RAILROAD COLLISION.—When the Northern Central passenger train, due at 1 p. m., was nearing the depot, it came in collision with a baggage car of the Cumberland Valley road, coming towards it. The damage done was considerable, but, fortunately, was confined to the foremost car of each train.

THE CURTIS CAVALRY.—This promising company only wants a few more men to fill its ranks. This company bids fair of winning honor both for themselves and country, as their commander, Captain Jack Oren, has had an experience of over two year's campaigning in the Western Virginia mountains and valleys from the Potomac to Richmond; at which place, his headquarters was in Castle Thunder and Libby Prison. He has seen service of the hardest kind, and is calculated to lead his men through victoriously. *

BOUNTY TO WOUNDED SOLDIERS.—It has been decided that soldiers discharged from the army within two years from the date of their enlistment, by reason of wounds received in battle, shall be entitled to receive the same bounty as is granted to those discharged after two years' service. Medical officers, in discharging soldiers under these circumstances, have been directed to endorse over their own signature, on the discharge papers, the fact that the disability results from wounds received in battle. Before discharging, the surgeon must state that the person discharged is not able to enter the Invalid Corps.

THE FAMILY OF GEN. MEADE.—Major General Meade, the new leader of the Army of the Potomac was born in Spain, and is the grandson of George Meade, of Philadelphia, an eminent Irish-American merchant of revolutionary times, whose firm (Meade & Fitzsimmons) contributed ten thousand dollars to a fund for the relief of the famishing army of General Washington. The General is a brother-in-law of Henry A. Wise, the erratic letter-writing Brigadier General and late Governor of Virginia. Other and nearer relations of General Meade hold high positions in the Confederate army, and have often endeavored to seduce the General from his allegiance to this Government by tempting offers of military preferment. For several generations the Meade family have held Federal appointments, but there are now, it appears, only two scions of a "worthy sire" willing to uphold the flag of their country in the time of its direst need We venture to say, however, that in the loyal residue of the family we have got the best end of the bargain, and that George G. is the "noblest Roman of them all."

POLICE AFFAIRS—Before Alderman Kline.—Edward Gallagher, drunk and demoralized, was arrested by officer Brenizer, and sentenced to Capt. Simmons' "Dry" Tortugas, on Walnut street, for twenty-four hours.

James Russ, a contraband lately from Winchester, Va., had the misfortune to get drunk and fall into the hands of Barney, the "King of the Nagurs" and of the Cannibal Islands. Jim was one of the most unmistakable Ethiops to be met with outside the empire of His Royal Highness, the Emperor of Dahomey. The kink of his hair was of that terribly emphatic kind which precludes the possibility of shutting the eyes, his lips rose one above the other like Alps upon Alps, and his feet projected some distance into the past and future, with the toes thrown out to right and left as skirmishers. He was incarcerated for the period of four-and-twenty hours.

Joseph Knight, arrested by officer Enger on Tuesday for vagrancy, was brought from the lock-up yesterday and discharged.

A. Bartlett, drunk and disorderly, was sent to jail for twenty-four hours. Arrested by officer Enger.

Franz A. Meyerson was arrested yesterday morning by officer Campbell, charged with stealing a horse from Capt. William H. Boyd, of the First Regiment, New York Cavalry. It appears that Franz went to the captain, who was in camp on the other side of the canal, and requested the loan of his horse. The request was granted, on condition that Franz should not keep the horse over half an hour. Failing to return in the time specified, search was instituted by the officer, and Myerson soon found. The examination proved that the enterprising borrower had made good use of his half hour, having in that time sold the horse to a man named Fred. Horn, of Baltimore, for thirty dollars, and given a receipt therefor. The money was found on him and refunded to Horn, and the defendant committed for trial at Quarter Sessions.

The following drunks and disorderlies, who had been in the lock-up over night, were brought before the magistrate yesterday morning, and, after a hearing, discharged from further custody:

Joseph Good, arrested by officer Kunkel; Peter Miller, arrested by officer Leib; Julius Edwards, arrested by officer Fry; Edward (not Oliver) Edwards, arrested by officer Pat. Campbell; David Ransom, arrested by officer Essig, and Stephen Erutia, arrested by officer Cline.

AN EYE TO BUSINESS.—One of the Fourth of July incidents in Philadelphia fully exemplifies the utilitarian tendency of the age, and is about as shrewd and cool a specimen of the mingling of the useful with the beautiful that has fallen under our notice for some time. In the afternoon some excitement was created in Chestnut street by the appearance of what was at first supposed to be the colored regiment. It proved to be a band of twenty colored musicians, preceded by the stars and stripes, playing a national air. These were followed by a hundred colored persons all dressed in black and wearing uniform caps and white kid gloves. It was literally "an army with banners," for every man either carried a placard bearing a patriotic motto, or he bore aloft a pithy inscription framed in rosewood and gold. As the advancing column came close in view, the wondering spectator discovered that the framed banners generally bore the words, "Helmbold's Preparations," and the fact of a shrewd advertising dodge stood confessed. The display is said to have cost Mr. Helmbold eight hundred dollars, but will no doubt in the long run prove a paying investment.

THE DRAFT PROGRESSING.—Notwithstanding the little that has been said or thought for a time past concerning the draft, it is to come off nevertheless as advertised. During the stirring times through which we have been passing, our minds have been taken up with the rebel raid, to the exclusion of every other topic; and, if some few persons did turn aside to give the conscription a passing thought, it was only to regard it as an unpleasant chimerical dream of the past—an unwelcome and exceedingly disagreeable ghost, which had shaken its locks at us for a brief time, and then skedaddled back into the land of shadows and unrealities. But those who laid this "flattering unction" to their souls are doomed to disappointment. The draft is neither a dream or a ghost. It is a fact, backed up by any number of enrolling officers, provost marshals and lottery wheels. The act of Congress in regard to it is to be enforced forthwith, and the drawing of names is now progressing in Massachusetts, Pennsylvania and some other States. It commenced in Lancaster and Pittsburg yesterday, the quota of which latter place is two thousand seven hundred.

These drawings will probably take place at the office of the provost marshal of each district, but whether in public, or only in the presence of men selected for the purpose, we are not prepared to say. They will be proceeded with from day to day until the quota fixed for the district shall be full. Those whose names are drawn will be notified of their good fortune at once, and then allowed ten days to appear, to furnish a substitute, or come down in the sum of $300.

The enrollment in this county has been completed for some time, and was, so far as we can learn, managed with prudence and impartiality. We have no doubt that the drawing will be equally fair and satisfactory.

MEETING OF CITY COUNCIL.—At a meeting of the City Council, held last evening, Mayor Roumfort was introduced, and said that he had received a petition numerously signed relative to the contraband refugees stationed in Masonic Hall and several other public buildings in Tanner's alley. He wished that some measures might be taken to prevent contagion in that quarter, as diseases of that nature had already made its appearance among them. He hoped that the Council would take some action in this matter. He also referred to the two companies of negroes recently raised in this city, stating that they had not turned in their arms as other companies had done, but that they still retained them and had them stacked in a building in Tanner's alley. When these companies were organized, he remonstrated with the heads of departments, urging them not to arm these negroes, but they were armed regardless of his wishes, and they still retained those arms in their possession. He also had requested of the authorities that the contrabands be not allowed to take the arms to their homes; this request had been complied with. He concluded by saying that he hoped the Council would take action to ascertain why rations were distributed to them, and also make some arrangement to have them removed from the city.

Several members of the Council concurred in the sentiments and views of the Mayor, and urged the necessity of immediate action in the measure suggested by him.

A committee of three were appointed to inquire into the matter and see to the perfecting of arrangements for the removal of contrabands from the city. Adjourned.

To Horse Owners.

Dr. Sweet's Infallible Liniment for Horses is unrivaled by any, and in all cases of Lameness, arising from Sprains, Bruises or Wrenching, its effect is magical and certain. Harness or Saddle Galls, Scratches, Mange, &c., it will also cure speedily. Spavin and Ringbone may be easily prevented and cured in their incipient stages, but confirmed cases are beyond the possibility of a radical cure. No case of the kind, however, is so desperate or hopeless but it may be alleviated by this Liniment, and its faithful application will always remove the Lameness, and enable the horse to travel with comparative ease.

Every horse owner should have this remedy at hand, for its timely use at the first appearance of Lameness will effectually prevent those formidable diseases mentioned, to which all horses are liable, and which render so many otherwise valuable horses nearly worthless

Do you feel low spirited, and look on the dark side of things? Are you not unusually nervous at times? Do you not become restless, and often lay until midnight before you can go to sleep? and then at times, don't you feel dull and sleepy most of the time? Is your skin dry and scaly? also sallow? In short, is not your life a burthen, full of forebodings?

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whisky or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed.

This class of Bitters has caused, and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt: Get One Bottle Hoofland's German Bitters and mix with Three Quarts of good Brandy or Whisky, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medicinal virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market, and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of Hoofland's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

CITIZENS,

Testifying of their own personal knowledge, to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters.

From Rev. J Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this more readily in regard to "Hoofland's German Bitters," prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend, Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them. J. NEWTON BROWN.

And leaves no prostration.

Attention, Soldiers!

AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS.

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Bitters" will cure nine-tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. We have no hesitation in stating that if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise would be lost.

The proprietors are daily receiving thankful letters from sufferers in the army and hospitals, who have been restored to health by the use of these Bitters, sent to them by their friends.
