DEMOCRATE OF THE SIXTH WARD, ATTENTION. A meeting of the Democratic voters of the Sixth ward will be held at the Morris House this (Friday) evening. Good speakers will be in attend-Correction.—In our notice of the Continental Casino in our yesterday's issue, we inadvertently mentioned the name of F. W. Weber. This gentleman desires us to state that he is in no way connected with the Casino.

A large and enthusiastic meeting was hold at Gainsburg on Wednesday evening, the 7th inst. A delegation from Lancaster county was in attendance. The meeting was addressed by Robert A. Lamberton, Esq., John A. Bigler, Esq., and Captain J. Wesley Awl,

A meeting of the Young Men's Central Demoeratic Club will be held at their hall, Knox's building, Locust street, on Saturday evening, October 10th, at 7 o'clock.

GEO. BAILEY, Pres't. J. A. BIGLER, Sec'y.

ORDERED TO REPORT TO GENERAL BURNSIDE. We learn that Surgeon W. S. King, the efficient Medical Director of the Department of the Susquehanna, has been relieved from duty in this Department, and ordered to report to General Burnside in the same capacity.

SERVED HIM RIGHT.—A chap was detected smuggling liquor to the soldiers at the Carlisle garrison, a few days since, contrary to regulations. After a brief examination, he was tied up to a tree, and afterwards escorted out of the lines, followed by a drummer, who executed the "Rogue's March" on the "double-quick."

REPORTED FOR DISMISSAL.-Major William Biddle, of the Fourth Pennsylvania Cavalry, formerly of Philadelphia, is reported at Washington for dis. | State; but, in addition to his own oath, he must missal from service, if satisfactory defence in his prove, by at least one witness, a qualified elector from the service, we suppose the Philadelphia dailies will give the full particulars in his case.

THE CONTINENTAL CASINO has met with the most decided success. Go and see Haller the great magician, Viola the charming danseuse, Miss Ada Lawrence the pleasing and pretty vocalist, De Marbelle the eccentric comedian and general delineator, assisted by T. A. Molineaux, J. C. Capeau and many others. Go one and all and see the great show.

DISCHARGED .- Capt. W. B. Dick's company of eavalry, which was raised for the three months' service, was mustered out on Monday, its term of service having expired. The company was raised as an independent organization at Mount Pleasant, Westmoreland county, and was composed almost entirely of young farmers from old Westmoreland. who furnished their ewn horses.

Contributions of clothing, fruits, domestic and foreign, farm produce, particularly butter, delicacies, groceries, and whatever may relieve our sick and wounded soldiers, are requested to be left at the store-room of George A. Ogelsby, gas fitter, Second street. A box will be sent to Chattanooga, where the Christian Association of this city have a delegate, and others will be forwarded as stores collect, by a committee of the Association.

MONSTER VESSEL TO BE BUILT .- The keel has been prepared at the Navy Yard, Philadelphia, for a monster steamship, which is to be built in the large shiphouse. She is to be three hundred and forty-five feet long, and to be over four thousand tons burthen. As she is intended for speed, her machinery will be of the most powerful kind. and she will have eight boilers. She will be the largest vessel built at Philadelphia since the famous frigate Pennsylvania.

A BLOCKADE.-The Pennsylvania canal was effectually blockaded opposite the Lebanon Valley railroad depot this morning. The canal boat "Two Sisters," laded with coal, and destined for Columbia, had sunk at this point, preventing the passage of other boats. Through the exertions of two negroes, the water in the boat was partially drawn off, and the craft soon put afloat, and eased off down the canal. Boating is apparently a paying business this fall, and every craft that can be kept above water is freighted with a full cargo and sent over the "waters" to add an additional greenback to the pile of the speculator.

DAN RICE'S CIRCUS.—Dan Rice's great show will visit this city to-day. The advent of the equestrians, gymnasts, acrobats, athletes, etc., this afternoon will be an immense success. The pavilion will be crowded to overflowing, and many will necessarily have to be turned away the first day, unable to gain admission. Therefore, go early for Dan will be there. Who has not heard of Dan Rice? He who comprehends the science of laugh. ter-made-easy, and can extract a pun equally well from the reservoirs of language or the desert wastes of the multiplication table. He is a living thesaurus of native American wit, a work that is always selling, but never is sold. He supplies society with its best sayings, and primes the wit of the household with his newest original jokes. Physicians prescribe his jests for hypochondriac patients, and people whose "blues" are personial. Sextons find him a delightful and effective antidote to over-much melancholy, and statesmen and lawyers look upon him as a wholesome tonic after partaking of indigestible political and legal ideas. Wherever he is known, (and where is he not known?) his success is complete; and his careeralways brilliant-we hope may never diminish in GRAND BALLY AS DANGER. The mass meeting at Cartiele yesterday was large, and its proecedings of the most enthusiastic and inspiriting Margeton . The weather was exceedingly unpromising in the morning, and a dristling rain set in during the forenoon, which must have prevented hundreds from going. But despite the unfavorable state of the weather, the meeting was very largely attended, and as an early hour the streets of Carlists resounded with the tread of thousands of the stausch men of Comberland, who had turned out to attest their unfailing devotion to the Constitution and the Union.

Delegations from the various townships began to arrive quite early, every road leading into the town contributing its stream of men-some mounted, some on wagons, some on foot—until by noon the throng had swelled to the proportions of the Cumberland Democratic gatherings of the olden time. We have no space to particularize, but cannot forbear mentioning the delegation from the Democratic stronghold of Spring Hill township, which was upwards of half a mile in length and was plentifully decorated with banners, wreaths and appropriate inscriptions.

A speaker's stand had been erected in front of the Court House, but, owing to the threatened rain, it became necessary to repair under shelter-A meeting was therefore organized in the Court House, at which the venerable Judge Stewart presided, assisted by numerous Vice Presidents, and which was ably addressed by Hon. William Bigler, Judge Parsons, and others. A second meeting was in progress at the same time in Rheem's Hall, at which eloquent and convincing speeches were delivered by Hon. H. Clay Dean, Hon. C. W. Carrigan and others. Still a third meeting was held in the Market House, where a large crowd was entertained by various speakers. All three places, however, were entirely inadequate to accommodate the multitude, and many who desired to listen were "left out in the cold."

The meeting was characterized by unusual onthusiasm and the best of order. Had the day been propitious, fliere would have been a still greater demonstration; as it was, the meeting was large and struck terror into the ranks of the shoddyites. As evidence of this, we cite the lying dispatch in the Hessian's paper last evening, pronouncing it a "fizzle." No wonder it gave Deacon George the "black vomit." It was an honor to old Cumberland, who promises an unprecedented majority for Woodward, and will redeem her pledge.

WHO ARE ENTITLED TO VOTE. - The Constitution of the State defines the qualification of voters. In the first place, the voter must be a white freeman, twenty-one years old. He must have resided in the State one year. If a qualified voter when he removed from the State, he must reside slx or eight months in it before he votes again. In the next place, he must have resided ten days immediately preceding the election in the election district where he offers to vote. Next, he must have paid a State or county tax assessed at least ten days before the election. After Friday last no voter can be assessed for the next election, but if his name is not on this year's assessment, he can show by receipt that he has paid a tax assessed within two years, and that will enable him to vote, if he is otherwise qualified. White freemen between twenty-one and twenty-two years of age, residing in the State one year and the election district ten days, may vote without having paid a tax, but he must be qualified on oath to his right. For the same reason that he is not required to be taxed, he is not required to be assessed, though we have known assessors to illegally refuse votes of this kind, because there was no assessment. A man's oath is sufficient to establish his residence in the where he offers to vote. If he removes from the district within ten days of the election, he may still vote in it, but cannot vote anywhere else .--An alien may vote who has been legally naturalized. Hiscertificate is the only evidence required, except where he shall have resided ten years in the ward or district, then his oath is sufficient.

THE LATEST STYLE .- The hoop-skirt manufacturers are turning out a new style among their productions. They are making hoops of dimensions so narrow as to puzzle bachelors in conjecturing how ladies get into them. They are of exseedingly small circumference, and the contrast to the out-going fashion is more striking than pleasant. The skirt trails, the hoops are shaped like the glasses suspended to catch the smoke of gas burners. They are bell-like, but at the top very narrow. Hoop-skirt makers are selling their former "blocks" for kindling wood, and using the new shape. Let us hope that the ladies will not adopt them. For doing so Eugenie merits no thanks. Fashion this winter, with its leather trimmings, austere hues and circumscribed drapery, is looking penitential.

FATAL RAILROAD ACCIDENT.-A soldier named Edward M'Carroll, private, company E, 69th regiment Pennsylvania volunteers, while attempting to cross the track of the Lebanon Valley railroad last evening, about nine o'clock, was struck by a locomotive, and fatally injured. One his legs was broken and the other terribly mangled, besides, his hoad was much injured and bruised. He was conveyed to the Chestnut Street Hospital, where he received the best medical treatment, but no reaction setting in, he gradually sank, until death put an end to his sufferings. Mr. M'Carroll formerly resided in Philadelphia, and was on his way to that city, having received a furlough at the Gettysburg hospital, of which he was a patient. His remains were sent to his friends in Philadelphia for interment.

WHAT THE LATE FROSTS HAVE DONE.—The effect of the late frosts upon the crops, we learn, has been very serious in some parts of the State .-Corn, tobacco, sweet potatoes, and other vegetables have suffered, especially in the western counties. The effect of the frost upon the tobacco crop in Kentucky and Tennessee was also very serious, and the result is that prices have advanced in the Louisville market from $3 to $4 per 100 lbs .-Letters from Tennessee and the southern counties in Kentucky state that the tobacco is totally destroyed, with the exception of what has been sut -about one-fourth. But, notwithstanding this destruction of tobacco in a latitude south of Pennsylvania, the tebacco crop of this State will be larger than last year.

MEDICAL BOARD OF EXAMINATION.—A board of medical officers, to consist of Surgeon J. J. B. Wright. U. S. A., Surgeon E. H. Abadie, U. S. A., and Assistant Surgeon J. H. Bill, U. S. A., has been ordered to convene in New York city on the 15th of Ostober, or as soon thereafter as practicable, for the examination of candidates for the appointment of surgeons in the United States army. and of any assistant surgeons for promotion who may be brought before it.

I dettin more readily in regard to "Hoofisad's German Bitters?" Deceared by Dr. O.M. Jackson; of this city, because! was prejudiced against them for years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend, Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bedily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.
