Conscripts .- It is stated that the number of conscripts now going forward to reinforce the Army of the Potomac is over one thousand a day. The number traveling in the opposite direction is not stated.

DEAD -- We learn that Mr. John Young, who was severely injured by the wheel of a loaded cart passing over his breast and head on Tuesday morning, in North street, died of his injuries on the same afternoon.

$5 REWARD .- A plain gold ring was taken from the vest pocket of one of the boarders at a boarding house on Second street, the first one east of Walnut. The person having the same will please return it to the owner, and no questions will be asked.

SCART OF ROOM .--- The great length of the list of drafted men takes up all our space and compels us to forego the usual variety of local matters. The listr however, will have an absorbing interest to many of our readers, particularly those who have been "gazetted."

"GOAK."-Our local friend across the way, in his police report, speaks of "the intoxicating draught." The draft did seem to have that effect on a large percentage of those drawn. We cannot say that we experienced any disturbing effects from it, although we learn of some who became dizzy soon after their names were called.

WE call the attention of all those who are af. flicted by having got into the droft and are there- William Wilker, age 22, laborer.

COMPLETION OF THE DRAFT IN DAUPHIN COUNTY. -The draft for this county was completed yesterday. The quotas of fifteen sub-districts were drawe, the names of which, and also the names, ages and occupations of the persons drafted will be found below.

11.100

The long agony is over ; that is, it's over with some, and just beginning with others. Those whose names were not taken out may now breathe free and invest their money in five-twenties or whatsoever seemeth best; those whom the fates ordained for sacrifice may draw a long breath, and feel thankful that the suspense is over. The man of means will take it lightly, for he stands secure in the possession of $300; the poor man will look upon it with a sadder eye, but he must "e'en sit down and make the most of it." The drawing for the balance of the 14th district, consisting of the counties of Juniata, Northumberland, Snyder and Union, will be resumed

EXEMPTIONS FROM THE DRAFT .- Those persons having legal claims to exemption from the draft can have their cases prepared and presented to the board on application to R. E Ferguson, attorney. at-law, Second street, opposite the Buehler House. Mr. Fergueon is a young man of excellent legal attainments, and those who commit their interests into his hands will find him trustworthy and efficient in all that he undertakes.

RETURN OF THE HAMBLINS .- Hamblin's Combination Troupe, having fulfilled a successful engagement at Lancaster, have returned to this city and will perform at Brant's Hall to-night and the two following nights. The reputation of this troupe is well established, and their performance needs no commendation at our hands. The best of minstrels, comedians and ballet dancers are comprised in their artistic force. They may look for crowded houses during their stay in town.

ADDING INSULT TO INJURY .- The most striking exemplification of this on record is a recent decision of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. in regard to those paying $300 for the purpose of being exempted. It is that a receipt from the Jacob Lenkart, 34, teamster. Internal Revenue Collector, showing that a drafted | John Metz, 22, farmer. man has paid $300 commutation, requires a five cent revenue stamp to be affixed thereto. This is the same as taking up a note against youraclf and paying down an attorney's fee for collection. It is all done upon the good old rule, ",To him that hath shall be given, and from him that hath not shall be taken away even that which he hath."

Police AFFAIRS.-The array of cases on the John M'Elhenny, 25, farmer. police docket is very meagre, and the justices are doing a dog-day business. Crime can't bear up under such a powerful sun-the weather is too many for it-and Vice, like other serpents, becomes blind and stupid in the dog days. We have but nine wilted specimens of petty culprits, all drunks and disorderlies, before Alderman Kline during John Good, 26, farmer. the last for'y-eight hours, viz :
