Nor Entitled to Bounty .- The Second Auditor has decided that an officer promoted from the ranks, who has not served two years as an enlisted man, is not entitled to the sum of $100 government bounty, which would have been due him had he served his time in the ranks.

NATIONAL BANK AT BETHLEHEN .--- A number of leading citizens of Bethlehem, Northampton county, have united for the purpose of establishing a National Bank in that borough. It will have a capital of $100,000, but will go into operation when $50,000 are subscribed. The greater part of the stock necessary to ensure its success has already been taken.

HEAVY GRAND JURY .- A heavy grand jury recently met in Burlington county, New Jersey. Of the whole twenty-four men, the lightest weighed 210 pounds. One weighed 254 pounds, another the number weighed over 250 pounds. The aggregate weight of the twenty-four was 5,886-an average weight of 245 pounds to each man.

ANOTHER NATIONAL BANK .-- We notice that the second national bank of Wilkesharre, Luzerne county, has been duly organized. The capital of $100,000 has been paid in, and the Board of Directors elected, consisting of Thomas F. Atherton, Samuel Hoyt, Abram Nesbitt, A. H. Reynolds, John Sharp, George Corey and M. L. Everett .--Thomas F. Atherton was chosen president, and M. L. Everett cashier.

DEMOCRATIC RALLY IN JEFFERSON .---- A large and enthusiastic Democratic meeting was held at Hoffman's school house, Jefferson township, on Wednesday last. Mr. J. B. Hoffman was called to the chair, and Mr. Jonas D. Deitrich was chosen Secretary. The meeting was addressed in an able and effective manner by John A. Bigler, J. Wesley Awl, Esq., Hon. Wm. H. Miller and J. B. Ewing, Esq. We will hear a good report from Jefferson a week from Tuesday.

POLICE AFFAIRS .- Before Alderman Kline .-A negro named George Stevens was arrested yesterday, together with a lad named John Askins, by officer Campbell, for gambling, rioting and uproarious conduct at a negro rendezvous in Verbeketown. Large numbers of negroes who are unemployed, and generally indisposed to seek employment, are in the habit of collecting in that locality, pitching pennies, rioting, &c., to the great asnoyance of those living in the neighborhood.-Complaint was made to the police, and Barney made a descent upon the gathering, seattering it in all directions and capturing these two. At their hearing they stated that they were blacksmiths, but being out of work for a day or two, had adopted this method of killing time. After a reprimand from the magistrate, they were discharged from further custody.

Joseph Brown was arrested on Thursday night, by officer Campbell, on suspicion of being a burglar. Henry Davis made oath that during the day he saw Brown secrete something under an old sefa which lay in Mr. McCabe's back yard, and that upon examination he found that something to be a complete set of burglar's tools, consisting of keys, lock pickers, nippers, &c. Defendant was committed to prison for a further hearing.

John W. Scott was arrested by the same officer for complicity with Brown. He was seen in company with the latter in M'Cabe's back yard at the time he hid the burglar's tools. Scott was stopping at M'Cabe's. The Alderman did not decm the evidence sufficient to convict him of burglarious intentions, but held him for a further hearing. Both men are from Baltimore, and present a genteel appearance.

We append the usual list of dranks and disorderlies, who, having passed a rather tough night in a not very inviting lock-up, were brought out and discharged yesterday morning:

Nicholas Demos and Joseph Simons, arrested by officer Essig; Michael French, George Smith and Alex. Patton, arrested by officer Campbell, Jacob Carpenter, arrested by officer Stock. All except the last named belong to the colored fraternity.

STILL ANOTHER DRAFT .-- It is announced by those who are in a position to know, that there will soon be another draft. Washington correspondents of administration papers say that the reverse in Georgia compels the Government to raise more troops than it had contemplated. The present draft will not give the Government over 75,000 men, and it is said in some quarters that this is too high an estimate by 25,000 men .--276, one 266, and two each 260 pounds. Eight of | Another draft will undoubtedly take place very soon, except in those districts which prefer to raise their full quota by volunteering. Nearly all the Western States will raise their quotas by volununteers, as the Government offers a bounty of $300. The next draft will probably be for 600,000 men, and the expectation of the Government. under the new instructions, is to obtain one-third of the men drawn as soldiers. The two drafts and the volunteering, it is estimated, will give about 300,000 men by the 1st of January.

So we go. The army in the field is depleted to enforce these drafts, each succeeding one of which will be as barren of results as its predecessor,-Among the requisitions lately made upon the Paymaster General was an item of $500,000 to make a payment to troops in Pennsylvania, most of whom are employed in enforcing the conscription. Thus this large sum of money is paid to soldiers who are employed in other duty than the one for which they enlisted-that of suppressing the rebellion. We will have another draft. It will furnish place and employment to thousands of Uncle Abe's friends. No matter if it does fail to add strength to the army, and thus prolongs the war. It will DRAFT DECISIONS.-It has been decided by the keep an army of provost marshals and underlings Provost Marchal General that drafted men who in office, and thus keep peace in the party. It will

A meeting of the Democratic Club of the First Ward will be held at the public house of Mrs. Erb, corner of Second street and Meadow Lane, this (Saturday) evening, at 7½ o'clock. POSER FOR THE ABS .--- A speaker at a woollyheaded convention asked, "What would we have done if Curtin had not been Governor of Pennsylvania when the rebels came ?" A more pertinent question to have asked would have been, "What would Curtin have done if Seymour had not been Governor of New York?" Would he have taken wing and followed Harry Thomas and Bergner to a place of safety, or would he, like the silly ostrich when pursued, have thrust his head in the sand in the vain belief that he was safe, while at the same time exposed to the assaults of the rebels a posteriori ?

THE GREAT SHOWMAN CONING .- DBD Rice will be here with his great circus on Friday and Saturday, Oct. 9th and 10th. The renowned and cosmopolitan Daniel needs no introduction or commendation at our hands. His fame extends from the Penobscot to the Gulf of Mexico, and from the Atlantic ocean to sundown ; and wherever his fame exists, behold, there also are his friends to be found. He is known as the best humorist in the circus ring, and is esteemed for his generous social qualities. It is not necessary to drum up patronage for him. He will be sure to meet a welcome here as enthusiastic in its way as the one extended to the Japanese or the ovation to the Prince of Whales.

PENNSYLVANIA COAL TRADE.-The coal deliv. ered at tide-water this year now amounts to 6,804,-720 tons, against 5,384,764 tons to corresponding time last year, showing an increase of 1,419,956 tons. These figures do not include the immense inland and home consumption, which, added to that sent to the tide-water ports, would swell the coal production of Pennsylvania to mighty proportions. The coal mines of this State are of more value and importance than the gold placers of California. The demand for coal at the mines is active, and very little stock accumulates at any one of the depots. The prices are higher than ever before, and the retail demand is good. The price of the long ton of prepared Lehigh coal in Philadelphia is $8 40. In Pittsburg, anthracite coal has been stored at $8 per ton. A sale of twentyfive thousand tons was made in New York last week at $8 per ton.

WRONGLY LCCATED .-- In yesterday's paper we gave an account of some rather summary and arbitrary treatment experienced by Mr. John Lynch. of this place, in collecting a debt at Hummelstown. We received the account from a reliable source. but it would appear that our account was incorrect in some particulars and wrongly located. Mr. Lynch informs us that he has not been in Hummelstown for more than a year-that the occurrence which we narrated took place some five miles from that point-and also, that the money which he went for and failed to obtain was not for his services in procuring substitutes, but that it was money which he had lent to the parties who sought to overawe and defraud him. They will speedily he brought to account. We are pleased to make these corrections, not only in justice to Mr. Lynch, but alse to Hummelstown, the reputation of which might be unfavorably affected by the occurrence of such outrages within its limits.

patriots as Forney and other fighting men, and will serve to keep the loyal States in proper subfunded. Those having substitutes in the service | jection and humiliation. Oh, yes ! we must have another draft.

> WRETCHED NONSENSE .--- The Telegraph in speaking of the death of Mr. F. J. Grund, of Philadelphia, says that "another death has been caused by rowdy copperheads." This is lying, pitiful drivel and nonsense. The facts are briefly these: A large procession, headed by a brass band, had just concluded serenading Gen. M'Clellan at the house of his mother, who lived a few doors from Mr. Grund. In coming away, they passed the house of the latter, cheering enthusiastically for "Little Mac" and Judge Woodward.

Mr. G., who had, for some reason, left the Democratic party and made a recanting speech before the Loyal League the night before, was aroused from his slumbers, imagined himself in peril, and fied to the station house for protection from an imaginary danger. Being a phlegmatic man and a high liver, and very timid, he died there of apoplexy induced by fright. No violence was offered or intended to Mr. Grund. His own conscience conjured up all the danger. There is a state of mind in which the traveler "thinks every bush a robber," and there is a class that "flee when no man pursueth." Whether the deceased belonged to that class we can not say, but his death must be charged to his own fright, and not to the band who were lawfully serenading the man who had twice saved his country from overthrow. None but a dirty scavenger would think of making political capital out of such an inglerious death.

ANOTHER PAPER SUPPRESSED -The proprietors and editors of the Baltimore "Gazette," formerly know as the "Exchange," were arrested on Tuesday last for the publication of disloyal sentiments. A guard was sent to seize the establishment. Only one of the proprietors, Mr. Edward Carter, was found there, who was arrested. Mr. Nielson was not found. Mr. Wm. K. Carpenter, editor of the paper, was also absent, and neither have yet been arrested. Michael Kelly and M. B. Piet were arrested by the military authorities for selling the publication entitled, "Fourteen Months' Experience in an American Bastile," by F. K. Howard. The paper was never a very strong one, and its views on national matters always appeared to be as loyal as those of the other Baltimore papers .--It was doubtless "squelched" for reasons which do not appear on the face of the indictment. The affair may be set down as another of Gen. Schenck's brilliant military victories, which, beginning with his locomotive reconnoissance to Vienna, extend through manifold arrests of women, interferences with political meetings at Baltimore, and meddlesome censorship of newspapers, down to this last triumph which we now record.

From Kev. J Newton Brown. D. D., Editor of Encyclo-pedia of Religious Knowledge. Although not disposed to favor or recommend Pat-ent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingre-dients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit in the nope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others. Ido this more readily in regard to "Hoofland's German Bitters." prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for years, under the impression that they were chiedly an alcoholic min-ture?. I am indebted to my friend, Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relie? and restoration to a degree of bedily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of re-gaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for di recting me to the use of them

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Bitters '' will cure nine tenths of the diseases induced by ex-posures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, posures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. We have no hesitation in stating that if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise would be lost. The proprietors are daily receiving theatful letters from sufferers in the army and hospitals, who have been restored to heath by the use of these Bitters, sent to them by their friends.
