Gone to the Field .- We noticed on Saturday a fine company of cavalry, under command of Captain Valentine B. Hummel, crossing the bridge and going up the valley. The men were thoroughly accoutred, and mounted on serviceable looking horses. They have been encamped for some days in the new cavalry camp east of town.

REBEL PRISONERS AND DESERTERS .- Squads of rebel prisoners and deserters continue to come in almost hourly. The whole hill country skirting the Cumberland valley is said to be alive with men who have seceded from the seceders and turned their backs upon the tents of Jeff. Bully for them! Gen. Lee's forces are concentrating at Harrisburg in a manner not laid down in any of that officer's orders.

PAROLED PRISONERS .- Over thirty car loads of paroled prisoners were brought down the Camberland Valley railroad yesterday. .They numbered over sixteen hundred, and are a part of the captures made by the rebels in the fight near Gettysburg. . A large number of them belonged to the famous Bucktail brigade. Among them was a lively sprinkling of rebel prisoners and deserters. The paroled men were sent to the camp at West Chester, where they will be joined by others who are still on the way from Gettysburg and vicinity.

DAVIS' PARORAMA.-Mr. H. H. Davis, who has been "lying upon his oars" for the last few weeks, resting from the fatigues of a long and successful journey through the interior of this State and New York, will exhibit his Panorama of the Great Rebellion at Brant's Hall, commencing this evening. It was his intention to commence last Monday evening, but the close proximity of the rebelious rebels, and the certainty that they would have taken it as an article contraband of war, induced him to keep it on the back ground. It is not necessary for us to speak of it as a great work of art, for those who have not seen it have certainly heard of it, and will embrace this opportunity to witness it, while hundreds who have seen it time and again will doubtless improve this last opportunity to look at it before it is taken to Europe.

POLICE AFFAIRS-Before Alderman Kline .-The following persons were up for drunkenness and disorderly conduct during Saturday and yesterday, and, after a term in the lock-up, were discharged from further custody:

James Church, arrested by officer Cline; Israel T. Castle, arrested by officer Brooks; Wm. Wells, arrested by officer Emanuel; Harry Spayd, arrested by officer Brooks; John Welch, screeted by officer Emanuel,

George [Roach, drunk and disorderly, was nabbed by officer Campbell, and committed to prison for forty-eight hours. Andrew Hays was lodged in jail five days fer drunkenness and vagrancy. He was "gobbled up" by officer Fry.

Mary Churchville, from Rochester, N. Y., was arrested by officer Cline for vagrancy, and sent to prisen for ten days.

William Conner and wife, keeping a tavern on North street, were up yesterday for violating the Sunday liquor law. They entered bail to answer at court. Arrested by officer Campbell.

Matilda Brogan, who lives in Reservoir avenue. was brought before the alderman, charged by officer Rhine with furnishing liquor to a party of soldiers on Sanday. She gave bail to appear and answer.

Eliza Garner was arrested by officer Pat. Campbell, charged with keeping a disorderly house at the foot of Allison's hill. Committed for a hearing

A KIND WORD FROM ABROAD .- All the newspapers far and near have teemed for days with the vilest abuse of Harrisburg. From all the great cities, from the pure and patriotic heart of those central strongholds of shoddyism, comes up the curse and imprecation to wither and impale us. From the lofty summits of "loyalty," whereon the contractor sits enthrened, the wrathful bolt is driven, to transfix and utterly destroy us from off the face of the earth. We are in a bad way. We have looked in vain for a single kind-nay, a single just word to-usward. There seems to be no let up in the onslaught from every side. We have Teached the ultimatum of degradation, for even the lilliputian Pittsburg Dispatch joins in with "Tray, Blanche and Sweetheart," and takes its little bark at us. It says that our citizens are "becoming more calm as the rebels approach nearer, probably in view of the contemplated surrender !" In reply to this, it affords us real pleasure to append the following, from the Harrisburg correspondence of the Pittsburg Chronicle, which is the only kind and truthful word which it has pleased our brethren abroad to say for us, and which is a complete antidote to the venom of the little Dis.

patch : Amidst all the exciting rumors and the seeming dangers that surround the capital of Pennsylvania, and in the face of the fact of the steady approach of a large rebel force from the South, the calmness and complacency of Harrisburgers is truly surprising. No unnecessary alarm prevails among them, no confusion pervades them; their hearts are stoutly braced for any emergency. The reports of cowardies on the part of the citizens of Harrisburg are utterly false and without foundation. They thoroughly appreciate and comprehend the importance of the crisis, and have done, are doing, and will do all that can be required of

The city of Harrisburg, out of a population of about 18,000, has sent over 1,400 men into the Union army, and now has over five hundred in arms in defence of the border. Can a single city in the land show a better record for patriotism and valor? True, we have our share of cowards and skulkers-loud-lunged braggarts and blackguards of the Dispatch's way of talking and thinking-who packed up and fled before the approach of the Jeffites as from the glance of destiny; and we have also a goodly share of migratory jackalls and contractors, who have sneaked among us to satisfy their lust for gain at the expense of the soldier. Yet we are willing to place our record by the side of that of our neighbors, and do not shrink from the comparison. Why will our dear newspaper friends not do us simple justice? Why do they not dare to publish the facts? But we suppose we must lay under the curse for a time yet. O dear, good, sweet contractors! we cry you mercy. Pious peculators and stay-at-home patriots, pray for us!

"Er Tu. Brute!"-We are surprised and pained to see in the last number of Harper's Weekly an engraving intended to caricature the patriotism and liberality of Pennsylvania. It is a silly, abortive attempt at wit, representing a man in Quaker garb higgling with a soldier about the price of a glass of water. It is the source whence this unprovoked insult and unfounded slander emanates that gives us pain. Many slanderous and lying tongues have wagged against us through the columns of irresponsible and venal journals abroad, but the dubious character of those same prints counteracted the venom of their sting; but Harper's Weekly has ever-enjoyed a reputation for fairness and truthfulness, which will give to this foul thrust a more painful and lasting force. We tell its publishers that they have put the character of their journal in jeopardy, and that, unless they make amends to the great people whom they have thus insulted and sinned against, the wretched wood-cut in question will -rove as expensive an engraving as they ever bargained for. Until such amende is made, no Penra sylvanian who has a particle of just pride in his State should give to the pictorial his countenance or support. Its slander rests upon no grounds whatever; it is unprovoked and undeserved; it is a lie of the first magnitude and of the most devilish nature. Pennsylvania-great-hearted, patient, powerful, with the bones of her children whitening upon every battle field of the war-can bide her time, content with doing her duty in the present, as she has ever done in the past. Sconer or later her vindication and triumph will come.

THE FOURTH .- The eighty-seventh anniversary of our national Independence was not celebrated with that eclat which has hitherto marked its coming. The day was in keeping with surrounding circumstances, gloomy and foreboding. The rain fell steadily throughout the day, so that, even had there been no great and awful peril overhanging the land, all out-door demonstrations would have been effectually drowned out. In this city, the youngsters worried through the day with the aid of heavy supplies of fire crackers, and the older persons passed the hours in discussing war topics. A large proportion of the citizens, however, celebrated the occasion by performing duty in the field or in the entrenchments across the river -The "Cameron Guards," quartered in the Capitol building, did not allow the memorable day to pass without notice, but commemorated its return with song, toast and speech.

Let us indulge the hope that we may as a nation enjoy many happy and glorious returns of the Fourth of July. It is the grandest day in our calendar, for on that day "the Decalogue of the world's new political creed" was proclaimed amid the thunder and lightning of cannon, and the star of the world's hope rose above the horizon, to sparkle there forever. God grant that John Adams' prophecy may be forever true, and that the Fourth of July will "be celebrated through all time with bonfires, illuminations and the wild rejoicings of a happy people."

A Friend in Need. Try it,

DR. SWEET'S INFALLIRLE LINIMENT is prepared from the recipe of Dr. Stephen Sweet, of Connecticut, the great bone setter, and has been used in his practice for the last twenty years with the most astonishing success. As an external remedy it is without a rival, and will alleviate pain more speedily than any other preparation. For all Rheumatic and Nervous Disorders it is truly infallible, and as a curative for Sores, Wounds, Sprains, Bruises, &c., its soothing, healing and powerful strengthening properties, excite the just wonder and astonishment of all who have evergiven it a trial. Over four hundred certificates of recipent a trial. given it a trial. Over four hundred certificates of remarkable cures, performed by it within the last two years, attest this fact.

AYER'S COMPOUND EXTRACT SARSA-RILLA.—No one remedy is more needed in this country than a reliable Alterative, tut the sick have been so outrageously cheated by the worthless preparations of Sarsaparilla abroad that they are disgusted even with the name. Yet the drug cannot be blamed for the impositions on which they have suffered. Most of the recalled Sarsaparillas in the market contain little of the reviews of Sarsaparillas in the market contain little of the tions com which they have suffered. Most of the socalled Sarsaparillas in the market contain little of the vircues of Sarsaparilla or anything else. They are mere slops—inert and worthless, while a concentrated extract of the active variety of Sarsaparilla compounded with Dock, Stillingia, Iodina, etc., is, as it ever will be, a powerful alterative and an effectual remedy. Such is Ayer's Extract of Sarsaparilla, as its truly wonderful cures of the great variety of complaints which require an alterative medicine have abundantly shown. Do not, therefore, discard this invaluable medicine, because you have been imposed upon by something pretending to be Sarsaparilla, while it was not. When you have used Ayer's—then and not till then, will you know the virtues of Sarsaparilla. For minute particulars of the diseases it cures, we refer you to Ayer's American Alma nac, which the agents below named will furnish gratis to all who call for it.

This medicine increases the power of digestion and excites the absorbents into healthy action, by which the vater or calcareous depositions, and all unnatural enlargements are reduced, as well as pain and inflammation, and is good for MEN, WOMEN and CHILDREN.

These symptoms, if allowed to go on, which this medi-cine invariably removes, soon follow

Many are aware of the cause of their suffering, but none will confess The records of the Insane Asylums, and the melancholy deaths by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of the assertion.

Requires the aid of medicine to strengthen and invigo-rate the system, which HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHE invariably does A trial will convince the most skeptical

In many affections peculiar to Fema'es, the Extract Buchu is unequalled by any other remedy, as in Ohlorosis or Retention. Irregulatities, Painfulness, or Euppression of Cus'omary Evacuations, Ulc-rated or Scirrhous state of the Uterus.
