A "WATER HAUL" IN LITTLE RHODY.—Out of several hundred men drafted at Providence, R. I., only one man has thus far been mustered in. All the rest paid the $300 and got off.

REBEL PRISONERS.—Forty-four rebel prisoners, who were lodged in Camp Curtin day before yesterday, will be sent to Philadelphia this morning. They were taken in the Cumberland valley.

THE Ladies' Relief Society of Harrisburg return thanks to Mr. Hargest and Mr. Wm. Sheesley for baskets of assorted vegetables, also to Mr. Jacob Milleisen for apples, apple butter, and other acceptable articles.

Other contributions are respectfully solicited.

AN INCIDENT OF THE DRAFT.—The Harmonic Society, of Pittsburg, consists of fifteen members, who, previous to the draft, agreed to pay an equal amount each for the purpose of raising the necessary funds to purchase the exemption of such of their members as might be drafted. The result of the draft showed that fourteen out of the fifteen had drawn prizes.

STATE TEACHERS' CONVENTION.—We learn that Major General Franz Sigel will attend the annual meeting of the Pennsylvania State Teachers' convention, which meets in Reading on the 4th of August, and that he is expected to deliver an address. The General is a man of rare scholastic attainments, and has been engaged as a professor and teacher of languages, both in Germany and this country, during the greater part of his life. Being now stationed at the military post at Reading, he can attend the convention without detriment to the military interests.

MUSTERED OUT.—The 28th Pennsylvania Militia, which has been encamped at Fort Washington for the past day or two, was all ready to be paid off and mustered out last evening, and expected to leave for home during to-day. This regiment lately returned from the front, and had a taste of war at Carlisle, Chambersburg and other points along the valley. It is composed of companies from Columbia, Northumberland and Union counties, and is commanded by Col. Joseph Chamberlin, of Lewisburg.

The 172d Pennsylvania militia, (drafted,) Col. Kleckner, and the 26th Pennsylvania volunteer militia, Colonel W. W. Jennings, have also arrived at Camp Curtin recently, and will soon be mustered out of service.

THE THREE HUNDRED DOLLAR CLAUSE.—The Secretary of War has decided that a person who, upon being drafted, provides a suitable substitute, is thereupon discharged from further liability to be called into service; but that if he pays the legal commutation of three hundred dollars he is released only for the time being, and his name remains upon the enrollment list, subject to draft as before. The N. Y. Tribune, in alluding to this decision, says: "We are unable to perceive the reason of this discrimination. An examination of the law discloses no authority for it, and whether judged by the law or by common sense, we deem it unjust. Inasmuch as the same position has been declared not only by the press and people generally, but by a United States Court, it seems to us that Mr. Stanton may reconsider and reverse his decision without loss of dignity, and with manifest advantage. If the money paid by the exempt is, as Judge Cadwalader asserts, 'for the specifically defined purpose of procuring a substitute' in his place, and cannot be used for any other purpose, and is moreover an 'absolute equivalent for a substitute,' it must be presumed that it does in fact supply the government with a substitute. If so, and if thereafter, the exempt who has supplied the substitute is again drafted, one man is made to furnish the government with two soldiers, which clearly was not the intent of the law. Or, if he again pays the commutation, with which the government gets another substitute, he may again be drafted, and so, before the war is over Mr. Stanton may exact from every citizen who is able to enter the service an indefinite number of substitutes — It strikes us that such a construction of the law is neither politic nor just."

POLICE AFFAIRS.—Before Alderman Kline.—Tuesday was a memorable day in police matters. Not a single case came up before Alderman Kline throughout that day. It is to be hoped that it is the forerunner of any number of just such days. The police transactions of yesterday were light, as compared with those of a few weeks past.

John H. Keesberry, a railroad engineer, belonging to Altoona, was arrested by officer Pat. Campbell for committing an assault and battery upon the person of Mary Gilbert, a dweller in South alley. The information sets forth in substance, that John entered the Gilbert domicile, and after being repulsed by the fair occupant in several of his efforts to make himself winning and agreeable, retaliated by administering some very ungentle slaps upon the woman's face. He entered bail to appear at next Quarter Sessions.

The above affair led to a cross-action on the part of Keesberry, the defendant, who made information against the said Mary Gilbert for keeping a bawdy house. She was accordingly brought up by officer Pat. Campbell, and gave bail to appear at court and answer the charge.

The following named gentlemen, who had passed the night in the lock-up for considerations not unconnected with corn-juice and "blue ruin," were brought thence before the magisterial "Tycoon," and, after paying fines and costs so far as they were individually able, were once more allowed the "freedom of the city:"

George Weaver, Joseph Jones, Peter Altheiser, arrested by officer Pat. Campbell; George Gordon, arrested by officer Lloyd; Levi Chaplin, arrested by officer Ensig.

TREMENDOUS RISE IN FIRE ARMS.—A soldier entered Ullman's clothing store yesterday morning, on Market street, and priced a pistol which lay in the show window. The Judean told the Gentile he might have it for $19, and the foolish purchaser took it at that price. Entering the store of Henry Gilbert, near by, a short time after, he found that the same kind of weapon sold there for $10. Mr. G. sent a note to the seller of the pistol, offering him ten of the same kind of pistols at $10 each, and assuring him that he would realize a handsome per centage on the bargain. Complaint was made by the bitten soldier, and the store-keeper, on being brought before Alderman Kline by officer Campbell, made restitution of the money and took back the pistol.

Some people may say that the tradesman had a right to sell his wares at what price he chose, and that the purchaser need not buy unless he saw fit to do so. This is a very narrow and heartless way of looking at these matters. No man has a right to take an unfair advantage of the ignorance or necessities of another, and no community should tolerate a dishonest tradesman in their midst. No decent and useful citizen would dare to take advantage of a child, or even of a simpleton. Such greedy wretches as those of whom we speak should be frowned down and hooted and despised by every one who has a spark of manliness in his composition. Do not patronize these sharks; "avoid them, pass not by them, turn from them and pass away." One operation of this kind ought to damn them completely.

In this connection we might remark that we are apprised of a combination of persons, mostly "old clo'" dealers and ready-made clothiers, having recently come to town and gobbled up all the stores and leases along Market street on which they could lay their hands. They have bought the lease of a large dye house in Market street, for which they pay a heavy bonus; also, have leased the room of a shoe dealer on the south-east corner of Fourth and Market; and for the room of a fruiterer, next door to that, they pay a bonus of four hundred dollars to the lessee. For one-half of an upholsterer's room, for only three weeks, seventy-five dollars is to be paid, &c., &c.

The intention of this combination is evidently to control prices in the city. It will result in injury to us abroad, as well as at home, and it is to be hoped, if any monopoly of trade is contemplated, that the plans and enterprises of these schemers will signally fail.

A SUGGESTION.—The life of a soldier who lies wounded in a hospital is monotonous and irksome in the extreme. Racked with pain, among strangers, homesick and impatient, uncheered by that blessed light and comfort which had once shone upon him from the eyes of the loved ones in that paradise which we call "home," he lies through long hours, his weary eyes vacantly traversing the bare white walls before him. Now, we have a suggestion about those same walls. They are very white and clean, but they are too bare, too blank, too unsuggestive. Any person who has passed a few weeks upon a sick bed knows what we mean; he will remember how the eye wandered over the wall in front of him, and still returned to the weary search after something new—some new and heretofore hidden figure in the wall paper, some new crack, cranny, or flaw in the wall—in short, anything but the old shapes and images which had repeated themselves before his tired gaze for the thousandth time. How much more stale and wearisome to the sufferer must be the prospect of walls utterly bare, with not even a covering of figured paper to tone down their severity. They are as wearisome and unenlivening as a desert, and are a miniature Sahara without an Oasis. This defect in our hospitals could be remedied by embellishing the walls with paintings, portraits, &c., of all sizes and descriptions. We suggest that those of our readers who have a collection of such pictures should loan them temporarily to the nearest hospital. They would not be injured in the least, and would serve a better purpose than they now do while hanging in darkened rooms or stowed away in dusky garrets; they would serve to break the monotony of bare walls and lighten many a listless hour.

NOT IN A HURRY.—The author of the following exquisite lines is not in any particular hurry about "pegging out." He expresses in a feeling manner that clinging desire for lengthened years which is so natural to all men, from the jolly alderman up to the weary printer's devil and down to the half starved digger Indian. Although to thousands of mankind life is but an empty thing, a "tale told by an idiot, full of sound and fury, signifying nothing," yet the fewest of us wish that tale to be "discontinued;" all want it to last forever, like that interminable one of Sylvanus Cobb's in the N. Y. Ledger. We don't know the name of the author of this, but give his recapitulation of the reasons which prejudice him against dying during four specified seasons of the year:

I wud knot dye in winter,
When whiskie punchis flo—
When pooty gals air skating
Oar fields of ice and sno—
When sassige meet is phrying,
& hickry nuts is thick;
Owe! who kud think of dighing,
Or even gettin' sick?

I wud knot dye in spring time,
And miss the May moon's beam,
& the pooty songs of the little frogs,
The skylark's airly scream;
When burds begin thare wobbling,
& taters gin to sprout,
When turkeys go a gobblering,
I wud knot then peg out.

I wud knot dye in summer,
& leave the garden sass—
The roasted lam and buttermilk—
The kool plase in the grass;
I wud knot dye in summer,
When everything is hot,
& leave the whiskie jew lips—
Owe! no, I'd ruther knot.

I wud knot dye in ortum,
With peeches fit for eating;
When the wavy korn is gittin' wripe,
& kandidates air treating.
For these and other wreasons,
I'de knot dye in the phall,
& sense I've thort it over,
I wud knot dye a tall.

BRANT'S HALL.—Hamblin's Combination troupe was again honored by a crowded audience last evening, and the entire performance was received with the greatest favor and applause. The Ethiopean acts by W. S. Budworth and Dick Parker caused shouts of laughter. Miss Ada Tesman is a very pleasing and accomplished vocalist. Her ballads were received with marked favor. La Petite Ella and Harry Leslie made a great hit in a Dutch duett. Mr. John Purcell sang the Soldier's Grave in fine style. The dancing—by Miles Frank La Folle, Miss Florence, &c.—was all that could be wished. This troupe is very talented, and we are pleased to record a complete success. To-night a fine programme is given, and the daring Henry Leslie walks the rope across Market street, previous to the performance in the Hall. We advise our friends to turn out and see the Hamblin's.

Dyspepsia and Liver Disease.

Do you rise with a coated tongue mornings, with bad taste in the mouth and poor appetite for breakfast? Do you feel when you first get up so weak and languid you can scarcely get about? Do you have a dizziness in the head at times, and often a dullness, with headache occasionally? Are your bowels costive and irregular, and appetite changeable? Do you throw up wind from the stomach, and do you swell up often? Do you feel a fulness after eating, and a sinking when the stomach is empty? Do you have heartburn occasionally? Do you feel low spirited, and look on the dark side of things? Are you not unusually nervous at times? Do you not become restless, and often lay until midnight before you can go to sleep? and then at times, don't you feel dull and sleepy most of the time? Is your skin dry and scaly? also sallow? In short, is not your life a burthen, full of forebodings?

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whisky or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed. This class of Bitters has caused, and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt: Get One Bottle Hoofland's German Bitters and mix with Three Quarts of good Brandy or Whisky, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medicinal virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market, and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of Hoofland's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

CLERGYMEN,

PHYSICIANS, and CITIZENS,

Testifying of their own personal knowledge, to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this more readily in regard to "Hoofland's German Bitters," prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city because I was prejudiced against them for years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend, Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

J. NEWTON BROWN.
