

LOCAL NEWS

THE DAILY PATRIOT AND UNION may be had at Jack's Book Store, corner of Third and Market streets. Also at the News Agency of George L. Walter, at Market street, near Fifth.

THE MAILS.—Under the change of schedule on the different railroads, the time of closing the mails at the Harrisburg Post Office, April 20, 1863, is as follows:

NORTHERN GENERAL RAILWAY.—For all places between Harrisburg, Lock Haven and Elmira, N. Y., at 12.00 p. m. For Lock Haven, Williamsport and Lewisburg at 9 p. m.

WEST.—For all places between Harrisburg and Altoona, at 12.00 p. m. For Johnstown, Pottsville and Erie, Pa., at 12.45 p. m.

ARRIVAL OF INVALID SOLDIERS.—Three hundred and fifteen invalid soldiers belonging to different Pennsylvania regiments, reached this city from the various hospitals about Fort Monroe on Saturday morning.

IT IS TO BE HOPED that Dauphin county will be well represented at the meeting of the State Teachers' Association, to be held in Reading on the 4th, 5th and 6th of August.

REMAINS OF GEN. FARNSWORTH.—The body of Brigadier General Farnsworth, who was wounded in the late battle of Gettysburg and died within the enemy's lines, reached this place in an ambulance yesterday, in charge of a detail of eight men belonging to the Illinois cavalry regiment which he formerly commanded.

MEMORANDUM PRESENTATION.—On Saturday evening, a beautiful memorandum pipe, worth $50, was presented to Capt. R. I. Dodge by the military officers and others connected with the government offices in this city.

INCENDIARIES.—About one o'clock on Saturday morning, one corner of the carpenter shop of Mr. Jesse Vandever, of Liberty and Church alleys, was discovered to be on fire.

REMEDIES FOR DIARRHOEA AND DYSENTERY.—The N. Y. Evening Post recommends the following as effective remedies for diarrhoea and dysentery, so prevalent at this season of the year:

THE FOLLOWING IS MORE CONVENIENT TO MAKE.—Take Cayenne pepper, 30 grains; camphor, 30 grains; opium, 15 grains. Make a mass with simple syrup and gentian, and then divide in thirty pills. Dose, one every four hours.

HARD ON EDITORS.—The draft now in progress comes down heavy on the editors. Among the drafted in Philadelphia are W. W. Harding, of the "Inquirer," and two of his compositors; also Wm. Fisher, of the "Ledger," the local editor of the Lancaster "Inquirer," the local editor of the Lancaster "Express," the editor of the Providence "Journal," and Mr. Middle, editor of the Pittsburgh "Gazette," are also "counted in" with the fratres conscripti.

THESE MEN will be eminently fitted for joining the Potomac army, as it is well known that Gen. Meade's mode of fighting is to attack the enemy "in columns," a method of warfare with which the editorial fraternity has become familiar by long experience.

A RIDICULOUS DECISION.—The recent decision of Provost Marshal Fry, that a drafted man who presented himself for medical examination, with a view of ascertaining whether he is fit to bear arms, forfeits the right to pay the usual $300 commutation money, or to supply a substitute, should he be found capable of serving himself, gives great dissatisfaction abroad, and is likely to give to be made the subject of investigation before our courts.

POLICE AFFAIRS.—Byron Alderman Kline—William Toop, the colored proprietor of a lager beer saloon in Short street, was arrested on Saturday afternoon by officer Newman, for being drunk and abusing his "betser hal" in a brutal manner.

LAWRENCE SHIP was charged by Mrs. Sophia Beltz with assault and battery on Saturday afternoon. The parties are neighbors, living in Verbeke-ton. While complainant was washing clothes in the yard back of the house, defendant, without any provocation, assailed her with vulgar epithets, climbed over the partition fence between the two houses, and finally struck her on the mouth.

WE HAVE TAKEN OVER on the 1st of April the balance of goods bought of Mr. Eger, on our own store, where we will continue to sell the balance left at very low prices, until the whole are sold.
