RECRUITS.—The number of new recruits at this post for the three years' regiments during the month of September was 187, of whom 160 were Americans and 27 foreigners. The average age of the men was 24 years and 14 days, and the average height 5 feet 7.4 inches.

GREAT SUCCESS .- The Continental Casino is meeting with the most unbounded success. Go. to-night and see the great Haller—see the charming Miss Viola, the danseuse-hear Miss Ada Lawrence, the charming vecalist, and Weaver, the world renowned violinist.

PAID COMMUTATION.—Some eight hundred and fifty conscripts have paid their commutation money in the enrollment district composed of Erie and Warren counties, making the nice little sum of about $255,000. Forney pronounces the draft a "popular measure." The payment of such a handsome sum by those wishing to get clear of it vindicates the correctness of his judgment.

CHESTRUTE.—The late frosts have opened the chestnut burs, and they now appear plentifully at hucksters' stalls, retailing at twelve to fifteen cents per quart, with "a downward tendency." Their appearance is opportune, as they are indispensable for election purposes. The jaws of the politicians must be at work on something, and chestnuts answer the purpose well. Election day without them would be like life without love.

THE MASS MEETING AT CARLISLE .- Should the weather be at all favorable, the Democratic mass meeting at Carlisle to-day will be the largest ever held in that region-and it will be large in spite of the weather. The best speakers in the State will be there. Ample preparations have been made. Excursion trains will leave this city at 8 o'clock a. m. and 1,15 p. m., returning in the evening. A train will leave Carlisle at 7 p. m. Tickets for the round trip, 60 cents.

meeting was held in Derry township on the 5th inst. It was organized by calling George Hockerman to the Chair; Vice Presidents, Messrs. Peter Horts, Martin Shaffaer and Jacob Swartz; Secretary, B. J. Thompson. Addresses were made by Messrs. Miller, Haldeman, O'Brien and Wesley Awl. Many persons were present and listened attentively to the speakers. Such a meeting has not been held in Derry for many years.

IMPORTANT TO NEWS DEALERS.—The following extract from a letter addressed by the acting First Assistant Postmaster General, Hon. St. John B. Skinner, to the postmaster of Boston, is of considerable importance to news dealers and those who receive papers from them by mail: "After careful consideration the Postmaster General has decided that news dealers cannot be classed with publishers in regard to mailing newspapers and periodicals to subscribers at quarterly rates of postage. To entitle such publications to be mailed at the regular quarterly rates, they must be sent from a known office of publication to actual subscribers. The news dealers of the city of New York will not be allowed any advantage over news dealers in other cities in mailing such matter."

"FERNERST" THE "SOLDIER'S FRIEND."-There are some Pennsylvania regiments in the army which evidently have no desire to obtain leave of absence until the 15th inst., and therefore vote about as they please at their informal elections .-A vote was taken in the 84th regiment P. V., (of which regiment Col. Thomas C. MacDowell was formerly Lieutenant Colonel,) in camp near Culpepper, Va. The regiment now numbers about 300 men, and of these 249 voted for Judge Woodward. We'll wager one of Curtin's shoddy blankets that mighty few of that regiment will be furloughed for voting purposes. Most of the soldiers who wanted furloughs were sharp enough to vote unanimously for Curtin at their camp elections .-But these fellows have "gone and done it" and voted as they felt, and as a consequence the 84th boys will be painfully scarce at the polls on Tucsday next.

LECTURE ON AUDREW JACKSON.—The lecture of Rev. J. W. Jackson on Andrew Jackson, delivered at the Locust street M. E. Church on Thursday evening, for the benefit of the Ridge Avenue M. E. Church, attracted a large audience. The leoture was interesting, eloquent and instructive. The speaker seemed to comprehend the character of "Old Hickory," so far as such a powerful, unique and contradictory character is comprehensible and analyzed and portrayed the old here in a manner that showed him to be master of his subject. The lecturer possesses a ready use of language-at times vivid and powerfal, at times playful and humorous, and always happy in expression. He appears to be somewhat of a hero-worshiper, and evinces an admiration of mere arbitrary force and self-will, very much like that which blinds Carlyle to the faults of Cromwell, and im-Pels him to applaud the grim old Protector in his work of rousting his enemies alive in the Tower. That part of the lecture, however, which bears upon the glorious and stormy old hero of New Orleans must prove interesting to the hearer. The speaker suffers himself to be betrayed into many digressions, and in these he ventilates opinions which are foreign to the subject, partisan in character, and offensive to those who entertain political epinions at variance with his ewn. Could Andrew Jackson stand beside him in the flesh during the discourse, his brow would gather blackhess at times, and he would dissent from some propositions, shivering his clay pipe upon the desk in the emphasis of his denial.

THAT BIG TURTLE.—We gave an account the other day, clipped from the Laucaster "Inquirer," of a snapping turtle caught in Pequea township, which weighed 321 lbs! That paper, in correcting us, says :

"We made a note of a large 'enapper' weighing thirty-two pounds, which was shown to us by Mr. Frederick Lutz, of this city. The PATRIOT AND Union, of Harrisburg, copied the article, (without giving us credit, however,) and increased the weight of the 'snapper' to three hundred and ivenly-one pounds! This is what might be called an exceedingly rapid growth."

By reference to his files, our friend will see that we gave the figures as he gave them. We thought it rather a tall turtle story, and it was not without misgivings that we recorded the monstrosity, coming from a paper whose political connections have produced a chronic tendency to exaggeration and wild statement. We suppose our local friend has got into the habit of adding one figure more to the estimated numbers in attendance at Abolition meetings, and was thus betrayed into loading | Price One Dollar.

No. 8. THE ORIENTAL PASTILS are certain, safe a couple of hundred extra pounds on the back of and spe the Peques "snapper." As to the complaint about ing any Irregularities of the monthly periods. Price us not "giving credit" for a mere little statement of fact of this kind, we think it comes with peculiar modesty from one who on the same day "approprintes" two articles of our manufacture without acknowledgment, and whose columns have been embellished with similar uncredited appropriations

"REMEMBER, tax-payers, that in one year the ordinary expenses of the State Government were reduced Ninety-five Thousand Three Hundred and Seventeen Dollars ($95,317) by Andrew G. Curtin!"

The above specimen of lying nonsense has been appearing in the columns of the Telegraph from day to day, displayed in capital letters. Governor Curtin has had nothing at all to do with paying the State debt or managing the finances of the State. A Democratic State Treasurer and a Democratic Auditor General have the finances of the State in charge, and are also Commissioners of the Sinking Fund. This silly attempt to belster up Curtin is too transparent to cheat the people.

Of a piece with this weak and supremely silly nonsense is its other standing announcement that "in two years nearly 300,000 men, to aid in crushing a wicked rebellion, were furnished by Andrew G. Curtin !" They were furnished by the patriotic and loyal people of Pennsylvania, and not by Andrew G. Curtin, or "any other man." Andrew G. Curtin could not of himself furnish a brigadethe soldiers did not culist to serve him, but their country. So little has Andrew G. Curtin to do with the matter, that he dared not, on his own responsibility, raise an army to defend from invasion the State over which he presided, but suffered Governor Seymour to send him his New York treops and put him to shame.

Honors to the Brave. - An incident at the great Democratic mass meeting which was held at Johnstown last week, shows that, in the midst of a bitter and animated contest, the Democracy are still capable of doing honor to the energy and forethought of a political opponent. An immense number of banners and transparencies were carried in the procession. The largest of these contained a picture representing Governor Curtin during the rebel invasion, standing in a street in Harrisburg, making use of those memorable expressions-"What will I do? I am powerless!" From a figure at a distance, representing Gov. Seymour, comes the response-"New York is always ready to assist a sister State!" and from another, representing Governor Parker, comes a shout, "So is New Jersey!" A train of cars stands near, in which the very "loyal" are embarking that which is of more consequence to them than their rights-their goods and trunks. Several packages bore the name of "Bergner." Thus is the stitution, and may be taken by the most delicate female energy and forethought of the valiant Hessian, who hauled down the Stars and Stripes at Lee's approach, and so nobly addressed himself to the patriotic task of saving his movables, immortalized even by admiring opponents.

Swindles Arrested .- Some time in September. 1862, a certain Lieut. Col. Samuel C. Johnston, by means of false pretences and representations, induced Mr. Henry Omit, of this city, to endorse his note for $375, which he got cashed at the Dauphin Deposit Bank. When the note became due, Johnston failed to pay it, and Mr. Omit became liable for the money. He entered proceedings against Johnson for false pretences, and that individual gave bail for his appearance at the next court, and went to Philadelphia. At the chaning term neither the defendant nor his bail appeared. The matter was dropped for the time being, but on Tuesday chief of police Campbell, who was then in Philadelphia, arrested Johnston at the Girard House, on a warrant issued by Alderman Kline. Campbell returned to this city yesterday in charge of the prisoner, and he is now safely lodged in the county prison, awaiting his trial at the next term of court.

THE GREAT SECRET.—It is admitted by all physicians that the grand secret of health

Bleeding may give momentary case, because the blood

left will have more room. But as the body is made from the blood and sustained by the blood, to waste our blood is to waste our life and ruin our constitution. But Brandreth's Pills relieve the circulation as readily as bleeding by only taking away what it can well spare, and they MEVER HURT.

Mrs. Hooper, of Barnstable, Mass., was cured of St. Vitus Dance, General Debility, poorness of blood and costiveness of many years standing, by Brandreth's Pills. The case at length is published in the Pamphlets. For sale in Harrisburg by 07-d&wif

From Rev. J Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of Encyclepedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distruct of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefit the believes himself to have received from any simple reparation, in the hope that he may thus centributure the benefit of others.

Ido this more readily in regard to "Hoodand's German Bitters," prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic misture. I am indebted to my friend, Robert Shoemskey, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bedily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had showed despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.
