LANCASTER, July 21, 1863.

THE Telegraph makes no acknowledgment of the falsehood it contained in reference to the residence of the two sons of Judge Woodward. We did not expect it would. It coined and published the lie and means to stick to it. Men who are base enough to invent and circulate a falsehood with malicious intent, never have the manliness or honesty to confess and offer reparation. We may now mention, in refutation of the Telegraph's statement—assigning a western alleging as the reason of their being in the army the fact that they were thus removed from the avil influence of their father—that Lieut. Col. Woodward entered the three month's service in Philadelphia, his father's home, and the other son from one of the north-eastern counties of the State, Luzerne, we believe. With this refutation, we leave the Telegraph to the enjoyment of its base fabrication.

"THE organ of Jeff. Davis at the State Capital has already had the satisfaction of originating a brutal attack on the colored people in that city, and is now engaged in fomenting another. The authorities should hold such individuals to a strict responsibility for the mischief due to their insidious or open teachinga."- Pittsburg Dispatch, July 80.

The Dispatch has uttered many a shameful and miliguant falsehood, but never any baser or more unmitigated than the above. We have held the mirror up before the eyes of the people and exhibited fools and knaves, fanatics and false teachers, administration parasites | petuate the Great Republic.

and treasury thieves-Abolition hypocrites and mockers of law and religion in their true proportions and colors, and possibly the Dispatch may have been a little disconcerted at the figure we presented representing fiself, but this cannot justify it in seeking a mean revenge by a resort of deliberate falsehood. The Dispatch should crave Satan's pardon for stealing his principal weapon of warfare.

A Tory Sentiment.

That paragon of mixed "loyalty" and mendacity, the Telegraph, gives utterance to the following sentiment: Assume some and the land

"If we do not harmonize our differences and concentrate all our forces, the enemies of the Government will succeed in electing Woodward Governor, a result to be estimated as more disastrous to the cause of the country than the defeat of Meade by Lee. Indeed, it would be far better to allow Lee to penetrate Pennsylvania and establish himself in Harrisburg, than to allow Woodward to succeed at the ballot-box and then be inaugurated Governor of the State."

Such a sentiment could come only from the head of a traitor and the heart of a villain. And yet the owner of the paper is Mr. Lincoln's Postmaster and the editor Gov. Curtin's State Librarian. Is it any wonder the people have lost confidence in Executives who employ such dirty tools? Better that Lee had defeated Meade than that Woodward should be Governor! What honorable man-what patriotic citizen will indorse the atrocious sentiment? If there is a single man who has any just claims to honor or patriotism willing to do so; we should like to see him. In the mean time we shall cherish the belief that the owner and editor of the Telegroph-Lincoln's Postmaster and Curtin's Librarian-stand alone in their in Control of the state of terms People of Pennsylvania, inhabitants of Harrieburg, what think you? Would it be better that Lee, the rebel General, had penetrated the State with his armed hordes, and established his headquarters in your capital, than that Geo. W. Woodward-against whose uprightness of character even the tongue of fiendish slander can utter no reprosch—should be elected and inaugurated Governor? Would it be better pullers again insist for the salvation of the your fruitful fields should be trodden under the feet of foemen, your harvests gleaned for the sustenance of rebels while you were left to starve, your towns and cities plundered, if not burned, your country's flag torn down and dishonored, and yourselves subjected to the iron rule of a hostile military power, than that Geo. W. Woodward, an upright, honest, able and patriotic man, should be chosen and inaugurated your Chief Magistrate?

Perish the unholy sentiment, and perish the utterers of it.

This man against whom this envenomed shaft of impotent malice is simed, is a Judge. of the Supreme Court of the State. Neither his qualifications nor his integrity, acting in that high capacity, can be impeached by his worst enemies. The purity of his private life is universally admitted. As a party man he has never been ultra or bitter. From the very commencement of this war he has had two sons in the service of his country, one of whom is now Lieutenant Colonel of a Reserve regiment, and was so badly wounded in one of the Peninsular battles—the ball passing through both legs, badly shattering the bones-that he will be a cripple for life. Both gallant sons, we believe, took part in the battle of Gettysburg, ind did their part in driving Lee from the State. And yet this upright Judge, this estimable citizen, the father of these heroic boys, is represented by the Telegraph as a foe to the nation, more dangerous than the rebel General Lee.

If such baseness as this is tolerated by the people without rebuke, then, indeed, are they "fallen from their high estate," their necks ready for the yoke, and their limbs for the shackles which traitors and fanatics are preparing for them.

Who's Hit Now?

The Pittsburg Evening Chronicle evidently fears that there is not "enough patriotism and common sense" in the country to save it from destruction. It deprecates party strife, and in the following extract, which we take from the issue of the 29th, raps somebody pretty se verely over the knuckles. We suspect that somebody is the editor of the Gazette; but in many respects the strictures apply with equal force to our friend (" who sticketh to us closer than a brother") of the Dispatch. They are both very black Republican papers-a shade darker than the native African—and will, we fear, not take the censure of their more conservative co-laborer in good part. The Chronicle savs : "A glorious destiny is still within our grasp, and it is for the North to say whether that shall be dimmed, imperiled or sacrificed by the most untimely and the most insane of party strifes. We cannot for the life of us understand how any loyal man can, at the present awful crisis of his country's fate, jabber and squabble about politics, and yet we have a disgusting instance of party spirit in this very city at present. A party organ one week denouncing an opposite party as traitors, and the next week covering the honored Executive of this State, who, since the commencement of the war, has most zealously and patriotically devoted his whole time and talents to his country, with the vilest abuse and villification. The matter becomes much worse when the writer of these unseemly and indecent articles is known to be the worst and most dangerous enemy this county has ever had-one who has involved it in debt, in obloquy, and in interminable law complications, and who then basely deserted it in the hour of need that he might exhibit and glorify himself in a high position." In one particular the Chronicle, it strikes us. is mistaken. In a Republican Government no residence to the sons of Judge Woodward, and harm can arise from political argumentation, or even the cultivation of party spirit, if the one is based upon reason and the other kept below the degree of rancor. The real danger to the country lies in the spread of devilish fanaticism, which, radiating from the centre, at Washington, is filling the land with heresy, degenerating public morals, misrepresenting the principles of our Government, and, discarding slike religion, reason and law, is rapidly opening a wide road to destruction. When rampant Abolitionism shall have learned to respect the Constitution, the laws, the motives and opinions of others, and the rights of all; when it shall modify the fierceness of its! tone, and reason rather than demand and de nounce, the danger which the Chronicle approhends will have passed away-men may again differ in politics and yet be friends-and the country will be saved, because reason and patriotism will rule, and, while belonging to different parties, all will unite to uphold and per-

ABOLITION TROUBLES.

The Allentown Democrat gives the following solution of the late freak of the Apolition State Central Committee, postponing the meeting of the State Convention. We have good reason to believe the statements correct—at least they are plausible:

The Abolition State Convention was to have assembled on the 1st of July Their State Committee adjourned it until the 518 of August. The excuse for this action that is given to the public is that so many of its delegates were in the State militia! Yet they have been frequently challenged to name five who are there, and, of course, cannot do it! If they were. there is an abundance of Republican stay athome patriots to act as substitutes for them. The truth about it is, that not withstanding his official message to the Legislature declining to be a candidate for re-election, Governor Curtin has constantly and is now making every effort in his power to obtain a re-nomination. Cameron is bitterly hostile to Curtin, and is working vigorously to defeat him. If the Conven-tion had assembled on the first of July Curtin's re nomination was considered certain. The Committee is under Cameron's control, and he had the Convention postponed by it for the sole purpose of defeating Curtin. That is why the Convention was postponed.

The fight commenced in this way: In order to make a candidate for the discontented ones, Col. M'Clure made a trip to Washington, and arranged with the President to give Governor Curtin a first-class misssion. The President signed a paper guaranteeing any mission in his gift, except England and France. The hero of Chambersburg rushed back to Harrisburg and arranged his elate. This was a short time previous to the meeting of the last Legislature. It was fixed that Mr. Johnson, of Lycoming, should be made Speaker of the Senate, as he was of no account and had no chance for the succession, and that Governor Curtin should resign in May last, and go to foreign lands. By one of those singular political mishaps which confound the best laid plans of men and mice, Col. M'Clure's slate was broken, and John Penny, of Allegheny, elected Speaker. This was a sad blow to M'Clure. He knew that Mr. Penny was the ablest man in the Republican ranks. If Curtin resigned Penny would be nominated in spite of all their machinations. The only resource left was for Curtin to hold on. The clamor has been renewed, and the Republican wireparty that Cartin shall resign before the first of August and accept a foreign mission. Cameron and M'Clure, though pulling different strings, are at the bottom of this last plot. They are determined on slaughtering Curtin. But the Governor is as equally determined not tó resigu. Cameron is striving to bring forward a candidate who was once a Democrat. Judge Strong, of the Supreme Court, (born a Federalist and a Yankee,) once a citizen of Berks and a professed Democrat, but now said to be an Abolitionist, was solicited, but is said to have declined. Judge Thompson was tried but in vain. Judge Grier, it is also told, was tried but not successfully. If the wing of the Republicans who favor these ideas succeed in obtaining a majority of the Convention, we suppose they will find some seedy individual who was once a Democrat, or professed to be, who will accept their nomination. We don't care much who they bring forward, but would rather prefer Curtin. He needs ventilation and thrashing about as badly as any official we ever had in this State, and if he again becomes a candidate he will receive both.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

BY TELEGRAPH.

LATEST FROM CHARLESTON. SUPPOSED CAPTURE OF A BLOCKADE RUNNER-THE SIEGE OF FORT WAGNER CONTINUED -A BATTERY OF HEAVY GUNS ERECTED WITHIN ONE THOUSAND YABDS-FIRING FROM FORTS SUMPTER AND JOHNSON-ABRIVAL OF WOUND-

ED, &C., &C. New York, July 30 .- The steamer George Collins, from Port Royal, with dates to the 25th, has arrived. She passed off Charleston at 10 o'clock on Saturday morning, when the bombardment of Fort Wagner was going on. On the morning of the 26th her officers saw a gunboat steering for Beaufort, with a bark in tow, supposed to be a captured blockade run-

The gunboat Paul Jones also arrived this morning from Charleston harbor for repairs, being leaky and having bursted her 100 pounder. on the 18th, at the 78th discharge. The siege of Fort Wagner was continued. At the time she left General Gillmore had succeeded in erecting a battery of heavy siege guns within a thousand yards of Fort Wagner, and everything was progressing favorably. For Sumpter and Fort Johnson, on James Island, kept up a continued fire on our forces, but the casualties average but about six a day. The troops and the navy were in fine spirits. Among the pas-sengers on the Paul Jones are Commander Cushman, of the Monitor Montauk, and the officers and crew of the Adams' express steamer Augusta Dinamore.

The steamer Cosmopolitan, from Port Royal on the 25th, arrived here to-day with 185 wounded from General Gillmore's corps. Several died on the passage, including J. S. Kreeman, of the 174th Pennsylvania regiment. Among the passengers are Mejor Hicks and Captain Kneer, of the 76th Pennsylvania regiment, both badly wounded.

SECOND DISPATCH. NEW YORK, JULY 30 .- From passengers on the steamer Cosmopolitan, which has arrived, we learn that the principal guns on Fort Wagner have been silenced, leaving only the howitzers for rebel use

Reinforcements are said to have reached Gillmore, together with several two and three hundred pounder Parrott guns.

The rebel officers are excessively exasperated at being attacked by the Massachusetts 54th (colored) regiment. On being asked for the body of Col. Shaw the rebel reply was that he had been buried along with his niggers, Offensive operations are being actively pros.

The New York Tribune's official correspondence from Morris Island says our entire loss in the late assault upon Fort Wagner, according to the official reports, is 1,517. The rebels claim to have buried 650 of them. This extraordinary proportion of killed could only have been reached by the indiscriminate murder of our wounded. One hundred and eight of our wounded are still at Charleston and Columbia. Lbe officers and men of the 54th Massachuseus (colored) regiment will not be given up to us, and unofficial reports say that the negroes have been sold into slavery and the

CINCINNATI, July 30 .- Yesterday morning 'egram's and Scott's forces, numbering about twenty-five hundred, left Richmond, crossed the Kentucky river, and marched to Paris, where they arrived yesterday afternoon, and attacked our force. After two hours the rebels | cease upon such loans, and the money be subwere repulsed and driven away. It is thought they will make a flank movement on that place. A large Union cavalry force is in the rear of the rebels. It is believed that the movement against Paris was for the purpose of destroying the bridge there. Squads of Morgan's men are being brought into Columbue by citizens and the military. There are now 1,300 at Camp Chase. Morgan will be removed to Columbus this morning, and confined in the printentiary. Pegram's forces have retreated towards Winchester, followed by our cavalry. A number of prisoners have been captured.

FROM NEW ORLEANS.

New York, July 30 .- The steamer Matanoras, from New Orleans on the 23d, arrived iere at 4 o'clock this afternoon. Hon. D. C. Baker, of Lynn, Mass., died at New Orleans on the 19th.

Major General Franklin and staff arrived at New Orleans on the 20th. One hundred and forty-six rebel officers from Port Hudson have been sent to New Oreans. The New Orleans Era says the guns and ammunition captured at Port Hudson prove larger han represented by the rebels. The Era of the 23d says reports have been eceived of apparently trustworthy character, stating that Johnson has been severely whipped at Jackson, and that Breckinridge's division was all cut to pieces and the victory of our atmy was complete. The post office has been opened at Port

DEATH OF GEN. STONE. NEW YORK, July 30.—Brigadier General Stone died this morning, from wounds received luring the attack on Fort Wagner.

BY THE MAILS.

News is scarce to-day, and what we have is not of much consequence.

MARTIAL LAW IN MARYLAND. An order was issued under martial law from Gen. Schenck's headquarters, Baltimore on the 29th, assessing $3,000 upon certain individuals, thirty-five in number, residing in the 4th election District, Harford county, Maryland, and known to be disaffected to the loyal government." This tax is to pay the valuation of "two barns and other property," in said district, "burnt and destroyed" for the purpose of deterring the proper officers 14from an enforcement of the enrollment act." The persons assessed are to make payment within three days from the time of notification," and in case of default of payment, an officer will make the collection, and refusal to pay will be followed by arrest, and imprisonment under the directions of the Provost Marshal, "until compliance with the order is enforced." The persons so assessed are said to reside within eight miles of the place where the outrages were committed.

A POLITICAL MOVEMENT.

THE TING OF THE NATIONAL COMMITTEES OF THE DOUGLAS AND BRECKINBIDGE DEMOCRACY. The N. Y. Herald, which always contains

omething new and startling, publishes the following under the head of "News from Washington." It is the very first we have heard of it, and we feel inclined to doubt its orrectness:

"The National committees of the Douglas and Breckinridge Democracy are to have a meeting, either at Milwaukie or Detroit, between the 17th and 28d of next month, to arrange a programme for the approaching Presidential campaigu. It is already agreed to bury the hatchet, and to place the Democratic party thus united upon a war platform. Copper-headism is to be denounced, and resolutions in favor of the integrity of the Union to be adopted. The responsibility of the recent riots in registance to the draft is to be placed where it | where did the enrollment boards get the aurightfully belongs. The present administration is to be ignored, and no comment whatever is to be made upon its action. The negro question is also to be treated with utter silence. The leading Democrats who will take part in this movement are convinced that no | publican. suggestion they may offer will have any weight or influence with the present administration, and they are agreed, therefore, to confine themselves to the marking out of a programme of their own, by which the two wings of the old Democratic party will be completely united and a strong bid made for the support of the conservatives of other parties throughout the loyal States. The movement is of great political importance. The meeting is not intended to be public, but a plan of operations is to be agreed upon which shall settle all differences and bring together, upon a war platform, all the Democrats of the loyal States."

THE CIVIL WAR IN GREECE. Boston, July, 29.—Dr. King writes to the Traveler from Athens, Greece, under date of July 4, as follows:

"I am now in the midst of a civil war. Party spirit and love of rule have at length divided the soldiers and citizens into two hostile bands. and in the streets and squares of the city blood has been flowing. For two days-July 1st and 2d-the battle was incessantly raging, and the sound of guns and cannon told us that the work of death was going on. Yesterday, through the intervention of the ministers of the three protecting Powers-France, England, and Russia-a truce of forty-eight hours was proclaimed, which will end to night or to merrow merning, and the above-mentioned ministers have proclaimed that if fighting commences during the time of the truce, they will all leave the place, go on board the ships, and invite all under their protection to go also, and cut off all communication from a country from which true patriotism seems to be forever ex-

The Provost Marshal of Washington has received orders to commence the draft as soon as possible. This will be on Monday or Tuesday next. The draft will be conducted by districts, there being twelve districts in the city. The apportionment for the district is 3,865, to which will be added 50 per cent. to cover exemptions. This will make in all 5.797 to be drawn. The total number enrolled is 19,327 -14,242 of which are white and 5,085 colored. These figures will necessitate the draft of one out of three and one-third.

A NEW MILITARY DISTRICT.

By an order from the War Department, dated on the 23d inst., the county of St. Mary's, in Maryland, is detached from the Middle Department, and formed into a separate military district. Gen. Gilman Marston, of New Hampshire, is assigned to the command, with his headquarters at Point Lookout.

ASSAULT UPON A DEAFTING OFFICER .- An enrolling officer at Farmington, Maine, was mobbed at his residence on the night of the 22d inst. A correspondent of the Lewistown

Falls Journal writes: They pounded at his door and demanded admittence, saying they understood he was not able bodied, and had come to see for themselves. He refused them admittance, when they began to beat against the door with their clubs, and to throw stones at the house and through the windows. They continued their hellish work till they had nearly or quite demolished every window in the house; then they made a rush against the door and stove i in, and all rushed in. They found their victim in his bed room just putting on his pants, and his wife in hed. They instantly seized him; and after insulting his wife, took him out of doors and stripped him of his pants and shirt, and commenced a mock examination of him. and with shouts and jeers put him on a rail and carried him nearly half a mile, and after forcing him to promise never to vote or talk "Abolition" again, let him go, to wend his way home, insulted, abused, and his liberty of person taken from him, and to find that home almost a mass of ruins, and his wife in all the agony a woman possibly could be in.

UNWARRANTABLE INTERPOLATION .- In the fourth clause of the second section of the Conscription act is the following provision:-"Where there are two or more sons of aged or infirm parents subject to draft, the father, or if he be dead, the mother, may elect which son shall be exempt." In the blank forms of certificates for exemption under that clause, (form 26,) advertised by the board of enrollment, the words, "dependent for support on the labor of my two sons" are interpolated. This interpoemption of one son, even though he or she be not dependent upon him for support. Now thority to make exemption conditional on the needs of the parents, when the law makes no such provision? There is a great deal of stupidity, or a great deal of rascality, or both, in the management of the draft.—Springfield Re-

The first wool sale of the season has been made in Michigan at 50 cents. The wool crop of the State last year was 6,500,000 pounds, and it is estimated that it will be increased the present year by 2,000,000 pounds. The whole wool clip of the country this year will reach 100,000,000 pounds.
