DRAFT DECISION .-- It is said that three commissioners are to be appointed to revise and codify the various decisions of the Provost Marshal General in relation to the draft.

GOT THEIR MONEY .- The 35th regiment Pennsylvania militia, Colenel M'Kane, were paid off by Major M'Cormick on Friday and left for home the same evening. They were emergency men.

"RAYTHER WARRUM."-Yesterday was another scorcher, the mercury touching ninety-five degrees in the shade. It is to be hoped that the draft to-day will have a cooling effect.

THE THIRTY-SIXTH .- The 36th regiment P. V. M., Col. H.C. Alleman, reached this city fom Gettysburg on Saturday afternoon, and are now waiting at Camp Curtin to be mustered out. The regiment has of late been on provost guard duty in and around Gettysburg, and returns to camp about eight hundred strong. Both officers and men made a fine appearance as they paraded through our streets.

THE DRAFT.-The Provost Marshal begins the process of drafting the quota of this district at 7 o'clock this morning. The proceedings will take place at the Court House, and will be public. There is a platform or scaffold erected in the open air in front of the building, which we understand will be used for the occasion. Some persons contend that this is the original Chicago platform, while others believe it to be an amendment. At all events, it is advisable for able-bodied men to ty and government buildings, &c., are clearly de-"stand from under," for that platform means signated on the plot. Such a map has long been " biz."

PAYING OFF THE ARRIES.—The vast amount of money required for the payment of our armies is illustrated by the figures below. The Paymaster General has distributed funds for the May and une payments, as follows: Rosecran $4,750,000; Grant's, 5,000,000; Burnside's, $2,000,-000; Banks', $2,500,000; Gilmore's, $1,250.000: Foster's, $1,000,000; Schofield's, $1,000,000; Pope's, $750,000, Meade's $6,500,000; to the office of paymasters in New York and New England, including the mustered out troops, $5,500,-000: payments in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, &c., including mustered out troops, $1,750,000; West Virginia and Pennsylvania, $750,000. Total $32,750,000.

Exacted Piery. -The pious Hessian of the Telegraph occupied himself during the President's Sunday in writing a scurrilous and contemptible attack upon the Mayor and Council of this city. The President's proclamation had been published in all the papers throughout the land, and the day set apart for thanksgiving and prayer was well known by every one, and it would have been an act of supererogation on the part of the Mayor to issue any proclemation upon the subject. He might as well be expected to issue one every Sunday morning to let the people know when the Sabbath day arrives.

We deem it quite possible that in the case of the Deacon it might be well to remind him of his duty frequently, lest his easily besetting sin of avarice might lead him into keeping his employees at work on that day (as he did on Thanksgiving, notwithstanding his painfully pious, hypocritical Jeremiad over the sinfulness of our municipal authorities); but as far as the general community is concerned, there is no such necessity. The Mayor and Council have performed their duties too well in this city to need any vindication at our hands: Secure in the confidence of the people, they can afford to let the Hessian dog bark-he dare not lite.

A PROPER REBUKE. On Friday last we noticed a crowd collected at the corner of one of our streets, and upon drawing near to ascertain the cause, we found a military gentleman who had belonged to one of the nine months' regiments just mustered out, holding forth to the surrounding crowd. He said he had always been a Democrat; that if any one had told him a few weeks since that he would ever vote anything but a Democratic ticket he should have resented it as an insult, but that now since Andrew G. Curtin had been nominated he felt bound to throw off his party allegiance and give him a hearty support, and proceeded to give | year, and does not, and never did, pretend to any his reasons at length, exhorting his hearers to follow his example. At this time an old gentleman from the orator's county stepped forward and | for the nine months past, (a fact which I think indignantly exclaimed, "You a Democrat! I have known you all your life, and you have always been is slandering them,) and of course could not be a blatant Abolitionist. You never voted a Democratic ticket, and dare not repeat these falsehoods at home." To this the wordy Curtinite had no reply to make, but sneaked away amid the jeers and leasons from the president of our Loyal League, who, upon the advent of his election, astounded our community by stating that he had been a Democrat for twenty five years.

This patriot entirely misropresents the nine months' men, three-fourths of whom are true Democrats and Union men, unalterably opposed to the ruinous policy of the present administration. No doubt he expects some position at the Lands of Curtin, or was paid for his lying out of the funds raised by the Loyal League. Systematic deception and falsehood are the means by which they expect to carry the next election. They forget that publie virtue still exists, and that the second sober thought of the people is always right, and invariably corrects the errors they may have previously fallen into.

GONE TO POTTSYILLE.—The 52d regiment Pennylvania Militia, Col. William A. Gray, passed through this place from Chambersburg at noon yesterday, on the way to Pottsville. This movement probably is made on account of threatened resistance to the draft in that section. Three or four regiments are now stationed in the Schuylkill mining region, which is the only place in the State where the authorities apprehend any trouble in enforcing the conscription.

DEATH OF AN OLD SOLDIER .- On Saturday, in Bridgeport, died Samuel Himmelright, a soldier of the war of 1812, in the 76th year of his age. The serviving soldiers of the war of 1812 will meet at the bridge this morning at half past eight o'clock, to make arrangements for attending his funeral from his residence in Cumberland county to the burial place at Shupp's Church. An omnibus will be in readiness at the bridge to convey the soldiers to the residence of the deceased, and thence to the place of burial.

TERRIBLE EXPLOSION OF A LOCOMOTIVE.-We learn from a passenger on the evening train that about 3 o'clock on Saturday afternoon the boiler of freight engine No. 264 exploded at Parksburg. forty-four miles th s side of Philadelphia, en the Pennsylvania railroad, with a terrible report.-The fireman, named Watson, was blown almost to atoms, his arms tern from his body and his brains dashed against a tree fifty feet distant. So great was the concussion produced by the explosion, that all the window glass in the town was broken to pieces, and the wood station in the vicinity was demolished. No person except the fireman was seriously injured, although the engineer, who was standing near by, had his shirt stripped clean from his back. The engine was a new one. and was standing near the station house at the time of the acoident.

AT CAMP CURTIN .- The 167th regiment Pennsylvania (drafted) militia, Col. J. D. Davis, arrived at Camp Curtin on Saturday morning, and expect soon to be mustered out and leave for "Alt Berks" Their active campaign during their nine months' service has given to this fine body of men the look and bearing of true soldiers, and we have no doubt they are all they appear to be. They have of late been with the Army of the Potomac on its long marches from the Rappahannock and desperate fighting in this State, and left that army again lying at its old quarters in the Rappahannock region. The 167th numbers about eight hundred

-Since writing the above we learn that the 167th were sent forward to the camp at Reading, where they will be mustered out of the service.

Map of Harrisburg .- We return our thanks to Mr. Hother Hage, Civil Engineer, for a new and excellent map of the city of Harrisburg, as laid out under the direction of the Commissioners for the City Survey in 1860 and 1861. It is one of the most complete and accurate city maps to be found in the country, (and the only one of Harrisburg,) being drawn to a scale of 400 feet to the inch, giving the entire plan of the city, showing the location of the streets not yet opened and the continuation of those partially opened, and having the measurement of all the lots and squares marked down upon them in feet and inches. The names of all the streets and the numbers of the wards are distinctly marked, and all the hotels, banks, churches, schools, seminaries, depots, couna desideratum among us, and should find a place in the house of every citizen. It adds still further to Mr. Hage's already excellent reputation as a draughtsman and engineer.

FATAL RAILROAD ACCIDENT .- Mr. Thomas Matthews, an employee at the government bakery on Chesnut street, was run over and killed at 2 o'clock yesterday morning, at the corner of Third and Mulberry streets, by the Northern Central train from Baltimore. Nothing is known of the circumstances attending the aecident, as he was alone at the time. After the train had passed, a woman in a house near by heard groans in the street, and caused search to be made, when Matthews was found on the track with one leg cut off and his body otherwise horribly mangled. He was taken to a hospital near by, and lived but an hour or two. No inquest had been held upon the body up to 9 o'clock last night, as the coroner lives at Hummelstown and had not arrived-indeed, had not been sent for-up to that time. Mr. Matthews was a young man, and belonged to Philadelphia, where he leaves a wife and two children. His funeral will take place to-day.

We improve this opportunity to protest against the reckless speed with which these night trains run over the down grade from the Cumberland side of the river. They dash through Mulberry street at almost full railroad speed, without engines, with no bells ringing, no large lights shining, and, we understand, without watchmen to warn off the belated and unwary footman. Had the company taken these precautions, Mr. Matthews would not now be lying dead in the prime of manhood.

[Communicated]

MR. EDITOR :- An article purporting to be a communication, but which probably found its origin in the skull of the proprietor of the Telegraph himself, appeared in the Friday morning edition of that paper, which contained a gross and most unprovoked attack upon the Fairview brass band. The writer declared the band a nuisance, called for its abatement, and pronounced its music to be horrible, couching his sentiments in low blackguardism and sorry attempts at facetiousness. The article concluded by protesting against the music in behalf of sundry "sick females," who suffer greatly from its infliction. These acquainted with the circumstances of this band and the facts connected with its present organization and past history will deem no explanatory statement or contradiction of this slang to be called for in the premises; but for the information of those ignorant of the state of the case, I will merely offer a fact or two, viz:-The Fairview band has not been in practice one musical excellence. All the members of that band have been in the military service of their country could not be safely predicated of the creature who expected to play as well as if they had been in practice all that time.

The band need make no further apology to the public for the indifferent character of their music. hisses of the crowd. This fellow must have taken | They certainly will never ask George Bergner's permission to play when and where they please, seeing that they battled for their country in the field while that hypercritical musical soprano was at home bleeding that same country of postage stamps. We have on all occasions cheerfully done our best when called on by the citizens of Harris. burg, without money or price, and then were very welcome. We shall not disband, but will still try to improve, despite the delicate sensibilities of Deacon Bergner or any other "sick female."

Police Affairs .- Before Alderman Kline .-Johnny Chilton and Juba Mitchell, two lads of rather tender years, were surprised by officer Pat. Campbell while quarreling on Frtday night. They were placed in the lock-up, brought before the magistrate in the morning, and discharged with a reprimand. In the language of the improved version of nursery rhymes:

"Juvenile belligerents, you should never let Your angry pass ons rise; Your youthful hands were never made To tear each other's eyes out-if the court knows herself." George Carney, colored, who had been in the ock-up awaiting a hearing for assaulting and battering Ann Perry, one of the dark daughters of "Judystown," was committed to prison for trial on Saturday morning.

Two drunks-D. Kelly, arrested by officer Campell, and Wm. Avogstine and Pat. M'Ardle, arrested by officer Pat. Campbell-were brought from the lock-up on Saturday morning, and were once more allowed the "freedom of the city."

Joseph Enger, formerly a member of the special police force, was arrected by officer Pat. Campbell on Saturday evening, charged by Barney Campbell with fraudulently obtaining $13.12 from him, by selling him a worthless claim against the city for past services as apecial policeman. Committed for trial.

Frank Oaks, a soldier just out of the lock-up, was sent to jail on Saturday evening for fortyeight hours for committing an assault and battery on a Mrs. Billings, living in South street. Arrested by Pat. Campbell. Robert Fry, constable of the Third ward, was arrested by the same officer, on the same day, charged by Mrs. Matilda Brogan, who lives back of the Reservoir, with entering her lager beer saloon on the 4th of July and abstracting therefrom two licenses, one of them a State and the other a United States license. J. D. Hoffmun became surety in $100 for Fry's appearance at court. John Voglestong made complaint against John M'Demott for striking him with a mace or billy on the 6th inst. A warrant was issued on Satura day night for the arrest of the accused.

Frank Robinson, a colored boy in the employ of Rudolph Breyer, was prosecuted on Saturday by Frederick Haebnlen, clerk of the market, for violating the city ordinance by buying chickens before market hours. Case continued until to-day.

Mary Little, an old offender, was arrested by officer Pat. Campbell on Saturday evening, and lodged in the lock-up over night, whence she was brought before the magistrate yesterday and committed to prison as a vagrant for thirty days. She contested every foot of the ground on her way to the lock-up, and her screams rent the air like the shrick of a calliope or the whire of a 200-pound shell.

George Williams, (alias "Toptoe,") William Watkins and Miss Cecilia Gray, arrested for drunkenness by officer B. Campbell, were discharged from the lock-up yesterday morning.

WHEAT Show .- The only true mode to obtain wheat suitable to the extremes of our climate is to obtain that certainly acclimated. The importations so liberally made by private enterprise and the crude system of the Patent Office have always to run the great expensive and troublesome risk of acclimation, and not one in a dozen of the varieties thus introduced hit. The Patent Office thus distributed many bushels, a year or two ago, of a Maryland white wheat, dubbed "Tappahannock," which was an almost total failure as compared with white wheat grown in the immediate neighborhood of Harrisburg, which before its trial here was well acclimated on the highlands of Centre county. We are therefore very much pleased to call to the notice of our readers that the Mouroe County Agricultural Society of New York, at Rochester, prose to hold a wheat show there on the 8th. and 10th days of Septamber next. They offer the following premiums:

For the best 20 bushels of white winter wheat....$150 For the second best do do.......
For the best 20 bushels red winter wheat...... For the second best do do 50
For the best 2 bushels white winter wheat 50 For the second best do do......
For the best 2 bushels spring wheat.
For the second best 'do do..... do..... 10

Competitors will furnish samples of the wheat in the ear, with the straw attached, about fifty specimens; also a written statement of the nature of the soil where it was grown, the method of cultivation, times of sowing, reaping and harvesting, yield per acre, manures, etc.; also, the name of the variety of the grain. The wheat must be of one variety, pure and unmixed, and the prize will be awarded to the actual grower. Particulars can be obtained by addressing Joseph Harris, President of the Society, Rochester, N. Y.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus centribute to the benefit of others.

in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this more readily in regard to "Hoofland's German Bitters," prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend, Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three battles of these Ritters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bedily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for d'recting me to the use of them.

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Bitters" will cure nine-tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it wil be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debi-ity. Every case of that kind can be read'ly cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. We have no hesitation in stating that if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be haved that otherwise would be lost.

The proprietors are daily receiving thankful letters from suff rers in the army and bospitals, who have been restored to health by the use of these Bitters, sent to them by their friends.
