CONSCRIPT'S BENEFIT.—The reader is reminded that E. W. Shell takes a benefit at the Gaities to-night. The performance will be the most varied and entertaining of the season. The fact that Mr. S. was drafted should stimulate his friends to turn out in force.

EIGHTEENTH DISTRICT.—Drafting will begin to-day in the 18th Congressional district, composed of Cambria, Huntingdon, Blair and Mifflin counties. The quota for the district is set down at 1,985, which is to be drawn from a male population of 51,053.

TAKE NOTICE.—The following is an important decision of the Provost Marshal General in reference to the enlistment of drafted men: "If a drafted man has enlisted and been mustered into any regiment previous to being drafted he is not to be proceeded against—if subsequent to his being drafted he enlists and is mustered into any regiment, he is a DESERTER."

DRAFT IN CUMBERLAND COUNTY.—The draft for Cumberland county was concluded on Monday. The first man drafted in the East ward of Carlisle was a negro, and the last the District Attorney. In Mechanicsburg, three preachers were invited to lay aside the clerical robes and don "Unculpsalm's" trappings, and four brothers residing in the same place were also hit.

THE LATEST AGONY.—Linen, cotton, paper and steel collars are now made; and to these vulcanized India rubber collars have been added. The patentee states that suitable patterns may be painted or printed on the collars, either before or after they are cut from the sheet. They may be made white or colored, or embossed. Cuffs and wristbands may also be made of the same material.

PENNSYLVANIA AGRICULTURAL FAIR.—The State Agricultural Fair will take place at Norristown, Montgomery county, Pennsylvania, on the 29th and 30th days of September and the 1st and 2d days of October, 1863. The most liberal arrangements are being made with railroad companies, and some of the important roads have agreed to carry freight free. Excursion tickets will be issued at reduced rates. The premium list is very heavy, and the locality accessible by the Norristown and Philadelphia railroad, and also by the Reading railroad. For particulars, address to A. B. Longaker, Secretary, Norristown, Pa.

THE PICNIC TO-DAY.—The grand picnic of the "knights of the whip" comes off to-day at Hoffman's Grove. It will be decidedly the largest party given this season, and the managers are sparing no pains to make it the most pleasant. Music, with dancing and other innocent sports, will be the order of the day. A line of carriages and omnibuses will run during the day from the corner of Third and Market streets. This morning at eight o'clock as many ladies and children as can make it suit are requested to be in attendance at the above corner, where a band of music will precede the first line of carriages to the grove. Families will be called for in any part of the city by leaving word with any of the managers at the above corner.

ADVERTISEMENT GRATIS.—Some time since the Johnstown Democrat received the following communication from a Royal Leaguer who does a mercantile business in Philadelphia:

DEAR SIR: I have just read your paper, and I do not feel that, as a loyal man, I wish my advertisement in your paper. You will please take it out and send me my bill for payment.

A. H. FRANCISCUS.

It will be seen from the above that Mr. Franciscus desires Democratic merchants to buy their goods at some other establishment. Of course they will do so, as a man who is too "loyal" to advertise in a Democratic newspaper is far too loyal to sell goods to "copperhead" merchants—except at a shoddy percentage. We give him the benefit of a gratuitous notice, and wish him joy of his "loyalty" and dry goods.

HIGH-HANDED PROCEEDINGS.—Yesterday afternoon three mounted guards, belonging to the Continental Troop, now lying at Camp Couch, dismounted in front of John P. Deiker's saloon, corner of Fourth and Walnut streets, and entered it. After drinking beer, they walked away, refusing to pay for it. Mr. Deiker followed them to the street, and took hold of the horse of Corporal White, who had called for the beer. White attempted to draw his sabre, but was prevented by Mr. D. He then reached to the other side of the horse on which he was mounted, took a pistol from the holster, presented it close to Mr. D.'s face, and fired. The cap fortunately did not explode, or the saloon keeper would have undoubtedly been killed. White immediately drew a second time to fire, but by means of outside interference the pistol was averted from its aim and the balls sent whizzing up Fourth street.

A guard had now arrived and attempted to arrest the offender, but he sat with pistol in hand and defied and intimidated them. At length he galloped off down Fourth street, and was pursued by John Voglesong, a citizen, who happened to be riding by at the time. White deliberately turned and fired two shots at his pursuer, after which he kept on his way unmolested. The corporal was finally arrested in the Capitol Grounds, where he was on duty for the day. He was taken by the guard to the lock-up under the Court House. We learn that a warrant has been issued for his arrest and trial by the civil authorities.

[Communicated]

MESSRS. EDITORS:—The shoddy literature which calls you a "tory organ" mistakes a platitude for sarcasm, forgetting that the sentiments of the PATRIOT AND UNION are those of a majority of the people of Pennsylvania, as they will demonstrate in October in a voice so triumphant that not even the obtuse intellect which presides over your antagonist can mistake it.

[From the Harrisburg Telegraph, August 13, 1863]

A communication appeared in the Tory Organ of Wednesday last, written by our old friend A. Boyd Hamilton, Esq., in which he attempts to create a wrong impression in regard to the payment of damages incurred by certain land owners whose real estate had been and still is occupied by the several camps located in the suburbs of Harrisburg. Mr. Hamilton alleges that the Park Association, whose ground is occupied by Camp Curtin, never received any pay, while the actual truth is that there was an award of damages made by a jury, approved by the court, of $4,000. To defray all damages of this character, an item was inserted in the general appropriation bill, providing the sum necessary, when the arrangement and award should be approved by the court of claims and concurred in by the Auditor General of the State. Since Camp Curtin has been vacated by the State authorities, which is more than a year ago, the Park Association have been receiving a monthly rental of $75 from the United States.

So far as Cameron, Colder, Haldeman, Garverich and Oyster, whom Mr. Hamilton alleges "got paid by some process," are concerned, the real facts are, while each of them suffered more than Mr. Hamilton now suffers, neither of them ever received a cent in remuneration.

Our friend Hamilton is usually correct in his statements, but in this instance he could not restrain his strong partisan feeling, and hence he suffered himself to afford the truth a wide berth, in order that he might give credence to a fib, and thus pinch his political adversaries.

The personality of the above extract is no excuse for its mendacity. The assertion that no stockholder in the Park Association has ever received a penny of interest or dividend upon his investment is re-asserted, and for proof, the officers of it allege that they have not now, and never had, money to pay one.

The pardon of the parties is requested whose names are so unceremoniously dragged into a controversy of which they are innocent—(originally they were used to illustrate a great public grievance and point out a mode in which it might be avoided)—but the writer finds it impossible to vindicate the truth without repeating a part of them. So far as Cameron, Colder, Haldeman, Garberich and Oyster are concerned, ample testimony can be had to prove that Mr. Cameron "is satisfied"—Mr. Colder "probably so"—in the damage alluded to that, preceding the occupation of the lands of Messrs. Haldeman, Garberich and Oyster, late in the fall of 1862, an arrangement entire friendly in its character was made with the owners or their representatives, by properly authorized agents of the government; that the first named of these three gentlemen holds a paper signed by Judge Hiester, Mr. Milleisen and Col. Worrall, approved by a United States Quartermaster at Harrisburg, for a considerable sum of money, (the amount it is not necessary to specify,) now or lately in possession of Mr. William M. Kerr, the President of the Harrisburg Bank, the prompter (no one could charge him with being the writer) of the article above; that Mr. Garberich is in the same situation, and Mr. Oyster makes no mystery that such is the fact, as regards himself. This may not be receiving payment in an actual legal signification, yet it is a long step toward it; and "R" is authorized by the gentleman so offensively brought before the public through the agency of Mr. Kerr, to say that he will take an acknowledgment of a like character or form for damages to land and crops, and consider that he has something to base an application upon for an unnecessary and wanton destruction of fences, timber, grass, grain and fruit, done to property entered upon without even asking the owner's consent, and just at the commencement of the harvest of 1863.

This disposes of what concerns the personalities of this question—it was never meant to have any political significance—and "R" may here remark, that if he had a newspaper at his command, he would ask the writer of the elegant extract quoted, and his weak assistant, Mr. Kerr, to go ahead; but, as he has not, declines pursuing the subject in its personal form further. He reiterates that the whole system of rendezvous as at present practiced in the army, especially in this neighborhood, is wasteful and demoralizing to both officers and men, and an outrage upon the private rights of individuals. "R."

NIXON'S CREMORNE CIRCUS.—This popular circus, returning to New York from a successful inland tour, pitches its pavilion on a lot near the Cotton Factory to-morrow, and will exhibit in the afternoon and evening. Since their last sojourn here, a new feature has been added to the circus, the managers having parted with their old troupe of performers and engaged the original Arab troupe of contortionists and acrobats, who have just arrived in this country from Europe, and will make their first appearance before an American audience at Harrisburg. The troupe has attained great perfection in their line. Mr. Eaton Stone and Madame Macarte, the famous equestrians, are still with Mr. Nixon, and need no commendation. Owing to pressing engagements eastward, this circus will exhibit here but one day, instead of two, as first announced.

A MONITOR ON THE "RAGING CANAWL."—A canal boat propelled by steam, hailing from Yankeeland, passed southward through this city yesterday, laden with lumber. Had we been as green as the Indians who first saw C. Columbus sailing his great ship into port, we might have prostrated ourselves before it, and heard in its terrible whistle the voice of the Great Spirit. As it was, all beholders were taken by surprise at its whistle, and locktenders flew to open the wickets with as much alacrity as the gatekeepers flung open the turnpike gates before John Gilpin on the occasion of his famous ride from Islington to London town. The craft made about four miles an hour, moving lightly and "walking the water like a thing of life." When will wonders cease? "Der more as a man lives der longer he finds by dunder un blitzen out." Steam and the rail are revolutionizing the world.

AN OPINION.—The State Central Committee of the Republican party meets in this city this evening. The avant courier from Philadelphia must be Alex. Cummings, of blessed red herring and straw hat memory, as we have noticed him gliding about the hotels like a shadow for the last two days. Yesterday morning he had an interview with his Excellency, the Governor, in Third street. The nature of it did not transpire, but to "a man up a tree," or even one looking out of a third story window, it did not look like a very pleasant one. His Excellency braced himself against a tree box, and looked calm as a summer's morn, while the hero of the Scotch ale gesticulated like a French cook whose frog soup was spoiled. Our opinion is, that whatever the nature of the discussion may have been, his Excellency had the best of it.

CONTRACTS AWARDED.—Among the awards of contracts for cavalry boots, made at the army clothing and equipage office, Philadelphia, on Tuesday, are two to Peter Meyer & Co., of this city—the one of 1,000 pairs at $3 20, and the other of 2,000 pairs at $3.35.

WANTED.—An active boy, in a dry goods store. Enquire at THIS OFFICE.

CORRECTION.—We were mistaken in stating yesterday that Mr. E. Z. C. Judson, (Ned Buntline,) now at the Invalid Camp, formerly conducted a paper called "The Scorpion." He informs us that he has at no time conducted any journal save "Ned Buntline's Own," which was first issued at Nashville, Tennessee.

Mr. Judson first enlisted as a private in the First New York Mounted Rifles, Col. (now Gen.) Dodge, leaving tenantless his "Eagle's Nest" in the wilderness known as "John Brown's Tract." Of that regiment, but 200 men are left out of 1,200.

Mr. J. furnishes us the following, dedicated to Col. Charles M. Prevost, commanding camp, Invalid Corps:

SONG OF THE INVALID CAMP.

BY NED BUNTLINE.

With the helmet on his brow,
And a sabre by his side,
A soldier mounts his gallant steed
To conquer or to die.

Bright as his own good sword
A soldier's fame should be—
Pure as the plume that sits above
His helmet bright and free.

No fear in our breast will dwell,
Or dread that shame may throw
A spot on our blade so bright,
Or our plumes as white as snow.

Among the Royal British Circus is the beautiful Stud of English thorough-breds, including the celebrated Mare,

BLACK SWAN.

Being the same Troupe with which in England, Ireland and Scotland she had the honor of performing before the most refined and numerous audiences in every city in the British Realm.

Madame Macarte's great Act, the

VENETIAN CARNIVAL

Will be remembered by those who witnessed her former efforts in this country.

First appearance in America of

Mr. JOHN COOK,

The English humorist, known as the most brilliant wit in England, and familiarly styled the COMIC MUSE. The elegant follies of this well-bred and gentlemanly clown will be occasionally diversified by the exceedingly comic grotesques of the famous FRENCH PIERROT.

First appearance in America of the

SYRO-ARABIC TROUPE.

Comprising Male and Female Jugglers, Acrobates, Contortionists. Prominent among the features of this troupe is the distinguished

MLLE CARROLL,

Of European and American celebrity. This young and brilliant artiste is acknowledged by all, both in and out of the equestrian profession, to be the most perfect rider of the age.

In addition to the Star Company, the manager has secured an engagement with the renowned Wild Rider,

Mr. EATON STONE.

Mr. Stone's feats on horseback are all performed on his naked Steed, without saddle, bridle, or covering of any kind. His reckless and brilliant leaps over four-barred gates and other barriers, while carrying his son upon his head, and in various other attitudes, are considered the perfection of equestrian skill, and have justly entitled him to the distinction of "Champion of the Arena."

PHYSICIANS, and CITIZENS,

Testifying of their own personal knowledge, to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefit he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this more readily in regard to "Hoofland's German Bitters," prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend, Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

J. NEWTON BROWN.

DELICATE CHILDREN,

Those suffering from MARASMUS, wasting away, with scarcely any flesh on their bones, are cured in a very short time; one bottle in such cases will have a most surprising effect.

PARENTS

Having suffering children as above, and wishing to raise them, will never regret the day they commenced with these Bitters.

LITERARY MEN, STUDENTS,

And those working hard with their brains, should always keep a bottle of HOOFLAND'S BITTERS near them, as they will find much benefit from its use, to both mind and body, invigorating and not depressing.

IT IS NOT A LIQUOR STIMULANT,

And leaves no prostration.

Attention, Soldiers!

AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS.

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Bitters" will cure nine-tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. We have no hesitation in stating that if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise would be lost.

The proprietors are daily receiving thankful letters from sufferers in the army and hospitals, who have been restored to health by the use of these Bitters, sent to them by their friends.
