RECAP.—Substitutes for drafted men freely offered in Washington city at as low a price as one hundred and seventy-five dollars. One substitute, called on to swear that he was not a deserter, replied that he could not do so, as he had deserted from the rebel army. The officer warned him of his danger if he should be captured by the rebels. He coolly replied that they might hang him if they caught him, and was received.

INCENDIARISM.—An attempt was made about one o'clock yesterday morning to fire the carpenter shop of Augustus Sayford, in Raspberry alley, between Locust and Pine streets. Some persons, who happened provisionally to be passing at that hour, saw the flames kindling up along the weatherboarding; they gave the alarm and the fire was soon extinguished. The attempt of the incendiaries was a very deliberate one, as was shown by the fact that they had hauled in front of the building all the carriages standing at a carriage shop near by for the evident purpose of concealing the fire from view until it should get such headway as to defy all efforts at extinguishment. It was by mere chance that their wicked purpose was foiled.

A PICTURE OF SHADY ARISTOCRACY.—In an address recently delivered at Leabester, Daniel Dougherty, Esq., of Philadelphia, who is said to have left the Democratic party because he couldn't get the District Attorneyship of Eastern Pennsylvania, paid his respects to the shady contractors and Union Leaguers, who are piling up fabulous wealth because of their connection with the war. He pictures in glowing colors the heartless and fatal tendency of the age, and hurles a lance of glowing eloquence at the very hearts of those bloated vampires whose thirst for gain is being quenched from the life-blood of the nation, and whose wealth flourishes, like the flowers of Prosperpine, on the brink of hell. He said:

"Grief may shed its bitter tears in the silent chamber, poverty may starve in its hiding-place, the patriot may mourn, but not grief, nor fear, nor feeling seems to dwell in the public mind or touch the public heart. This year has been wild with fashion, hilarity and show. Our Northern cities collapse the past in gorgeous dissipation; more diamonds flash in the glare of the gay saloon; the gentlemen step out in extravagance, and the ladies in full dress powder their hair with gold; dinners, balls and masquerades in ostentation and luxuriance, turn midnight into day; prancing steeds and gaudy equipages carry lighted torches of civility through the dark streets of fashion; a store of jewels, pearls, and precious stones, and the rich goods of Europe and Asia are exposed, are crowded with purchasers, and have doubled sales, though gold touched a premium of seventy per cent; speculators in stocks make fortunes in a day; and palatial mansions and marble dwellings are springing from the earth on every side; resorts of amusement were never so numerous and never so crowded; prize fights excite for a time more interest than the battles of the Republic; thousands of dollars are staked on the favorite of the race; gambling is wide open to every taste of infamy to the young; crime is fearfully on the increase; the poor, the impotent, and men who have, by the basest means, defrauded the laborer, the widow and orphan, bid high their heads, and go unwhipped of justice."

MUSIC IN THE HOSPITALS.—In making a tour through the various military hospitals on Saturday evening, we fell in with a party of musicians, consisting of Prof. Applebaugh, the guitarist and vocalist, and three of his pupils, who were devoting the evening to the work of entertaining the sick and wounded soldiers with music. We followed in their wake and marked the effect upon the hearers. It was beneficial, inspiring, electric. The soldiers received the compliment with hearty demonstrations of enthusiasm, some of them rising and keeping a subdued sort of time to the melody of some lively tune which seemed to spirit them back to the glorious hot-days which they danced at home in the "piping times of peace," and others half rising from sleepless couches and clasping their remaining hand against the chair in token of applause. All were soothed and delighted and showered thanks and good wishes upon the Professor, who had himself learned the wants of a sick soldier by four month's experience.

Many good singers now visit and sing at the hospitals! We feel like calling upon all who are musically gifted to give the hospitals the benefit of their talents. They will be amply repaid by the grateful reception which will be given by their hearers. Neither gods nor men in good health can endure bad music, but a soldier tells us that even that is preferred by a convalescent to the monotony of the sick room. But when the music is "an accord of sweet sounds" produced by the blending of the guitar, the violin and the human voice, such as that spoken of above, the effect is tonic and medicinal, uplifting the soul like a glance into glory.

THE 173d.—The 173d regiment Pennsylvania Militia, having faithfully served out their term of service, left Bristol Station, on the Orange and Alexandria railroad, last week, and arrived at this place on Friday night. They are now quartered at Camp Curtis, where they will remain until mustered out. The regiment went out over 900 strong. It now numbers 749 enlisted men and 37 field, staff and line officers, making an aggregate of 786 men. They spent about eight months at Suffolk and other points in General Dix's department, doing good service in defence of the honored flag of our common country. Lately they have been with the Army of the Potomac, and bore a hand in the momentous struggle with Lee's army at Gettysburg. Both officers and men leave behind them the proud record of true soldiers, who did their duty without flinching and threw their united strength into the mighty contest now waging against treason.

Of this regiment six companies are from Schuylkill county, two from Lebanon, and one each from Dauphin and Philadelphia counties. The following is a list of the regimental officers: Colonel, Daniel Nagle, of Schuylkill county; Lieutenant Colonel, Z. P. Boyer, of Schuylkill county; Major, Grant Weidman, of Lebanon county; Quartermaster, B. L. Eshelman, of Schuylkill county; Surgeon, Horatio G. Worrall, of Philadelphia; with Dr. Long and Barstow as Assistant Surgeons.

A FACT WORTH KNOWING.—In an old file of a Philadelphia paper we find the following receipt for restoring the hair to its original color. If it should prove equal to its profession, we have several silver headed acquaintances who would like to avail themselves of such a convenient mode of being "done brown," or almost any other color:

"A distinguished General (Twiggs) returned from the Mexican war covered with 'glory.' He had, however, two marks of hard service which he would not bid so; they did not come from the war. One was a head as white as wool; the other a premature eruption on his forehead. For the latter he was advised to try a mixture of sulphur, sugar of lead and rose water. In applying it some of the mixture moistened the hair on his forehead, and after while this part of his hair resumed its original color. He then applied the mixture to all his hair, and it became, and it is now, of its primitive sandy hue. He communicated the fact to some of his friends in Washington—especially to some ex-members, who are widowers and seeking for a wife. It has effected its purpose in every instance. It does not dye the hair, but seems to operate upon the roots, and restores the original color."

The receipt is as follows: 1 drachm Sulphur, 1 drachm Sugar of Lead, 4 ounces of Rose Water mixed, shake the vial on using the mixture, and rub the head twice a day for a week, or longer if necessary."

NIXON'S CREMORNE CIRCUS.

MME MACARTE'S EUROPEAN CIRCUS.

First appearance in America.

Madame Macarte has great satisfaction in announcing to the people of this country, that after an absence of several years she will again have the honor of appearing before them.

Among the Royal British Circus is the beautiful kind of English thorough-breds, including the celebrated Mare,

BLACK SWAN, Being the same Troop with which in England, and Scotland, she had the honor of performing before the most refined and numerous audience in every city in the British Realm.

Madame Macarte's Great Act, the VENETIAN CARNIVAL, Will be remembered by those who witnessed her former efforts in this country.

First appearance in America of the

MR. JOHN COOK, The English humorist, known as the most brilliant wit in England, and who has familiarly styled the COMIC MUSE. The elegant folios of this well-dressed and gentlemanly clown will be occasionally directed by the exceedingly comic grotesques of the famous FRENCH PIERROT.

First appearance in America of the

SYRO-ARABIC TROUPE, Comprising Male and Female Jugglers, Acrobats, Contortionists. From among the features of this troupe is the distinguished

Mlle CARROLL, of European and American celebrity. This young and brilliant artiste is acknowledged by all, both in and out of the equestrian profession, to be the most perfect rider of the age.

In addition to the Star Company, the manager has secured an engagement with the renowned Wild

Mr. HEATON STONE, Mr. Stone's feats on horseback are all performed on his naked chest, and he is a bold, hardy, and covering of any kind. His reckless and brilliant leaping over four-barred gates, and other feats, are performed in carrying his son upon his head, and in various other attitudes, are considered the perfection of equestrian art, and have justly attracted him to the distinction of "Champion of the Arena."

S. LATHROP, The Kentuck Model.
