

THE STATE election in California will take place on the 2d of September. A full State ticket and three members of Congress are to be chosen, all of which will be voted for on a general ticket. Since the Presidential election of 1860 the Democrats have been divided, and the Republicans have managed to slip into the offices between the two factions. This year the Democrats have united, and concluded to hitch both horses to the same lead, which makes their success almost beyond a doubt. In 1861 the Democratic vote for Governor combined was 68,034, against a Republican vote of 60,068, leaving a clear majority of over 7,000, which the latter party must overcome to gain success. The candidates for Governor are Hon. John G. Downey, Democratic, and Frederick F. Lowe, Republican, who was a member of the last Congress, and is now Collector of the port of San Francisco, under Mr. Lincoln's appointment. The candidates for Congress are W. Whitesides, Democrat; John B. Weller, Democrat, formerly United States Senator; J. H. Higler, Democrat, formerly Governor of the State; T. B. Shannon, Republican; William Higby, Republican, and Cornelius Cole, Republican. Neither of the three Representatives in the last Congress received a re-nomination.

REGULARS entered the office of the United States Express company, at St. Louis, on Monday night, and reformed the clerk and porter, who were asleep in an ante-chamber, took a pair of revolvers and the keys from under the clerk's pillow, opened the safe, and marched off with fifty thousand dollars in greenbacks, but overlooked a quantity of gold in another compartment. A policeman soon after found the street door open and waked up the sleepers, who nearly went crazy on finding out how they had been duped.

At an auction sale last week in Richmond, Va., the quotations show an extraordinary advance over former prices. Ladies' shoes brought from $35 to $43 a pair; children's from $12 to $20; brogans, $35; hats, from $35 to $52 a pair; ladies corsets, from $30 to $40 a pair; prints, from $3 to $4 per yard; servants' cotton plaid, $2 50 per yard; Mason's blacking, $1 00 per box; linen handkerchiefs, from $2 02 to $3 a piece; cassimeres, fancy, $25 to $20 per yard.

FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS FOR A SUBSTITUTE. Among those who were drafted in New York last week was John Mortimer, pugilistic fame. Upon learning of it, he, being at Saratoga, wrote to his banker to furnish a substitute for him, who must be 5 feet 11 inches high, weigh 185 pounds, and be a courageous man in every sense of the word. To such a one he would pay $5,000.

Quill took his family into the country last week, and all the little Quills (Heaven bless 'em) had a glorious time playing on the grass along with the good-natured big dog who belongs to the premises. A jocular friend, coming across the party, enquired if the mastiff was a member of the family? "No," said Quill, "only a cursory acquaintance!"

QUEEN VICTORIA'S letter forbidding the ladies of England to wear crinolines was copied into many papers as genuine, but it turns out to be a hoax of Punch's, who does not scruple to laugh at royalty and feminine fashions, sometimes.

A soldier of the Army of the Potomac was recently shot for desertion. He had received no pay, his wife and children were starving, and he meant to help them a little and return. He did so to his death.

Mr. Henry Grattan Guinness, who preached with so much eclat during his tour in this country in 1860, has renounced his title of Reverend, and become a Plymouth Brother.

The widow of Gen. Lander has arrived in New York, after several months benevolent attention on the sick at Hilton Head and Charleston.

General Frank Blair is paying a visit to his aged but still strong minded father—he is enthusiastic in his praises of Gen. Grant—who he calls "the great product of the war."

TELEGRAPHIC reports to the Provost Marshal General in Washington indicate that the product of the draft in all the States will not exceed 150,000 men.

MAJ. GEN. ROBERT ANDERSON, the hero of Fort Sumpter, is in Newport, (R. I.) stopping at the Fillmore House. It is said he is to have the command of Fort Adams there.

The identical flag which Major Anderson was compelled to lower at Fort Sumpter is in the hands of Gen. Gilmore, to be run up the moment the fort is recaptured.

The sister of Sir Sidney Smith, the hero of Acre, is still living. She is eighty years of age, but in abject poverty, and by casual charity saved from dying in the work-house.

THERE is a large tobacco field at Hatfield, Mass., for the crop of which New York speculators have offered $40,000.

The Prince of Wales is about to become the purchaser of Newstead Abbey, formerly the seat of Lord Byron.

This firm, having a thorough knowledge of the Pension Business, and being familiar with the practice in all the Departments of Government, believe that they can afford greater facilities to Pension, Bounty, and other Claims, for the prompt and successful accomplishment of business entrusted to them, than any other firm in Washington. They desire to secure such an amount of this business as will enable them to execute the business for each claimant very cheaply, and on the basis of their pay contingent upon their success in each case. For this purpose they will secure the services of Law Firms in each military vicinity throughout the States where such business may be had, furnish such all the necessary blank forms of application and evidence, and furnish printed pamphlet instructions, and draw for dates of service, and furnish with all the necessary names inserted, and upon the due execution of the papers and transmission of the same to them by their local associates, they will promptly perform the business there.

Their charges will be ten dollars for officers and less for privates, for each Pension or Bounty and Back Pay obtained, and ten per cent. on amount of Claims for Military Supplies or Claims for Indemnity. Soldiers enlisted since the late of March, 1861, in any kind of service, Military or Naval, who were disabled by disease or wounds, are entitled to Pensions.
