The tokens of a move are not to be misun derstood. Leaves of sheenes and furloughs unless in accordance with General Orders, No. • 62 and 100, War Department, Series of 1862, are strictly prohibited. Nam Springfield rifles have been given to the Ohio soldiers. The sick, hame, halt, and blind, belonging to each regiment are being sent to the General Hospital at-Memphis. Anxiamount of ammunitien and supplies of all kinds "for man and beast," are being shipped to * * * and for this oblect extra trains are brought into requisition. and the cars, running day and night, are all beavily freighted with army stores.

A. E. Carr is in command at Corinth. He said to be a dashing officer, full of pluck, not afraid of rebels, and while kind to all, yet a strict disciplinarian and a lover of the really military. As he comes to us proved, tried and henored, he, of course, has our confidence.— Nothing is more readily given by the loyal soldiery, nothing less likely to be withdrawn. dquarters of the 2d brigade, Colonel August Mersy, of the 9th Illinois, commanding, is at * * * ; that of the 2d division, Brig. Gen. T. W. Sweeny commanding, is at * * ; that of the left wing, Brig. Gen. A. E. Carr commanding, is at * * ; that of the 16th army corps, Major General A. S. Hurlbut commanding, is at * * * . All these headquarters will probably be in their saddles on fiery steeds, in a few days. THE OBJECT of the projected expedition is as yet unrevealed. It evidently means something, for troops from below are constantly arriving to participate in the movement. And as they are from Major General Sherman's corps it is thought that General will have the supreme command of all. It is hinted that we are to advance into * * * , seize * * * , open up * * * as we go along, and open rate in connection with, and support, if neccessary.

THE RESULTS OF ABOLITION PATRIOTISM .-The Vicksburg correspondent of the Chicago Times Writes:

"Among the negroes mortality is on the increase. Whole regiments and camps are being decimated. They die by dozens, scores and hundreds. They literally perish as beasts of the field, with little more attention or sympa-thy bestowed upon them before or after death. The deaths in Colonel Gilchrist's regiment averaged twenty-four per day for some time. It will not number over three hundred to-day, and still disease and death hold high carnival in its repulsive precincts. Other colored regiments and camps are in equally bad condition. Wherever the negroes assemble in camp, pes tilence marks them for her own. Their destimy is being fearfuily accemplished."

That is the product, the net result, of Abolitionism. The philosophy and kindness of the Abolitionists is the greatest cruelty the world

Major General Thomas, to whose corps, it is generally conceded, the salvation of Rosecrans Army is due, is a native of Virginia. He garduated at West Point in 1840. He was brevetted several times for gallantry in Mexico, and during this war at Mill Spring and at Murfreesboro, distinguished himself. He was appointed Maj.-General of volunteers, April 25th, 1862, and assigned to the right wing of Gen. Halleck's Army.

He is thus sketched in the St. Louis Republi-"In person. General Thomas is peculiar.

He is fully six feet high but his figure is so large and square that it seems to rob him of several inches of stature. Sandyish hair; keen blue eyes of medium proportion, sunken under shaggy brows; heavy but firm step—there you have the physical man. He is patient, persevering, even-tempered and energetic. Gen. Rosecrans is said to entertain for him an exalted esteem."

GREAT CHANGE.-In every township and county of the State, honest men are leaving the despotic men who are striving to rovolutionise our form of free government, and coming over to the Democratic side. You can count them in every township-men who have hitherto opposed the Democratic party, but who are now disgusted with the violated promises, and ruinous tendencies of Abolitionism. Let them come, and be welcomed into our ranks. Freemen should talk to their neighbors and wage them to come .- Carlisle Volunteer.
