the iniquities and mismanagement of the present dominating party, and so determined to have a change of rulers, that we feel the utmost cunfidence in the election of the Democratic candidates for Governor and Supreme Judge, in spite of all the influence whch position, money and force give to our opponets.

We have an advantage in our candidates which it seems to us impossible for the Abolitionists to overcome. They are both honest and capable men, and no men nominated by a party controlled by speculators, peculators and fanatics are likely to be either one or the

We have nominated men who, if elected, will prove an honor to the State-men who will maintain the just constitutional rights of the State and the citizens of the State against every attempted encroachment of the national administration; and there is not a man in the Abolition party likely to be nominated for Governor or Supreme Judge who could be relied upon to administer the government either ably or faithfully-certainly not one who would dare to stand up manfully against the corruptions and usurpations of the Federal administration. We are therefore in little danger of defeatbut to make the election of Woodward and Lowrie absolutely certain let organization go steadily on in every county and township in the State.

DESERTERS SENTENCED TO BE SHOT .- Privates Wm. Gruver, 46th Pennsylvania, Christopher Krobart, 18th New Jersey, and Wm. M'Kee, 46th Pennsylvania volunteers, have been found guilty of desertion and sentenced to be shot by musketry. Gen. Hooker has Union Leagues in the country done half as approved the proceedings, finding and sen- started in pursuit of the rebels.

Negro vs. White Soldiers.

We have been a thousand times told by administration prints, by officials in its employ, by Abolition Senators, Representatives, orators and preachers, that the negro is now the only hope of the country—that without negro soldiers we may as well give up the contest and acknowledge the independence of the Southern Confederacy. If this is all true, why in the name of patriotism and wisdom don't the administration confine its attention more exclusively to the raising of negro troops? Why don't it gather its brave black friends together, in legions, from the North and the South and overwhelm the rebels, instead of conscripting white men, with whom they allege we cannot succeed? They either lie about the negro being the only hope of the country, or they act with little regard to its safety. Since they have forced the negro policy upon the country against the solemn protest of three-fourths of the people, and since they allege that only the negro can now defeat and bag the rebels and save the "life of the nation," they are bound, it seems to us, to force him into the army, wherever they find him, free (r slave, and put him into a position where te can best show his fighting qualities against the armed rebels. Let the white man alone awhile and try these black heroes in the field, not by companies and regiments merely, but by brigades, divisions and corps.

NEWS OF THE DAY. BY TELEGRAPH.

FROM THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.

HEADQUARTERS, ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, }
June 22nd, 1863. Heavy cannonading was commenced, early yesterday morning, in the direction of Aldic, and continued, with intermissions, during the day. Towards night the sound became more and more indistinct. No definite reports have been received. It was known that Gen. Plessonton attacked the enemy near Aldie, and it is supposed he has succeeded in routing Stuart's command. It will probably be late before the reports of the battle are received, as the battle field is 25 miles distant, with no telegraphic communication. [We may infer from this that on Monday Hooker's headquarters were 25 miles from Aldie.

> DISPATCH FROM GEN. PLEASONTON. HEADQUARTERS CAVALRY CORPS, CAMP NEAR UPPERVILLE, VA., 5.50 p. m , June 21st, 1863.

Brigadier General S. Williams: GENERAL: I moved with my command this a. m. to Middleburg, attacked the cavalry force of rebels under Stuart, and steadily drove him all day; in fighting heavy loss; drove him through Upperville into Ashby's Gap, took two pieces of artillery, one being a Blakely gun, and caissons, by blowing up one, and upwards of 60 prisoners-more coming in-a lieutenant colonel, major and five other officers, besides a wounded colonel and a large number of other wounded left in the town of Upperville.

They left their dead and wounded upon the field. Of the former I saw upwards of twenty. We also took a large number of carbines, pistols and sabres; in fact, it was a most disastrous day to the rebel cavalry. Our loss has been very small. I never saw troops behave better or under more difficult circumstances. Very heavy charges were made and sabres used freely, but always with great advantage to us. (Signed,) A. PLEASONTON, Brig. Gen. As he was firing the second time the guard fired and killed Howe.

THE REBELS IN MARYLAND. Baltimone, June 22.—A dispatch received at the American office says that not more than 8,000 rebels are in Maryland. No engagement or demonstration has been made at Harper's Ferry, and we still hold communication with that point.

THE REBELS RETURN TO FREDERICK.

BALTIMORE. June 22.—Parties who came from points up the Baltimore and Ohio road towards Frederick City yesterday, state that the rebels returned to Frederick in small force about 10 o'clock, a. m., and remained there all day. They destroyed the telegraph wires .-During the day a small force of our cavalry charged into the town and drove the rebels out -but they subsequently returned. The rebel cavalry are said to be mostly Marylanders who came in to see their friends. Parties from plane No. 4 on the Baltimore and Ohio road state that heavy firing was heard at intervals in the direction of Harper's Ferry nearly all FORTBESS MONROE, June 21 .- OSYKA, June 16 .- A desperate fight took place at Port Hudson on the 12th. The Confederates charged the enemy and drove him from the fortifications, but the situation at Vicksburg is still doubtful. Heavy reinforcements are pouring into Grant, and large installments from Rosecrans have been sent to the great army investing Vicksburg.

FROM WASHINGTON. New York, June 22 .- A special dispatch from Washington says that no rebels are at Thoroughfare Gap. Nothing seen of the enemy towards Warrenton and beyond that point. Our army is on the move. Look out for news. ADMIRAL FOOTE. New York, June 20.—Admiral Foote, whose sickness has been already announced, still lingers, but without the slighest prospect of recovery. Last evening a consultation of physicians was held at his room at the Astor House, and the opinion was general among them that he would hardly survive the night. He was alive, however, in the morning, and symptoms appeared. The Admiral is gradually

W. S. FITCH. Lieut. Col. and Provost Marshal. BALTIMORE, June 21.—The rebels made their appearance at 5 o'clock last evening, and about 7 c'clock a small body of cavalry reached the Monocacy bridge, four miles this side of Frederick. The rebels paroled the sick in the hospitals and the Government employees. They searched the stables for horses, and seized all narked "U. S."

A large force of rebels, infantry and cavalry, crossed at Antietam ford during yesterday. Refugees exaggerate the number to 45,000 or 50,000, but our sconts say 25,000. The operators at Monocacy Bridge, as soon as the rebels appeared, came down to Baltimore on a handcar, traveling the entire distance, forty-nine miles, in seven hours. These operators, young lads, named E. Fulton and Giswell, stood their ground to the last moment, and only left when he rebels were in sight. The former brought away all the important dispatches that were in the office. A railroad conductor and several government employees also came down on the hand-car. At Plane No. 4, heavy firing could be heard, this morning, in the direction of Harper's Ferry.

LATER FROM FREDERICK.

BALTIMORE, June 21-Midnight,-A party who left Frederick this morning says that the rebels who came there last evening were only a small squad, who passed through the town, captured a few horses and left. This squad was in pursuit of some of our signal corps from South Mountain.

Our informant says no rebels were known to be nearer than South Mountain when he left Frederick, at 8 o'clock. LEE'S ARMY PROBABLY AT CHESTER GAP.

Washington, June 21.—The rebels are not at Bull Run, nor is Gen. Hill at Dumfries. This contradiction is positive, notwithstanding the currency given to the opposite rumer. Bull Run and Dumfries have been visited, and the rebels have not been seen.

From a variety of statement and speculation, based upon respectable authority, it is extremely probable that Gen. Lec is now at Chester Gap with the main body of his army. This is certainly consistent with information we have heretofore received, and is a statement generally believed in.

FROM VICKSBURG.

Memphis, June 19, via Cairo, 21.—Official advices from Vicksburg to the 16th are received. The siege was progressing slowly but surely. When he was assigned to a shop, he asked his keeper to allow him to go alone from the shop to the mess-room, remarking that he deemed it too degrading for him, having been a colonel and an acting brigadier general in the United States service, to march with common convicts. In answer, the keeper simply remarked: "Captains, colonels and brigadiers are all alike here—all reduced to the ranks."
When he incidentally mentioned that he had had a university of education, and was master of eleven different languages, the keeper replied: "One language is all we have here, and we want very little of that."

MASTICWORKER PRACTICAL CEMENTER.

This Material is different from all other Cements. It forms a solid, durable adhesiveness to any surface, imperishable by the action of water or frost. Every good building should be coated with this Cement; it is a perfect preserver to the walls, and makes a beautiful, fine finish, equal to Eastern brown sandstone, or any color desired. Color desired.
