Enforcement of the Draft. A Washington special to the N. Y. Tribune insists that the civil and military authorities at Washington are determined to enforce the draft, it being considered necessary to fill up the gaps in the army occasioned by expiration of time and natural waste. Numbers of officers have been sent north to take charge of the conscripts and bring them into the army at once. Seizure of Jeff. Davis's Private Library and Correspondence. The special correspondent of the N. Y. Herald, in a communication dated ." near Jackson, Mississippi, July 12, 1863," states that a com- day (3d) of August: pany of cavalry, escorting a foraging train, having learned from a negro where Mr. Davis's library was, proceeded to the house, where they found thousands of volumes of books, a few bushels of private and political papers, and several valuable gold headed cames, one of them presented by Franklin Pierce. The papers are said to be of great political importance. Of course everything was seized. Some of the letters and papers have been sent to the Herald gequence.

The Spirit of the Democracy. At no period since the organization of the Democratio party was its spirit more determined, or its prospects of sucsess better. Knowing this, the extravagance of passion exhibited by the ultra administration party-the Black Republicans and wool-dyed Abolitionists-amounts almost to insanity. Powerless the bayonet and the gibbet, and hence find them daily and hourly beseeching the President to establish martial law in all the States of the North and to arrest, imprison and hang all who have the good sence to oppose their heretical opinions and fanatical policy. While they regret the frenzy which dictates such extreme measures, the Democracy are by no means moved by these appeals for Executive interference with their rights, or frightened by the idle and silly threats with which their ears are continually assailed. They have their candidates in the field, and mean to elect them. They know their rights, and are determined to maintain them. They will win peaceably by the ballot, if that is not interfered with, and if it is, they will win by any means which circumstances may render necessary to achieve success. There is no division in their ranks. They are united in senti ment as they are in determination, and no power exists which can defeat or crush them. They have raised their battle flag, on which they have inscribed, "The Constitution as it isthe Union as it was "-and that flag they intend to carry to victory, dispite any and every effort that the opposition can make to prevent it. The ultras may as well make up their minds at once that this is the case—it will save them a world of useless trouble, and in the end much shame and mortification.

.A Hard Case—Is there No Remedy? We understand that the 173d Regiment P. V., has been ordered from Norfolk, where it had been stationed for many months, and sent with Gen. Meade's army across the Potomac to watch Lee, or to fight him, as the case may be. This is all right; but we have information that an order has been issued by the War Department directing their detention in the army until the 15th of August, notwithstanding their term of service expires within the month of tively require it—is not right. If it be correct, as stated to us, that a petition, signed by the whole regiment, has been sent to Gov. Curtin, asking to be mustered out at the expiration of their term of service, we trust that His Excellency will do so, unless, as we said before, the condition of affairs absolutely require their continuance in the army for a lon-

Møj. John S. Filler.

The New York Herald's Charleston correspondent, in his account of the desperate assault on Fort Wagner, on the night of the 18th,

"Maj. Fileo, of the 57th Pennsylvania, a volunteer aid to Gen Strong, rushed once impetuously into the fort with the first comers, came back to the parapet and tried to get volunteers for a charge on a gun, and, wonderfully escaping death, was taken prisoner."

We have no doubt that Major John S. Filler. of Bedford county, is the officer of whom such honorable mention is made. They have got the name wrong. We are sorry to hear of the Major's misfortune; but it is better to be captured than killed-and if the Major has his spectacles with him he may manage to get along tolerably well until exchanged.

MEXICO AN EMPIRE.

THE CLOVEN FOOT OF NAPOLEON DISCLOSED-WHAT IS THE PLAIN DUTY OF THE WASHINGTON

ADMINISTRATION NOW.?. New York, July 27 .- The steamer Roanoke with Havanna dates to the 22d inst. has just arrived. An arrival from Vera Cruz on the 13th at Havana states that Mexico was declared an empire on the 10th inst. Maximillian, of Austria, is to be proclaimed Emperor, if he will accept; if not, Napoleon is to select one. A salute was fired at Vera Cruz in honor of the City of Mexico dates to the 10th says: It appears that the Counsel of Notabilities declared that the Mexican nation, through them, select an empire as the form of government, and proclaim Max.millian, of Austria, Emperor. Should he decline the throne, they implore the French at the ballot-box, they rest their hopes entirely Emperor to select a person in whom he has in the beyond and the gibbet, and hence we full confidence to occupy the throne. This proclamation was immediately made public, and a courier posted to Vera Cruz, when it was sent by a French steamer to Havana.

GREAT FIRE IN HAVANA.

NEW YORK, July 27.—The steamer Roanoke reports that when she was leaving the harbor of Havans, on the 22nd inst., an immense conflagration was raging among the warehouses of Messrs. Fesser, of Regla Wharf; sixteen buildings had been consumed when the Roancke left. and the prospect of subduing the flames was not good. It is estimated that the warehouses already destroyed involved a loss of four million of dollars worth of sugar.

SEIZURE OF A STEAMER.

Boston, July 27.—The yacht Gleam belonging to J. Wright, jr., of South Boston, has been seized by the Collector of this port on the ground that in obtaining its register the owner represented that he was an American, while he has recently obtained exemption from the draft by giving a certificate that he was en

· A MISTAKE CORRECTED.

Washington, July 27 .- An important error of facts occurs in the advices from the headquarters of the Army of the Potomac, which the correspondent desires to be corrected .-Though written yesterday it was not received through the special messenger until to day .-He says: On the 22d inst., while Longstreet was endeavoring to get into Eastern Virginia, by way of Manassas Gap, A. P. Hill's corps took possession of Chester Gap. Our cavalry made an attempt to drive him out, but he was too strongly posted for success; they however kept him in check until he was reinforced by Longstreet, when both commands came through the Gap, and are now probably in Culpepper. It was Longstreet's command which was seen near Amesville. Ewell's corps went to Stras-

FROM JAPAN.

San Francisco, July 25 .- Advices have been received from Yonkahama, Japan, to the 26th of May.

A rumor prevailed that the troubles between England and Japan had been arranged so as to be settled without a war; but there appeared to be no good authority for it. The house of the American Minister had been burned at Yedo; but whether accidentally or otherwise is not stated.

FROM LAGUAYRA.

New York, July 27 .- Advices from Laguavra to the 14th inst., state that Gen. Paez, the ex-President, had just returned from Porto Cabello, which is strictly blockaded by Admiral Paez, who claims the succession in the right of his father. The object of the General's mission has not transpired. Falcon has been declared by the military tribunal, Commander-in-Chief, until the Consul for ten years is elected by the Assembly. The new elected Chief and Admiral Pagz are diametrically opposed to each other.

Anarchy, negro supremacy, bankruptcy and ruin are in prospect.

A SALUTE.

Boston, July 27.—A salute of 100 guns was fired to-day, by order of Gov. Andrew, in honor of the victories at Vicksburg and Port Hudson, and the opening of the Mississippi river.

ANOTHER GOVERNMENT ROBBERY. CINCINNATI, July 27.—Capt. Haett, assistant quartermaster at this post, was arrested this morning by order of General Burnside, charged with irregularity in his accounts, and appropriating funds to his own mse.

To Col. Lewis Richmond, A. A. G.: By the blessing of Almighty God, I have succeeded in capturing Gen. John H. Morgan, Col. Cluke, and the balance of his command, amounting to about 400 prisoners. I will start with Morgan and his staff on the first train for Cincinnati, and await the General's order for transportation for the balance. J. M. SHACKLEFORD,

FROM CHARLESTON. ATTACK ON EORT WAGNER—DESPERATE FIGHTING AND REPULSE OF OUR TROOPS.

From rebel sources we have the following: CHARLESTON, July 18.—The Ironsides, five monitors, five gun and mortar boats, assisted by two land batteries, mounting five guns, fired furiously at Fort Wagner all day. One of our gun carriages was dismounted. CHARLESTON, July 19 -After a furious bomhar iment of eleven hours the enemy assaulted Battery Wagner desperately and repeatedly. Our people fought desperately, and repulsed he attack with great slaughter. Our loss was relatively light, but includes many valuable

Brigadier General Taliaferro commanded on G. T. BEAUREGARD. CHARLESTON, July 22.—The Richmond Whig says: "The enemy commenced shelling again yesterday, with but few casualties. We had, in the battle of the 18th inst., about 150 killed and wounded. The enemy's loss, including prisoners, was about 2 000. Nearly 800 were buried under flag of truce. Col. Putnam, actmanding the negro regiment, were killed." The above, except as to the loss, is confirmed by our own accounts. The battle was terribly fierce, but we have not room to day for particulars. We give a brief account, received ing Brigadier General, and Col. Shaw, com-

per steamer Arago : INTERESTING PARTICULARS OF THE ATTACK. NEW YORK, July 26.—On the 19th the re-bels attempted to drive our forces from James Island. The attack was sudden and unexpected; but Gen Perry met and repulsed them with great slaughter.

The gunboat Pawnee, which supported the left flank, grounded, and a rebel battery opened upon her, firing about fifty shots, thirty-nine of which hit her. She subsequently floated off and opened upon the rebels, putting them to

During the day Fort Wagner was silenced for some time and her colors shot away.

The new Union batteries were opened upon the rebels, doing great execution.

LATER. A charge was made upon Fort Wagner, and our troops, after a desperate struggle, were obliged to fall back, which they did in excellent order, and held their old position. The loss on our side was quite severe; but our total loss in killed, wounded, and missing, since the 10th, has only been about 1,000. The 48th New York regiment lost about 450 men, and only three of its officers escaped unharmed. The Catskill was struck over fifty times, but is all right. She went to Hilton Head for supplies and coal.

GEN. KELLEY NOT REPULSED. Baltimore, July 25 .- The Herper's Ferry correspondent of the Sunday Telegram contradicts the reported repulse of General Kelley in an encounter with the rebels recently, and "The fact is that Kelley was hardly at all injured; but, on the contrary, seems to have, by his bold movement, with a moderately small force, actually succeeded in driving the enemy, or frightening him from the whole neighborhood between the Potomac river and Bunker Hill, and our latest advices make it almost certain that he has to-day occupied Martinsburg with his whole force, almost without opposition." There are no rebels in arms north of Wiuchester. A spirited reconnoissance was made from this place (Harper's Ferry) yesterday, under Gen.

Lockwood. As far west as the bridge over the Oquequan creek, only two miles east of Martinsburg, seventeen miles from this point, no enemy was visible, and it was found that the railroad had not been injured in any respect. GEN. KELLEY.

Gen. Kelley reports yesterday that he will occupy Martinsburg to day. From that fact we infer that the enemy is moving off towards Staunton. Our regular dispatches confirm this idea by saying that Lee had left Winchester with his staff - Wheeling Intelligencer.

WYTHEVILLE RAIDERS CAPTURED. LYNCHBUBG, July 21, 1863.—Passengers by the Virginia and Tennessee train report that the Wytheville Yankee raiders were captured on Monday, at East River Mountain, Mercer county, by the command of Col. McCausland. A number of negroes and horses captured by the Yankees were recaptured.

About twenty houses were burned in Wytheville, among them the office of the Dispatch, with its fixtnres. [The above is from a rebel source.]

FROM THE ARMY OF GEN. GRANT. MISSISSIPPIANS ANXIOUS FOR PEACE—BURNING OF JACKSON, &C.

Cairo, July 26.—Major General Logan and Colonel Rawlings, of Gen. Grant's staff, arrived here to-day. They state that Gen. Sherman had returned to Jackson, and he reports to Gen. Grant that the leading citizens of Jackson and the surrounding country have implored him to take some action by which Mississippi may be restored to the Union .-Both the army and the people of that section are completely dispirited, and are ready for peace. They staked their all on Vicksburg, and it has fallen. They clung to Johnson as a last hope, and he is utterly vanquished. Grierson and his cavalry have arrived at Memphis. Sr. Louis, July 26.—Special dispatches from Memphis, dated the 23d inst., give particulars of the occupation of Jackson, Miss., on the

A portion of our forces, under Gen. Parke. made an attack and were met by a legion of new recruits from South Carolina, who, after an engagement of half an hour, retreated with a loss of 300. Our men occupied their position until next morning, when they made a second advance and discovered that the rebels had evacuated the town after setting fire to a number of the houses containing commissary stores They were entirely consumed, together with some forty other buildings which were ignited from the houses fired by the rebels.

The city was at once occupied by Sherman, who sent a cavalry force to interrupt the communication and prevent the army of Johnson from joining Bragg, which it was supposed he would endeavor to do. Deserters are continually coming in from

The Federal loss in the various skirmishes and assaults amounted ($500 men.

At Vickeburg the Federal works are being leveled and the Febel fortifications put into more perfect condition. A number of the finest guns are being mounted, and the place is to be held as a first-class military fortifica-

DEATH OF HON. JOHN J. CRITTENDEN. FRANKFORT, July 26 .- Hon. John J. Crittenden died at half-past three o'clock this morning, without pain or a struggle, in the full possession of his faculties. His disease was general debility, and he died at the ripe old age of ceventy-seven years.

BATTLE NEAR PORT GIBSON. DEFEAT OF THE REBEL GEN. COOPER-OFFICIAL DISPATCH.

St. Louis, July 25 .- To Moj. Gen. H. W. Halleck, General-in-Chief, Washington: On the 17th inst. Gen. Blunt attacked Cooper, twentyfive miles south of Port Gibson, and routed him, capturing one gun and many prisoners. The enemy left sixty killed and thirty-six wounded on the field. Our loss was ten killed and twenty four wounded. Cooper retreated towards Fort Smith. J. M. Schofield, Major General.

ARMY OF THE POTOMAC. LEE'S ATTEMPTS TO ENTER EASTERN VIRGINIA

BAFFLED, &C. Washington, July 26 -Advices from the headquarters of the Army of the Potomac received to-night say that during the past week our troops have not been idle, but by a close scrutiny of Lee's movements, have, by rapid marches, succeeded in baffling his several attempts to enter Eastern Virginia, and forestalled his attempted possession of the Blue ving rapidly towards Staunton by the Shenandoah valley. He tried successively Snicker's. Ashby's, and Manassas Gaps, but found a strong Union force already there. At the two ast places he was driven back with loss. At Chester Gap our cavalry recaptured 1100

It is generally believed that Lee is now mo-

head of cattle stolen by the enemy, and several hundred sheep. A large number of horses have also been recovered. Several brisk skirmishes have taken place. With the exception of cavalry engagements, the principal fight occurred on Thursday evening, between Linden and Port Royal, in which a brigade of rebel infantry (probably Lee's rear guard) were driven through the town. The cavalry have done excellent service .-The several commands have performed arduous marches and reconnoissances, and completely

ENGAGEMENT AT FRONT ROYAL. THE WHOLE REBEL ARMY EN ROUTE TO CULPEP-

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, FRONT ROYAL, VA., July 26, 1863. To Major General R. C. Schenck:

The major general commanding directs me to acknowledge the receipt of your dispatch, and to inform you that he engaged the enemy at this point yesterday. This morning the enemy appears to have withdrawn, and his whole army is undoubtedly en route to Culpepper and Orange Court House, and probably his rear has passed the Shenandoah at this place and Strasburg.
