

LOCAL NEWS.

THE DAILY PATRIOT AND UNION may be had at Jack's Book Store, corner of Third and Market streets.

THE MAILS.—Under the change of schedule on the different railroads, the time of closing the mails at the Harrisburg Post Office, April 20, 1863, is as follows:

NORTH-WAY MAIL.—For all places between Harrisburg, Lock Haven and Elmira, N. Y., at 12.00 p. m. For Lock Haven, Williamsport and Lewisburg at 9 p. m.

SOUTH-WAY MAIL.—For all places between Harrisburg and Baltimore, Md., and Washington, D. C., at 9.00 p. m.

WEST-WAY MAIL.—For all places between Harrisburg and Altoona, 12.00 p. m. For Johnstown, Pottsville and Erie Pa., Cincinnati, Columbus and Cleveland, Ohio, at 2.45 p. m.

EAST-WAY MAIL.—For all places between Harrisburg, Reading and Pottsville, at 12.30 p. m. For Philadelphia, Lancaster, Columbia, Marietta and Bainbridge, at 2.45 p. m.

WEST-WAY MAIL.—For all places between Harrisburg and Altoona, 12.00 p. m. For Johnstown, Pottsville and Erie Pa., Cincinnati, Columbus and Cleveland, Ohio, at 2.45 p. m.

EAST-WAY MAIL.—For all places between Harrisburg, Reading and Pottsville, at 12.30 p. m. For Philadelphia, Lancaster, Columbia, Marietta and Bainbridge, at 2.45 p. m.

OFFICE HOURS.—From 8.30 a. m. to 8.00 p. m. Sunday from 7.30 to 8.30 a. m. and from 3.00 to 4.00 p. m.

MEDICAL PURVISOR'S OFFICE.—The office of Surgeon J. P. Wilson, Medical Purvisor at this post, is now in the Mission church, on Front street. Office hours from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m.

NEGRO SPIES.—Two negroes were captured up the valley toward Carlisle yesterday, and placed in the guard house just across the river, on suspicion of being rebel spies. They had not had a hearing up to last accounts.

SPIES AND PRISONERS.—Quite a number of rebel spies and prisoners were taken in the Cumberland Valley during yesterday, and were sent to this place and put under guard at Camp Curtin. We will endeavor to give the result of their examination, and the subsequent disposition made of them in our next issue.

ANOTHER CAMP ESTABLISHED.—Captain J. S. Brislin, U. S. A., Chief of Cavalry, has established a new camp for cavalry on the farm of A. Boyd Hamilton, Esq., east of town. The cavalry of the State will rendezvous here, and be organized into companies and regiments. The number now in the new camp is not large, but it is increased by daily accessions.

COUNTERFEITS.—Two on the Union Bank, of Reading, Pa., and fifty sent postal currency notes, were in circulation in Philadelphia on Saturday. The latter are lithographed, and so closely resemble the genuine that it is difficult to detect them. Notes on the Palisade Bank, Yorkers, N. Y.—10s altered from 1s—and counterfeit 5s on the City Bank, Oswego, N. Y., are also in circulation.

THE VENERABLE PROCESSION was escorted by Majors Lamb-Beck and Beckett, of the Philadelphia Police company, from the Court House to the Capitol, where they tendered their services to the Governor. Gov. Curtin responded in a brief speech, accepting their services, returning them his hearty thanks, complimenting their spirit and patriotism, and indulging in some rather severe reflections upon the lawlessness and inactivity manifested by the mass of our younger citizens.

MILITARY CLAIMS AND PENSIONS.—We call the attention of those interested to the card of the firm of M'Dowell & Maguire, collectors of military claims, pensions, &c. Officers' pay rolls and mustering-in and mustering-out rolls, ordnance returns, &c., made out with correctness and dispatch. The gentlemen composing this firm are thoroughly competent and reliable, and have had a long experience in that branch of the law business which they advertise in our columns this morning.

THE REVIVAL OF THE COTTON FACTORY HOSPITAL.—The building near the Cotton Factory, formerly used for the purpose of storing cotton, is re-opened, and again converted into a hospital. The principal room has been fitted up with one hundred beds, the walls whitewashed, and very desirable improvements made in the way of ventilation. One decided improvement is the erection of tents outside the building, to serve as sleeping apartments for the nurses. The whole will be under the supervision of Surgeon Woods, formerly of the Fifty-second Pennsylvania volunteers.

ATTENTION, SILVER GRAYS.—The members will meet at the corner of Pine and Second streets this day, June 25, 1863, at 5 o'clock, p. m., in order to make arrangements to offer our services to the Governor, to defend the city, our homes and families.

All persons over 45 years of age, and able and willing to bear arms, (the necessity being urgent), are expected to be present, preparatory to making a requisition for arms.

JOHN MAGLACHLIE, Capt. pro tem.

ON PARADE.—Quite a number of the old soldiers of 1812 were on parade through our streets yesterday afternoon. They bore with them a relic in the shape of a flag, which had been carried through that war, and was much tattered and soiled by the ravages of time and war. The men walked with firm and measured tread, keeping step to the music which had quickened their youthful blood during the stirring events of well nigh fifty years ago. Time and age have dealt somewhat severely with many of these veterans, but, if the time of trial should come upon us, they will do all that lies in their power for the defence of their native State.

REPORT OF THE WEATHER CLERK.—The meteorological reporter of the Pittsburg Dispatch, who has gained some distinction for the reliability of his weather prognostications, calculates the atmospheric arrangements for the next month. We put his prophecy on record, and leave the events to prove or disprove his scientific accuracy.

The indications for the present lunar month present an entire contrast to those of the preceding month, which was very dry. The spell is now a very cloudy, light rain, and a few showers. The prospects are good for the farmers and coal men, but inconvenient and uncomfortable for the army, where the signs are the same as in this locality. It may prove the theory that wet, cold springs produce wet and healthy summer and fall months.

From some general observations, deduced from certain days, which I have not particularly examined, I am under the impression the weather will be damp and dark nearly three-fourths of the time, up to September 21st, but this can be better ascertained at the time of the July moon. The weather last lunar month consisted of nineteen cloudy and part cloudy, eight rainy and eleven clear days. The indications from June 16th to July 16th are, that nine-tenths of the month will be cloudy and part cloudy. Twenty-two days will be rainy, and we will have two or three of clear sunshine.

MORE TROOPS FROM THE EMPIRE STATE.—The Sixty-Ninth regiment N. Y. S. M. left Brooklyn for this city on Monday afternoon. There were upwards of six hundred men in the ranks. The men were fully uniformed and equipped, and were armed with Enfield rifles. The following is a list of the officers:

Colonel, James Bagley; Lieutenant Colonel, James Cavanaugh; Adjutant, Wm. Fogarty; Surgeon, Dr. Clarke; Quartermaster, Joseph P. Fully; Engineer, Capt. M'Quade.

The Fifty-Second regiment N. Y. S. M. also left that city on the same day. Among them were a number of the First regiment New York volunteers, whose term of service recently expired. They are distinguished by the Kearney cross and a red patch on their caps. The regimental officers of the Fifty-Second are as follows:

Colonel, M. W. Cole; Lieutenant Colonel, W. C. Booth; Major, Edward Green; Quartermaster, G. J. Hardy; Adjutant, George Hudson; Surgeon, Joseph Jones; Commissary, William Cole.

[We understand that the above regiment, on arriving at Philadelphia, were met by an order to report to Gen. Schepck, instead of General Couch, and accordingly went to Baltimore.]

Since the departure of the Fifty-second, orders have been issued to the Forty-seventh regiment, Col. Meserole, and the Seventieth (cavalry) regiment, Col. Cropper, to proceed to Harrisburg as soon as possible. At last accounts the men were mustering, and the quartermasters had made the necessary requisitions for supplies and equipments.

The Forty-seventh expected to get off by this morning, but the Seventieth, being a cavalry regiment, will perhaps require more time to equip themselves.

Gen. Jesse G. Smith, of the Eleventh New York brigade, was to arrive in this city last night and take command of his brigade.

Gen. Crooke has received orders to report to Gen. Couch at Harrisburg, and will leave for this place to-day, to take command of the Fifth New York brigade.

[Communicated.] THE DEACON'S LAST LIE.—Messrs Editors.—I find the following in the Tory Hessian organ of Tuesday evening:

One of the on dit of the rebel occupation of Chambersburg was the refusal of General Jenkins to take the hand of the late postmaster of that borough. The rebel declared that he was ready to take the hand of an open foe in frank greeting, but he scorned to touch the flesh of those who were known as "copperheads," terming them "snakes and scorpions unworthy the recognition of brave men."

The Tory Hessian, Telegraph should not have ventured to put forth this deliberate lie at a time when there are scores of Chambersburg gentlemen in Harrisburg. The late Postmaster at Chambersburg, Mr. John Liggott, is dead, and has been buried about six months. He died of disease contracted while he was serving under the flag of the United States, with a musket on his shoulder and a knapsack on his back; whilst that cowardly Hessian liar and sounder, the Postmaster at Harrisburg, and publisher of the Tory Telegraph, was staying at home, growing rich on government pickings and hugging his money-bags closer than his Bible.

It is evident that the Hessian has still got a big scare on and is afraid that Jenkins will soon be here. He wants to worm into the good graces of Jenkins by praising him for despising "copperheads." The Hessian and Jenkins ought to be good friends, as the Abolitionists and Secessionists are working together to destroy the Union.

RATHER COOL.—The idea of the "Telegraph" reading the N. Y. Herald out of all loyal company and out of all Christian society is refrigerating. Consider for a moment the fact that there is now in Camp Curtin a full company known as the "New York Herald Guards"—company E, N. Y. 4th Artillery—which was offered and recruited exclusively from the employees of that newspaper establishment, and which stands ready to protect whatever remnant of property Mr. Bergner may have behind in case of a rebel attack: consider these facts, and then tell us if you think it lies in the mouth of the Flying Dutchman to call down the lightnings of heaven upon the old Scotch editor just at this particular time? Couldn't Hesse Darmstadt's favorite son take the "Herald's" little joke, without working himself into a fit of the vapors, and cursing it with all the curses contained in the Index Expurgatorius? "Disloyal, quotha? Has the Deacon done half as well? Were our nature poisoned with the infernal Jacobinical virus which fills his every vein, we would counsel these "Herald" men to revenge themselves upon him, just as he brought the mob to destroy us on some pitiful pretext on more than one occasion; but all we can advise company E to do is, to take the bussing bottle up in their fingers, and say to him, in the language of Uncle Toby: "Go, poor devil, get 'ther room enough in the world for us and thee!"

ARRESTED FOR TREASON.—One J. K. Martin, a horse doctor and a horse farrier, was arrested yesterday morning, for uttering treasonable language. It seems that the Doctor was at market in the morning, and there became engaged in a somewhat heated conversation with others present, in the course of which he became very denunciatory of the government, saying among other things that he would rather see the rebels in the city than Old Abe. He also gave it as his opinion that Mr. Lincoln was a condemned male offspring of a female canine. Whereupon a by-stander made information to Provost Marshal Clement, who caused the worthy sympathizer to be arrested by the provost guard. When brought before the Marshal, he denied having used the language attributed to him, admitting, however, that in the heat of controversy he may have been betrayed into saying some things which in calmer moments his judgment would not approve. But as to his cherishing a treasonable spirit, he disavowed it entirely. The Marshal then administered the oath of allegiance to him, and released him from custody.

ANOTHER HESSIAN.—The whole country this side of Chambersburg seemed to be on the move yesterday. The valley was filled with fugitives of all classes, conditions, ages, sexes and colors, fleeing before the advancing rebel hordes like buffalo before a prairie fire. The scenes of a week ago were re-enacted. Negroes on foot and in wagons, carrying with them their only stock and store; farmers with their horses, household goods and families; sorrowful men, hastening away from fields whitening for the sickle and meadows waiting for the scythe; all these came crowding down the valley in dusty caravans, pressing over the bridge and through our town into the peaceful country beyond. God send them rest, and grant that they may soon return to peaceful homes, not torn by the spoiler or blasted with the breath of war.

LATEST FROM CAIRO.—We will endeavor to keep our readers well supplied with the latest and most reliable news. Since our last report, the following special telegraphic dispatch, to a western paper over the Rat Tail Line, has been received:

CAIRO, 18.—The General Grant has just arrived from Belmont. Grant is still in front of Vicksburg, on the bank of it, with Pemberton and Joe Johnson in his rear on both sides of his right and left flank, with the enemy in front and the rebels in the adjacent vicinity. Unless the city is taken soon, it will not be captured for quite while. The health of the troops is improving. General Grant is confident he will take the place, unless he fails to do so.

A TABERNACLE TENT.—The United States Christian Commission has forwarded to this department a very large tent, to be used as a place of divine worship by the soldiers. It has been pitched near the centre of Camp Curtin, and is conspicuous from all parts of the camp. Rev. B. M. Long has superintended this tabernacle tent. Services are now held there regularly at 7.30 a. m., 3.30 p. m. and 7.30 p. m. The meetings are said to be largely attended, and are of a united character, all denominations joining in the observations. Rev. Messrs. Parvin and Parker, of Philadelphia, Reed, of Parkersburg, and Hay and Jackson, of this place, have already preached and taken part in the exercises. We understand that the proposition to erect this tabernacle here was recommended by Gen. Couch and Surgeon General King, and, if a necessity should arise, it will be used for hospital purposes.

IN MEMORIAM.—The following touching lines, commemorative of the untimely decease and mournful end of two belligerent insects, are attributed to Squibboson, the wandering pastoral poet, who guides his flock Pegasus along the surf-beaten r-p-rort to Gen. Schepck, instead of General Couch, and accordingly went to Baltimore.

The humming bird and bumble bee One summer's day got on a spree; They gazed together on a floral locker, Till they got sick, and sicker, and sicker. The bumble bee, at the bumble's thighs, The bumble bee, at the bumble's thighs, And then they fit, and fit, and fit, Until they couldn't get up and git.

And then there came a serpent, Who observed their amorous sport; "Dear friends," said he, as he wildly laughed, "Belligerent insects, come out of the draft!"

GOOD ADVICE.—Always sit next the carrier, if you can, at dinner. Ask no woman her age. Be civil to all rich aunts and uncles. Don't joke with a policeman. Take your oldest hat to an evening party. Never contradict a man who utters— "Pull down the blind before you put on your wig. If you can't get clothes and education too, get the clothes. Rise early young man—before you are twenty-five, possible. Above all take a newspaper, advertise, buy your umbrellas, parasols, canes, &c., at the store of M. H. Lee, 69 Market street, and the probabilities are that you will live comfortably and die happy.

NUMBER OF TROOPS FROM PHILADELPHIA.—The aggregate number of men mustered in at Philadelphia "for the emergency," is one thousand one hundred and seventy-nine. A much greater number turned out and came to Harrisburg for the defence of the State, but declined to be mustered into the service of the general government. They therefore returned home. The Gray Reserves, who were still here yesterday, had not up to that time consented to stand the muster, and at last accounts were still cogitating upon the subject. They paid their own transportation from Philadelphia, disbursing over two thousand dollars for this purpose.

Pennsylvania Militia and Recruiting Claims, United States pension, bounty, arrears of pay and subsistence claims, &c., &c., made out and collected by EUGENE SNYDER, Attorney at Law, office, Third street, Harrisburg, Pa. oct25-ly

AYER'S COMPOUND EXTRACT Sarsaparilla.—No one remedy is more needed in this country than a reliable Alterative, and the sick have been so outrageously cheated by the worthless preparations of Sarsaparilla, that they are disposed to doubt the existence of the virtues of Sarsaparilla. They are mere alopecin—merely a concentrated extract of the active variety of Sarsaparilla compounded with the most powerful and effective medicine. Such is Ayer's Extract of Sarsaparilla, as its truly wonderful cures of the great variety of complaints which require an alterative medicine have abundantly shown. Do not, therefore, discard this invaluable medicine, because you have been imposed upon by something pretending to be Sarsaparilla, while it was not. When you have used Ayer's—and not till then, will you know the virtues of Sarsaparilla. For minute particulars of the diseases it cures, we refer you to Ayer's American Almanac, which the agents below named will furnish gratis to all who call for it.
