AN END TO VICTORIES -The Committee on the Conduct of the War, popularly known as the "Druken Committee," is reported to be domiciled at General Meade's headquarters. There is an and to victories.

To PRESERVE MEAT IN SUMMER .- Coating meat with wheaten flour will retain it sweet for a threefold lenghthened period, even in tropical climates. The flour acts as an insolator against air and moisture.

WALKING UP .- The Susquehanna has been on the rise since Thursday. The water is now some three feet above low water mark, and is in good rafting stage, several-fleets having gone down already. There must have been heavy rains up the country.

THE PRAYER OF THE PEOPLE .-- The prayer of the people now is: Grant U.S. more victories im-Meade-iately. The realization of the prayer depends pretty much upon the length of time which the Committee on the Conduct of the War may choose to spend at the army headquarters.

RETURNING HOME .- The 25th regiment Pennsy!vania Militia, Col. Chamberlin, reached Camp Curtin yesterday, and will scon be mustered out of the United States service. This regiment was raised in Union and the adjacent counties, and was sworn in for the emergency. They have seen some rough active service during the short time they were in the field. The regiment numbers about eight hundred men, two companies of which belong to Lewistown, Millin county.

AT BRANT'S HALL -Hamblin's Combination Troupe made a very successful start at Brant's Hall last evening, the attendance being larger than is usual on the first night of amusements of this kind. The large audience seemed to enjoy the entertainment heartily. The success of this large troupe while here would appear, by present indications, to be well assured. Performances will be given every evening this week, with nightly changeof programme. Matinee for ladies and children on Saturday afternoon.

THE ROYAD WRICH LEAGUERS .--- When the news was flished over the wires that the old Keystone State was invaded, and that her Capital was in imminent danger of being bombarded, the people turned an anxious eye to that secret organization which had arrogated to itself over half the patriotism, two-thirds of the courses, and all the loyalty of the country, in the hope that immediate help and deliverance would come from thence .---We looked to see a call put forth by the loyal and talented President of the Lyague in this place, convening a meeting of the organization, at which our postmaster or some other mule contractor would rise and, with clenched fist, fisshing eye and "woice" of thunder, read some such preamble and resolutions as the following, which would appear in capital letters and italics in an extra Telegraph: "WHEREAS, We have solemnly pledged ourselves to unconditional loyalty to the government (i. e. Lincoln): And whereas, the threatened invasion of our State and the call of the Governor in conse-quence thereof will afford us an opportunity of practical y demonstrating our sincerity in the pro-fession we have made; therefore; "Resolved, 1. That we hereby tender our services to the Governor for six months, and that we call upon the Leagues in the different sections of the country to follow our patrietic example.

"2. That in this way alone can we burl back the vile Copperhead slander that the object of our patriotic order is the elevation of its leaders to office, and not for the defence of the government.

"3. That we urge upon our candidates for nomination to make good their protestations of supe-rior courage and devotion to the Union by rallyiog the several Leagues of the county forthwith, as delay may expose them to ridicule and contompt.

"4. That when we have thus given evidence of courage and patriotiem, we shall no longer be subject to the taunts and sneers of Copperheads, and that we can then claim to be ranked equal to those who never marched in Wide Awake processions under fligs of sixteen stars, and whose patriotism is not of such a doubtful character as to require them to take an oath of loyalty. "5. That as many of our office holders and contractors are over the age of 45 years, we rejoice to learn that, in this emergency, those under 60 years of age will be accepted."

But we looked in vain. Day after day elapsed. and no meeting was held, and not a man or a musket was put into the field by this blatant organization, which had been engaged for months in preaching loyalty, and slandering thousands of heroes who had faced the shot and shell of the Southern traitors, and many of whom had returned to their homes with health bankrupted in the service of their country. No, instead of leaping into the fight, they were scattered along the roads leading from the point of danger, preceded by their plunder and their families. This was League "loyalty," as it was served up during the invasion. True, there were a few of them in whom the sense of shame overcame the promptings of treachery and cowardice; these few shouldered muskets and stood by their homes and professions .---But no regular military organization was formed here by the Leaguers, and none ever will be when Lee's army is on the hither side of the Potomac. Let the Leaguers continue in the course which they adopted at the outset, and not attempt hereafter to take part in the matter of actual warfare, That requires fighting men." These they do not furnish. Every Lesguer here who may be drafted will pay his three hundred dollars, and stay at home to distract and divide the North, and to slander the honest fighting element of the country.

The world by and bye will laugh and sneer at and ridicule the impudence, the poltroonery, the meanness of the men who now go mousing and monthing about the country, prating of loyaly, and calumniating and abusing those but for whose nerve and true patriotism they would long ere this have been the veriest cringing serfs beneath the heel of Jeff. Davis. They may trifle with our sacred Union and bring its holy cause into disrepute for a time yet, but it will be only for a time .--Meanwhile let patricts be thankful that the members of the Lesgue in the army are so few in number that they cannot thoroughly prostitute the sacred cause of liberty.

The TWENTIETH REGIMENT .-- We understood that this regiment of militia, commonly knows as the Custom House Regiment, which has been encamped near Fort Washington for a day or two, was to return to Philadelphia last night. The friends of the 20.h, in connection with the Custom House officials, sent on a beautiful stand of colore, which arrived here in charge of a presentation committee on Saturday night. There were two of the flags-one a regular U. S. regimental standard, and the other a blue flag with a revenue cutter in the centre.

Exit CAPT. DE REU.-Captain Edward De Reu, the "accomplished Hungarian swordsman and fercing master" (that's a quotation from one of our complimentary notices of the Captain) left his quarters at Omit's hotel rather suddenly at two o'clock on Saturday morning. Several gentlemen will have reason to remember "the Captain with his mustache." Among these is Mr. John Sautter, keeper of the beer saloon in Raspberry alley, out of whom the charmer swindled $95, alleging that he was going to Washington to get money due him from the government. He also "came the giraffe" over Richard Elsheid, a tailor doing business in Walaut street, to the tune of $40. When last heard from, the distingue Captain was at the Continental hotel, in Philadelphia, doing well .---Warrants have been issued for his arrest, and we may look for his speedy return to his distressed. and anxious friends.

INFORMATION WANTED .- While the various militia companies which were formed here for service during the emergency, and which were furnished arms and ammunition from the State arsenal, have all returned their arms to the place whence they were taken, it is nevertheless the fact that the negro company, which was organized here and armed from the arsenal, have not turned their muskets and equipments over to the State authorities, but still retain them and have them stored in their church, corner of Tanner's alley and South street. Why is this? Are these "free Americans of African descent" to enjoy privileges not granted to the companies of Captains Awl, Forster. Critzman. Carson and others? May it not be that the colored militia, taking lofty ground upon the "higher law" and the privilege of a superior race, have determined to regist the draft at the point of the bayonet, and that this accumulation and secretion of blunderbusses is a part of the deep laid plot? Who knows?

POLICE AFFAIRS-Before Alderman Kline.-Charles Watson, a soldier, was brought from the other side of the river by officer Cline on Sunday afternoon, charged with having stolen a brace of pistols from some one in the camp over there. The pistols were found, but the leser has not yet apneared to make information. Watson has been committed to prison.

Mary Casey and Emma U:z, two vagrants and prostitutes, were arrested yesterday by officer Campbell, who found them holding court in a gravel pit near the Keystone furnace and close to a camp. Both these turtle doves had just been released from a thirty days' confinement in the Walnut street cage. They were recommitted for a term of thirty days in the "barracoon," for drunkenness, vagrancy and general demoralization.

Henry Cott and another soldier, both belonging to the provost horse guard, were yesterday arrested by cfficer Campbell for riding upon the pavement in State street, and otherwise misbehaving in that vicinity. Both were brought before the Alderman, and were sent under guard to Camp Curtin.

Leonard Kramer, living on Second street, was charged with assault and battery on the person of Henry Harther, a neighbor, and was arrested by officer E.sig. Entered bail to answer at court.

Henry Harther was arrested shortly after by the same officer, charged with selling liquor on Sunday. Defendant entered bail for his future appearance.

John Drunk and John Monaghan, both drunk and disorderly, were caught up by officers Callender and Essig, and sent to prison for four-andwenty hours.

WHAT'S TO HINDER IT ?- The President and Managers of the Harrisburg and Middletown turnpike road company have recently declared a dividend of two per cent. on the capital stock of the said company. What's to hinder them from declaring such a "divy"-or one twice as large, for that matter. They certainly have not been at any considerable outlay since the last dividend in repairing the bridges on the road, filling up mud holes or keeping the road in order generally. while we know that the tolls are faithfully gathered from all unfortunate mortals who are obliged to flounder through all er a portion of that Slough of Despond. In some places the road, which is by courtesy called a turnpike, is hollow like the trough of the sea, and so low that the canal boats near by seem to be sailing over your head. Here and there a little bridge is gone, but, if your horse isn't blind, he may, by dint of good horse sense, get around or over it. Some of the puddles through which you navigate in following the bed of the road abound in excellent catfisheries and bullfrogeries. This was the state of the road two weeks ago. It may have changed for the better, however. If it changed at all, it was certainly GIVE US THE LAWS .- Everybody concerned in the knowledge of the municipal laws is put to great inconvenience by the unusual delay of the parties to whom the contract for printing them was given. These laws have been in the printer's hands since last Spring, and are not yet ready for distribution. That which should have been done in weeks has been delayed for months. Certainly, no sufficient reason can be assigned for such a lame and procrastinating way of doing business. If the contracting parties are not able to fulfill their engagements, they ought to pass the work over to those who can. Better that they should let it go than that the whole community should grope its way along without printed-laws.

From Rev. J Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of Encyclo-pedia of Religious Knowledge. Although not dispused to favor or recommend Pat-ent Medicides in general, through distrust of their ingre-dients and effects, J yot know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple proparation, in the hore that he may thus contribute to the benefit in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit

I am indebted to nay friend, Robert "Rhoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper test, and for encouragement to try them when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bedily and mental vigor which I had net (sit for six months before, and had almost despaired of re-gaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for di-recting me to the use of them. J. NEWTON BROWN. Phi'adelphia, June 23, 1861.
