PERSONAL.

Mrs. General (Stonewall) T. J. Jackson and her little daughter have been constituted life-members of the Missionary Society of the Methodist church.

STICKING TO HIS WORK.—Major General Grant, it is reported, has never asked for leave of absence, and has never had time to be sick.

Captain Ericsson has lately received the present of a gold "Monitor," twenty-four inches in length, costing seven thousand dollars. It has a miniature calliope attachment which plays four tunes, one of them a national air of Switzerland, Ericsson's native place.

A SUBSTITUTE NEEDED.—A lady has been drafted in Lewiston, Maine. The enrolling officer, in visiting a boarding house, asked for the list of names of the boarders. One of them was Frances Parker, signed Frank Parker. Frank was accordingly enrolled, and is now drafted.

A woman named Fellows died at Salisbury, New Hampshire, on the 17th ultimo, in the one hundred and first year of her age. A Mrs. Eastman, the early playmate and life-long companion of the deceased, who was at the funeral, is in the one hundred and second year of her age.

General S. R Curtis has turned over to the Quartermaster of the United States the camels that were imported to this country by order of Mr. Jefferson Davis, when he was Secretary of War under President Pierce. They have been ordered to be sold at public auction.

HENRY WARD BEECHER, who arrived in England a few weeks ago, has left for the continent. During his stay in England Mr. Beecher has been repeatedly invited to appear and speak on public occasions; he has, however, persistently declined all solicitations of this kind, on the ground that he left America in order to recruit his strength for duty on his return.

The great pin-hunter, the Baron de Sevres, is dead. Amongst the property he left were found two large and heavy boxes, which, by the heirs, were supposed to contain cash, but turned out to be filled with hundreds of thousands of all imaginable kinds of pins. For the last twenty years his regular habit had been to pass along the most frequented streets and places of public resort, and to pick up any pins he discovered on the ground.

MRS. ELLEN M'CAFFERTY, of Chicago, a "young and rather handsome woman," met the enroling officer at her door with flourish of bootjack and carving-knife, and sweetly suggested that if the "infernal Abolitionners" did not leave her house she would accommodate them with "a grave on her own doorstep." Ellen was last heard of seeking surety in the sum of one thousand dollars to answer for her valor before a United States Commissioner.

A FASHIONABLE WEDDING IN WASHINGTON.—The Washington Star says:—"The fashionable people of Washington were in a flutter of excitement a day or two since on the occasion of the nuptials of Carlotta Wilhelmina Mariana Von Gerolt, eldest daughter of his Excellency Baron Von Gerolt, the Prussian Minister, who has represented that country so long and well, and Mr. John Wood, of the British Civil Service in India, who made the acquaintance of his bride in Germany, and where their troth was plighted when they severally left their places of education."

A STATUE OF STONEWALL.—It is understood that the "distinguished" gentlemen who head the movement for expressing in a suitable form the admiration in England for the memory of "Stonewall" Jackson, have nearly completed their plans. A statue in marble, of heroic size, seven feet in height, by Foley, is to be presented to Jackson's native State, (Virginia) to be placed in the capitol or state house at Richmond.
