UNION SENTIMENT AND SPIRIT IN NORTH CAROLINA. To show what it is within the power of the Federal administration to accomplish by the exercise of a liberal and just policy, instead of the unconstitutional, fanatical policy which they have evidently adopted and declare their intention to adhere to, we subjoin, from the Raleigh (North Carolina) Standard, the proceedings of several meetings held in different portions of that State.

PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING. SUNDAY EXCEPTED. BY O. BARRETT & CO. THE DAILY PATRIOT AND UNION will be served to subscribers residing in the County of Adams, on the first day of the month, for the year 1863, for the sum of $1.00 in advance.

and Congress to make an immediate effort to secure an armistice of six months, with a view to institute negotiations for peace. Every interest of humanity and religion demand peace, for extension of slavery must follow persistence in this wicked war.

Resolved, That we call upon the citizens of the several counties of this State who are favorable to a speedy peace, and are unwilling to see their beloved North State overrun and made a ruin, in case speedy negotiations are not set on foot by the Government to secure peace, to elect delegates to a State Convention, who shall place North Carolina in a position where she can negotiate for herself as a sovereign State.

"COPPERHEADS, ETC." From the Boston Courier. If the term copperhead implies, as we suppose, all those who are not Republicans, then we are, as is well known, a very large proportion in our armies which would certainly come under the designation thus opprobriously applied to them.

"COPPERHEADS" IN THE ARMY. A friend who has just received an interesting letter from the army permits us to make the following extract from it. It shows what kind of men are fighting the battles of the country: CAMP, U. S. Vols., Aug. 23, 1863.

I have written several letters, but can get no answer at all. What is the matter with all the folks? Have they been drafted? They say that there was a riot in Troy a short time ago, and that the Copperheads did it all. I don't know what you and everybody draw up, signed and witnessed to secure his exemption—being under twenty years of age—

Another outrage.—We received information on Monday afternoon of a transaction in which the provost guard has been guilty of another outrage, growing out of the following circumstances:—Elias, son of Robert Ramsey, of Donegal township, was drafted and duly reported himself without arms and property drawn up, signed and witnessed to secure his exemption—being under twenty years of age—

Resolved, That we are in favor of negotiation, and that the people both North and South should at once select the ablest and most unprejudiced statesmen from amongst them to meet in Peace Convention of the two sections, to make an honest, patriotic, christian effort as brethren to put a stop to the present cruel, savage, and unchristian war.
