original conscripts go into the army.

Men are bought and sold in New England now just as merchandise. There was a time when the "sale of able-bodied men" used to throw the meek-mannered Abolitionists of Massachusetts into convulsions; but, in those cases, the persons disposed of happened to have black faces. There are no such agonies when white men are brought into the market, as we see by such advertisements as these in the Boston papers: F. P. STEVENS, SUBSTITUTE BROKER -- Contracts for any number of able bodied men, to be furnished speedily at lowest rates, to go to any part of the country, for which a money bond will be given. No money required until they are accepted. Address at the office of the Independent Telegraph Company, Old State House, Boston, Mass.

WHAT GEN. HOUSTON THINKS .- In refence to the declaration of marrial law in Texas by the rebel government, Gen. Houston says:

"For the confederate government to send its military officers to a sovereign State to supersede the governor in the exercise of his authority, as has been done in Texas, (although I have heard of it in no other State.) does not seem to me to be exercising confederate power, but central and absolute power. It may be that this is not a time to discuss these matters. My answer is, the time to discuss the principle of liberty is whenever the rights of the citizen are invaded, or the laws trampled under foot! Acquiescence in usurpation is-slavery! Is necessity urged in behalf of such things? My answer is-necessity is the plea of tyrants, and the exercise of unrestrained will the throne of

This doctrine is correct and foreible, and applies as well here, in the loyal States, as in the confederacy.

"HELP, CASSIUS, OR I SINK!"-The novelty which attaches to the loyal league is about expiring. A few evenings since, a bery of these midnight plotters were heard to say, what can we do to increase the interest in the

We will tell you what to do. Throw open your doors that your den may be ventilated.— Seek the purest fountain that you can find and cleanse your souls of the corruption which hangs like an incubus upon them. Invoke the pardon of your fellow citizens, whom you have entraged by defamation. Appeal to the Constitution of your country for light, that you may avoid in future the atrocities which you have committed in the past. THE GENEALOGY OF REPUBLICANISM .- Garrison's Liberator begat the New York Tribune, and the New York Tribune begat the Irrepressible Conflict; and the Irrepressible Conflict begat the Helper Book; and the Helper Book begat the raid of John Brown; and the said of John Brown begat the Chicago Platform; and the Chicago Platform begat the Rapublican party; but to say what the Republican party begat, Burnside declares "will not be tolerated in this Department," and therefore we dont say it.—Logan (Ohio) Gazette.

The want of really pure Brandy has long been felt in this country, and the opportunity to procure an article of such quality as to supercede the sale and use of the many title compounds so often sold under the name of "Brandy," can be regarded only as a public good.

L. LYON'S CATAWBA BRANDY possesses all the choice qualities of the best imported liquor, and is positively known to be of PERFECT PURITY and of SU-PERIOR FLAVOR.
