A special meeting of the Paxton fire company will be held this evening, at 6 o'clock. Punctual attendance of the members is requested.
MUSTERED IN.—Captain F. Asbury Aul's rifle company, numbering one hundred and thirty men, has been mustered into the United States service for the emergency, and now occupies the old Harris Park, on Front street.
PAXTON FIRE COMPANY.—All those members of the Paxton fire company who have signed the roll, and all belonging to the company, are requested to report at the usual place of meeting at 6 o'clock this evening. By order of the President.

NEW CAMP AT READING.—By a recent order a new camp has been established at Reading, to which most of the troops now arriving are forwarded. Over two thousand volunteers, who came in last night from the Northern counties, were immediately forwarded to this camp.
WE AGAIN ASK THE INDULGENCE OF THE READER FOR THE meagerness of our local column. We need only to state that, together with a majority of the hands employed in our office, we are daily on drill both in the forenoon and afternoon. The mere statement will be an ample excuse for any shortcomings in this department of the paper.

REBEL PRISONERS.—A large number of rebel prisoners recently captured at Bloody Run, Fulton county, by the forces lately under command of General Milroy, were brought to town by rail and placed under guard yesterday. We have not ascertained the circumstances of their capture, or the disposition to be made of them.
IN THE SERVICE OF THE GOVERNMENT.—The Citizen Fire company's apparatus, of this city, has been secured by the government, and is now in their service on the opposite side of the river supplying the fortifications with water. A detachment of fifteen members, under the direction of Mr. A. W. Watson, have the apparatus in charge. They will remain in service during the "emergency."

A BETTER REASON.—Yesterday's Telegraph announces that hereafter only a half sheet will be issued from that office in the morning "until additional help in the composing room and editorial department can be obtained." Until an "additional" supply of paper "can be obtained," is what ought to have been written, as the whole town knows that the prudent Deacon has again packed and re-shipped all his "hereditaments and appurtenances whatsoever," including a very large stock of printing paper of the Telegraph size. The idea of "obtaining additional help in the editorial department" is a sensible one, as the necessity of such a measure is too apparent to be overlooked even by a Darmstadt Tauton, who is supposed not to be capable of seeing after 4 o'clock p. m.

THE DEVIL GETTING HIS DUE.—We grieve to say that our "devil," although not, like Belial, the "dissolutes of the spirit that fell," is sometimes given over to sporting and devilry. Yesterday, for example, the young twelve-year old invented heavily in crackers and torpedoes, filling his pockets with them until he was a walking powder magazine. With these he maintained a sharp bombardment upon houses and pedestrians as he passed along. His campaign, however, like others we wot of, was "short, sharp and decisive," for officer Campbell appeared on the ground in force and took him by a well executed flank movement. Many rounds of ammunition and a very extensively developed pair of boots were included in the capture. The young pyrotechnist was taken before his Honor the Mayor, who, after effectually spiking the diabolical battery by means of a reprimand, sent the young "infernal machine" back into our lines.

MONDAY IN PHILADELPHIA.—There appears to have been a greater panic in Philadelphia than in this place during the present week. The excitement on Monday was intense and indescribable. Places of business were closed, meetings of the citizens were held throughout the city, and the work of packing up and skedaddling on the part of the more sordid and cowardly went on vigorously from morning till night. For once the fast-anchored old Quaker City has been driven from her ancient moorings by a threatened danger. The brokers and stock boards transacted but little business. The energies of the people were directed to forming companies, and meetings were held to raise funds for bounty for all volunteers under the State call. At a meeting in Market street it was resolved that one million of dollars be raised forthwith, to be disbursed for this purpose. Every craft, profession, sect and color was astir and absorbed in the matter of State defence and self-preservation. Several regiments were raised during the day.

REMEMBRANCE FOR ENLISTING.—By the new order of the War Department, all men enlisting in the regular army for five years' service, within ninety days, shall receive a premium, advance pay and bounty of $400, as follows, viz: Premium paid on enlistment, $12; advance pay, first payment after muster, $12; advance bounty, paid at depot after being accepted, $20—total, $40. Bounty to be paid at the second regular pay day after enlistment, $50. Bounty to be paid at the first pay day after eight months' service, $50. Bounty to be paid at the first day after twelve months' service, $50. Bounty to be paid at the first day after two years' service, $50. Bounty to be paid at the first day after three years' service, $50. Bounty to be paid at the first day after four years' service, $50. The bounty of $400 aforesaid shall be allowed and paid to all now in the regular army whose terms expire within one year, and who shall re-enlist within two months before the expiration of their present term of service.

(From yesterday's "Telegraph.")
CAN IT BE POSSIBLE.—We clip the following from last evening's Philadelphia Bulletin:
THE REBELS IN MARYLAND.
HARRISBURG, June 29.—The report upon the bulletin board of a Philadelphia Democratic morning paper that "there are no rebels in the vicinity of Harrisburg," is an unmitigated lie. The rebels ARE within four (4) miles of the city, and an attack is hourly expected.
Give this all the publicity you can. By authority of General Couch, commanding.
O. W. SEES.
The above was no doubt proclaimed for the purpose of giving aid and comfort to the rebels, by preventing enlistments. Can it be possible that the government will continue to permit such men to live in the loyal city of Philadelphia? They ought to be transported to keep company with the traitor Vallandigham.

The Telegraph is in error in stating that Mr. Sees is a Philadelphian. He is a citizen of this place. We hardly expected to see him "stabbed in the house of his friends" in the above style.
The Philadelphia "Age," although not so severe in its comments, agrees with the "Telegraph" on this subject. It thus neatly disposes of Mr. Sees' telegram:
The "Age" is the only "Democratic morning paper" published in Philadelphia, our journal is evidently the one referred to. We will not apply the same language to the statement of "O. W. Sees" that he, in his excitement, has used in reference to the alleged dispatch; but we will simply tell him that there is not a word of truth in his assertion. No such dispatch appeared on our bulletin board. The only one in reference to the matter read as follows: "No rebels in sight, but momentarily expected." We advise "O. W. Sees" to turn his immediate attention to the rebels "momentarily expected" in Harrisburg, instead of wasting his precious energies in sending to Abolition journals insolent and unfounded dispatches upon subjects upon which he is entirely ignorant.

STILL FLITTING.—The exodus of fugitives and demoralized patriots has by no means ceased from our midst, and the flight of the residents of the Cumberland Valley still continues. Yesterday's Philadelphia North American says: The morning train from Harrisburg brought down an enormous load of refugees, and the freight cars were filled with property removed for safety from the State capital, large numbers of negroes, many of whom were Philadelphians. Dozens of them, weary and foot-sore, probably fugitives from slavery, came by the city during the day and were taken care of by the colored people here. With such, even the poorest negro shares his crust. We saw a woman, with two children, who had come from the other side of the river, literally wearing the shoes from her feet. The colored people took them to their lodgings in Lombard street. Those having means, of course, took care of themselves. About fifty women and children sought refuge last night. A woman, very nearly blind, with two children about a week old, wrapped in a blanket, was among the number. She was in great poverty, but was taken good care of.

A BLACK JOKE.—The other evening, while Tarr's avenue was in a blaze of glory, when Mars had infused a terrible martial spirit into the sons and daughters of Ham, a stalwart dandy entered the avenue, when he was hailed by a duck-legged acquaintance with—
"I say, you, Jake, is you gwine to pay me dem fifty cents?"
"Fifty cents—fifty cents!" exclaimed the indignant Jake, "is dis a time when a man has a musket on his shoulder to fite for his country to ask him for fifty cents? Go 'long, nigger—I'm ashamed of you—I is!"

So saying, the insulted dandy started up the alley at a double-quick pace. Jake's financial abilities were equal to the emergency, and we shouldn't wonder if others who have, within the last few days, found it inconvenient to meet their pecuniary obligations, adopted the same mode of crushing out importunate creditors.

WELL DONE FOR USOIN.—We doubt if any people in the old Keystone State have done their duty more thoroughly and promptly, during the present crisis, than those of Union county. Capt. H. W. Crotzer yesterday arrived in command of a company of one hundred men from Lewisburg, making the fourth already sent from that county for the emergency. Still another is expected to-day. Few people can show a better record for promptness and patriotism than this. Capt. Crotzer served with credit in the Army of the Potomac, and was largely instrumental in the formation of these companies.

Capt. Crotzer's company took up quarters in the hall of the House of Representatives, where it was yesterday addressed in a stirring and patriotic speech by Hon. Isaac Slenker, Auditor General. Speeches were also made by J. C. Bucher, Esq., a private in the company, Mr. John Randolph and others.
