INCUPRIDENCE OF OPINION.—We must cling te this Godgiven right in all political questions. Without such independence of opinion, well cultivated and insisted upon, no political truth can be successfully explored. No future Sydneys and Russells trained to vindicate with pen, as well as tongue and life, political rights.
Adhere to it, and insist upon its full enjoyment, and political errors can be made to tremble, like Beishazzar and his wassail nobles, when seeing the blazing hand writing on the wall. The right to the expression of individual opinion must be made secure in this republic, or the Government will degenerate into a despotism. In a country like ours, intended to be free and self-governed, it must be the right and duty of men to express boldly and publicly political epinions. This is the sentence that protects and guards every other right. As Euripedes

"This is true liberty, when free born men, having to advise the public may speak free," or as old Milton still more forcibly declares,

"Though all the winds of doctrine were let loose to play upon the earth, so truth be in the field, we do her injury by crippling her, or being afraid of her strength. Let her and false hood grapple. Who ever knew truth put to the worse in a free and open encounter? For who knows not that truth is strong, next to the Almighty; she needs no policies, nor stratagens, nor limitations to make her victorious; these are shifts, and the defences that error uses against her power. Give her but room, and do not bind her when she sleeps, for then ete speaks not true."

How fearfully has this administration mistaken the tone and temper of our people when if supposed by its military power it could crush gut free opinion, or that through the agencies el bayonets it could awe the bold utterances of & free press. The time may come when the majesty of the people may assert itself in vindication and defence of those rights which freemen can only part with at the same time with beir lives .- N. Y. News.

United States Lottery.—Some facetious gentleman has perpetrated the following. The points need no explanation: United States Lottery! Great inducement!
Brilliant Schemes!! All Prizes and ne
Blanks!!! Tickets for this Lottery for either Classes 1 or 11 distributed GRATIS.

No Internal Revenue Stamps required. The drawing of a prize number will entitle the fortunate individual to

- new highly finished musket; 1 bran new suit of clothes;
- pair of shoes and stockings;
- elegant blanket.
- nice haversack and knapsack; I nice cartridge box, with 60 rounds of ammunition: 2 nice tin plate, tin cup, knife, fork and

In addition to this, the holder of the lucky number will have a regular income of $13 per month, and "when this cruel war is over," will receive a capital prize of $100.

With such inducements, the manager hopes is be largely patronized by an appreciating public. This is no humbug, catch penny in stitution, but a genuine lottery, in which the managers will fulfill all they promise. Legalized by act of Congress, approved

March 3, 1863. All prizes cashed by the Provost Marshals the different districts.

Time of drawing will be duly announced, and any one drawing a prize will be immediately notified of the fact.

Colonel J. B. FRY, Manager.

MUTTON VS. PORK .- Physicians recommend mation as the most wholesome meat—the easiest digested, and the best suited to invalids, while pork, as everybody knows, is the most i awholesome meat eaten. In England mutton iss favor te dish, and we apprehend it is to this, rather man to roast beef, that the Englishman . Eas his robust health and rosy complexion. eat too much pork mation. And yet, as a contemporary well remarks, "mutton can be produced pound for round at less than half the price of pork; yields more nourishment when eaten, and keeping sheep does not exhaust a farm to the extent feeding hogs does. Sheep can be kept during the winter on hay and turnips, or mangle wurtzel, or sugar beet, while hogs will not | THE LARGEST AND BEST ASSORTMEN to without, at least, some corn." We would like to see in the papers fewer accounts of big pige, and more fat sheep.

FALLEN FRUIT .- Never permit green fruit to decay on the soil beneath the trees. In every apple, pear, plum and cherry, which is prematurely cast, there exists a minute insect, which eats its way out in time, and becomes the source of evil to the succeeding crop.

Gather up, and either feed to your domestic animals, or dispose of them in some way which will secure you against the results which must necessarily ensue from neglect. Swine turned into orchards the last of June, and permitted to have access until the fruit is gathered, afferd a good protection against insects by destroying the wormy fruit that produces them.

A MENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION. A JOINT RESOLUTION PROPOSING CER-TAIN AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITU-TION.

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvaric in General Assembly met, That the following amendments be proposed to the Constitution of the Commonwealth, in accordance with the provisions of the tenth article thereof: There shall be an additional section to the third article of the Constitution, to be designated as section four, as follows:

Excrion 4. Whenever any of the qualified electors of this Commonwealth shall be in any actual military service, under a requisition erem the President of the United States, or by the authority of this Commonwealth, such electors may exercise the right of suffrage in all elections by the citizens, under such regulations as are, or shall be, prescribed by law, as fully as if they were present at their usual place of election. There shall be two additional sections to the eleventh article of the Constitution, to be designated as sections eight and nine, as follows: SECTION 8. No bill shall be passed by the Legislature containing more than one subject, which shall be clearly expressed in the title, except appropriation bills.

SECTION 9. No bill shall be passed by the Legislature granting any powers, or privileges, in any case, where the authority to grant such powers, or privileges, has been, or may hereafter be, conferred upon the courts of this Commonwealth.

JOHN CESSNA, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

JOHN P. PENNEY, Speaker of the Senate.

Office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth, Harrisburg, July 1, 1863.

PENNSYLVANIA, 88: I do hereby certify that the foregoing and annexed is a full, true and correct copy of the original Joint Resolution of the General As-sembly, entitled "A Joint Resolution propo-sing certain amendments to the Constitution," as the same remains on file in this office.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the Secretary's office to be affixed, the day and year above written. ELI SLIFER, jy7-law6m Secretary of the Commonwealth.

Physicians.

This admirable article condensed into a compact form, all the substantial and nutritive properties of a large bulk of meat and vegetables. The readiness with which it dissolves into a rich and palatable Sonp, which would require hours of preparation accerding to the usual method, is an advantage in many situations of life, too obvious to need urging. Its highly nourishing qualities combined with its delicacy, renders it invaluable for the sick; while for those in health, it is a perfect substitute for fresh meat and vegetables. It will keep good in any elimate.

jyll NEW YORK. LYON'S PURE OHIO CATAWBA THE OHIO CATAWBA BRANDY has, for several years, been manufactured from the pure juice of the AMERICAN CATAWBA, and ISABELLA GRAPE, and has attained a rare popularity throughout the West and South, where great quantities of this superbarticle is sold for MEDICINAL and FAMILY purposes. It not only equals, but excels the most choice importable BRANDLES in PURITY, QUALITY and RICHNESS OF FLAVOR, and wherever it has been introduced it had invariably met the most unqualified favor and extended invariably met the most unquanted tavor and expenses sale.

The want of really pure Brandy has long been felt in this country, and the opportunity to procure an article of such quality as to supercede the sale and use of the many vite compounds so often sold under the name of "Brandy," can be regarded only as a public good.

L. LYON'S CATAWBA BRANDY po sesses all the choice qualities of the best imported liquor, and is positively known to be of PERFECT PURITY and of SUPERIOR FLAVOR.
