HAS AN "EYE TO BIZ."-A broker, whose mind was always full of quotations, was asked, a few. days since, how old his father was. "Well," said bly be at a premium."

AT GETTYSBURG .- The Thirty-sixt h Pennsylva- RETURN OF A NINE MONTHS REGIMENT. -At two nia Militia, Col. H. C. and, as a sort of clincher, adds that mother Eve situation.

Substitutes.—A person can produce as a substitute an enrolled man, liable to the draft, but it is at the risk of the latter. The United States does not allow any man to vacate his place in the enrollment by reason of the temptation of high bounties, or from any other causes. Aliens are the most eligible substitutes, because not subject to be drafted. We notice that the price of substitutes in some localities ranges above three hundred dollars. This is explained by the fact that the payment of $300 only exempts the person paying it from the present draft, whereas the furnishing of a substitute exonerates the drafted man from all liability to be conscripted during the three years for which he was drafted.

COPPERHEAD HEROISM .- The Chambersburg Valley Spirit says that while that ancient borough was under rebel mile, a rebel soldier applied to a lady for an ax to cut down the liberty pole which had stood in the public square ever since the great uprising of the people upon the fall of Fort Sumpter. She refused to give the ax. He drew his pistol from his belt and threatened to shoot her unless she complied with his demand. She replied with perfect coolness: "You can put twenty bullets through my heart, but you cannot force me to give you an ax to cut down that pole." That lady, adds the paper, is one of the pat "malignant copperheads" in town.

SPIKE THAT GUN!-The telegraphic column in Wednesday evening's Lancaster Inquirer is headed by a cut of a cannon mounted on wheels, over which wayes the Stars and Stripes-said cannon belching out columns of metaphorical smoke in about equal quantities from the touchhole and muzzle. This fue de joie ushers in the "glorious news" contained in the big headlines below : "Lee Across the Potomac!" "His Plunder all Safe!" "A Riot in Hartford," &c. If a "copperhead" journal had brought out the big gun in such a connection !gelly, how the hot shot would have rained in upon it from the administration batteries! We advise our friend Inquirer either to spike his piece or remove it to the next column and plant it at the head of the daily list of persons drafted in that county.

In A BAD Box -Quite a number of persons left Chambersburg for Hagerstown last week, under the impression that a battle was about to come off at the latter place. Most of the party had the misfortune to be captured by the Confeds, who held them as spies and sent them to Richmond The names of the unfortunate gentlemen, so far as learned, are, Dr. James Hamilton, Adam Hamilton, John P. Culbertson, Allen C. M'Grath, C. W. Kinsler, L. W. Tritle. Porter Brown, Thomas M'-Dowell and George Kauffman. It will prove a difficult matter for these men to prove themselves to be anything but spies, especially in the distant city of Richmond. In view of the late summary excutions of supposed rebel spies by Gen. Burnside and others, and the desperate retaliatory measures adopted by the rebel authorities, the position of the gentlemen named is uncomfortable,

POLICE AFFAIRS .- Before Alderman Kline .-But few cases were before the magistrate yesterday. The number of drunks and disorderlies was far below the average of the past few weeks. Albert Earl, of New York city, was arrested at the Gaieties, on Wednesday night, by officer Campbell, for attempting to pass counterfeit money upon the ticket agent of that institution. He first offered a counterfeit $3 on the Stamford Bank, of Connecticut, which was refused; then a $5 on the Hollister Bank, of Buffalo, and a $3 on the Mechanics' Bank, of Georgetown, D. C., which Were also refused. The officer then arrested him and found on his person three other notes on a Canada bank, which proves to be a myth and a fraud, as no such bank exists. The enterprising

GEN. SCHIMMELPFENNIG .- This gallani officer, who was formerly in command of a German regiment from the western part of this State, and who is a great favorite with most of the Germans, has, by some fatality, been reported killed or missing in nearly every engagement during the past year. He was so reported after the late Gettysburg fight, but it affords us pleasure to announce that he is still on his taps and prepared to do further service to his country. The General escaped capture while in Gettysburg by a dodge worthy of the sharpest Yankee. When he found his retreat cut off, he seized the coat of a private and buttoned it closely over his uniform; he was knocked down and run over by a gang of rebels who were after plunder. He then stumbled away into a cellar, and lay there concealed and without food for two days, but when he heard the boys playing "Yankee Doodle" in the streets, he thought it safe to come out. He is now in command of his brigade and ready for work.

The hero of the polysyllabic patronym has many admirers among the Germans in this section. Indeed, we have heard one of them, who can pronounce his name with an ease and unction which fills us with envy, carry his zeal for the General so far as to say that "to Seekels un to Plenkers ish audding-Schimmelpfennig's te man."

TROUBLE IN LANCASTER -A gentleman who arrived here at eight o'clock last evening informs us that at ten o'clock yesterday a crowd of women, numbering from one to two hundred, mestly foreigner, entered the Court House, where the draft was is progress. They were armed with knives, heavy spoons and other kitchen implements. The boy who was turning the wheel was rapped over the head and knuckles, and driven from his post. When Acovost Marshal Bolenius remonstrated with the intruders, he was somewhat roughly handled by the Amazons, and beat a retreat from the room. The which was overturned by the women, but no

Toward noon the women were joined by large numbers of men, and a general riot seemed imminent. Several fights occurred, in one of which officer Baller was severely beaten. The Mayor read the ript act, and the Sheriff enrolled a posse of two hundred men. Order was sufficiently restored by taree o'clock to permit the resumption of the draft at that hour.

Fred. Dauglass, the negro orator, was announced speak to the colored men of the city at Fulton Iall on Wednesday night, but a large crowd of he, abstractedly, "he is quoted at eighty, but there sermans and Irish surrounded the building early is every prospect that he will reach par, and pos si- in the evening, and Frederick did not "come to ime."

> FE IN MEADOW LANE. -At three o'clock yesterdiafternoon a stable in the rear of Shearer's hotelorner of Third and Mulberry streets, was discored to be on fire. The various fire companies the city were promptly on hand, but, owing to the ombustible nature of the building, it was past remption before a jet of water could be got on it. is it was, the firemen prevented the further spad of the flames to the buildings in close proximi. Among those who lent a ready hand to the wk were the members of the Philadelphia police compry, many of whom have had experience in "hning with the masheen." They joined the boys, "cracking her along lively" to the scene of there, and when there worked energetically at the imps and hose. The stable belonged to Mr. Jaq Zeigler, Sr. His loss will not be large. Mr hristian Eby, who stabled a horse in the buildingvill sustain some loss.

Many meters of the 23d and 56th New York regiments aluided our firemen in putting a stop to the spread the flames.

FLEW THE UESE.-While a company of cavalry, recruiteunder Capt. Moore for the six months' servit were drawn up before Captain Dodge's musteg in office yesterday morning, preparatory to earing in, six of their number refused to take customary oath, and stepped out of the ranks They gave as their reason for thus "gigging bi," that they were laboring under a misunderstling at the time of enlistment, supposing that the were volunteering only for State service.

I do this more readily in regard to "Hoofand's German Bitters," prepared by Dr. O. M. Jackson, of this city because I was prejudiced against them for years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend, Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bedity and mental vigor which I had net feit year, was inflowed by evident relation to storage of beddy and mental rigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my triend for directing me to the use of them.
