SECOND CROP. - A gentleman in Belvidere Mass., is likely to have a second crop of Bunce strawberries - some the vines being filled with blossoms and berries. Strawberries in September and October are a rarity.

SUBSTITUTES DESERTING .- A Washington correspondent says that reports down the Potomac continue to report that deserting substitutes are still making their way across the Potomac, and that at some points some of them are in the woods watching an opportunity to cross.

An editor drafted up in New York State breaks out in the following style:

Why should we mourn for conscript friends, Or fear the draft's alarms— Tis but the word that Abram sends To make us shoulder arms.

THE DRAFT IS THE WEST .- The draft is prac-Those States have been authorized, through their Governors, to raise volunteers for the war. In Indiana the work has already commenced. The beunties offered are large, and more troops will be obtained, it is believed, than if the State endeavored to fill its quota by conscription.

LIFE.—It is better to tread the paths of life cheerfully, skipping lightly over all obstacles in the way, rather than sit down and lament your hard fate. The cheerful man's life will spin longer than that of a man who is continually sad and desponding. If distress comes upon us, dejection and despair will not sford relief. The best thing to do when evil comes upon us, is not lamentation, but to rise and make a vigorous effort to seek a remedy.

DR. A. L. ALSTEAD, of this city, lately arrested and imprisoned for causing the death of Louisa Hultzberger, by an attempt to process abortion, was on Saturday discharged on bail in the sum of $5,000. The girl, who died on Friday, gave sufficient evidence before and after her death, to doctors and others attending, to prove that her death was occasioned by medicines, and drugs improporly administered. The jury summoned on Saturday returned a verdict in accordance with the facts above mentioned: at a year of F F 5

THE Sorghum, or Chinese sugar corn proves to be hardier than Indian. The late frests in the Northwest, which out of a large portion of the corn crop, did not touch the Sorghum. Two gallons cane juice are equal to a bushel of corn for fattening cattle, and from 800 to 1,000 gallons can be obtained from a single acre. The Chicago Tribune says that hereafter it is probable the two crops will be produced in equal quantities in the West, the Sorghum for sugar and syrup making, and hog and cattle feeding, and the corn for man's consumption.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING IN WASHINGTON TOWNship.-A letter from a valued friend and sound Democrat, tells us of a great and enthusiastic meeting held on Saturday last, in that sterling old township, Washington. The names of the officers have not been furnished; but the speeches of Messrs. Miller. Lamberton, Auchmuty and Capt. Awl told with great effect upon the audience.-We are told to expect great things from the upper end. They are wide awake and working for vic-

COUNTERPRITE UPON THE GOVERNMENT BANK -

It is proper that the 'public should be cautioned against bills purporting to be upon the Government Bank, which unprincipled people are attempting to put into circulation. They are dated at Washington, and purporting to be payable on demand; and being of a greenish color, they are liable to be mistaken by the unwary for the old rhich have been redeemed and cancelled by the Treasury Department. It is said that they have been passed quite extensively in New York. No such bank exists. An office with the sign "Government Bank" over its door, was some time ago closed by the Provost Marshal of the War Department.

FISH CHANGING COLOR.—"Put a living black burn trout into a white basin of water, and it becomes in half an hour of a light color. Keep the fish living in a white jar for some days, and it becomes absolutely white; but put it into a dark colored or black vessel, and although on first being placed there, the white colored fish shows conspicuously on the black ground, in a quarter of an hour it becomes as dark-colored as the bottom of the jar, and consequently difficult to be seen. No doubt this facility of adapting its color to the bottom of the water in which it lives is of the greatest service to the fish in protecting it from its numerous enemies. All anglers must have observed that in every stream the trout are very much of the same color as the gravel or sand on which they live.

A BRAVE FELLOW.—In one of our city hospitals is a young invalid, Chas. F. Weekley, a resident of Emmitsburg, Md., who, during the late raid in Cumberland Valley, gave evidence of his being possessed of undoubted bravery. Just before the battle of Gettysburg, the 12th regiment of Massachusetts volunteers passed his father's house. Being previously informed in regard to the condition of effairs, and of the conflict which was likely to follow, he quickly resolved to join them. Taking time only for a hasty parting farewell, which, as results show, was well nigh being his last, he rushed into the ranks. He was there provided by his newly made comrades with a musket and ammunition, and by his fearlessness and skillful use of the former showed that if not practically drilled, he was as good a soldier as any of Whilst in the midst of the battle he was wounded in two places, and was taken from the field in a helpless condition. He was removed from Gettysburg to this city as soon as the state of his wounds would permit.

SUCCOTE, OR THE PRAST OF TABERNACLES, -"After mourning cometh feasting." The Jews having mourned and made atonement for their sins, have new to rejoice for a bountiful harvest. . For the benefit of our readers belonging to the persuasion, we copy a few extracts from the N. Y. Sun, judging from which, some of the synagogues must have been exceedingly handsome. The feast of tabernacle commenced on Sunday evening in all the synagogues in this city. The feast is enjoined in Levit, Ixiii, 83-44. At six o'clock on Saturday evening the synagogues were all filled, and the opening prayers for the day were chanted by the several readers, after which they repaired to the tabernacle in the besement of the building. In the Green street synagogue the Rev. I, S. Kramer officiated, and at the conclusion, the congregation proceeded to the tabornacie, which was hung with branches, as described in that portion of the Bible above referred to, together with specimens of our, fruits and flowers. The ceiling was hung with pamerous solored lanterns, each bearing an American emblem, such as the eagle, the stars and stripes, &c. The Rev. Mr. Kramer, having blessed a goblet of wine and the bread, the people partook of the repast thus prepared for them, the women partaking with the med. When the repast had concluded the Rev. reader said grace, and the evening's ceremonies concluded. The services this morning will begin at 8 o'clock. Sermons will be preached in all the grangogner.

THE CLIMAX OF MEANESS 14The Telegraph of | when they come from cowards and imbedies who Saturday declares, in capital letters, that "if the result of the election in Ohio and Pennsylvania should be adverse to the National Administration, ANOTHER DRAFT must immediately be resorted to," &c., and "submits this fact to the honest consideration of the voters of Pennsylvania. We hope every voter who still claims to be free, or who has the heart and the brains and the soul to be free, will give this fact the "honest consideration" which is asked.

Coming simply from the Tilegraph newspaper, on its own crazy and irresponsible authority, this unmanly and insulting threat would be worthy of no serious attention; but coming from the organ and mouthpiece of Gov. Curtin, and doubtless stamped with the seal of his personal sanction, it challenges the attention, the execration and defiance of a great and deeply insulted people.

One year ago the administration broke faith with the people who were sustaining it with blood tically abolished in Ohio. Indiana and Illinois. | and purse; it violated aworn pledges; it undertook to wage the war on a new basis-not for the restoration of Union and Constitution, as it had sworn to do, but for the annihilation of every Southern State and system, and for the sick and pitiful humbuggery of negro equality and the triumph of nonsensical and impractical Abolition schemes .-In his wild eagerness to apotheosize the everlasting Sambo, the President trampled the Constitution and the laws under his feet, cast away every thought of the old Union and even of common justice to the enemy, and transformed every barracks and fort into grand negro boarding houses, conducted on the Fourierite principle by whining philanthropists, who wore long beards, parted their sorrel hair in the middle, and believed in the mon-sombattant principle. Thus the President, by violating his pledges, disgusted and alienated the friends who were filling his armies; more than two thirds of whom were Demograts. Hageave them virtual nation to quitthat the war was henceforth to be waged for the negro stone, and that his armies should be composed of niggers and Abelitionists. The Domecracy, the great party which has furnished the fighting material for every war in which we have been engaged, accepted the netice-and in two months a draft had to be ordered! No stronger proof is needed that the Conservative men of the country fill our armies, than the simple feet that not two months after the appearance of the Abelition proclamation the enlistments ceased, not half a dezen regiments of niggers and Abelifionists could be recruited in the North, and a draft was ordered by the addle-headed imbedies at Washington. Shame on such statesmanship, such policy! It is enough to damn any party.

Yet the people, ever long-suffering, hopeful and loyal, patiently submitted to that draft, and the second one. They felt that it was opposed to the very genius of our institutions, and that it was cruel because unnecessary. They felt that, had their servants in power regarded them or even listened to them, they would have been spared the humiliation and the suffering entailed by an enferced service in a cause which was simlessand forever hopeless. They shed some natural tears over the sundering of family ties, and the noor man repressed as best he could the indignation which rose in his heart at sight of his weeping wife, over whom and her brood of little ones settled the cloud of grief and want. Yes, the people bore all this-bore it patiently, despite the illconcealed delight which it occasioned to the mercenary Abolition crew who lick at the heel of oppression and grow rich on the life blood of the country, and who saw in this conscription the promise of endless contracts and eternal war-war in which they have never yet drawn sword and never will. The people bore it all, for they felt that the time approached when they could right all these wrongs, and that a sure and peaceful remedy lay within their grasp. That remedy was the ballot. With this they would avenge their wrongs, smite their enemies hip and thigh, and give the reins of power into the only hands that could wage a great war and work out the salvation of a fast falling country.

By the aid of the ballot, the people of the great States of Pennsylvania and New York rolled back the tide of fanaticism last fall, and sounded forth a warning that might well have made the knees of the revelling Belshazzars and jesting Pilates at Washington smite together. But no; with a mind incapable of reading the hand-writing, the President and his wassailers determined to subdue the feemen under him, and compel them to support and minister to his madness. He ordered another draft. That draft is a wretched failure. Even those who advocated it most strongly have taken every occasion to evade it, and not a creature of them has shouldered his musket to make goed his hollow pretence of "loyalty." All men of all parties paid the blood-money or slipped out in some way. Only the poor men, who could not lay their hand on the wherewithal, gave the farewell kiss to their weeping families, and were driven to the field, there to follow the glorious phantom of John Brown's soul in its downward march to "Davy Jones' locker" and national damnation.

And now, neither profiting by these lessons or humbled by its defeats, the administration, through Gov. Cartin, threatens the leng-suffering and sorely tried people of Pennsylvania with another draft, if they do not vote for its favorites and perpetuate its power. They give us the alternative of Curtin or conscription.

Freemen of Pennsylvania! do you hear this? You, who have been humiliated and insulted to the extremest verge of forbearance, who have been dragged from your homes or made tentand and deliver to the collector of commutation and the tax-gatherer, are threatened with yet sorer trials if you dore to vote against Handy Shoddy Andy! Alas, poor people! Do not rebel-do not complain. We say to you, as the Scotch woman said to her husband at the gallows : "Go up, Donaid, my man, and be hangit—the Duke bids you!" Vote as you are bidden. You dare not risk another draft. You have stood two, and you were shorn to the quick. Poor naked wreethes, how dare you bide the peltings of another such a pitlless storm!

How much meaning lies concealed in this desperate and cowardly threat. It is a confession of weakness. It is the raving of a bully who begins to blanch with fear, and grows desperate in his efforts to conceal his treplitation. If is the climax of intense meanacis the some of pusillanimity and cowardice. It is like the threat of the pigheaded George III. that he would destroy our ancestors with bloodhounds, or of Nebuchadnezzar that he would rosst. all who did not worship the image he had set up. The king of Babylon was humbled to the dust, and George the Third, as if blasted by the lightning of heaven, wilted away, and in his last mandlin hours was forced to call us free and independent. Let the administration remember these examples, for "the Lord still liveth and the devil's a fool." Otherwise, if our rulers still harden their hearts against the people and will not leave them free to exercise their constitutional sights, they may be drowned while pursuing them in Red Sea of blood, and sink lower than ever plummet sounded.

To the people we would say, vote right. Do not fear to vote for the only party that can wage a war successfully of the ground of common justice and common , sange. And above all, do notifear the threats, of any created man or thing, particularly dare not face you in the discharge of your duty any more than they dare meet the enemy in the field. Vive la Republic!

SINGULAR COINCIDENCE. - The local of yesterday's Telegraph reports a conversation which he overheard between two "Copperheads" on Sunday, which concluded by No. 2 expressing the opinion that " if Rosecrans whips Bragg, or Meade wins a victory, we will be defeated in Pennsylvania." The same conversation appeared word for word in the Lancaster "Express" of last Friday! We merely mention the fact as a curious coinci dence. It is also a singular coincidence that the stories are both lies. No such talk was overheard by the Lancaster man, or by our evendropping neighbor who steals it and locates it here. He knows he lies when he says he overheard such conversation, and he knows that we know that he knows that he lies. We will pay him ten dollars to name the name of any person who used such language, or even to swear that he knows such conversation occurred. Bah! git sout! You can't even lie without making a botch of it.

PRESIDENT LINCOLN'S preference for the solilo quy in Hamlet, commencing with, "O my offense is rank." etc.' is said to be due to the state of mird he passed through pending his suspension of the writ of kabeas corpus. His offense was indeed rank. Still, as a whole, it is stated, he prefers the play of Macbeth to that of Hamlet. This is thought to be owing in part at least to the oppoeiteness of the following passage which occurs in

Alas! poer country;
Almost afraid to know itself! It cannot

Be called our mother, but our grave; where nothing;
But who knows nothing, is once seen to smile;
Where sight and grouns and shricks that send the air
Are made, not mark'd; where violent sorrow seems
A modern ecstacy; the dead man's knell
It takes scarce saked, for who; and good men's lives
Expire before the sowers in their caps;
Dying, or ere they sinken.

SURGEON-GENERAL HAMMOND. By ordering Calomel and destructive minerals from the supply tables, has conferred a blessing on our sick soldiers. Let him not stop here. Let him order the discontinuance of "Bleeding," and the use of BRAND-

BIR: I was a private in Co. F, 17th Regiment, New York Vols. While at Harrison's Landing and on the Rappahannock near Falmouth, I and many of the Company were sick with bilious diarrhoss. The army Surgeon did not cure us, and I was reduced to skin and bone. Among the Company were quite a number of members who had worked in your Laboratory at Sing Sing. They were not slot, because they used Brandreth's Pills. These men prevailed upon me and others to use the Pills, and we were all cared in from two to five days. There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles; compounded of the cheapest whicky or common rum, coefing from 20 to 40 casts per gallon, the teste disgnised by Anise or Coriander Seed.

This class of Bitters has caused, and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkani. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Acobolic Stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is ereated and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

ficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters.

From Rev. J Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of Encyclopedia of Religious Rnowledge.

Although not dispose a tefavor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus centribute to the benefit of others.

in the hope that he may thus centribute to the benefit of others.

I do this more readily in regard to "Hoofland's German Bitters," prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson. of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for years under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bedily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost desprired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them

And leaves no prostration. Attention, Soldiers:

AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS. We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Ritters" will cure nine-teaths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In this lists, published almost daily in the newsappers, on the arrival of the clock, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debidity. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofsend's German Bitters. We have no hesitation in stating that if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise would be lost.
