ABBREVIATED .- Our columns are somewhat abbreviated to-day by the press of general news matter which comes in from all quarters. When such great events are transpiring and claiming the public car, it behooves us to "sing small,"

LEGISLATIVE NOMINATIONS.—We are pleased to learn that Hon. William Hopkins, of Washington county, has been nominated by the Democracy of Washington and Greene counties for State Senator. This is a good nomination, as Col. Hopkins is one of the ablest legislators and truest patriots in Pennsylvania. He will be elected to fill the place of the late Speaker Lawrence.

We are also gratified to notice that Col. John S. M'Calmont has been placed in nomination for Assembly by the Democrats of Venango county. Col. M'Calmont was a member of the Legislature some years ago, since which time he has filled many official positions with credit and ability. He was for several years the President Judge of the district composed of Venango, Mercer and Clarion counties, a position which he resigned to take command of the Tenth Pennsylvania Reserves. He continued in command of that regiment for over a year, but failing health compelled him to resign his commission. A graduate of West Point, a lawyer of acknowledged ability, and a man of rare scholastic attainments, he will, if elected, make his mark both as a legislator and debater.

It affords us pleasure to note these, among many other worthy nominations which have been made throughout the State, as they foreshadow a radical change for the better in the future composition of our Legislature. The Democracy of the State seem fully awake to the fact that the times call for the very best men. The probability is that in the coming election a very large batch of thieves and third-rate legislators will be scourged from the councils of the State, and their places filled by men of honesty and brains.

In Menorian. - A day or two since, while riding through the rich fields and delightful vallies of Swatara township, enjoying the fragrant breeze that blew from the clover fields and lulled into reverie by the peaceful scene around and above us, we came upon an old country church yard .-Impelled by an antiquarian weakness, which amounts almost to mania, we picketed our horse by the roadside, and soon, like another Old Mortality, with pencil in hand, were strolling over the deep beds of thyme and among the moss-grown tombstones. The heaped, grassy mounds scattered here and there marked the resting place of, the "rude forefathers of the hamlet," most of them surmounted with gray head and foot stones, whereon

" Their names, their years, spelt by the unlettered muse,
The place of fame and elegy supplied."

The inscriptions were quaint and various .-Seated upon a woman's grave, which was covered with a thick growth of thyme in full bloom, we copied the following epitaph, which we give verbatim and in the form in which it was carved: In mimary

OF THE WIFE of -DATER of ----SHe was Born A. D. 1800 Dec 2 & died nov 28 A D 1842 Ag. 41 years 11 m 26 Days. "Weap, not, my husband, and, children dear, i. am, nod Dead Bud, Sleping, her Within thes Siland. lomp. of clay ontill the Reserection day." On the other side of the stone was the following plea for remembrance:

"WhEn i AM DEd and in my Grave, and all My Bones air Rodan WhEs This Ye SE Remamber ME or Bis i shall be Forgodan."

We doubt whether Notes and Queries, in its searches after things quaint and singular, has brought to light any epitaph more thoroughly original than this. Its very singularity insures the realization of the prayer of the dead sleeper beneath, "Ramember me." Yes, she will be remembered for a time on account of the misspelling upon her tombstone. That, and nothing short of such an accident, can save any of us from being speedily and utterly "forgodan." If Job or King David could have bethought themselves of such an expedient, they might have been spared the bitter prayers and tears which were wrung from them in the time of their calamity by the apprehension that their memory would perish from among men and they should be as if they had not been.

How futile, and yet how natural, is the wish to be remembered! We cling to it with human fondness. It is grounded in our nature, and cries out even from the tomb. Yet is the wish rarely granted. A little while hence, and the places that knew us will know us no more forever. A few "star-souls" may shine for a time through the past, but their light grows dim and ever dimmer, and dies out at last in the darkness and mystery of that unfathomable Unknown, whence we all come and whither we all ge. "Remember me!" Poor "Wife of _____, & Dater of ____!"_-poor anybody, who cries out such prayer from their grave in the earth. That very earth is composed of the fossils of things forgotten, layer upon layer, reaching down to her deepest depths and her heart of internal fire. A little while ago, and we Were not; a little while hence, and we will not be -our memory and our very ashes will not be !-Beating heart and burning brow will soon rest in the bosom of our all-pitying mother Earth, and we shall begin another existence, peaceful and perfect in its eternal working as the "kiss of toothed wheels." Meantime, we may comfort ourselves with the fond delusion that we will live in the memory of those who tread after us, and may find a consolation in the thought that our friends will carve a prayer upon our grave stone, beseechipg the careless passer-by to remember us in particular, "or Els (as a logical consequence) we shall be Forgodan."

"And Still TREY Come."-The premises of Benj. Boyd and Agues his wife, who form a copartnership in the matrimonial and burglarious magic bottle, or Pandora's box of evils. Still further search was made by officer Campbell yesterday, and still another batch of goods was brought to light. These consisted of three bags, one marked "C. Eberly," another "John R. Heck," and the third with the letters "J. J.," inside of a diamond shaped border; also, some soldiers' clothing, consisting of a blouse, a pair of pants, two overcoats and two blankets. The officer handed them over to Provost Marshal Opdyke, in whose possession they now are.

In a little cockloft over a summer kitchen belonging to the Boyd estate Barney also found two smoked hams and two shoulders, supposed to be the balance of the meat of seven hogs which was stolen from the smoke-house of Mr. David Books, a tenant of the farm of Aaron Bombaugh, below town. This theft was committed in March last. Mr. Books is of the opinion that Boyd is the man who stole his bacon.

The work done by Boyd is truly surprising .-The stolen goods already found in his possession amount to over a thousand dollars in value, and it looks as if new surprises were still in store for the detective officers, stretching the line out to the "crack 'o doom." He is evidently a full experimental believer in "Wemmick,e" gospel of "portable property"-"it's property, you know, and portable ; secure it !"

It appears that Beyd is an old bird, and has siready represented a large constituency for a term of years in the Baltimore penitentiary. His chances for an election to a similar position in this district are exceedingly promising.

HARRISBURG CEMETERY .- The following named persons were elected by the Board of Managers officers for the ensuing year, except the President, who was elected by the lot holders, and who reccives no salary, viz : President, Hamilton Alricket. Secretary, John H. Smull, salary $25; Superintendent, Rudolph F. Kelker, salary $50; Keeper, Jeremiah Barnes, salary $400 and house free; Treasurer, A. K. Fahnestock, salary $100. The salary of the Keeper was increased one hundred and that of the Treasurer fifty dollars over what was previously paid. .Wm. Celder, D. W. Gross, J. H. Smull and R. F. Kelker voted for A. R. Fahnestock for Treasurer. Wm. H. Kleckner and Hamilton Alricks voted for H. Murray Graydon.

Police Affairs .- Nothing of importance was done before Alderman Kline yesterday. The day was unusually quiet, and no arrests made up to

To Horse Owners.

Dr. Sweet's Infallible Liniment for Horses is unrivaled by any, and in all cases of Lameness, arising from Sprains, Bruises or Wrenching its effect is magical and certain. Harness or Saddle Galls, Scratch es, Mange, &c., it will also cure speedily. Spavin and Ringbone may be easily prevented and cured in their incipient stages, but confirmed cases are beyond the possibility of a radical cure. No case of the kind, however, is so desperate or hopeless but it may be alleviated by this Liniment, and its faithful application will all ways remove the Lameness, and enable the horse to travel with comparative case.

Every horse owner should have this remedy at hand, for its timely use at the first appearance of Lameness will effectually prevent those formidable diseases mentioned, to which all horses are liable, and which render so many otherwise valuable horses nearly worthless.

PROCLAMATION.

MAYOB'S OFFICE, HARBISBURG,) July 13, 1863.

The grave considerations which led to the restraint imposed upon tavern keepers and others engaged in the liquor business, having ceased to exist, those persons can now resume the legitimate pursuit of their respective occupations. The Mayor congratulates his fellowcitizens upon the remarkably good order which has reigned in this city, under circumstances of the most exciting character. This is due not only to the excellent spirit which animates this cummunity, but also, in a measure, to the disinterested manner in which an entire class of our fellew citizens cheerfully sacrificed their personal interests to the public good. To them especially the Mayor returns his sincere thanks for this evidence of their patriotism, and he has no doubt that, should the occasion require it, they will again show themselves worthy of the public respect to which they have so fully entitled themselves. Mayor.

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whicky or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Annes or Coriander Seed. This class of Bitters has caused, and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Acohole Stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

For those who desire and will have a L'quor Bitters, we publish the following reselut: Get One Bottle Hoofand's

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following reselpt: Get One Bottle Hoofand's German Butters and mix with Three Quarts of good Brandy or Wasky, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medicinal virtues and true exce lence any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market, and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of Hoofand's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

Testifying of 'heir own personal knowledge, to the bene ficial effects and medical virtues of these B.tters. From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received fror any simple preparation, in the bope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this more readily in regard to "Hoofland's German Bitters," prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city; because I was prejudiced against them for years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alsoholis mixture. I am indebted to my friend, Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bedily and mental vigor which I had not felt year, was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bedily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.
