

LOCAL NEWS.

THE DAILY PATRIOT AND UNION may be had at Jack's Book Store, corner of Third and Market streets.

Also, at the News Agency of George L. Walte, on Market street, near Fifth.

THE MAIL.—Under the change of schedule on the different railroads, the time of closing the mail at the Harrisburg Post Office, April 20, 1863, is as follows:

NORTH CENTRAL RAILWAY.—For all places between Harrisburg, Lock Haven and Elmira, N.Y., at 12:00 m.

For Leck Haven, Williamsport and Lewistown at 9 p.m.

SOUTH.—WAT. MAIL.—For all places between Harrisburg and Baltimore, Md., and Washington, D.C., at 2:00 p.m.

For Washington, D.C., Baltimore, Md., and York, Pa., at 9:00 p.m.

LEHIGH VALLEY RAILROAD.—

EAST.—WAT. MAIL.—For all places between Harrisburg, Boston and Philadelphia, etc., Reading, at 7:00 a.m.

For Reading and Allentown, at 12:30 p.m.

PHENIXVILLE RAILROAD.—

WAT. MAIL.—For all places between Harrisburg and Philadelphia, at 6:30 a.m.

For Philadelphia and Lancaster, at 12:00 m.

For New York, Pennsylvania, Lancaster, Columbia, Marion and Bainbridge, at 2:45 p.m.

For New York, Philadelphia and Lancaster, at 9:00 p.m.

WEST.—WAT. MAIL.—For all places between Harrisburg and Altoona, at 12:00 m.

For Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and Erie, Pa., Cincinnati, Columbus and Cleveland, Ohio, at 2:45 p.m.

For Pittsburgh, Hollidaysburg, Altoona, Phillipsburg, Tyrone, Huntington and Lewistown, at 5:00 p.m.

QUINHILLAND VALLEY RAILROAD.—

For Mechanicsburg, Shippensburg and Chambersburg, at 7:00 a.m.

WAT. MAIL.—For all places between Harrisburg and Hagerstown, Md., at 12:30 p.m.

SCHUYLKILL AND SUSQUEHANNA RAILROAD.—

For Lehigh Forge, Millwood, Pine Grove and Summit Station, at 12:30 p.m.

SEAGATE RAILROAD.—

For Progress, Lingontown, Manada Hill, West Hanover, East Hanover, and Jonestown, on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, at 7:00 a.m.

For Lishburn and Lewistown, on Saturday, at 12:30 p.m.

OFFICE Hours.—From 5:30 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Sunday from 7:30 to 8:30 a.m. and from 3:00 to 4:00 p.m.

CONGRATULATIONS.—An English astronomer has discovered that we are several millions miles nearer the sun than has been supposed. Squibb thinks this is very satisfactory intelligence, considering that coal is selling here at $5 per ton, and in Boston at $12, with an upward tendency.

INSPECTOR GENERAL.—Lieut. Col. Charles F. Ross, U.S.A., has been relieved from the command of the camp of State troops at Reading, and has received the appointment of Inspector General of the Department of the Susquehanna. He is now engaged in the discharge of the duties of his new position.

LINES TO "ONE WHO CAN BEST UNDERSTAND THEM".—Our kind friend Mrs. C. will please accept our thankful acknowledgments for the excellent cake which she sent around yesterday.—We took the cake into the office and challenged the boys to an attack. The campaign was "short, sharp, and decisive." Time, 1 m. 19 sec. The type that led the "forlorn hope" in the attack talks seriously of getting married, for reasons not unconnected with the cake business.

PAXTON FIRE COMPANY'S PIC-NIC.—The Paxton fire company intend to have their annual pic-nic on Saturday next, at Haehnlein's grove, near this city. Every arrangement had been made to give this pic-nic on the Fourth of July, but the war excitement compelled its postponement. The arrangements of the managers are now complete, and we predict one of the largest and most pleasant parties of the season. Weber's full orchestra has been engaged, and will discourse its most delightful music for those who wish to "trip it on the light fantastic toe." The managers will take especial pains to prevent all improper persons from coming on the grounds.

ONE MORE NIGHT.—At the request of many persons, and in order to accommodate those who have as yet been unable to attend, Mr. Harry Davis has concluded to continue the exhibition of his grand moving Panorama of the Rebellion for one more night. Those who wish to see this famous work of art, which has elicited encomiums from high quarters, should repair early to Brant's Hall this evening, and secure for themselves a good seat. Over seventy-five dollars in gifts are to be distributed to the lucky holders of prize tickets in the audience. Go in and win, and be sure you will see a great panorama into the bargain.

WORSE AND MORE OF IT.—Yesterday we gave an account of the finding of $300 worth of stolen goods in the house of Benj. Boyd, in the Sixth ward. In our police report will be found evidence of his having supplied his son-in-law, Dallas Unger, with a variety of articles thus feloniously obtained. The evidence of his guilt accumulates, and the magnitude of the business he has been carrying on is being unfolded day by day. Mrs. Catharine A. Randall, living in Pine street, who had a large amount of household goods stolen from the upper story of Mrs. Griffith's house, in which they had been stored, on the 6th of September last, having reason to suspect that they had also been "gobbled up" by the voracious Boyd, yesterday made information to that effect, and a further search of the premises was made by officer Campbell.

The search resulted in bringing to light a surprising stock of goods, consisting of blankets, sheets, pillow cases, bureau covers, table cloths, towels, window curtains, knives, forks, &c. In fact, every thing but the ice-house itself had been transported to the well stocked headquarters of the aforesaid Benjamin and his wife. Who will say that, with muscle and perseverance, a man can't make a "record" for himself?

A FIRST CLASS JEWISH DEDDLE.—"Captain M. J. O'Rourke, New York," is the name of a gentleman—or real or assumed—who travels upon shape and talent. The Captain is a "gay and festive cuss," and, like Macbeth in the "Nervous Man," is so free and easy in his manners and customs that he can manage to make himself perfectly at home in any hotel where the landlord is able to appreciate his winning ways. Little is known of the Captain's personal history here, as his sojourn was brief, but rather memorable. Whether he is merely an honorary or hereditary military Captain, we can not say, but the only thing military about him was the cut of his whiskers. We are equally at a loss to conjecture whether he was a naval captain, a captain of a steamboat or a canal boat, but certain it is that on the 3d of July he took a room at the Buehler House, and registered himself as "Captain M. J. O'Rourke." His dunting air and snarl of manner won up Mr. Bolton to such an extent that he was a most favored guest. On the 4th, the Captain made a day of it in his room.—He called for champagne, cigars, brandy, etc., and celebrated the anniversary of our glorious independence in a becoming and rational manner. In this style he continued living on the best of the hotel afforded until the week was up, when he leaving the landlord to whistle for his bill of thirty dollars. The Captain does not risk getting hooted by merely slipping into a hotel dining room and regaling himself upon a meal unobserved in a crowd, but, like the bold highwayman, he makes landlords stand and deliver by his address, coolness and consummate impudence. He is therefore all the more dangerous, and hotel keepers less able to pocket a loss of thirty dollars and preserve their tempers too, as Mr. Bolton has done, should keep a sharp look over for Captain O'Rourke—a gentle giant, deeply skilled in all the modern arts and sciences employed in shutting up the eyes of landlords.

"folded his tent like an Arab,

And quietly stole away."

LOCAL NEWS.

THE DAILY PATRIOT AND UNION may be had at Jack's Book Store, corner of Third and Market streets.

Also, at the News Agency of George L. Walte, on Market street, near Fifth.

THE MAIL.—Under the change of schedule on the different railroads, the time of closing the mail at the Harrisburg Post Office, April 20, 1863, is as follows:

NORTH CENTRAL RAILWAY.—For all places between Harrisburg, Lock Haven and Elmira, N.Y., at 12:00 m.

For Leck Haven, Williamsport and Lewistown at 9 p.m.

SOUTH.—WAT. MAIL.—For all places between Harrisburg and Baltimore, Md., and Washington, D.C., at 2:00 p.m.

For Washington, D.C., Baltimore, Md., and York, Pa., at 9:00 p.m.

LEHIGH VALLEY RAILROAD.—

EAST.—WAT. MAIL.—For all places between Harrisburg, Boston and Philadelphia, etc., Reading, at 7:00 a.m.

For Reading and Allentown, at 12:30 p.m.

PHENIXVILLE RAILROAD.—

WAT. MAIL.—For all places between Harrisburg and Philadelphia, at 6:30 a.m.

For Philadelphia and Lancaster, at 12:00 m.

For New York, Pennsylvania, Lancaster, Columbia, Marion and Bainbridge, at 2:45 p.m.

For New York, Philadelphia and Lancaster, at 9:00 p.m.

WEST.—WAT. MAIL.—For all places between Harrisburg and Altoona, at 12:00 m.

For Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and Erie, Pa., Cincinnati, Columbus and Cleveland, Ohio, at 2:45 p.m.

For Pittsburgh, Hollidaysburg, Altoona, Phillipsburg, Tyrone, Huntington and Lewistown, at 5:00 p.m.

QUINHILLAND VALLEY RAILROAD.—

For Mechanicsburg, Shippensburg and Chambersburg, at 7:00 a.m.

WAT. MAIL.—For all places between Harrisburg and Hagerstown, Md., at 12:30 p.m.

SCHUYLKILL AND SUSQUEHANNA RAILROAD.—

For Lehigh Forge, Millwood, Pine Grove and Summit Station, at 12:30 p.m.

SEAGATE RAILROAD.—

For Progress, Lingontown, Manada Hill, West Hanover, East Hanover, and Jonestown, on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, at 7:00 a.m.

For Lishburn and Lewistown, on Saturday, at 12:30 p.m.

OFFICE Hours.—From 5:30 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Sunday from 7:30 to 8:30 a.m. and from 3:00 to 4:00 p.m.

CONGRATULATIONS.—An English astronomer has discovered that we are several millions miles nearer the sun than has been supposed. Squibb thinks this is very satisfactory intelligence, considering that coal is selling here at $5 per ton, and in Boston at $12, with an upward tendency.

INSPECTOR GENERAL.—Lieut. Col. Charles F. Ross, U.S.A., has been relieved from the command of the camp of State troops at Reading, and has received the appointment of Inspector General of the Department of the Susquehanna. He is now engaged in the discharge of the duties of his new position.

LINES TO "ONE WHO CAN BEST UNDERSTAND THEM".—Our kind friend Mrs. C. will please accept our thankful acknowledgments for the excellent cake which she sent around yesterday.—We took the cake into the office and challenged the boys to an attack. The campaign was "short, sharp, and decisive." Time, 1 m. 19 sec. The type that led the "forlorn hope" in the attack talks seriously of getting married, for reasons not unconnected with the cake business.

PAXTON FIRE COMPANY'S PIC-NIC.—The Paxton fire company intend to have their annual pic-nic on Saturday next, at Haehnlein's grove, near this city. Every arrangement had been made to give this pic-nic on the Fourth of July, but the war excitement compelled its postponement. The arrangements of the managers are now complete, and we predict one of the largest and most pleasant parties of the season. Weber's full orchestra has been engaged, and will discourse its most delightful music for those who wish to "trip it on the light fantastic toe." The managers will take especial pains to prevent all improper persons from coming on the grounds.

ONE MORE NIGHT.—At the request of many persons, and in order to accommodate those who have as yet been unable to attend, Mr. Harry Davis has concluded to continue the exhibition of his grand moving Panorama of the Rebellion for one more night. Those who wish to see this famous work of art, which has elicited encomiums from high quarters, should repair early to Brant's Hall this evening, and secure for themselves a good seat. Over seventy-five dollars in gifts are to be distributed to the lucky holders of prize tickets in the audience. Go in and win, and be sure you will see a great panorama into the bargain.

WORSE AND MORE OF IT.—Yesterday we gave an account of the finding of $300 worth of stolen goods in the house of Benj. Boyd, in the Sixth ward. In our police report will be found evidence of his having supplied his son-in-law, Dallas Unger, with a variety of articles thus feloniously obtained. The evidence of his guilt accumulates, and the magnitude of the business he has been carrying on is being unfolded day by day. Mrs. Catharine A. Randall, living in Pine street, who had a large amount of household goods stolen from the upper story of Mrs. Griffith's house, in which they had been stored, on the 6th of September last, having reason to suspect that they had also been "gobbled up" by the voracious Boyd, yesterday made information to that effect, and a further search of the premises was made by officer Campbell.

The search resulted in bringing to light a surprising stock of goods, consisting of blankets, sheets, pillow cases, bureau covers, table cloths, towels, window curtains, knives, forks, &c. In fact, every thing but the ice-house itself had been transported to the well stocked headquarters of the aforesaid Benjamin and his wife. Who will say that, with muscle and perseverance, a man can't make a "record" for himself?

A FIRST CLASS JEWISH DEDDLE.—"Captain M. J. O'Rourke, New York," is the name of a gentleman—or real or assumed—who travels upon shape and talent. The Captain is a "gay and festive cuss," and, like Macbeth in the "Nervous Man," is so free and easy in his manners and customs that he can manage to make himself perfectly at home in any hotel where the landlord is able to appreciate his winning ways. Little is known of the Captain's personal history here, as his sojourn was brief, but rather memorable. Whether he is merely an honorary or hereditary military Captain, we can not say, but the only thing military about him was the cut of his whiskers. We are equally at a loss to conjecture whether he was a naval captain, a captain of a steamboat or a canal boat, but certain it is that on the 3d of July he took a room at the Buehler House, and registered himself as "Captain M. J. O'Rourke." His dunting air and snarl of manner won up Mr. Bolton to such an extent that he was a most favored guest. On the 4th, the Captain made a day of it in his room.—He called for champagne, cigars, brandy, etc., and celebrated the anniversary of our glorious independence in a becoming and rational manner. In this style he continued living on the best of the hotel afforded until the week was up, when he leaving the landlord to whistle for his bill of thirty dollars. The Captain does not risk getting hooted by merely slipping into a hotel dining room and regaling himself upon a meal unobserved in a crowd, but, like the bold highwayman, he makes landlords stand and deliver by his address, coolness and consummate impudence. He is therefore all the more dangerous, and hotel keepers less able to pocket a loss of thirty dollars and preserve their tempers too, as Mr. Bolton has done, should keep a sharp look over for Captain O'Rourke—a gentle giant, deeply skilled in all the modern arts and sciences employed in shutting up the eyes of landlords.

"folded his tent like an Arab,

And quietly stole away."

LOCAL NEWS.

THE DAILY PATRIOT AND UNION may be had at Jack's Book Store, corner of Third and Market streets.

Also, at the News Agency of George L. Walte, on Market street, near Fifth.

THE MAIL.—Under the change of schedule on the different railroads, the time of closing the mail at the Harrisburg Post Office, April 20, 1863, is as follows:

NORTH CENTRAL RAILWAY.—For all places between Harrisburg, Lock Haven and Elmira, N.Y., at 12:00 m.

For Leck Haven, Williamsport and Lewistown at 9 p.m.

SOUTH.—WAT. MAIL.—For all places between Harrisburg and Baltimore, Md., and Washington, D.C., at 2:00 p.m.

For Washington, D.C., Baltimore, Md., and York, Pa., at 9:00 p.m.

LEHIGH VALLEY RAILROAD.—

EAST.—WAT. MAIL.—For all places between Harrisburg, Boston and Philadelphia, etc., Reading, at 7:00 a.m.

For Reading and Allentown, at 12:30 p.m.

PHENIXVILLE RAILROAD.—

WAT. MAIL.—For all places between Harrisburg and Philadelphia, at 6:30 a.m.

For Philadelphia and Lancaster, at 12:00 m.

For New York, Pennsylvania, Lancaster, Columbia, Marion and Bainbridge, at 2:45 p.m.

For New York, Philadelphia and Lancaster, at 9:00 p.m.

WEST.—WAT. MAIL.—For all places between Harrisburg and Altoona, at 12:00 m.

For Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and Erie, Pa., Cincinnati, Columbus and Cleveland, Ohio, at 2:45 p.m.

For Pittsburgh, Hollidaysburg, Altoona, Phillipsburg, Tyrone, Huntington and Lewistown, at 5:00 p.m.

QUINHILLAND VALLEY RAILROAD.—

EAST.—WAT. MAIL.—For all places between Harrisburg, Boston and Philadelphia, etc., Reading, at 7:00 a.m.

For Reading and Allentown, at 12:30 p.m.

PHENIXVILLE RAILROAD.—

WAT. MAIL.—For all places between Harrisburg and Philadelphia, at 6:30 a.m.

For Philadelphia and Lancaster, at 12:00 m.

For New York, Pennsylvania, Lancaster, Columbia, Marion and Bainbridge, at 2:45 p.m.

For New York, Philadelphia and Lancaster, at 9:00 p.m.

WEST.—WAT.