LOCAL NEWS.

MILITARY RELIEF FUND .- The regular payment to families will be made this afternoon, 7th inst., at the usual place, between the hours of four and O. Edwards, Sec'y.

THAT'S WHERE THE MONEY GOES .- It is announced by a New York paper that over a million dollars in gold has arrived in that city from Philadelphia and Harrisburg.

THE GIRARD WILL CASE.—This interminable law suit has at length been decided by the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania in favor of the city of Philadelphia, all the judges concurring in the OLD SOLDIERS OF 1812.—The members of this company are requested to meet at the Court House arms, for the purpose of being mustered out. By order of the Captain,

CHARLES CARSON.

RESUMED BUSINESS .- The Pennsylvania railroad, which was compelled to partially suspend business on part of its line during the past week, has again resumed operations along the entire route. Freight and passenger trains will run as usual henceforth.

THE WALKUT STREET HOSPITAL .- This institution, in charge of Surgeon Seiler, is now reported to have over one hundred patients, and is rapidly filling up. It is calculated to accommodate one hundred and twenty-six persons. The building is the old Lancasterian school house, and is located on Walnut street, between Fourth and Fifth.

THE NEW COMMANDER.-Major General Meade is described as a tall, slim, gray-bearded man, wearing glasses, an old slouched hat, a blue blouse with corduroy pants tucked into his long jack boots. He is ungainly in looks and actions, plain of speech and familiar and free in conversation when not occupied with business. The whole style of the man is unassuming and plain even to severity.

VOLUNTEER SURGEONS .- Large numbers of volunteer Surgeons are arriving here daily, tendering their services to the Governor in aid of the wounded Pennsylvania soldiers at Gettysburg and elsewhere. A large delegation came in yesterday from Pittsburg and vicinity, and proceeded to the scene of their labors, where their medical skill is no doubt sorely needed by many a maimed and suffering hero. It will be a consolation to the friends of of the wounded to know that they will be in the care of men fitted by medical education and experience to render them every possible relief within the range of medicative and surgical science.

CONTRACT AWARDED .- The contract for furnish ing fourteen hundred of the fifteen hundred horses advertised for by the government was yesterday awarded to William Colder & Co., of this city, at one hundred and thirty-five dollars a head. This company is a large one, having extensive ramifications and faultless machinery. A large number of horse contractors were here, attracted by the prospect of "turning an honest" greenback, but were compelled to take a back seat and, with lengthened visages and envious eyes, look at the triumphant sweep of the terribly elongated pole which has brought down all the governmental persimmons hanging from the boughs of the tree | glowing tribute to Rosecrans and Grant, and conof liberty in this section.

A WARNING .- Still another instance of the danger and criminal recklessness of fast riding through alry company, while riding furiously through tatious. Paxton street, rode down and very seriously injured a Mrs. Hines, who happened to be crossing at the time. Information was made against the offender by a police officer, and a warrant issued by the magistrate for his arrest. General Couch very properly gave an order to Major Wynkoop, commanding Camp Brisbin, for the delivery of Moyer to the civil authorities, and he is now in jail awaiting a hearing. There can be little excuse for such reckless riding on the part of any one. It is criminal, and should be punished.

have swollen all the rivers in this part of the country. The Susquehanna has been on the rise since Friday morning, and all its fords are now impassable for artillery and infantry. The little Conodaguinet creek was on the rampage during Saturday and Sunday, overflowing its banks at Carlisle and other places, and flooding the low lands on either side. We understand that soldiers going to Carliste from this place were obliged to wade through water up to their waists, and that the very bottom seemed to have fallen out of the road leading thence to Chambersburg. The Potomac river is also reported to be very high, which will prevent the rebels from retreating back to the "sacred soil," and compel them either to fight or surronder,

NURSES FROM PHILADELPHIA .- A committee of ladies intend starting immediately from Philadelphia to Harrisburg, and if necessary will proceed to the scene of the late battles, to minister to the tounded soldiers. They have full authority from Covernor Curtin to act in this capacity. The work which they must perform is a trying one, but it will be executed with that devoted enthusiasm and self-sacrifice which belong to woman's nature alme. The blessing of many a sufferer upon the rack of pain, and the last grateful gleam of many ar eye glazing in the agony of death, will be her revard. Woman's record throughout this mighty contict has been a glorious one, which angels and the perfect in heart might gladly own. Her soothing and healing presence has moved at all times amid the clash of arms and the mad carnival of blood and hate, as well as through the wards of groaning tospitals, coming to the sufferer like "a sweet benedction 'mid the eternal curse."

PREPARE FOR THE WOUNDED .- We may look for the speedy arrival of very many wounded so'diers during the week. Many public military hospitals, excellently arranged and fitted up, have recently been estalished here, and hundreds of beds and rooms are now ready for patients; but as our city is more accessible from the Gettysburg battle field than most others, there is a sad probability that the hospitals will be insufficient for the accommodation of all the sufferers who may be sent hither. It wil: therefore devolve upon our citizens to lead a help. ing hand to the benevolent and tender work, and to receive their wounded defenders into their houses, where their sufferings may be alleviated and their wounds attended. We are sure that now as in times past, our people are ready to open house and purse, and that the heart of women, ever gentle and kindly, will not be wanting in helpful and southing ministrations around the sick-bed. Fovernor Curtin has already assured the Surgeon General that our people are prepared to take the wunded into their homes, that our public buildings vill be given up for hospitals, and that all soldiers sent hither will receive all the attention that the nost careful nursing may demand. We know that our citizens need no appeal to their kindness or patrictism in this matter. We simply notify them of the fact that they will soon be called upon to assuage the sufferings of bleeding brothren, fully confident that their patriotism and liberality, which have never failed in the past, will again be equal to the demands of the present emergency.

THE CUMBERLAND VALLEY .- Perhaps there is no richer, better cultivated or more prosperous agricultural region in the whole North than that which has recently been overrun and plundered by the Confederates. The Cumberland Valley extends from the Susquehanna to the Potomac, a distance of about eighty miles, with an average counties of Cumberland and Franklin in Pennsylvania, and the county of Washington in Maryland, containing an aggregate population of nearly one hundred thousand souls. From two and a half to three millions of bushels of wheat are annually produced in the valley, together with yast quantities of rye, oats, corn, hay, potatoes, and all manner of produce. The soil is a rich limestone, not easily affected by drouth, and admirably adapted for grazing, as well as grain growing. The number of horses and cattle in the valley was very on Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock, with all their large, of which the Southern end has been quite stripped by the invaders.

The ancient Indian name of this valley was the Kittationy, and the mountain range that forms its northwestern boundary from the Susquehanna to Chambersburg still bears that name. At the latter place this range ceases abruptly, and thence to the Potomac the valley widens, and is bounded by the Tuscargra.

The points between which the rebels principally operated are Chambersburg, Pa., and Hagerstown, Md. The former place is fifty-two miles from Harrisburg, in a southwesterly direction, and the latter twenty-two miles south of Chambersburg. Midway between these places, and five miles from the Maryland line, lies Greencastle, in the centre of a fine country, and the leading flour and grain depot of that region. Ten miles west of Greencastle is Mercersburg, and about the same distance west is Waynesboro', all around which is a wealthy farming district, dotted over with flouring mills,

The Cumberland Valley railroad, having its termini at Harrisburg and Hagerstown, passes through Carliele, Chambersburg, Greencastle, and all the principal villages in the valley.

McConnelsburg, the county seat of Fulton county, is situated in a valley between Scrub Ridge and the Tuscarora mountain, in what is called the Big Cove. That cove runs down towards Hancock, in Maryland, distant about twenty miles. Live stock is largely raised in that valley, but nearly all the horses and cattle have been swept out of it by the rebel invaders.

Gettysburg, in Adams county, the scene of the late terrible battle and Union victory, is about twenty-five miles from Greencastle, in a direction a little north of east, and is about fifteen miles southwest of Hanover, in York county.

Speech of Gen. Sigel .- Major General Franz Sigel arrived in town yesterday afternoon, taking rooms at the Jones House. Immediately after reaching the hotel, a large crowd gathered in front of it, and forced the General, accompanied by the Prussian Prince Salm-Salm, also stopping at the same hotel, to appear upon the balcony. General Sigel made a brief speech, in which he returned his acknowledgments for the honor done him. He also complimented the patriotism and spirit of Pennsylvania. and said that it afforded him the deepest gratification to know that the brave and noble Army of the Potomac had achieved their first overwhelming and decisive victory on her soil. He paid a cluded by expressing the belief that our troops will soon tread the very halls of Richmond.

Gen. S. is a slim, wiry man, of middle size, with long hair, and a voice which betrays quite unmisthe street was brought to our notice yesterday af- | takably the "sweet German accent" of Faderland. ternoon. John Moyer, of Captain Richard's cav- His manner and appearance is altogether unosten-

The General was also serenaded in the evening by a fine brass band, at which time he again spoke to the large crowd ascembled in front of the hotel. We have no room to give his remarks at length. Gen. Hall, commanding the New York treeps now in this department, also briefly addressed the concourse of citizens and soldiers.

MUSTERED OUT .- The City Zouaves, Capt. F. Asbury Awl, and also the City Guard, Capt. Forster, vesterday marched up to the arsenal, gave up theirs guns, and were mustered out. The HIGH WATER.—The heavy rains of last week | Zouaves are too well known and appreciated as a military organization to need any special commendation at our hands. They will be remembered for the promptness and patriotism displayed by them in the late emergency, as well as for important services heretofore rendered. Capt. Forster's City Guard was composed principally of the solid business and professional men of this place. While in service below town, they cheerfully endured the hardships of a soldier's life, drilling incessantly and consuming "hard tack" with remorseless energy. They are entitled to commendation from all good men, and will undoubtedly be popular with the ladies also for a long time to

> The late great victory over Lee at Gettysburg outs an end to "the emergency," and we may look for the mustering out of other militia companies as speedily as it can be effected.

> GONE HOME -The "Cameron Guards," Capt H. W. Crotzer, were yesterday honorably discharged from further duty, and departed to their homes in Lewisburg in the afternoon. The men composing this company were the first men of Lewisburg, and left their business in order to serve the State, each man paying his own transportation and subsisting himself while here. Their services cost nothing to the State. Un taking their departure, they were addressed by Hon Eli Slifer, Secretary of the Commonwealth, who complimented them for the patriotism evinced on this occasion, and thanked them in behalf of the State of which they had proved themselves such ready defenders and such worthy citizens.

> THE MILITIA GLORIOUSLY AT WORK -There is one matter in the account of the great battle at Gettysburg, on Friday, which is deserving of marked attention. This account says that when the enemy massed his whole force for an overwhelming at ack on the right of Gen. Meade's position, and had success almost within his grasp, a column of new troops appeared on our side and determined the fate of the day. These troops were the PENNSYLVANIA MILITIA. Even the New York Herald, which gives the account, says that it will be a "proud inheritance" for the children of those men to know that they were in arms to take part in the events of that glorious day. How this should stimulate the action of those men, particularly the experienced men, who are not yet in the field, and how it should inspire with ardor the volunteers themselves! Let us hear no more sneers or damaging remarks about the militia, either from the lips of martinets or dubious heroes.

DEMCCRATIC CLUB MERTINGS,-The Democratic Clubs of the respective wards in this city will meet weekly as follows, viz: First Ward-On Saturday evening of each

Second Ward-On Monday evening of each Third Ward-On Tuesday evening of each week. Fourth Ward—Oh Wednesday evening of each Fifth Ward-On Thursday evening of each

Sixth Ward-On Friday evening of each week. The hour and place is left discretionary with the clubs or their officers. By order of the City Exentive Committee. GEO. W. WEAVER, See y.

In TRIUMPHE !- Victory! How the magic word passed from lip to lip yesterday, thrilling every heart with the inspiration of the sound! A great cloud, a vague and boundless horror of darkness and suspense, had been lifted and swept away, and the people breathed freely once more. The change was written upon every face, and probreadth of about twenty miles. It comprises the claimed in the tone of every voice. But at what a fearful cost was it brought about! Fifteen thousand of our bravest and best beleved, created in the image of God and endeared to thousands of hearts now bowed in mortal anguish, are the ransom paid for our deliverance. Let us, while deyoutly thanking Almighty God for this great mercy, remember them with profound gratitude, draw near the resting place of the dead heroes with reverence.

"And o'er each fresh-made grave sing dole, And drop a tear."

More Ress .- One hundred and sixty rebel priconers, captured by our forces while on a foraging expedition near Gettysburg, were brought down the Cumberland Valley railroad yesterday. Some of them will take the oath, but the majority will be sent east to camps for paroled prisoners. Their appearance was suggestive of hard times. A very curious crowd collected in front of the Marshal's office to make a close inspection of the piebald taterdemalions. "O, why did he go for a soldier?"
