BAYARD TAYLOR left the Russian Court immediately after the arrival of Cassius M. Clay, and is now spending a few weeks with his wife's relatives at Gotha, Germany. His novel of American social life, "The Strong Minded Woman," is in press, and he is working on a new poem, "The Portrait of St. John," founded on a beautiful Italian legend. Mr. Taylor will visit the lakes of Northern Italy, where the scene of the poem is laid.

THE estimable wife of the late lamented General Lander, is about to return North, to seek repose and strength after her indefatigable devotion to the duties of a nurse in the hospitals of the Department of the South. We understand that government officials speak very highly of her services. She has a beautiful retreat by the sea-side, in massachusetts, where she will probably remain for the present.

SIR THOMAS FITZGERALD, who was famous for flogging, had raised a regiment of pardoned peasantry, which he called the Ancient Irish. He and they were sent on foreign service. On his return he bossted frequently of their bravery, and that no other troops were so forward to face the enemy. "No wonder," said Ned Lyaght, "thanks to your flogging, they were ashamed to show their backs."

NEITHER of the Richmond papers of Saturday, August 15, refers to the execution of Captains Sawyer and Flynn, which was to have taken place on Friday, the 14th; and it is probable that their execution has been quietly postponed. There is not much danger of its being carried out so long as General W. H. Lee and Captain Winder are held as hostages for

MR. KINAHAN CORNWALLIS, whose reported engagement of Mr. Louis Gaylord Clark, to write the "Editor's Table" of the "Knickerbocker Magazine" was mentioned in this paper two weeks ago, has not yet, we believe, conoluded the arrangement; but whether it is made or not, no change will take place in the present editorship and proprietorship of the "Knickerbocker."

EARL RUSSELL is said to be a very indistinct speaker, and an indifferent one. Upon the more exciting topics he drawls provokingly, and a London letter says that one member of the Parliament corps is said to have sent in his resignation, finding it in vain to struggle with an irresistible desire to send an inkstand at the Foreign Secretary's head.

GEN. M'CLELLAN had a narrow escape at Sag Harbor, Long Island, the other day. James Talmadge, a nephew of Rev. S. L. Mershon, of Easthampton, was drowned while bathing in the surf, and General M'Clellan, who was also bathing at the same time, came near being carried away by the under-tow, but, being a good swimmer, he was saved.

PEABODY, the American banker in London, has signified a desire to give Yale College $100,000, for a geological fund. Although Peabody does dot reside in his native country, he does not altogether neglect or forget it, as may be seen by his many acts of munificence to our public institutions.

Mr. Monckton Milnes has been called to the House of Peers by the title of Lord Houghton. This will cause a vacancy in the representation of Pontefract, and Mr. Samuel Waterhouse, Hope Hall, Halifax, is spoken of as the conservative candidate.

FROM a friend who has been visiting Fitz Greene Halleck, Esq., at Guilford, Conn., we are pleased to learn that the genial and pe lar poet is in most excellent health, and that he is quite lionized by the ladies whenever he makes his appearance at the Pavillion.

THE Evansville Journal says stealing is Morgan's second nature, and it would not be surprised if, when death calls for John, on his pale horse spoken of in the Apocalypse, John should eteal his horse, even in articulo mortis.

THE BUKE OF HAMILTON, who lately died in Paris, was a very good-looking man. The Princess Mary of Cambridge was in love with, and wished to marry him years ago, but Queen Victoria would not permit it.

A GAY DESERTER, a Boston Man, sold himself seven times as a substitute. It was just one time too many, and he has been arrested and will be shot.

THE new romance by M. de Lamartine, Fior d'Aliza, is said to be so good that it will occupy, in the nineteenth century, the same place that the "History of Paul and Virginia" occupied in the eighteenth. A LITERARY MINISTER OF STATE .- M. Durny, Napoleon's newly appointed Minister of Education, is an eminent and successful compiler of school books. Ir is rumored that Madame Augusta, who was such a favorite some yeas ago, as a danseuse in our theatrical world, will shortly return to the stage; but in a new speciality. CHARLOTTE CUSHMAN was offered by an American managem fifteen hundred dollars a week, for ten weeks, of Meg Merrilles and Lady Macbeth, but refused. LYMAN TRUMBULL, United States Senator
